48TH LEGISLATIVE DAY

Perfunctory Session

FRIDAY, MAY 15, 2015

At the hour of 11:43 o'clock a.m., the House convened perfunctory session.

HOUSE RESOLUTIONS

The following resolutions were offered and placed in the Committee on Rules.

HOUSE RESOLUTION 485

Offered by Representative Feigenholtz:

WHEREAS, The mental health and well-being of the citizens of Illinois is vital to the health of communities and families of the State, along with the State's economic stability; and

WHEREAS, One in four Americans will experience a mental illness in their lifetime, with approximately 1.5 million Illinois adults and more than 300,000 Illinois children diagnosed; and

WHEREAS, The stigma associated with mental illnesses has resulted in people not seeking the care they need and has historically allowed insurance companies to cover mental health benefits differently than other medical benefits; these practices have been accepted and perpetuated by the stigma; and

WHEREAS, Due to the stigma and a lack of access to care, people with serious mental illnesses often do not get the care they need until they are disabled by their illness; as a result, the public sector pays for 60% of all mental health care nationally; and

WHEREAS, In 2011, suicide due to the presence of a mental health condition was the third leading cause of death for children between the ages of 10 and 14, and the second leading cause of death for youth and adults between the ages of 15 and 34; and

WHEREAS, Individuals with mental illnesses can and do recover by utilizing treatment regimens, particularly community-based services and supports; more than 60% of Illinois children and 59% of Illinois adults living with a mental health condition do not receive a diagnosis or treatment for their illness; and

WHEREAS, Effective treatment of mental illnesses continues to improve through advances in brain and behavioral research; and

WHEREAS, Data confirms that untreated mental illnesses significantly contribute to lost productivity and absenteeism in the workplace, and that limitations on mental health services increase employers' direct and indirect healthcare costs; and

WHEREAS, Limiting mental health care has resulted in homelessness, institutionalization, and mass incarceration of individuals with untreated serious mental illnesses, the costs of which are borne by taxpayers; and

WHEREAS, Mental illness is a leading cause of disability in the United States; and

WHEREAS, Each year, the month of May is recognized as "Mental Health Awareness Month" in the United States; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETY-NINTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we designate the month of May in 2015 as "Mental Health Awareness Month" in the State of Illinois.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 76

Offered by Representative Ford:

WHEREAS, In a democracy, the right to vote is a moral imperative, the most fundamental legal right and is protective of all other rights; and

WHEREAS, When President Lyndon B. Johnson signed the 1965 Voting Rights Act he said, "The right to vote is the basic right, without which all others are meaningless"; and

WHEREAS, Each state, except for the State of Arizona, has explicitly enshrined the right to vote with at least some level of protection in its state constitution; and

WHEREAS, Nowhere in the United States Constitution is there an explicit declaration of the right to vote, which weakens protection in federal courts and undercuts state voting rights protections due to state courts often "lock stepping" rights to the level of support provided federally; and

WHEREAS, The United States Supreme Court has called the right to vote a fundamental right, this fundamental right should be explicitly guaranteed to all Americans in the U.S. Constitution; and

WHEREAS, As President Barack Obama, as a professor of constitutional law at the University of Chicago, began each of his constitutional law classes sharing with his students the surprising fact that an explicit "federal individual right to vote" is not in the U.S. Constitution; and

WHEREAS, The only reference to an individual right to vote in the original U.S. Constitution and Bill of Rights is the requirement that any citizen qualified to vote for a member of a state's most "numerous house of the state legislature" is eligible to vote for Members of the House of Representatives; and

WHEREAS, The Constitution has been amended 17 times since the passage of the Bill of Rights and 7 of those amendments pertain to voting - 14th, 15th, 17th, 19th, 23rd, 24th and 26th - but none of them add the explicit, fundamental, affirmative, individual, citizenship, or federal right to vote to the Constitution; and

WHEREAS, Three amendments outlaw discrimination in voting, whether on the basis of race (15th) with the 1965 Voting Rights Act serving as the implementing legislation for this amendment 95 years later, sex (19th), or age (26th); and

WHEREAS, A constitutional right to vote would fulfill the promise of the 15th, 19th and 26th Amendments; and

WHEREAS, Of the 119 nations that elect their public officials using some form of democratic elections, 108 have the right to vote in their constitution, but the United States is one of the democratic 11 nations - including Australia, the Bahamas, Bangladesh, Barbados, Belize, India, Indonesia, Nauru, Samoa, and the United Kingdom - that does not explicitly contain a citizen's right to vote in its constitution; and

WHEREAS, With the exception of certain federal laws such as the National Voter Registration Act of 1993, the Help America Vote Act of 2002, and the Military and Overseas Voter Empowerment Act of 2009, the U.S. has virtually no national uniform standards for voting systems controlled by the states; and

WHEREAS, Since voting is a state right with virtually no national uniform standards, we have multiple and varied election systems in the 50 states (plus the District of Columbia), 3,143 counties (or county equivalents), and about 13,000 local voting jurisdictions that administer about 186,000 precincts, all organized and controlled and managed by local election officials with 86% of Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act Preclearance objections involving local, not national or state, voting issues; and

WHEREAS, The United States Supreme Court has unfortunately undermined the right to vote in recent years, notably in its 2013 decision of Shelby County v. Holder which made the preclearance requirement ineffective and, as Freedom Rider, Selma marcher, and US Congressman, John Lewis, so aptly stated, "struck a dagger in the heart of the Voting Rights Act"; and

WHEREAS, Since 2014 at least 83 restrictive voting rights bills were introduced in 29 states, and the Brennan Center for Justice reports that 21 states have enacted restrictive voting laws since 2011, including North Carolina, Ohio, Texas, and Wisconsin, and that in Texas alone this will affect more than 600,000 adult-age citizens who do not have state-issued photo identification; and

WHEREAS, Voter turnout in November 2014 represented a smaller percentage of eligible voters than in a congressional election since 1942, voter turnout in many primary elections in 2014 was at an all-time low in more than half of states holding primaries, and voter turnout in some major cities is now in single digits; and

WHEREAS, A "right to vote" constitutional amendment applies to and should be supported by all Americans because it is (a) nonpartisan - not Democratic, Republican, or independent; (b) non-ideological - not liberal or conservative; (c) non-programmatic - it does not require you to support or oppose any particular legislative program; and (d) non-special interest - its application is not limited to minorities, women, labor, business, seniors, lesbians and gays, or any other special interest groups; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETY-NINTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, THE SENATE CONCURRING HEREIN, that we support amending the United States Constitution to explicitly guarantee an individual's right to vote; and be it further

RESOLVED, That suitable copies of this resolution be delivered the members of the Illinois congressional delegation.

SENATE RESOLUTIONS

The following Senate Joint Resolution, received from the Senate, was read by the Clerk and referred to the Committee on Rules: SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 3 (Costello).

At the hour of 11:43 o'clock a.m., the House Perfunctory Session adjourned.
