TRANSCRIPTION DEBATE

Speaker Lang: "The House will be in order. Members will be in their chairs. We shall be led in prayer today by Dr. Rory Christensen, who's the pastor of the Central Church of Christ in Streator. Pastor Christensen is the guest of Representative Long. Members and guests are asked to refrain from starting their laptops, turn off cell phones and rise for the Invocation and Pledge of Allegiance. Pastor Christensen."

Pastor Christensen: "Well, thank you for having me here today. I thought I'd share a quote with you before I begin. This one's from the show, The West Wing. Said by a Congressman by the name of Mr. Willis. He said this and I quote 'I think the problems we're going to face in the new century are beyond the wisdom of Solomon, let alone me.' He said that and I think we're standing in that new century and we're facing some of those problems and we're hoping that the wisdom he found in short supply is in abundance in this room. Years ago Anon made that famous quip. He said, don't vote, you'll only encourage them. And I said, hey we voted. You're here. And I hope you're encouraged to do your very best. Why don't you pray with me. Father God, thank You that You are good and loving. That You are awesome and kind. Thank You that You are Lord Almighty. God, we just stand before You today acknowledging the fact that we need Your wisdom and guidance. And God, I know that You've established government and know best how it should function. And so, I pray for those in this room that You would grant them Your wisdom and clarity in decision making, Your conviction and perseverance in the face of issues and problems that arise, and Your grace and truth to set the tone for discussion and debate. God, I also pray for an abundance of Your fruit in the lives of these men and women and their families, for love, joy, and peace. Father, for an abundance of patience, kindness, and goodness. And abundance of faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. And finally, God, I just pray there be a spirit of unity in this place. The wellbeing of so many depends on it. Our state needs the solutions they provide. And so, God, I pray. I pray for that, that they would do what is necessary. They've been given a serious trust. So God, just thank You that they've stepped up to it. Guide them in it. Give them wisdom for it. Be found in the midst of it. It's in Jesus' name we pray, Amen."

Speaker Lang: "Please proceed."

McCombie: "I don't want to be one to rise just to hear myself talk but after a 25-minute Session yesterday, I must rise today to express my frustration and disappointment. Like many of my fellow freshman Members, I arrived in Springfield to work to make a difference for my district. We knew it wouldn't be easy. We knew we were going to have to make some hard decisions, and we knew we were going to have to take some tough votes. I may be naïve but I honestly thought that in today's environment here in Illinois, we all believe the situation here is very dire. We would be voting on Bills that would help our districts and the people of Illinois. Instead, we have been voting on Bills that we cannot fund. Bills that give false hope. Bills that are self-serving and drafted to hurt each other. This is not about us. Where is our sense of urgency, our sense of honesty, and our sense of good? Coming from local government, I know how important it is to have a balanced budget. For Savannah, it has allowed us to plan for the future and do long-term projects that we're doing today. It allowed us to execute day-to-day operations without interruption. It allowed us to deliver services to those who depend on them. We all know, even those that aren't listening, that we have three weeks before a statutory deadline for us to pass a budget. We have made no progress in the House. And this week, I wonder why we are here. We have done very little on the floor and Session has even been canceled for tomorrow, which some of you are very happy about. People, time is running out. We have to work more, not less, to pass a balanced budget with reforms. We must restore the people's faith, provide stability and start to grow our economy. I encourage you, as the Pastor suggested, for us all to use our remaining time here in Springfield to push our senior Members and our leadership to work together. Please, let's be kind. Let's negotiate. Let's compromise. Please help me do the job I was sent here to do. Thank you."

Speaker Lang: "Page 5 of Calendar, under the Order of Resolutions. HJR24, Representative Willis. Please proceed, Representative."

Willis: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This is an initiative of the P20 Council. It is requesting a Transition to Kindergarten Advisory Committee to be formed. One of great things that we have done in the past is we've increased our recognition of early childhood education. And this is to review that to make sure that we are having our young children better prepared for Kindergarten. So, I would respectfully request an 'aye' vote to set up this advisory commission to review our transition from early childhood to Kindergarten. Thank you."

