At the hour of 5:22 o'clock p.m., the House reconvened perfunctory session.

HOUSE RESOLUTIONS

The following resolutions were offered and placed in the Committee on Rules.

HOUSE RESOLUTION 293

Offered by Representative Hernandez:

WHEREAS, National Hospital Week is May 7-13, 2017; and

WHEREAS, National Hospital Week celebrates hospitals and the women and men who support the health and well-being of their communities through dedication and compassionate care from the heart; and

WHEREAS, The hard working people that compose MacNeal Hospital deserve universal regard and appreciation for keeping their community healthy; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDREDTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we declare May 7-13, 2017 to be "Illinois Hospital Week" in the State of Illinois; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we express our appreciation for the hardworking employees and medical staff of MacNeal Hospital and for the support they have shown for their community for nearly a century as a good citizen in providing reliable, quality, health care for the people of Berwyn and the surrounding areas; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this resolution be presented to MacNeal Hospital as an expression of our esteem and respect.

Offered by Representative Riley:

WHEREAS, There have been recent significant advances in neuroscience with increased understanding of how emotional neglect and exposure to serious trauma affect the way children perceive and interact with their world both during childhood and into adulthood; and

WHEREAS, Post-traumatic stress disorder and other trauma-related disorders in children and adults can be caused both by exposure to a single severe traumatic incident or by exposure to a cumulative series of serious traumatic events; and

WHEREAS, Such traumatic incidents and events include emotional and physical abuse and neglect, sexual abuse, separation from or loss of a parent due to divorce or other reasons, serious injury or death of a parent, exposure to family discord, domestic violence, parental mental illness, substance abuse, criminal activity in the home, and other traumatic and non-nurturing experiences and environments; and

WHEREAS, Abuse, neglect, and traumatic events compose part of what has been described in the medical literature as "adverse childhood experiences" or "ACEs", and the cumulative potential impact to a child who has a significant history of exposure to neglect and trauma can be calculated using what is called an ACE score; and

WHEREAS, It is now understood that significant exposure to severe traumatic events as outlined above can negatively affect the neurobiology and anatomy of a person's developing brain and result in a substantially impaired ability to absorb new information, develop healthy coping skills, and adapt to life's challenges as the child becomes locked into a "fight-flight-or-freeze" mode that becomes the child's and future adult's default approach when interacting with the world around them; and

WHEREAS, Children and adults whose brains have been negatively affected by exposure to severe or repeated serious trauma, often experience persistent and sometimes overwhelming dysfunctional emotions of fear, anxiety, depression, hopelessness, and anger, and may exhibit socially inappropriate labile and aggressive behaviors, or may exhibit socially inappropriate emotional detachment and avoidance behaviors; and

WHEREAS, These negative coping behaviors and dysfunctional emotions limit a person's capacity to form healthy stable relationships, foster social capital, learn from experiences and mistakes, set and achieve short and long-term goals, and succeed in educational and vocational pursuits; and

WHEREAS, In addition to the above negative outcomes, children and adults are more likely to attempt to self-medicate trauma-related "fight-flight-or-freeze" anxiety and emotional dysfunction by using available substances such as tobacco, alcohol, prescription medications, and street drugs, including heroin, methamphetamine, cocaine, and cannabis; and

WHEREAS, Because of the cumulative adverse effects of the above negative outcomes on their physical health and emotional and cognitive capabilities, children and adults affected by severe traumatic events, despite their sincere and best efforts to succeed in life, are more likely to: (1) perform poorly in school and other academic pursuits; (2) struggle with work performance and sustainable employment; (3) become chronically unemployed as adults, resulting in financial stress, reduced quality of life, and increased risk of experiencing long-term disability, homelessness, and other personal and family traumatic experiences; (4) become dependent on and addicted to tobacco, alcohol, prescription medications, illicit drugs, and other substances; (5) become directly engaged with law enforcement and the criminal justice system; (6) suffer from significant mental illness including depression, psychosis, and severe anxiety leading to suicides and attempted suicides that otherwise would not have occurred; (7) suffer from serious physical health problems with poor long-term outcomes that otherwise would not have occurred; (8) engage in high-risk sexual behaviors as adolescents and adults, including onset of sexual activity at an early age and multiple sexual partners, resulting in increased risks of adolescent pregnancy and paternity, other unintended pregnancies, and sexually transmitted diseases; (9) experience significant problems and failures in marriage and other intimate partner relationships; (10) become victims or perpetrators of intimate partner violence as adults; (11) struggle, despite their sincere efforts, to provide a stable and nurturing environment for their current and future children, resulting in increased likelihood of intergenerational trauma and intergenerational poverty; and (12) face a life expectancy shortened by as many as 20 years when compared to average life expectancy for adults who did not experience severe trauma as children; and

