TRANSCRIPTION DEBATE

18th Legislative Day

Clerk Hollman: "House Perfunctory Session will come to order. Introduction of Resolution. House Joint Resolution #33, offered by Representative Feigenholtz, is referred to the Rules Committee. Committee Reports. Representative Barbara Flynn Currie, Chairperson from the Committee on Rules reports the following committee action taken on February 22, 2017: recommends be adopted, referred to the floor is Floor Amendment #1 to House Bill 66, Floor Amendment #1 to House Bill 395."

Speaker Turner: "Members are asked to be at their seats. We shall be led in prayer today by Pastor Bart Koester who is with Trinity Church in Watseka, Illinois. He is the guest of Representative Bennett. Members and guests are asked to refrain from starting their laptops, turn off all cell phones and rise for the invocation and Pledge of Allegiance."

Pastor Koester: "Let's pray together. Our God in heaven, as we begin this Session we give You praise and thanks. We praise You for being a good God. And we thank You for the good gifts that You have given us, including health, enjoyable weather, friends and family and for supplying our daily needs. I also thank You for each person that has here given themselves and sacrificed their time for public service. Lord, we also confess. We confess to You our smallness. We confess our dependence and our need for You. You see, hear, and know more than we can comprehend. We work so hard, but we acknowledge our limits in light of a limitless God. Because of this confession, we ask that You would do exactly as You promise, that You continue to act in accordance with Your character. God, we pray that You would guide the course of our government in the many details and inner workings of our state. We humbly ask that You would do great things. God, if it be Your will, we pray together that You would grant the following: wisdom in planning and decision making, selflessness in putting the needs of others before our own, truthfulness knowing that it honors You and strengthens us, patience that we would seek to hear before being heard, grace to look past the faults of others, courage to do what is right even if it isn't popular, humility that allows each one to realize they are part of something bigger. Lord, for these things we look to You. God in heaven, I join with many others in this room in believing that... that without You our state would struggle. But in seeking You and Your will, You will allow our great state to prosper. God, I further ask that in spite of the many differences and potential disagreements that You would open a path for unity starting here in the House of Representatives. Unity that aims for the benefit of each person in Illinois. God, we pray for guidance, protection, and wisdom this day for Your glory. In Christ Jesus' name we pray, Amen."

Speaker Turner: "We shall be led in the Pledge of Allegiance today be Representative Moylan."

Speaker Turner: "Representative Demmer."

Demmer: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Please let the record reflect that Representatives Cabello, Cavaletto, and Phillips are excused for the day."

Speaker Turner: "With 113 Members present, a quorum is established. Representative Martwick, for what reason do you seek recognition?"

Martwick: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise on a point of personal privilege."

Turner: "Please proceed."

Martwick: "Thank you. Actually, I have two points of personal privilege. So if you'll indulge me. The first is, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, I would like to ask you to join me in welcoming three Pages that I have here that are visiting. I have Ayah Paras is here, Aneta Krzycka is here, and someone who served as an intern in my office is here to.. as a Page to witness what goes on here in the House of Representatives, Margaret Lindaver is here. So, please give them a warm, Springfield welcome."

Speaker Turner: "Thank you and welcome to your Capitol. Point number two."

Martwick: "Yeah. And secondly, for those of you who are just arriving, tomorrow.. I'm a day early.. is Pączki Day. And this.. my.. being my fifth year in the Legislature, this is the fifth year that I've done this in an effort to really accomplish two things. One is to share a little bit of my heritage with you. This delicious Polish pastry that is a traditional pre-Lenten sort of delicacy. It was made from.. it started.. the roots were that the families would take all of the things that they would deny themselves during Lent, sweet things and flour and butter and they would put them all into one big delicious treat. So, I've spread them throughout the.. they're in the Speaker's Office, they're in Leader Durkin's Office, they're on the third floor of the Stratton. But just an important point about the Pączki, while they are quite delicious, this is a fundraiser for a social service agency that is actually in Representative Guzzardi's district but near and dear to my heart, the Polish American Association. They've been devastated by the budget cuts that we've had here, massive staff layoffs and program cuts. These Pączki, the sale of these is a fundraiser. It goes to support their operations. So, please enjoy them, indulge. It's what you're supposed to do before we go on our big Lenten feast. But keep the Polish-American Association in your mind when we get back to the budget; they need our support. Thank you very much."

Turner: "Looking forward to it. Thank you, Representative. Representative Wehrli, for what reason do you seek recognition?"

Wehrli: "Point of personal privilege."

Turner: "Please proceed, Sir."