Speaker Lang: "Those in favor of the Lady's Resolution will vote 'yes'; opposed 'no'. The voting is open. Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Please record yourselves. Mr. Clerk... Crespo. Please take the record, Mr. Clerk. There are 111 voting 'yes'; 0 voting 'no'. And the Resolution is adopted. HJR38, Mr. Guzzardi. Please proceed, Sir."

Guzzardi: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This Resolution would encourage school districts to be mindful about the weight of backpacks that the children are required to carry. development. So, we encourage school districts to be mindful of this going forward."

Ford: "Thank you, Speaker and Members of the House. This Resolution simply urges the City of Chicago to build a new high school on the site of the old Emmitt School in Chicago."

Please proceed when you're ready, Sir."

Davidsmeyer: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. HR62 is a Resolution to bring awareness to a fairly little known disease called Lymphedema. It's actually... causes swelling in extremities. A lot of times, it happens after... sorry, a little out of breath. A lot of times it happens after someone has had cancer. So, I just wanted to bring awareness. These require compression garments. It's a very expensive disease. It's not currently covered by Medicare or Medicaid but I was working with a constituent and I'm sure we all have constituents that are affected by this."

Turner: "Couple points actually. Just a reminder for the Body on Monday, next Monday, the 15th when we get back, we'll actually have the House versus Senate bas... basketball game over at Lanphier High School so we need basketball players. We need Members to participate, male, female. We want to place a good showing against the Senate next week. So, think about participating if you can play. And also, save the date. Brown's as usual, 231 East Monroe. Hope to see you all out May 17. Thank you."

Speaker Lang: "Thank you, Sir. And on that basketball game, Mr. Davidsmeyer looks ready to play. If we can beat the Senate with him, I promise you that. Mr. D'Amico is recognized."

D'Amico: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I also want to announce next week, Wednesday, we have the House-Senate Softball game. So, make sure you bring your stuff. We had a great practice the other night. Ninety percent of the patients affected by FMD are women. The Fibromuscular Dysplasia Society of America was founded in March of 2003 and they've been active with a number of awareness efforts. There's still much needed awareness and research of the disease that is needed. And during the month of May each year this association organizes a global observance of the issues associated with Fibromuscular Dysplasia. This Resolution calls for the removal of the Auditor General Frank Mautino. And it's incumbent upon everybody in this place to understand exactly what happened on Monday. Because on Monday the State Board of Elections found that Auditor General Mautino willfully violated the State Board of Elections order to amend the disclosure reports filed in 2014 and 2015. Specifically, the responding committee willfully violated the board's May 18, 2016 order vis-à-vis failing to amend disclosure reports filed in 2014 and '15 to a) reflect an accurate breakdown between gas and repair made to his... his account, 2) identify the actual recipients of itemized expenditures and 3) identify the specific purpose for the expenditures. Their recommendation, which is all that they can do, is to fine the Auditor General. But make no mistake about this, our Auditor General should be removed by off... from office by this Body. This Body put him into the office, only can this Body with the Senate take him out of office. And it is our duty to do so at this point. The investigation into Mr. Mautino's campaign account began not long after he took office on January 1, 2016. While in office... while in office, Mr. Mautino has done the following things: He has failed to answer questions from Members of the General Assembly on multiple occasions. He has violated our own FOIA statute. He has delayed answering questions from the State Board of Elections. He has refused to sit for a deposition related to the State Board of Elections inquiry on the grounds that it... he... he was protected against self-incrimination, which means he basically pled the Fifth. And our Auditor General, our top watchdog, is currently under federal investigation. Now, Mr. Mautino, as the Auditor General, actually has the responsibility to audit the State Board of Elections that just found him willfully in noncompliance with their order. You can't get more cynical than to sit here and not allow this Resolution to be heard in committee and put up for a vote on the House Floor. That is the Resolution that we should be talking about. That is the action we should be taking this year... this... right now. This investigation is going... going on and will continue to go on, but it has been a distraction... a distraction and a reason for derision among taxpayers when your top financial watchdog is under investigation himself for not appropriately accounting for money. Everybody in this House should... needs to be aware of the allegations and what's going on with Frank Mautino and understand that he has now been declared willfully... willfully in violation of a State Board of Election order. This is serious business. Taxpayers take it serious and I... I fully want everybody to understand that the seriousness of this nature. We have the power to take him out of office. We can find somebody else better qualified and we should do it immediately."

