LETTERS OF TRANSMITTAL

June 26, 2017

Timothy D. Mapes
Clerk of the House
Illinois General Assembly
301 S. Second St.
Room 420
Springfield, Illinois 62706

To Clerk of the House Timothy D. Mapes:

During the debate on HJR 17, I stood to oppose the concept of naming public structures or highways after American elected officials who are still living, however significant they might be. As I began to elaborate in my remarks, it has happened before in Illinois and other states, but this has no bearing on whether it is in fact a good practice. Consequently, despite being recorded as a "No Vote," on today's roll call for HJR 17, I would like to be recorded as a "No" vote.

To be clear, my wish to be recorded as a "No" vote is not a matter of partisan politics: rather, this is a matter of establishing a precedent that is worthy of emulation. Naming public structures or highways after people of significance who are still living is not good public policy, and I have attempted to be consistent in my votes (the Dennis Hastert statue and the naming of I-74 after Ray LaHood, serving as just two examples).

Given that the legacy of an individual cannot be determined until they have passed on, we should not immortalize them before a full account may be given. Furthermore, to name public properties after any one person who is still alive is inappropriate given that we aspire to defend a government that is of, by, and for the people. The decision to honor a still living individual in this manner could serve as a perverse incentive for elected officials today or in the future to act in a manner that is more self-serving than for the public good.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

s/Rep. Tom Morrison
Tom Morrison
State Representative
54th District
