Testimony:

Having to pay for rent when not working has been extremely difficult, more so when not making more than 30k a year also having to pay bills and for food and helping in any possible way family members. Having to look for other sources of income and try to find low paying jobs without officially being employed to be able to get a little bit to pay a rent and bills. This would be a huge help for those who do not get unemployment and have a family to keep under a roof, this would provide assistance to everyone evenly and be able to get back on our feet once things begin to normalize in a way.
