HOUSE RESOLUTIONS

The following resolutions were offered and placed in the Committee on Rules.

HOUSE RESOLUTION 484

Offered by Representative Gordon-Booth:

WHEREAS, Blood clots can form throughout the human body, can lead to illness, disability, and even death if not treated early, and do not discriminate by age, gender, ethnicity, or race; and

WHEREAS, On average, blood clots cause the death of one person every six minutes; according to The Surgeon General's Call to Action to Prevent Deep Vein Thrombosis and Pulmonary Embolism, 2008, they cause the deaths of approximately 100,000 people every year; and

WHEREAS, As indicated by the public education campaign Stop the Clot, Spread the Word®, made possible through the partnership of the National Blood Clot Alliance (NBCA) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), up to 900,000 people are affected by blood clots every year; and

WHEREAS, Blood clots can be further defined as a deep vein thrombosis (DVT) or a pulmonary embolism (PE), with a DVT occurring if a blood clot forms in one of the large veins, typically in a person's lower leg, thigh, pelvis, or arm, and this type of blood clot can partly or completely block the flow of blood or blood circulation in the body; if a blood clot is left untreated, it can move or break off and travel to the lungs, causing a blockage known as a PE, which requires immediate medical attention; and

WHEREAS, It is important to recognize the signs and symptoms of a blood clot, with a DVT often presenting as swelling of the affected area, pain, tenderness, and redness or discoloration of the skin; by comparison, someone experiencing a PE often presents as having difficulty breathing, a faster than normal or irregular heartbeat, coughing up blood, and very low blood pressure, lightheadedness, or fainting; and

WHEREAS, Blood clots are preventable, and the best ways to prevent them include knowing your risks factors, recognizing the signs and symptoms, informing a medical professional if you have any risk factors, speaking with a medical professional about blood clots before any surgical procedure, and seeing a medical professional as soon as you possible if you develop any symptoms; and

WHEREAS, To better inform the public of the risks, signs, and symptoms of blood clots, the NBCA annually promotes March as Blood Clot Awareness Month; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED THIRD GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we declare the month of March 2024 as Blood Clot Awareness Month in the State of Illinois; and be it further

RESOLVED, That suitable copies of this resolution be presented to the Bleeding & Clotting Disorders Institute, the Deveraux Hubbard II Foundation, and the National Blood Clot Alliance with our sincere appreciation for their efforts.

HOUSE RESOLUTION 495

Offered by Representative Halbrook:

WHEREAS, Faith in God is an inalienable right to all of those who believe in the teachings of a higher being; and

WHEREAS, Our Founding Fathers understood the importance of faith in God when writing the U.S. Constitution, guaranteeing the freedom of religion for all citizens; and

WHEREAS, Abraham Lincoln immortalized the phrase "this nation, under God" in the Gettysburg Address, enshrining our nation during its darkest moment in "a new birth of freedom"; and

WHEREAS, Prayer has always played an important role in the foundation of the American way of life and has helped form the solid basis of cultural harmony and civility, which is evident in The Pledge of Allegiance to the U.S. flag and on our currency; and

WHEREAS, Knowing of the cultural and spiritual harmony that faith brings to all who believe, it should be this chamber's responsibility to again provide a room of worship to General Assembly members, guests, and visitors of the Illinois State Capitol Building; and

WHEREAS, In 1985, then-Speaker Michael J. Madigan introduced HR 408, which designated a room as a prayer room on the first floor of the State Capitol Building; and

WHEREAS, Throughout the ensuing years, the prayer room was utilized by various General Assembly members, regardless of their philosophical, political, or religious differences, who sought a place where worship was welcomed; and

WHEREAS, Sadly, the prayer room was removed during a renovation of the West Wing, and a new prayer room was never designated nor established; and

WHEREAS, Without a dedicated room of worship, our State Capitol Building is similar to most state capitol buildings; in fact, in the Midwest, the only state to have a dedicated room of worship in its capitol building is the State of Indiana; and

WHEREAS, In the U.S. Capitol Building, a room set apart for prayer and meditation is near the rotunda to be used primarily by members of Congress who wish to withdraw and seek divine strength and guidance, both in public affairs and in their own personal matters; and

WHEREAS, The U.S. Capitol Building's prayer room was established during the 83rd Congress of the United States, pursuant to U.S. House Concurrent Resolution 60 in 1953 and U.S. Senate Concurrent Resolution 14 in 1954; and

WHEREAS, The legality of a prayer room in the State Capitol Building was previously justified through the 1988 court case decision of Van Zandt v. Thompson in the 7th Circuit of the U.S. Court of Appeals and within the Illinois State Constitution, thereby reiterating that no there is no legal jeopardy and that the establishment clause has not been violated; and

WHEREAS, The Preamble of the Constitution of the State of Illinois reads, "We, the People of the State of Illinois - grateful to the Almighty God for the civil, political and religious liberty which He has permitted us to enjoy and seeking His blessing upon our endeavors," further setting the stage for such a room; and

WHEREAS, The establishment of such a room, because of its universality, is within the provisions of Section 3 of Article X of the Illinois State Constitution, where the use of public funds for sectarian purposes is forbidden in that no state funds shall be allocated for "anything in aid of any church or sectarian purpose"; and

WHEREAS, The concept is consistent with the provisions of subsection (a) of Section 1 of Article VIII of the Illinois State Constitution, which provides that "Public funds, property or credit shall be used only for public purposes", as the facility will be made available to the people of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, Both the Illinois House and Senate routinely open all Sessions with prayer by a diverse group of faith leaders and pastors from across Illinois; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED THIRD GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we request the reestablishment of a prayer room at the Illinois State Capitol Building near the rotunda in the current and ongoing renovations of the North Wing.

HOUSE RESOLUTION 496

Offered by Representative Evans:

WHEREAS, The State of Illinois is home to the headquarters of Portillo's Restaurant Group, Inc. and its roughly 50 restaurant locations across the State; and

WHEREAS, Portillo's, valued in recent years at $1.9 billion and now a publicly traded corporation on the Nasdaq, has announced plans to open 920 stores nationwide, a steep increase from its original plans of 600 stores; and

WHEREAS, From October 2022 to March 2023, the national number of workers seeking union representation and filing unfair labor practice charges has increased to numbers last witnessed in the 1950s, according to the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB); and

WHEREAS, Illinois passed the Workers' Rights Amendment in November 2022, guaranteeing the fundamental right to unionize and bargain collectively; and

WHEREAS, On March 10, 2023, workers at a Portillo's food distribution center chose to file with the NLRB to organize a union, and the board conducted an election for employees to cast their votes on April 13, 2023; and

WHEREAS, On April 19, 2023, Portillo's, the maker of many iconic Chicago food staples, did not honor the decision its employees made to join a union, instead utilizing stall tactics, including challenging the election conducted by the NLRB by filing an appeal; and

WHEREAS, On July 19, 2023, the NLRB ruled against Portillo's appeal, siding with the food distribution workers; however, Portillo's again appealed this decision on August 2, 2023, further ignoring the voices of its workers who continue to demand access to sick time, livable wages, and dignity and respect in the workplace; and

WHEREAS, Portillo's food distribution center workers continue to express concerns over the stall tactics employed by Portillo's in an effort to do everything in its power to deny its food distribution workers the right to bargain collectively; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED THIRD GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we urge Portillo's Restaurant Group, Inc. to honor the wishes of its food distribution workers who have voted to join a union and bargain collectively for the betterment of themselves and their families; and be it further