WHEREAS, With an increase in understanding about the impacts of trauma has come the development of evidence-based questionnaires that identify behaviors and health-related disorders in children and adults that can be indicative of possible trauma-related exposures; and

WHEREAS, Using these questionnaires can provide the opportunity to identify and refer a child or adult for appropriate additional evaluation and treatment; and

WHEREAS, The mental health profession can effectively diagnose and treat trauma-related disorders following evidence-based approaches that have been proven to be successful; and

WHEREAS, One example of a well-studied, highly effective and widely available therapy is trauma-focused cognitive behavior therapy; and

WHEREAS, Early childhood offers an important window of elevated opportunity to prevent, treat, and heal the impacts of adverse childhood experiences and toxic stress on a child's brain and body; and

WHEREAS, A critical factor in buffering a child from the negative effects of toxic stress and adverse childhood experiences is the existence of at least one stable, supportive relationship between the child and a nurturing adult; and

WHEREAS, With the increase in scientific understanding and ability to identify, prevent, and treat trauma-related disorders, there is great hope for children and adults to begin healing from the negative effects of adverse childhood experiences, develop resiliency, and have brighter, more productive futures than was previously possible; and

WHEREAS, In order to maximize the potential for positive outcomes of evidence-based interventions in the treatment of severe trauma, it is imperative that employees of the State of Illinois and other people who interface directly with vulnerable children and adults become informed regarding the effects of trauma on the human brain and available screening and assessment tools and treatment interventions that lead to increased resiliency in children and adults who struggle in life as the result of trauma-related disorders; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDREDTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we encourage all officers and employees of the Illinois State Board of Education, the Illinois Department of Human Services, the Administrative Office of the Courts, and the Illinois Department of Corrections to become informed regarding well-documented detrimental short-term and long-term impacts to children and adults from serious traumatic childhood

experiences as outlined above and implement evidence-based interventions and practices that are proven to be successful in developing resiliency in children and adults currently suffering from trauma-related disorders to help them recover from their trauma and function at their full capacity and potential in school, the workplace, and community, family, and interpersonal relationships; and be it further

RESOLVED, That suitable copies of this resolution be delivered to the Illinois State Board of Education, the Illinois Department of Human Services, the Administrative Office of the Courts, the Illinois Department of Corrections, and all nonprofit agencies and other entities that contract with the State of Illinois to provide services to vulnerable children and adults.

Offered by Representative Lilly:

WHEREAS, Article X, Section 1 of the Illinois Constitution provides that "A fundamental goal of the People of the State is the educational development of all persons to the limits of their capacities."; the Section also provides that "The State shall provide for an efficient system of high quality public educational institutions and services." and that "The State has the primary responsibility for financing the system of public education."; and

WHEREAS, The economic competitiveness of the United States and Illinois in the global economy requires a well-educated workforce; and

WHEREAS, In 2017, education is more important than ever because it is an essential step to entering and remaining in the middle class; and

WHEREAS, High school dropouts are more than twice as likely to be unemployed and three times as likely to receive welfare assistance; nationally, this costs billions of dollars to government-funded assistance programs annually; and

WHEREAS, The United States Census Bureau estimates that a person with a high school diploma will earn $9,634 more per year than someone without a high school diploma; and

WHEREAS, In 2014, people without a high school diploma had a 9% unemployment rate, compared to a 6% rate for those with a high school diploma; and

WHEREAS, A well-educated citizenry improves the business climate by providing highly skilled workers that employers need; and

WHEREAS, According to a Georgetown University study, the United States economy will face a shortage of five million workers with the necessary education and training by 2020; and

WHEREAS, The majority of jobs that will be created will require some sort of education and training after high school; and

WHEREAS, Males with a college education live an average of 8 years longer than those without a high school diploma, while females with a college education lived an average of 6 years longer; males with a college education are also 55% more likely to vote than those without a high school diploma, and females with a college education are 40% more likely to vote than those without a high school diploma; a one-year increase in median education level is associated with a more than 13% increase in political primary turnouts; and

WHEREAS, Between 1987 and 2007, the United States has increased spending on incarceration by 127%, compared with a 21% increase in funding for education during the same time period; and

WHEREAS, Forty-one percent of all prisoners have not completed high school, compared to 18% of the general adult population; and

WHEREAS, The annual cost of incarcerating an individual is roughly $32,000, while the annual cost of educating a student is about $11,000; a 5% increase in male graduation rates nationally would save an estimated $5 billion annually in crime-related expenses; and

