HOUSE RESOLUTIONS

The following resolutions were offered and placed in the Committee on Rules.

HOUSE RESOLUTION 631

Offered by Representative Stuart:

WHEREAS, Giving Tuesday is a global generosity movement that unleashes the power of people and organizations to transform the world and their communities; the Tuesday after Thanksgiving focuses on charity in the shopping-heavy week after the holiday; and

WHEREAS, Giving Tuesday was created in 2012 as a simple idea, a day that encourages people to do good; over the past seven years, this idea has grown into a global movement that inspires hundreds of millions of people to give, collaborate, and celebrate generosity; and

WHEREAS, Whether it is a donation of time, money, or the power of a voice, Giving Tuesday is one of the best ways to get involved in a community; the idea is simple, come together with family, a community, co-workers, or an organization and find a way to give back and then share your idea; and

WHEREAS, Whether it is making someone smile, helping a neighbor, showing up for an issue or people, or giving something to those who need help, every act of generosity counts, and everyone has something to give; and

WHEREAS, By volunteering, a person can give something back, making a difference to the people around them, develop new skills, and learn more about issues affecting their community; in addition, the right volunteer opportunity can help reduce stress, find friends, and even advance someone's career; and

WHEREAS, People have the power and the passion to transform their community; by lending a voice to advocate for the causes and issues important to a community, we can all be activists who affect the kind of change that makes our world a better place; and

WHEREAS, Community nonprofit organizations work tirelessly every day to make a difference in their communities; many nonprofit organizations are understaffed or operating on a small budget and cannot afford the marketing, HR, technology, or planning resources that their missions deserve; and

WHEREAS, Many people donate to a nonprofit in honor of Giving Tuesday or organize a donation drive with friends, family, neighbors, or co-workers; these drives are a great way to rally a group around an important cause; just about anything can be the focus of a donation drive, including toiletries, books, clothes, or food; a seemingly small act of kindness has the power to inspire generosity that can permeate society and catalyze change; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FIRST GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we encourage our residents to give back to their local communities on Giving Tuesday in 2020, as the first Tuesday after Thanksgiving is an opportunity to not only raise money but also a chance to unite and inspire communities around the world.
