SENATE RESOLUTION

2

WHEREAS, The members of the Illinois Senate wish to honor
3 Black women, their accomplishments, and their contributions to 4 the history of the United States; and

5

WHEREAS, Black women have shaped and molded U.S. history 6 in innumerable and irrefutable ways, from the moment they 7 arrived by means of the Middle Passage as slave labor to their 8 arrival in the White House as the vice president of the United 9 States; and

10

WHEREAS, Even in the face of unimaginable racism rooted in 11 our violent origins in America, and continued for over 400
12 years, Black women have risen above their circumstances in the 13 face of adversity, not just to survive but also to thrive, 14 imagine, create, achieve, inspire, and excel; and

15

WHEREAS, Black women have been the bedrock of the 16 community, the foundation of the family, the cornerstone of 17 the Black church, the innovator, the explorer, the 18 entrepreneur, and so much more; and

19

WHEREAS, Instead of accepting discrimination as their 20 reality, Black women have instead built, created, developed,
21 implemented, spearheaded, and maintained guilds, sororities,

1 non-profit organizations, clubs, scholarship foundations,
2 medical associations, and philanthropic affiliations that have 3 uplifted, improved, inspired, and supported multitudes of 4 communities with diverse needs; and

5 WHEREAS, It is time to celebrate "Mama" and the ancestors
6 who taught Black women to be strong, resourceful, and to do
7 good for the greater good; and

8 WHEREAS, Black women nurture, guide, mentor, and inspire
9 as they rise to unimaginable heights, overcoming intentional
10 and systemic barriers; as Black women soar, communities are 11 uplifted, and we all benefit; and

12 WHEREAS, Black women have excelled in all areas of life,
13 including but not limited to journalism, education, medicine, 14 art, law and government, and business; this is exemplified in 15 the lives of Black women who hail from the State of Illinois,
16 such as Dr. Carol Adams, Ida B. Wells Barnett, Rev. Willie
17 Barrow, United States Ambassador and Senator Carol Moseley
18 Braun, Gwendolyn Brooks, Margaret Burroughs, Bessie Coleman,
19 Rev. Johnnie Coleman, Marva Collins, Lorraine Hansbury, Vivian
20 Harsh, Jennifer Hudson, Mahalia Jackson, Mae Jemison, Jackie
21 Joyner-Kersey, Chaka Khan, Annie Turnbo Malone, Mamie Till
22 Mobley, Diane Nash, Michelle Obama, Shonda Rhimes, Georgiana
23 Simpson, Jacqueline Vaughn, and Oprah Winfrey; and

1           WHEREAS, Black women have stood in solidarity with women
2 and men of all backgrounds, sexual orientations, races,
3 religious affiliations, and ethnicities across Illinois, the 4 United States, and the world in an effort to demand parity and 5 equity of all human beings in all areas of life; and

6           WHEREAS, February 28th intentionally connects the 7 nationally recognized months of February with Black History
8 Month and March with Women's History Month, uplifting the 9 unique intersectionality of race and gender of being both
10 Black and a woman; therefore, be it

11           RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED THIRD GENERAL
12 ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we declare February
13 28, 2023 as Black Women's History Day in the State of Illinois
14 to honor the accomplishments, power, beauty, courage,
15 intelligence, ingenuity, stewardship, and leadership of Black
16 women; and be it further

17           RESOLVED, That we encourage all Illinoisans and their 18 families to acknowledge, in word and in deed, the 19 accomplishments of Black women in places where they live, 20 work, and play, because doing so recognizes Black women's 21 history as American history.