WHEREAS, Investment in education is shown to prevent violence by providing opportunities and knowledge that create a higher quality life; and

WHEREAS, The average annual public health cost is an estimated $2,700 per high school dropout, $1,000 per high school graduate, and $170 per college graduate; it is estimated that if every high school dropout graduated, the national savings in public health costs would exceed $40 billion annually; and

WHEREAS, The foundation level is the statutorily set minimum per-pupil funding necessary to adequately educate public K-12 students in Illinois through a combination of State and local resources; the foundation level has remained at $6,119 since the 2009-2010 school year, despite rising costs of education; and

WHEREAS, The Education Funding Advisory Board recommended that the foundation level be changed to $9,204 for Fiscal Year 2016 to adequately fund the educational needs of students; and

WHEREAS, Illinois currently ranks last in state share of P-12 education funding; and

WHEREAS, Improved education and more stable employment greatly increases tax revenue, returning at least seven dollars for every dollar invested in pre-kindergarten education; and

WHEREAS, A high quality education system should be the identity and legacy that we establish for Illinois and the United States; in addition, education should be the number one budget priority for the State of Illinois; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDREDTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we acknowledge the importance of having a high quality education system and all of the societal benefits that go along with it; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we encourage the General Assembly to make education a priority in the Fiscal Year 2018 budget and to fully fund elementary and secondary education; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we encourage the business community to advocate for a high quality education system in Illinois, which will benefit the business climate as well as the citizens of Illinois; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we encourage the General Assembly to continue to strive to create an adequately funded and high quality education system for the benefit of all citizens.

Offered by Representative Barbara Wheeler:

WHEREAS, The 20th Century witnessed unspeakable acts of murder and chaos, from the Holocaust, to the massacres in Rwanda and Bosnia, the genocidal campaign against the Armenian people symbolizes one of the first in our modern age; and

WHEREAS, Between the years 1915-1923, nearly one and a half million Armenian men, women, and children were massacred by the Ottoman Turkish government; and

WHEREAS, The United Nations defines the term genocide as any of the following acts committed with intent to destroy, in whole or in part, a national, ethnic, racial, or religious group, including killing members of the group; causing serious bodily or mental harm to members of the group; deliberately inflicting on the group conditions of life calculated to bring about its physical destruction in whole or in part; imposing measures intended to prevent births within the group; or forcibly transferring children of the group to another; and

WHEREAS, The segregation and degradation of the minority Christian Armenian population by the Turkish government began with Ottoman rule in the mid-1800s; the brutality escalated during the reign of the Young Turks, immediately following the First World War; and

WHEREAS, In 1939, the monster, Adolf Hitler, cited the Armenian genocide as justification for the genocide he himself was about to lead, asking, "Who after all, speaks today of the annihilation of the Armenians.;" and

WHEREAS, The attempted extermination and forced displacement of the Armenian people not only extinguished precious lives, but also uprooted a centuries-old culture from their ancient homeland; and

WHEREAS, The people of Armenia have witnessed the eastern conquests of Alexander the Great, fought the legions of Rome and Sassanid Persians, halted Arabian expansion, supplied emperors to the throne of Byzantium, became the first nation to adopt Christianity in 301 CE, and established their language's alphabet barely a century later in 406 CE; and

WHEREAS, A century ago, Armenian heritage came under threat once more, as thousands of their monasteries and churches were desecrated or destroyed, national institutions and schools, razed to the ground, and the surviving Armenian people, scattered across the world; and

WHEREAS, Despite the wreckage, the Armenian people endured, building a new and sovereign nation in the eastern half of their homeland; and

WHEREAS, The 21st Century world continues to face terrifying crimes against humanity even at this very hour, as forces of repression and barbarism seek to roll back the progress of our age; and

WHEREAS, These forces of terror include the Islamic State, Boko Haram, the regional tentacles of al-Qa'ida, al-Nusrah Front, al-Shabaab, Hizballah, and Hamas, along with far too many more; and

WHEREAS, The great champion and prophet of liberty, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. powerfully noted that, "He who passively accepts evil is as much involved in it as he who helps to perpetrate it. He who accepts evil without protesting against it is really cooperating with it."; and

WHEREAS, We must learn and boldly speak of, the often heartbreaking but invaluable lessons of our common human past, as well as teach them to our children and our grandchildren in order for this world to finally be free of hostility and violence; therefore, be it RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDREDTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we, and all other people of human decency, speak today of the near annihilation of the Armenian people, and indeed of all those who continue suffering under the heel of tyranny across the world; and be it further

RESOLVED, That on this anniversary year of the Armenian genocide, we commemorate the nearly one and a half million precious lives lost and honor the rich, ancient heritage of the Armenian people by dedicating April 24th as the Day of Remembrance for the Holy Martyrs of the Armenian Genocide of 1915.

