

Remote Legislative Hearing Process

Overview - Witnesses

Pursuant to House Rule 26, the Chair of a committee may allow a witness to testify remotely when the location of the committee or task force (hereinafter, "committee") has sufficient technology to support remote participation.

Overview – Members

Pursuant to House Rule 25, the Speaker may allow for remote participation by members for committees in three situations: (1) Non-session days: members may participate remotely, including voting, in any committee held on a non-session day, provided the committee location has sufficient technology to support remote participation; (2) Subject matter hearings: members may participate, but not vote, in any subject matter only hearing, provided the committee location has sufficient technology to support remote participation; and (3) Pestilence or public danger: members may participate remotely, including voting, upon a declaration of pestilence or public danger by the Speaker.

Technology

Remote participation in a hearing of a committee shall be conducted through Zoom video conferencing technology administered by the Legislative Information System.

Public Viewing

The committee hearing will be broadcast on the General Assembly's website in one of the Live Virtual Rooms here: <https://ilga.gov/houseaudvid.asp>.

Committee Procedure

The committee chair will call the meeting to order, determine the agenda for the hearing, and maintain decorum. The committee chair will call upon members and witnesses individually to testify. Members and those testifying should remain muted until called upon. All roll calls shall be conducted orally with the video feed of the member viewable to the committee and public. However, traditional voting procedures such as voting with leave of the committee or partisan roll calls may continue to be used with the consent of the Committee.

Decorum

All persons participating remotely in a committee hearing shall abide by the applicable decorum rules and practices of the House. Participants should appear before a nonpolitical, professionally appropriate background.

Members of the public who wish to provide testimony may submit electronic written testimony and/or electronic witness slips in advance of the hearing. To submit a witness slip, please visit the General Assembly Dashboard: <https://my.ilga.gov>.
