LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL

February 21, 2003

Honorable Anthony D. Rossi
Room 402--State Capitol Building
Springfield, Illinois 62706

Dear Clerk Rossi:

I am writing this letter to disclose that I am currently employed as Assistant Director of Organizing for the Laborers' International union of North America.

Because of my employment in this position, I may have a conflict of interest in certain pieces of legislation that come before the House. If presented with a potential conflict situation, it is my intent to follow the guides to conduct for legislators set forth in Article 3, Part 2 of the Illinois Governmental Ethics Act (5 ILCS 420/3-201 through 3-206).

Please maintain a copy of this letter in your files, and I would also request that the content of this letter be included in the House Journal.

Thanks you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,
s/Brandon Phelps

RESOLUTIONS

The following resolutions were offered and placed in the Committee on Rules.

HOUSE RESOLUTION 79

Offered by Representative Madigan:

WHEREAS, Running for political office has become prohibitively expensive for most ordinary citizens; and and

WHEREAS, The high cost of broadcast advertising is the single most significant factor that has driven up the cost of running for political office; and

WHEREAS, Many citizens believe radio and television stations do not provide sufficient information about election issues and candidates; and

WHEREAS, The nation's broadcast television and radio stations are scaling back on substantive coverage of candidates and campaign issues even as they raise their ad rates to take advantage of the spike in air time demand generated by elections; and

WHEREAS, The increased cost and reduced flow of campaign communication on broadcast television and radio has created an unfair advantage for wealthy candidates and candidates with access to monied special interests, an unhealthy development for our democracy; and

WHEREAS, The broadcast airwaves belong to the people; and

WHEREAS, The people, through their federal government, have provided exclusive licenses to broadcasters to operate within assigned frequencies on these airwaves, but only on the condition that they serve the public interest; and

WHEREAS, This "public interest" standard must include providing opportunities for candidates to deliver, and citizens receive, a free and open flow of information just prior to elections so that citizens can cast informed votes; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETY-THIRD GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we support a proposal endorsed by the Free Air Time Coalition that calls on the federal government to require that all broadcasters provide increased coverage of campaigns and elections and a reasonable amount of free air time to candidates just prior to elections as a condition of receiving their broadcast licenses.

HOUSE RESOLUTION 82

Offered by Representative Howard:

WHEREAS, It has come to our attention that Dr. Thomas Halloran is being honored as the recipient of the 70th Annual AMBUCS First Citizen Award; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Halloran has worked tirelessly to create and maintain the Danville Area Soccer Complex; he gives generously of his time to mow, aerate, seed, and maintain the eight soccer fields that make up the complex; many officials credit him for bringing the soccer complex to life in 1995; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Halloran is an active and energetic member of several civic organizations; in addition to serving on the Soccer Board, he is a member of the United Way Board and is active with Danville Stadium and the American Heart Association; and

WHEREAS, When he is not acting as a groundskeeper or doing other civic work, Dr. Halloran is an internal medicine specialist in the adult medicine department at Carle Clinic in Danville; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Halloran has been described as having a commitment to high standards continually demonstrated through the countless hours he spends improving the projects he is a part of and as a great advocate for recreation and an ambassador for the city of Danville; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETY-THIRD GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we congratulate Dr. Thomas Halloran on being named recipient of the 70th Annual AMBUCS First Citizen Award and commend him for the dedication and service he has demonstrated in order to receive such an honor; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this resolution be presented to Dr. Thomas Halloran with our best wishes for his continued success and happiness and as a token of our respect and esteem.

HOUSE RESOLUTION 78

Offered by Representative Younge:

WHEREAS, In 1983, former State Representative Anthony Young was informed of an offer he couldn't refuse; Coy Pugh offered to volunteer for Representative Young for six days, at the end of which time he would promise to afford Coy lunch money and car fare for the next 60 days, finally if Coy's efforts added to the growth of the organization, he would place him on the payroll; after the first 30 days, Coy was hired as Representative Young's administrative assistant; and

WHEREAS, In 1985, Coy Pugh became the Executive Director of the Westside Small Business Development Center (WSBDC), which was a member of the small business development center program designed by the State of Illinois' Department of Commerce and Community Affairs under the Build Illinois Act, put in place by then Governor James Thompson; WSBDC offered technical assistance to small business owners, entrepreneurs, and perspective business owners by designing, developing, and implementing seminars and workshops focusing on the needs of the small businessperson; and

WHEREAS, By 1989, the WSBDC joined forces and Coy Pugh became the Director of a coalition of 40 community based organizations known as Austin United, the project was funded by a large coalition of businesses known as Chicago United; and

WHEREAS, Coy Pugh was appointed to the House of Representatives in 1991; in 1992 after an intensely contested and bitter campaign, he won the Democratic nomination for State Representative in the 10th District with the community's overwhelming support; news of his improbable win spread throughout the country and was featured in national publications such as Ebony and the National Enquirer; and

WHEREAS, As State Representative, Coy championed a move to abolish the death penalty in Illinois, where he successfully adopted House Resolution 60, which resulted in Governor George Ryan calling for a moratorium on executions in Illinois; in addition to serving on numerous House committees, Representative Pugh served as the Chairman of the Revenue Committee; and

WHEREAS, Coy holds a Masters' Degree in Theological Studies from the University of Chicago's McCormick Theological Seminary; he has traveled to Israel and has met with former head of state Prime Minister Netanyahu and has worked with Brazil's political leadership; he has traveled extensively in West Africa and participated in a trade mission to the Republic of South Africa developing trade and business opportunities with the heads of state in those countries; he also served as the Pastor of West Englewood Church on Chicago's south side and Olivet United Methodist church on the city's west side; and

WHEREAS, After serving in the Illinois State Legislature four consecutive terms, in January 2002 Coy started his own lobbying practice combining his collective experience to promote the interests of community based civil rights organizations along with Northwestern University law professors and families of individuals wrongly convicted and sentenced to death; to date, with the efforts of these individuals including the local media (Tribune), several individuals sentenced to death have been released and others had their death sentences commuted, resulting in a clearing out of Death Row; and

WHEREAS, Coy currently works for individuals facing possible convictions that may result in the death penalty, as a mitigator for the Cook County Public Defenders Office as he continues his fight for justice, equity, and the abolition of the death penalty; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETY-THIRD GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we thank Coy Pugh for his dedicated service to the people and the State of Illinois; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this resolution be presented to Coy Pugh as an expression of our esteem.
