RESOLUTIONS

The following resolutions were offered and placed in the Committee on Rules.

HOUSE RESOLUTION 222

Offered by Representative Flider:

WHEREAS, The State has a number of unique climate types, all of which require energy for both cooling and heating; there are many cost-effective measures that can reduce peak energy use and reduce cooling, heating, and other energy costs in buildings; and

WHEREAS, Improvements in the energy efficiency of institutional buildings will provide long-term operating cost reductions and reduce the overall use of energy in Illinois; and

WHEREAS, Reducing the use of energy promotes the reduction of air pollution from power plants and green house emissions and saves important environmental resources; and

WHEREAS, The American Council for Energy-Efficient Economy projects that if steps are taken in the State to improve energy efficiency, it would reduce overall energy spending and generate a positive cost benefit ratio; and

WHEREAS, The Government Buildings Energy Cost Reduction Act of 1991 is intended to reduce energy consumption and costs by promoting energy conservation in government buildings, including public universities; the Act created an Interagency Energy Conservation Committee, consisting of the Secretary of Human Services, the Directors of Central Management Services and Corrections, the Executive Directors of the Illinois Board of Higher Education and the Capital Development Board, and chaired by the Department of Commerce and Economic Opportunity (formerly Commerce and Community Affairs); and

WHEREAS, The Interagency Energy Conservation Committee publishes an annual assessment of opportunities for energy cost reduction in state-owned and leased buildings and designated facilities, including public universities, and reports to the Governor and General Assembly every 2 years on the status of energy cost reduction in government buildings; and

WHEREAS, The Public University Energy Conservation Act authorizes public universities to enter into guaranteed energy savings contracts or energy performance contracts for preliminary analyses, recommendations of energy conservation measures, implementation of such measures, and monitoring by the contractor of savings; and

WHEREAS, The Department of Commerce and Economic Opportunity provides matching technical assistance grants that are designed to help local schools, colleges, and universities finance comprehensive studies to find opportunities for energy conservation and to implement those measures; the institution and DCEO share the cost equally; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETY-THIRD GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that the Department of Commerce and Economic Opportunity is directed to assess energy conservation measures taken at each of the State's public universities since 1995, and report its findings to the General Assembly by January 1, 2004; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this resolution be presented to the Director of Commerce and Economic Opportunity and the Executive Director of the Illinois Board of Higher Education.

HOUSE RESOLUTION 224

Offered by Representative Watson:

WHEREAS, Millions of men and women in the Armed Forces volunteer to serve our country, take an oath to defend the Constitution of the United States, and risk making the ultimate sacrifice to defend the freedoms enjoyed by their fellow Americans; and

WHEREAS, A large number of these soldiers live on modest financial means; and

WHEREAS, In 2002, during the 107th Congress, the United States Senate Finance Committee and then the full Senate passed a bill co-authored by U.S. Senator Chuck Grassley (R-Iowa) to improve tax equity for members of the military; and

WHEREAS, The bill underwent changes in the U.S. House of Representatives and never received approval before Congress adjourned for the year; and

WHEREAS, Congress is once again considering tax-equity legislation, and versions of the Armed Forces Tax Fairness Act of 2003 have been approved by both the U.S. House and U.S. Senate; and

WHEREAS, The Armed Forces Tax Fairness Act of 2003 would extend deadlines for filing tax returns or making tax payments for individuals who become involved in military actions, operations, or hostilities against an enemy of the United States; and

WHEREAS, If a member of the Armed Forces dies on active duty, the federal government pays the surviving spouse a death benefit of $6,000 but only half of this benefit is now excluded from taxable income; and

WHEREAS, The Armed Forces Tax Fairness Act of 2003 would fully exempt death gratuity payments received by families of deceased members of the military from being included in taxable income; and

WHEREAS, Many National Guard members and reservists travel for weekend drills and spend their own money for travel and lodging; and

WHEREAS, These expenses are generally non-deductible for one of two reasons: either the reservist is part of the 75 percent of the population that does not itemize, or the expenses do not exceed two percent of the reservist's adjusted gross income; and

WHEREAS, The Armed Forces Tax Fairness Act of 2003 would create a tax deduction of up to $500 for unreimbursed travel expenses by reservists; and

WHEREAS, In 1997, Congress changed the tax code to exclude gains from the sale of a person's home from the capital gains tax, below certain thresholds, and thus, under present law, in order to qualify for an exclusion of capital gains on a home, uniformed service members must have owned and used a home as a principal residence for at least two of five years ending on the date of sale; and

WHEREAS, The Armed Forces Tax Fairness Act of 2003 would suspend this requirement; and

WHEREAS, The Armed Forces Tax Fairness Act of 2003 is especially important as the nation engages in military conflict abroad involving both enlisted members of the military and reservists; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETY-THIRD GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that the members of the Illinois House of Representatives respectfully request that the members of the United States House of Representatives and United States Senate work for consensus on the Armed Forces Tax Fairness Act of 2003; and be it further
