Passed by the Senate, October 25, 2017, by a three-fifths vote.

Tim Anderson, Secretary of the Senate

August 25, 2017

To the Honorable Members of
The Illinois Senate,
100th General Assembly:

Today, I return Senate Bill 1462 with specific recommendations for change.

It is encouraging to see the General Assembly recognize that filing fees, permit costs and licensing burdens all serve to discourage and slow down job creation. However, arbitrarily waiving fees for three vaguely defined industries without justification for picking economic winners and losers is not good economic policy; if these benefits are to be provided, they should be provided equally across the board.

Therefore, pursuant to Section 9(e) of Article IV of the Illinois Constitution of 1970, I hereby return Senate Bill 1462, entitled "AN ACT concerning State government," with the following specific recommendations for change:

[October 25, 2017]

On page 1, by replacing lines 19 and 20 with: “entrepreneurs in starting new businesses by providing”;
and

On page 2, line 14, by replacing lines 14 through 16 with “(c) (blank).”.

With these changes, Senate Bill 1462 will have my approval. I respectfully request your concurrence.

Sincerely,

Bruce Rauner
GOVERNOR

The foregoing SENATE BILL 1462 was ordered reproduced and placed on the appropriate order of business.

Mr. Anderson, Secretary:

Mr. Speaker -- I am directed to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has passed a bill of the following title, the veto of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding, in the passage of which I am instructed to ask the concurrence of the House, to-wit:

Senate Bill No. 1351

A bill for AN ACT concerning education.

I am further directed to transmit to the House of Representatives the following copy of the Governor's veto message to the Senate:

Passed by the Senate, October 25, 2017, by a three-fifths vote.

Tim Anderson, Secretary of the Senate

August 25, 2017

To the Honorable Members of
The Illinois Senate
100th General Assembly:

Today, I veto Senate Bill 1351, which seeks to create the Student Loan Servicing Rights Act.

While the intent of this bill to support struggling student-loan borrowers is laudable, the bill, as written, encroaches on federal government's responsibilities and would add confusion to the already complex student loan process.

This legislation would require servicers to be licensed by the state, adding another layer of Illinois state bureaucracy without any guarantee the change would improve service. In fact, this requirement may push smaller servicers out of business. The recent U.S. Department of Education decisions regarding student-loan borrowers have been cause for concern. Therefore, my staff will continue to work with the department and members of Congress to address these concerns as the federal government moves to reauthorize the Higher Education Act.

Students do need additional support in understanding their loan repayment options, but loan servicers are not the appropriate actors for the role. Instead of adding another layer of state bureaucracy in the form of a student loan ombudsman, the General Assembly should consider allocating those funds to nonprofit counselors who are far more effective at advising students than any government agency.

There are several important components of the Student Loan Bill of Rights contained in SB 1351. Students should not be defrauded – purposely or through incompetence – by their loan servicer. I urge the sponsors to work with members of the Department of Education and my office to ensure a set of common-sense student protections that will not conflict with evolving federal regulations and to craft a more narrowly tailored bill to support student-loan borrowers in Illinois. Therefore, pursuant to Section 9(b) of Article IV of the Illinois Constitution of 1970, I hereby return Senate Bill 1351 entitled “AN ACT concerning education,” with the foregoing objections, vetoed in its entirety.

Sincerely,

Bruce Rauner
GOVERNOR

The foregoing SENATE BILL 1351 was ordered reproduced and placed on the appropriate order of business.

A message from the Senate by

Mr. Anderson, Secretary:

Mr. Speaker -- I am directed to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has passed a bill of the following title, the veto of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding, in the passage of which I am instructed to ask the concurrence of the House, to-wit:

Senate Bill No. 419

A bill for AN ACT concerning local government.

I am further directed to transmit to the House of Representatives the following copy of the Governor's veto message to the Senate:

Passed by the Senate, October 25, 2017, by a three-fifths vote.

Tim Anderson, Secretary of the Senate

September 22, 2017

To the Honorable Members of
The Illinois Senate,
100th General Assembly:

Today I veto Senate Bill 419 from the 100th General Assembly. This legislation proposes two changes, both of which will likely increase the unfunded liabilities of the respective pension funds they impact. First, it allows a downstate firefighter to buy into a pension fund's Tier 1 benefit system. Second, the legislation provides for a retrospective cost of living adjustment payment.

Illinois' pension systems are in crisis. Decades of poor funding decisions and generous benefits have pushed many downstate pension funds to dangerously low funding ratios. Furthermore, the Firemen's Annuity and Pension Fund of Chicago, which is at issue in this legislation, is only 21% funded. This makes it one of the worst-funded large pension systems in America. We owe it to taxpayers and pension beneficiaries to focus on legislation to bring stability to the pension funds to reduce pension debt.

This bill attempts to retroactively institute service credits in a downstate pension fund under a benefit system that the State closed off due to its unsustainability. These service credits are instituted without a full and accurate accounting of their cost. Furthermore, this bill requires the Chicago firemen's pension fund to pay a retrospective cost of living increase on top of benefits already paid. This will increase costs for the fund, decrease its dangerously low funding levels, and ultimately drive still higher property taxes on Chicago taxpayers. Given the dire state of Illinois' pension systems, any legislation that risks increasing pension debt levels ought to be heavily scrutinized for the long-term benefit of both taxpayers and pension beneficiaries. Therefore, pursuant to Section 9(b) of Article IV of the Illinois Constitution of 1970, I hereby return Senate Bill 419, entitled "AN ACT concerning local government", with the foregoing objections, vetoed in its entirety.

