HOUSE RESOLUTION 355

Offered by Representative Skillicorn:

WHEREAS, The State of Illinois is one of only a few states in the country that maintains a flat-rate income tax structure; and

WHEREAS, Of the surrounding states, only Illinois, Indiana, and Michigan have flat-rate income taxes imposed on taxpayers; and

WHEREAS, The Illinois constitution currently provides that the State may only impose one non-graduated income tax on individuals and corporations; further, there is a limitation that prohibits the imposition of a corporate income tax rate that is greater than an 8:5 ratio vis-a-vis the income tax rate on individuals; and

WHEREAS, Since 2011, the General Assembly, has successfully passed two income tax increases; under P.A. 96-1496, the income tax was increased temporarily to 5% on individuals and 7% on corporations for tax years 2011-2014; the rates then fell to 3.75% and 5.25% on individuals and corporations, respectively, by tax year 2015; and

WHEREAS, In 2017, under P.A. 100-22, the General Assembly yet again increased the income tax rates, this time on a permanent basis, and established the current rate structure; the income tax rate on individuals is now set at 4.95% and 7% on corporations; and

WHEREAS, Illinoisans cannot continue to be punished with more tax increases; stronger protections enshrined in the constitution are needed to prevent the legislature from continuing to impose higher and higher rates; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FIRST GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we urge the Illinois Constitution be amended to provide that the state income tax shall never exceed 4.75% for individuals; and be it further

Offered by Representative Buckner:

WHEREAS, Chicago Public Schools is the only school district in the State of Illinois that, by law, requires an appointed rather than elected school board; and

WHEREAS, The Chicago Board of Education has the power to levy property taxes, cut or increase funding for schools, set the terms of teacher contracts, and decide whether neighborhood schools should remain open or shutter their doors; and

WHEREAS, The members of the Chicago Board of Education making these crucial decisions, which impact every student, parent, educator, businessperson, and homeowner in the city, are not accountable to the general public but rather to the Chicago mayor and special interests; and

WHEREAS, The appointed school board system has led to the privatization of school services and conflicts of interest, including cases wherein board members profit from the school district by contracting with businesses owned by the board member; and

WHEREAS, For years, concerned parents, community members and their elected officials in the General Assembly have advocated for legislation providing for an elected school board for the City of Chicago; and

WHEREAS, The General Assembly is closer than ever to passing such a measure and establishing an elected school board in the near future; and

WHEREAS, During recent elections, the amount of money flowing into campaigns for candidates up and down the ballot has been unprecedented, giving wealthy individuals and corporations a large influence over voters; and

WHEREAS, Across the United States, local communities have taken action to curb the influence of big money in campaigns; and

WHEREAS, Unless action is taken by the State of Illinois and the City of Chicago, funding from corporations and the ultra-wealthy will flow into elections for the Chicago Board of Education, leading board members to be accountable to special interests rather than the local community; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FIRST GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we urge the General Assembly to consider developing a campaign finance reform structure and implementing it specifically in regard to elections for the Chicago Board of Education; and be it further

RESOLVED, That members of the Illinois General Assembly are encouraged to work with city officials and interested members of the Chicago Public Schools community to develop legislation that may be introduced after the creation of an elected Chicago Board of Education.

HOUSE RESOLUTION 362

Offered by Representative Flowers:

WHEREAS, The Family First Prevention Services Act was signed into law as part of the Bipartisan Budget act on February 9, 2018; and

WHEREAS, Young people involved in the child welfare system do best in families, in a safe and stable environment that supports their long-term well-being, according to research; the passage of Family First took a large step toward this vision by restructuring how the federal government spends money on child welfare to ensure that more children in foster care are placed with families; the law also provides more support for critical services, such as mental health and substance abuse treatment, in-home training, and family therapy that can help prevent the need for foster care in the first place; and

WHEREAS, The law provides an opportunity for positive change and supports ongoing efforts to transform our child welfare system by keeping children and teens safely with their own family and to avoid the often-traumatizing experience of unnecessary placement into the foster care system; its name reflects the elements of the legislation: a family first for children and teens with prevention services to keep kids safe and growing up in their family; prevention services, including in-home, skills-based training for parents, mental health care, including family therapy, and substance abuse and treatment programs are important parts of Family First; when the courts determine that children need to enter foster care, Family First specifically calls for them to be placed in the least restrictive, most family-like setting to meet their individual needs; the law recognizes that treatment programs can provide short-term, customized therapeutic support while kids are living in families; this could be with birth parents, other relatives, close friends, or foster caregivers; residential treatment may be needed for short-term stabilization, usually less than 90 days, with follow-up services when children return to their family; federally-reimbursed services are meant to support and strengthen families, so children don't enter care; they are also meant to maintain child and family connections when children enter foster care or require short-term residential treatment, and they provide six months of aftercare when a child has transitioned home from either setting; the focus is on helping children and families live and grow together safely and successfully; and

WHEREAS, This Act reforms the federal child welfare financing streams, Title IV-E and Title IV-B of the Social Security Act, to provide services to families who are at risk of entering the child welfare system; and

WHEREAS, This Act aims to prevent children from entering foster care by allowing federal reimbursement for mental health services, substance use treatment, and in-home parenting skill training; it also seeks to improve the well-being of children already in foster care by motivating states to reduce placement of children in congregate care; and

WHEREAS, With an approved Title IV-E plan, the State would have the option to use Title IV-E funds to prevent the placement of children and youth into the foster care system and to provide up to 12 months of mental health services, substance abuse treatment, and in-home parenting training to families at risk of entry into the child welfare system; additionally, the State could use Title IV-E reimbursement for up to 12 months for a child who has been placed with a parent in a licensed residential family-based treatment facility for substance abuse, regardless of whether the child meets the AFDC income-eligibility requirement for Title IV-E; and

WHEREAS, A competitive grant for recruitment and retention of high-quality foster families is provided and made available through 2022; parameters for states to expand funding eligibility for youth "aging out" of foster care are provided; and

WHEREAS, Decreasing the number of children newly enrolled in the foster care system by providing federally-reimbursable services to families at risk of entering the child welfare system will benefit the State of Illinois; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FIRST GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we urge the State to support the Family First Prevention Services Act to help decrease the number of children entered into foster care.
