Dear Rep. Currie:

Please be advised that, in the matter of the House disciplinary proceedings against Rep. Derrick Smith before the Select Committee on Discipline, the House Managers have no objection to the proposed witnesses and exhibits disclosed by Rep. Smith through his counsel on July 6, 2012, subject to the limitations on evidence contained in Rule 9 of the Procedural Rules, under which the Chairperson may unilaterally deny a request by either party to introduce any evidence or call any witness if the Chairperson finds that the introduction of the evidence or witness testimony would violate that Rule.

Very truly yours,

Rep. Jim Durkin