Offered by Representative Flowers:

WHEREAS, Access to employment, economic investment, economic mobility, and training opportunities are unequal across Illinois, with minority, low-income, environmental justice, and rural communities having less access to these opportunities; and

WHEREAS, Clean energy technologies present new economic opportunities, and the Future Energy Jobs Act creates the Illinois Solar for All program to train residents across Illinois, including persons with criminal records and foster care alumni, for jobs in the clean energy economy; and

WHEREAS, The Illinois State Commission on Criminal Justice and Sentencing Reform seeks to reduce the State's current prison population by 25% by 2025; and

WHEREAS, The Commission found that half of the persons with criminal records currently in Illinois prisons will likely re-enter prison within three years of release; and

WHEREAS, The Urban Justice Policy Center found in a study of Illinois that only 31% of those released from prison were employed within two months; and

WHEREAS, High levels of unemployment correlate directly with violence in Illinois communities and recidivism; and

WHEREAS, The families and spouses of persons with criminal records are negatively and economically impacted and deserve good paying jobs; and

WHEREAS, Wage gaps continue to exist based on gender and race, with Caucasian women earning 82 cents, African American women earning 65 cents, and Hispanic women earning 58 cents for every dollar earned by Caucasian men in hourly wages; and

WHEREAS, Higher recidivism rates lead to higher incarceration rates and costs for Illinois taxpayers; and

WHEREAS, Educational and vocational training for persons with criminal records is a gateway to break the cycle of incarceration and is critical to reduce violence and recidivism rates; and

WHEREAS, All people desire to live in safe neighborhoods, with access to public land, clean air, drinkable water, good health, and to be empowered through work; and

WHEREAS, Addressing environmental justice has been a national priority for over two decades, as first outlined in 1994 in Executive Order 12898 on Federal Actions to Address Environmental Justice in Minority Populations and Low-Income Populations; and

WHEREAS, President Obama reaffirmed the necessity of working for a healthy environment for all communities in a Proclamation on the 20th Anniversary of the Executive Order; and

WHEREAS, Illinois upholds the commitment to ensure that no community disproportionately bears the burden of pollution or environmental degradation through the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency Commission on Environmental Justice; and

WHEREAS, Communities of color and economically-disadvantaged communities have historically shouldered the burdens of pollution and its toxic impacts on health, air, water, and land; and

WHEREAS, The United States Department of Health and Human Services Office of Minority Health reports that African American children are four times as likely as non-Hispanic Caucasian children to be admitted to the hospital for an asthma attack and 10 times as likely to die from one; and

WHEREAS, Growing the clean energy economy through the jobs and investments set forth in the Future Energy Jobs Act is vital to reducing asthma-causing air pollution and carbon emissions that contribute to climate change; and

WHEREAS, Lack of investment in stormwater infrastructure causes basement flooding, sewer backups, and water contamination that disproportionately affect economically-disadvantaged communities; and

WHEREAS, Lack of access to fresh, local, healthy food causes poor health outcomes such as obesity, diabetes, and heart disease throughout communities of color and economically-disadvantaged communities; and

WHEREAS, Communities of color face barriers of access to green open space and the health and recreational benefits provided therein; and

WHEREAS, Economically-challenged communities across Illinois - urban, semi-urban, and rural - together face environmental injustices; and

WHEREAS, Illinois has the ability to equip our labor force with skills for the future, protect public health, and be faithful stewards of the planet and our many resources; and

WHEREAS, Existing funds from the Renewable Energy Resources Fund allow the implementation of the Solar-for-All Program to meet its statutory goals, creating 2,000 jobs for persons with records and foster care alumni in the clean energy economy by 2030 by offering incentives to companies to hire trainees; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDREDTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we work together to create an environmental justice agenda that creates clean energy jobs that are accessible to all, addresses gender inequities and income disparities as we move toward a green economy, reduces recidivism rates while curbing climate change, and shapes policy that addresses the adverse and disproportionate impacts of climate change upon communities of color and economically-disadvantaged communities; and be it further

RESOLVED, That funds in the Renewable Energy Resource Fund, which were paid for by Illinois electric customers, must be preserved and maintained for the Illinois Solar-for-All program as established by the Future Energy Jobs Act, and protected from sweeps, interagency transfers, chargebacks, or other reallocation of those funds away from their statutory purposes.
