HOUSE RESOLUTION 294

Offered by Representative Ford:

WHEREAS, The United States has almost 2,000,000 of its people in prison, which is more than any other developed nation in the world; and

WHEREAS, The vast majority of the men and women in our prisons, approximately 95%, will eventually return to their communities; and

WHEREAS, Few of those who return to their communities are prepared for their release and often face barriers reintegrating into society, such as serious physical and mental health problems, limited housing options, and inadequate education or qualifications to hold a job; and

WHEREAS, One-third of all correction departments provide no services to released offenders, and most departments do not offer a transitional program, placing a heavy burden on families and communities; and

WHEREAS, Two-thirds of persons released will be rearrested for new crimes within the first three years after their release; and

WHEREAS, Congressman Danny K. Davis sponsored the Second Chance Act of 2007 for the purposes of providing transitional assistance to ex-offenders in coping with the challenges of reentry, reducing recidivism, helping to reunite families and protect communities, and enhancing public safety; and

WHEREAS, The Second Chance Act of 2007 was signed into law on April 9, 2008; and

WHEREAS, The Second Chance Act of 2007 provides grants to state and local governments to promote the safe and successful reintegration of offenders into the community upon their release; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED THIRD GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we declare July 3, 2023 and July 3, 2024 as Illinois Citizens Reentry Day, to be observed in recognition of Congressman Danny K. Davis' work in helping to provide ex-offenders with a second chance and opportunity to reenter society as productive citizens and to encourage continuing support of such citizens as they reenter their communities; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this resolution be presented to Congressman Danny K. Davis with our esteem and respect.

HOUSE RESOLUTION 296

Offered by Representative Ford:

WHEREAS, "Black Wall Street" was a prospering African American neighborhood in Tulsa, Oklahoma, that went up in flames 98 years ago; incredibly, most Americans have never heard of the shameful events of June 1, 1921, when whites firebombed the neighborhood and an estimated 300 African Americans were murdered; and

WHEREAS, During the course of 18 hours on May 31 and June 1, 1921, more than 1,000 homes and businesses in Tulsa, Oklahoma were destroyed, and an estimated number of between 50 to 300 people were killed during the race bombing; and

WHEREAS, By early 1921, Tulsa, Oklahoma was a modern city with a population of more than 100,000; most of the city's 10,000 African American residents lived in the Greenwood District, a vibrant neighborhood that was home to two newspapers, several churches, a library branch, and scores of Black-owned businesses; and

WHEREAS, On May 30, 1921, an incident involving Dick Rowland, an African American shoe shiner, and Sarah Page, a white elevator operator, in the Drexel Building in Tulsa would rapidly escalate into one of the single worst incidents of racial violence in American history; the most common explanation is that Rowland stepped on Page's foot as he entered the elevator, causing her to scream, and Rowland was arrested by the police; and

WHEREAS, On May 30, 1921, the Tulsa Tribune, the city's afternoon daily newspaper, reported that Rowland had attempted to rape Page; by 7:30 P.M., hundreds of whites had gathered outside the Tulsa County Courthouse demanding that the authorities hand over Rowland, but the sheriff refused; at around 9 P.M., after reports of the dire conditions downtown reached Greenwood, a group of approximately 25 armed African American men, many of them World War I veterans, went to the courthouse and offered their services to the authorities to help protect Rowland but were rebuffed by the sheriff; at around 10 P.M., a false rumor circulated through Greenwood that whites were storming the courthouse, prompting a second contingent of African American men to go back to the courthouse and offer their services to the authorities, who were once again turned away; as the group was leaving, a white man tried to disarm a Black veteran, and a shot was fired, an incident that became the start of the race bombing; and

WHEREAS, Over the next 6 hours, Tulsa was plunged into chaos as angry whites, frustrated over the failed lynching, began to vent their rage at African Americans in general; furious fighting erupted along the Frisco railroad tracks, where Black defenders were able to hold off members of the white mob; an unarmed African American man was murdered inside a downtown movie theater, while carloads of armed whites began making "drive-by" shootings in Black residential neighborhoods; by midnight, fires had been set along the edge of the African American commercial district; in some of the city's all-night cafes, whites began to organize for a dawn invasion of Greenwood; and