Wehrli: "Today, I rise to shine light on the hypocrisy coming from the other side of the aisle. For weeks, we've been hearing cries about the Governor's budget address, all without offering any solutions or bipartisanship to come up with solutions to our budget that this state desperately needs. Instead, we get cute little signs on desks, screaming alternative facts. Well, it appears that those on the other side are living in an alternative universe. And let me explain how that is so. Just last year, May 25, SB2048, known as a spending plan came from the other side of the aisle. It spent $39 billion all on revenues of $32.6 billion, $7 billion of overspend. No bipartisan cooperation. Not a single Republican vote on that Bill. It's time... and that Bill was also not in compliance with the State Constitution, an oath that we took in this chamber to uphold that document. Instead we get this righteous indignation and it's time for it to stop. It is time for us to come together, put the pointless banter aside and come up with solutions in a budget that's balanced and addresses the needs of... of this state, today, tomorrow, this week. Let's get it done."

Speaker Turner: "Representative Christian Mitchell is recognized."

Mitchell, C.: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Point of personal privilege."

Turner: "Please proceed, Sir."

Mitchell, C.: "Thank you. This month the Black Caucus has taken it upon ourselves to recognize important figures in African-American history and it is my honor to be able to do so today. And I have chosen James Baldwin, a writer and playwright who is currently the subject of a critically acclaimed documentary called I Am Not Your Negro. Writer and playwright James Baldwin was born August 2, 1924, in Harlem, New York. He developed a passion for reading at an early age and demonstrated a gift for writing during his early years. Attended DeWitt Clinton High School in the Bronx where he worked on the school's magazine with future, famous photographer, Richard Avedon. After graduating high school in 1942, he put his plans for college on hold to help support his family which included seven younger children. During this time, he frequently encountered discrimination, being turned away from restaurants, bars and other establishments because he was African American. James Baldwin published his first novel Go Tell It on the Mountain in 1953. It was a loosely autobiographical tale focused on the life of a young man growing up in Harlem grappling with issues of race, parentage, and religion. He said it was the book he had to write if he was ever going to write anything else. James Baldwin later became a Civil Rights activist who aligned himself with the ideals of the Congress of Racial Equality and the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee. In 1963, he conducted a lecture tour of the South for CORE, travelling to locations like Durham, Greensboro, North Carolina and New Orleans, Louisiana despite great personal danger to himself. By the spring of 1963, Baldwin had become so much of a spokesman for the Civil Rights Movement that he covered Time magazine and was... it was said by Time that there is not another writer who expresses with such poignancy and abrasiveness the dark realities of racial ferment in the North and the South. Baldwin, also, was an important moral counselor to U.S. Presidents and U.S. Cabinets, once convening a meeting with Attorney General Robert Kennedy and other African American luminaries like Harry Belafonte, to move the conversation on race forward. This is despite the fact that James Baldwin was a black, same gender loving man who the Civil Rights movement was openly hostile to. James Baldwin later died in 1987 in France, but before doing so became an incredibly important voice for racial equality. I think his voice is especially essential now as despite all he endured he remained hopeful of racial reconciliation and a world and a nation in which we could all come together. Thank you, Mr. Speaker, for the opportunity."

Speaker Turner: "Thank you, Representative. Representative Feigenholtz, for what reason do you seek recognition?"

Feigenholtz: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise on a procedural matter. I'd like to... I'd like the Body to consider a waive... waiving the posting requirements for HJR33."

Speaker Turner: "Lady moves to suspend the posting requirements for HJR33. All those in favor say 'aye'; all those opposed 'nay'. In the opinion of the Chair, the 'ayes' have it. And the posting requirements are suspended. Representative Swanson, for what reason do you seek recognition?"

Swanson: "Good morning, Mr. Speaker. I rise for a point of personal privilege."

Speaker Turner: "Please proceed, Sir."

Swanson: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would like to introduce my friend and honorary Page today, Mr. Jack Bumann. Jack is a senior and honor student at AlWood Community Schools, Woodhull. Jack has served in Student Government all four years of high school, participated in many extracurricular activities to include all four years on the school golf team. He competed three times at GIHSA State Golf Tournament. Last year, Jack, in coordination with State Representative Don Moffitt, drafted the Taps Bill. And we have some still left over as we continue to highlight Springfield businesses to staff and Members who come to Springfield each week. So, after Session, if you want to stop by our office in E-1, they are good while they last. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Speaker Turner: "Thank you, Representative. Members, on page 4 of the Calendar, under House Bills on Third Reading, we have House Bill 66, Representative Butler. I'm being told that you... you want to take this Bill back to Second Amendment for... I mean, Mr. Clerk, please move that Bill back to the Order of Second Reading and read the Bill."

Clerk Bolin: "House Bill 66, a Bill for an Act concerning State Government. The Bill was read for a second time on a previous day. No Committee Amendments. Floor Amendment #1, offered by Representative Butler, has been approved for consideration."

Speaker Turner: "Representative Butler."