Sincerely,

Bruce Rauner
GOVERNOR

HOUSE RESOLUTIONS

The following resolutions were offered and placed in the Committee on Rules.

HOUSE RESOLUTION 655

Offered by Representative Cassidy:

WHEREAS, The State of Illinois has a strategic interest in developing the best possible strategy to create the most jobs for the least amount of taxpayer money; and

WHEREAS, State of Illinois and City of Chicago officials have responded to Amazon.com, Inc.'s "Request For Proposal" for their new facility with a package that likely includes subsidies and other taxpayer-funded incentives to entice them to choose Illinois; and

WHEREAS, Amazon.com, Inc. has a market value of nearly $400 billion and the necessary capital to construct a new facility without taxpayer assistance; and

WHEREAS, The State of Illinois has a bill backlog of nearly $16 billion, which includes social service agencies, small-business medical providers and many others who are struggling to continue operating without the funds they are duly owed; and

WHEREAS, The State of Illinois has already awarded more than $112 million in subsidies to Amazon.com, Inc. for constructing distribution facilities that its business model requires, with little credible evidence of benefit to the State's economy; and

WHEREAS, The average wages at Amazon.com, Inc. warehouses are significantly lower than the prevailing wage for comparable work within the same areas; and

WHEREAS, In 2015, Amazon.com, Inc. generated approximately $1.5 million in sales in Illinois for every full-time warehouse worker it employed, while the State's brick-and-mortar retail stores employ about seven people to accomplish the same sales; and

WHEREAS, The actual economic impact of trading large taxpayer subsidies to corporations for promised jobs is poorly understood, and the supposed benefits are disputed by many academics and experts in the field; and

WHEREAS, Foxconn Technology Group was recently awarded more than $3 billion in taxpayer subsidies to locate a plant in Wisconsin, at a cost of more than $230,000 per job created, representing a massive transfer of wealth from Wisconsin taxpayers to corporate shareholders; and

WHEREAS, It is of crucial importance for policymakers to understand whether the cost of potential future subsidies to Amazon.com, Inc. is justified based on the job creation and retention benefits generated by an agreement; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDREDTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we urge extreme caution in the pursuit of Amazon.com, Inc.'s new facility, as an offer of subsidies approximating the Foxconn Technology Group deal in Wisconsin is almost certain to be a net negative for Illinois taxpayers; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we believe job growth and retention is crucial, but fighting with taxpayer money to win a bid from a corporation that has absolutely no financial need for subsidization is a dangerous path to tread; and be it further

RESOLVED, That it violates both free-market principles and good common sense to subsidize Amazon.com, Inc.'s facility with more public money per new job than is likely to be repaid in state and local taxes; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we urge policymakers to hold public hearings before any final deal is agreed to, complete with expert testimony in order to fully demonstrate to the public the potential economic merits and drawbacks.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 83

Offered by Representative Feigenholtz:

WHEREAS, The recent stream of #METOO in news feeds on social media sites has encouraged women to publicly acknowledge acts ranging from micro-aggressions to pure viciousness; and

WHEREAS, Every industry has its own version of the 'casting couch', and in Illinois, women who work in government and politics are painfully aware that sexism and misogyny are alive and well; and

WHEREAS, It has been reported and secretly known for some time that some male legislators, lobbyists, and staffers use their influence and power inappropriately when interacting with female legislators, lobbyists, and staffers; and

WHEREAS, No woman should have to contend with anyone who intimates that her professional assent is solely dependent on how quickly she responds to unwanted advances; and

WHEREAS, No female legislator, lobbyist, legislative staffer or campaign worker should feel abused, threatened, extorted, or forced to engage in sex while doing their job; and

WHEREAS, With each act of aggression, a woman internalizes the idea that she is not enough, that she somehow deserves this, that the only way to get ahead is to endure this type of dehumanizing behavior, with a smile no less; and

WHEREAS, It is a truly exhausting and an utterly defeating way to live, and no woman should have to endure it, especially under the guise of doing public work; and

WHEREAS, When women choose to leave careers in public service due to harassment and sexual misconduct, all Illinoisans suffer the loss of their commitment to creating a better Illinois; and

WHEREAS, Every woman in every industry, regardless of age, race, physical appearance, gender expression, socioeconomic status, or sexual orientation, has a #METOO story; and

WHEREAS, Many women have not felt safe enough to share on social media because the truth can still cost you your career unless enough of us speak up; and

WHEREAS, Despite the fact that members of the General Assembly have adopted policies against sexual harassment in the workplace and training is available, the culture of harassment persists and extends beyond those subject to such policies; and

WHEREAS, The women of the Illinois General Assembly have been empowered by the brave women who represent us all and have taken a stand; and

WHEREAS, The time has come for us to raise our collective voices, share our stories, and say #NOMORE; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDREDTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, THE SENATE CONCURRING HEREIN, that those supporting this resolution are committed to saying #IWILL do better and I will work with my colleagues to change the culture that breeds such behavior; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the members of the General Assembly work to find solutions and ways to change the culture of sexual harassment in Springfield and throughout politics in Illinois; and be it further

RESOLVED, That in this upcoming election cycle, we say #NOMORE and commit to challenging every elected official, every candidate, every staffer, and every participant in our democratic process who is culpable to do better and say #NOMORE; and be it further

RESOLVED, That suitable copies of this resolution be presented to every member of the General Assembly, the Illinois Congressional Delegation, and the President of the United States.