WHEREAS, During the early hours of the race bombing, local authorities did little to stem the growing crisis, and Tulsa police officers had deputized former members of the lynch mob; local units of the National Guard were mobilized, but they spent most of the night protecting a white neighborhood from a nonexistent Black counterattack; and

WHEREAS, Shortly before dawn on June 1, 1921, thousands of armed whites had gathered along the fringes of Greenwood; after daybreak, they poured into the African American district, looting homes and businesses and setting them on fire; numerous atrocities occurred, including the murder of A. C. Jackson, a renowned Black surgeon, who was shot after he surrendered to a group of whites; at least one machine gun was utilized by the invading whites, and some have claimed that airplanes were used in the attack; Black Tulsans fought hard to protect their homes and businesses, with particularly sharp fighting occurring off of Standpipe Hill, but they were outgunned and outnumbered in the end; and

WHEREAS, Following the race bombing, a brief period of martial law was followed by various legal maneuvers; even though Dick Rowland was exonerated, an all-white grand jury blamed Black Tulsans for the events that transpired; despite overwhelming evidence, no whites were ever sent to prison for the murders and arson that had occurred; and

WHEREAS, The vast majority of Tulsa's African American population had been made homeless by the race bombing; despite efforts by the white establishment to force the relocation of the Black community, Black Tulsans had already begun the long and arduous process of rebuilding Greenwood within days; thousands were forced to spend the winter of 1921-1922 living in tents; and

WHEREAS, The deep scars left by the race bombing remained visible for years, and it became a taboo subject, particularly in Tulsa, for many years; in 1997, a state commission was formed to investigate the race bombing; the commission recommended that reparations be paid to the remaining survivors, while a team of scientists and historians uncovered evidence supporting long-held beliefs that unidentified victims had been buried in unmarked grave sites; and

WHEREAS, In support of the Black Wall Street efforts, Soul City Chicago is hosting a trip to Tulsa to tour the site of one of the greatest Black business corridors to ever exist on May 26-28, 2023; and

WHEREAS, It is important that the people of the State of Illinois and the nation do not forget this terrible tragedy; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED THIRD GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we mourn the loss of life and the loss of the Black economy of Tulsa, Oklahoma that took place on May 31 and June 1, 1921; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we support the efforts in Tulsa to have the Historic Greenwood District Main Street added to the historic registry and are currently working with Executive Director Bill White; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this resolution be presented to the people of Tulsa as an expression of our respect and esteem and our desire to support Black businesses and communities throughout the nation.

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED THIRD GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, THE SENATE CONCURRING HEREIN, that there shall be submitted to the electors of the State for adoption or rejection at the general election next occurring at least 6 months after the adoption of this resolution a proposition to add Section 13.5 to Article IV of the Illinois Constitution as follows:

ARTICLE IV
THE LEGISLATURE

(ILCON Art. IV Sec. 13.5 new)

SECTION 13.5. LIMITATION ON LIABILITY FOR NON-ECONOMIC DAMAGES

(a) In this Section, "economic damages" means compensatory damages for any pecuniary loss or damage. The term does not include any loss or damage for past, present, and future physical pain and suffering, mental anguish and suffering, loss of consortium, loss of companionship and society, disfigurement, or physical impairment.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution, the General Assembly may determine by statute the limit of liability for all damages and losses other than economic damages of a provider of medical or health care with respect to treatment, lack of treatment, or other claimed departure from an accepted standard of medical or health care or safety that is or is claimed to be a cause of or that contributes or is claimed to contribute to the disease, injury, or death of a person. This subsection (b) applies without regard to whether the claim or cause of action arises under or is derived from common law, a statute, or other law, including any claim or cause of action based or sounding in tort, contract, or any other theory or any combination of theories of liability. The claim or cause of action includes a medical or health care liability claim as defined by the General Assembly.

(c) This Section applies to any law enacted by the General Assembly on or after the effective date of this amendment to the Constitution.

(d) A legislative exercise of authority under subsection (b) of this Section requires a majority vote of all the members elected to each house and must include language citing this Section.