Butler: "This Amendment is very simple to House Bill 66, which is the Route 66 Centennial Commission Bill. This just clarifies that a couple members get moved into the public section of being members and the ex-officio members will not be... will not get any compensation for being on the commission."

opposed say 'nay'. In the opinion of the Chair, the 'ayes' have it. And the Amendment is adopted. Mr. Clerk."

Speaker Turner: "Third Reading. House Bill 303, Representative Zalewski. Mr. Clerk, please read the Bill."

Clerk Bolin: "House Bill 303, a Bill for an Act concerning criminal law. Third Reading of this House Bill."

Speaker Turner: "Representative Zalewski."

Zalewski: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. House Bill 303 makes driving the wrong way down a one-way street an aggravating factor in a DUI case. I ask for an 'aye' vote."

Speaker Turner: "On that, we have Representative Andersson."

Andersson: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Will the Sponsor yield?"

Speaker Turner: "The Sponsor indicates that he will yield."

Andersson: "Representative, so, this is an aggregating... aggravating factor in a DUI, is that correct?"

Zalewski: "Yes."

Andersson: "We're adding that to a list of other aggravating factors?"

Zalewski: "We are."

Andersson: "And what... what prompted this particular one?"

Zalewski: "The chiefs... I think the local law enforcement see a propensity for driving the wrong way down a one-way street in DUI cases. My understanding is statistics show that it happens, if a person is driving the wrong way down a one-way street 60 percent of the time, they're intoxicated. Rather than, I think the original ask was to make it reckless homicide, I felt that that was too broad. So, I asked for a more narrow piece of legislation. This what we came up with."

STATE OF ILLINOIS

Andersson: "And it looks like from our analysis that the ACLU and the Adult Beverage Industry is opposed to your Bill?"

Zalewski: "Adult Beverage Industry, I knew. I wasn't aware the ACLU was opposed."

Andersson: "Yeah. I'd be curious why they're opposed to it, but did you..."

Zalewski: "I... I don't know."

Andersson: "Okay. Thank you very much."

Speaker Turner: "Representative Ammons is recognized."

Ammons: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Will the Sponsor yield?"

Speaker Turner: "Sponsor indicates that he will yield."

Ammons: "Thank you very much. I wanted to clarify, would this Bill apply to an officer in the same regard when officers driving down the wrong side of a road, on or off duty, intoxicated? Would the same law apply to an officer?"

Zalewski: "Yes, Ma'am."

Ammons: "And how would it apply to an officer under the regulations that actually protects officers from these kinds of prosecutions?"

Zalewski: "My... my understanding, Carol, is an officer is subject to the same sanction, criminal sanction for drive... DUI. The question becomes the breathalyzer aspect. So, there's collective bargaining agreements that come into play when they're asked to take a breathalyzer because that... there may be collective bargaining language that says that they don't have to comply with that request from their superior. But this... this would not in any way remove any sanction, or lessen any sanction, against a police officer. If they're intoxicated and driving the wrong way down the street and convicted of that crime, they're subject to the same sanction that a non officer would be."

Ammons: "And the previous penalty for this act, what is the... the actual difference between what you're trying to do now and what the previous penalty was?"

Zalewski: "So, well, I would... the best way to answer that question is an aggravated DUI is a... it would make it... it would make it a felony to... for... an aggravating DUI is a felony offense as opposed to a non aggravated DUI, which is a misdemeanor. That's the change we're making here."

Ammons: "So, it would go from a misdemeanor to a felony."

Zalewski: "If a person drives the wrong way down a one-way street, it would be a... it would be a felony. Yes, Ma'am. And they're convicted of DUI, yes, Ma'am."

Ammons: "Thank you."

Speaker Turner: "Chair recognizes Representative Davis."

Davis, W.: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Will the Sponsor yield?"

Speaker Turner: "The Sponsor will yield."

Davis, W.: "Why I don't want to be clear about is, absent of what you're trying to do, what happens if someone is caught driving the wrong way down a street under the influence?"

Zalewski: "They would be... so, the answer to that question is, they could, potentially, if they were to cause an accident or injure a pedestrian or injure another vehicle, they could... they could potentially still be charged with a reckless or a homicide or a... a DUI causing bodily injury. But absent those circumstances, it would be up to the... both the prosecutor and the judge what would be the sanction in that case."

STATE OF ILLINOIS
100th GENERAL ASSEMBLY
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

18th Legislative Day

2/22/2017

Davis, W.: "So, when you say absent of those circumstance, so, if somebody just drives the wrong way down the street and they're intoxicated, they get pulled over by a police officer, is the action of the officer relative to them driving under the influence or is there something added because they're driving the wrong way?"

Zalewski: "So, I think the answer to that question is, if the prosecutor wanted, they could choose the harsher sentence... the harsher sentence of aggravated DUI to charge the person with."

Davis, W.: "Okay. So..."

Zalewski: "The idea is... the idea here is, there is a propensity, I'm told by my police... my police chiefs, that in instances of DUI cases, they find that there's a causal relationship between driving the wrong way down this street and... and higher increase to safety. They wanted to do a much harsher penalty here which was reckless homicide or a brand new offense. In the spirit of what we've tried to do in the last couple of years of not be so rash, I suggested a limited Bill here that just makes it an aggravating factor if the prosecutor and the judge want to impose it."

Davis, W.: "But under those circumstances, adding it as an aggregating factor, does that mean that there will be like a minimum sentence that could be imposed? So, is it almost like a mandatory minimum?"

Zalewski: "Well, aggravated... aggravated DUI does have a minimum sentence. Yes, Sir."

Davis, W.: "Well, that's aggravated DUI, but..."

STATE OF ILLINOIS
100th GENERAL ASSEMBLY
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

18th Legislative Day

Zalewski: "That's what this makes... driving the wrong way makes a regular old DUI an aggravated DUI..."

Davis, W.: "An aggravated DUI."

Zalewski: "...under my Bill. Yes, Sir."

Davis, W.: "Okay. And so, therefore it would carry some type of minimum sentence..."

Zalewski: "Correct."

Davis, W.: "...associated with it."

Zalewski: "Correct."

Davis, W.: "...absent of hitting someone or killing someone. So, this is just adding going down the wrong way down a street is the... is the factor added on."

Zalewski: "I... I'm going to... I'm going to... I don't want to assume but I think what you're going to say is that causes some discomfort. I would... I would... I certainly agree with a lot of the discomfort that you may have. I certainly had it as well, but I also wanted to be responsive to the police officer... the police chiefs in my district who felt like this was an ongoing safety concern."

Davis, W.: "Right. Well, that's why I wanted to be clear that if someone is just caught driving the wrong way down the street..."

Zalewski: "Without being intoxicated?"

Davis, W.: "...without being intoxicated."

Zalewski: "Oh, no. there's no repercussions there. If you get caught just driving the wrong way down a one-way street without being intoxicated, you're not subject to the aggravating DUI piece at all."

Davis, W.: "Okay."

Zalewski: "Sorry, if I misled you."

Davis, W.: "No, no, no. I'm just trying to make sure I understand. Because if there's already a penalty associated with it, I'm just trying to understand if that's the case then... then if you're adding the DUI part does that create...?"

Zalewski: "No, to clean up the record."

Davis, W.: "So, the idea is, somebody's driving intoxicated and if they happen to the one... wrong way down a one-way street, that action creates..."

Zalewski: "Makes it an aggravating DUI."

Davis, W.: "Makes it an aggravated DUI..."

Zalewski: "Right."

Davis, W.: "...which creates a minimum sentence, if they're ultimately convicted of it."

Zalewski: "Correct. There's no... there is no change if you're just... if you're sober and you're driving the wrong way down a one-way street, there's no change here at all."

Davis, W.: "Okay. All right. Thank you very much, Rep."

Speaker Turner: "Representative Zalewski to close."

Zalewski: "I... I ask for an 'aye' vote."

Speaker Turner: "Representative Bennett."

Bennett: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. There you go. Thank you. Today, I'd like to present House Bill 305 for your consideration. This is brought to me by the police chief in the largest town in my district in Pontiac, Illinois. It's not related to Home Rule. The police chief has a need to get a bigger pool of candidates from which to choose from when hiring new police officers. The Bill amends the Illinois Municipal Code and here's what it does basically. It provides the requirement that a police applicant possessing an associate's degree may be waived if the applicant has successfully received credit for a minimum of 60 hours toward a bachelor's degree. So, associate's degree today is 60 hours. And so, what this does is just gives them another option where if they're working towards their bachelor's degree and they've achieved 60 hours, then they're also... they're able to do that as well. So, with that in mind, I do move for 'aye'... an 'aye' vote, please."

Speaker Turner: "Chair recognizes Representative Ives."

Ives: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Will the Sponsor yield?"

Speaker Turner: "He indicates that he will yield."

Ives: "Representative Bennett, is there any concern that possibly if you fail to hire somebody and they have the requisite 60 hours that that may be cause for any sort of lawsuit?"

Bennett: "I'm not sure I understand your question. I'm sorry."

Ives: "I'm just wanting to... wanting to make sure that this is definitely just permissive, that they... they don't... it's not a mandatory consideration of employment in any way."

Bennett: "Right. It's a 'may'. It's another option that they can look at. It's just sometimes that what's happening is they've been able to... they've been in situations where someone has more than 60 hours, but because the way it's set up to go, someone with an associate's degree gets a bump up ahead of someone with 60 hours beyond for a bachelor's. So, it's an option. It's not a requirement."

Ives: "Okay. Thank you."

Bennett: "Yep. Thank you."