Speaker Currie: "Thank you, Members. It is my pleasure and honor to introduce you to the new Consul General to Chicago from the Country of Japan. Our distinguished guest today has degrees from both Cambridge University and the University of Tokyo. He has been part of the Foreign Service since 1984. He has been posted to embassies... Japanese Embassies all over the world including Myanmar, India, the United Kingdom, and the United Nations. Most recently he's worked to help pursue international development activities as senior vice-president of the Japan International Cooperation Agency. He's been in Chicago only since February of this year and it is my pleasure to welcome him to address us. This is Consul General Naoki Ito."

Consul General Naoki Ito: "Thank you Majority Leader, Ladies and Gentlemen. I am very pleased to join all of you this afternoon and truly honored to be given this opportunity to speak before such a distinguished group. I only began my duty as Consul General in Chicago this February, but I understand that I have arrived in Illinois in the middle of a very serious controversy. Which quarterback will be the future of the Chicago Bears, Mike Glennon or Mitchell Trubisky? While I am new to my position, I am very familiar with Land of Lincoln. I played on my university's football team and cheered for Representative Perry and Jim McMahon in '85 Super Bowl. In the early 1990s, I visited Galena to participate in a business conference. Amidst intense trade friction then, at the time Japan's share of the U.S. trade deficit was 58 percent. Now, it is down to 9 percent. I could not be happier to be back. I look forward to experiencing all Illinois has to offer including hopefully a Bears winning streak later this year. Japan has a very long history with Illinois. The first Japanese came to Chicago in 1872 as part of the Iwakura Mission to learn about your systems of government and education. In 1892, the Phoenix Pavilion at the Columbian Expedition was built with the cooperation of Japanese craftsmen. Unfortunately, this pavilion burnt down in 1946. However, last year, a society of the pavilion, Yoko Ono, released the sculpture called "Sky Landing". Her first permanent public art instillation in the United States. This is part of Project 120 Chicago which could lead to the revitalization of the Garden of the Phoenix in Jackson Park. Japanese in Illinois have also contributed to economics. Did you know that the very first doctorate ever at the University of Chicago was given to a Japanese, Eiji Asada, a scholar of Old Testament Biblical Studies received the first doctorate in 1893. Over 100 years later at the same university, the Japanese born professor, Dr. Yoichiro Nambu received the Nobel Prize in Physics in 2008 for his work in subatomic physics. Such achievements have inspired Japanese students to come... to come abroad to Illinois. There are more than 400 Japanese students studying in Illinois each year. In Japan, Illinois is perhaps best known for President Abraham Lincoln. Every year, hundreds of Japanese students from Springfield's sister city, Ashikaga, participate in a competition. They read the Gettysburg Address, write an essay about what it means to the 21st century, and memorize the speech. A few lucky students are selected to travel to Springfield. They visit the Old State Capital and recite the Gettysburg Address where Lincoln gave his famous House Divided speech. Fortunately for the Japanese students, the Gettysburg Address is much shorter and easier to memorize. Lincoln's words transcend borders and help connect all nations that believe in democracy. Over the years, Japan and the U.S. have worked together to spread our shared values of democracy, freedom, human rights, and rule of law. It is these shared values that are at the foundation of Japan/U.S. relations. In his 5th year in office, Prime Minister Shinzo Abe has provided stability and the confidence for the Japanese economy through his Abenomics plan. GDP has increased by 44 trillion yen, approximately 400 billion dollars. The labor force is growing and unemployment has fallen to 2 point 8 percent, the lowest in 22 years. The participation of women in the labor force has also improved nearly 4 percent over 4 years. In February, Prime Minister Abe and President Donald Trump met and reaffirmed the commitment to the Mutual Security Alliance as well as the importance of deepening our trade and investment. In April, Vice President Mike Pence met with Deputy Prime Minister Tarō Asō in Tokyo and began an economic dialogue. They will continue to discuss a possible bi-lateral frame up which would promote trade, economic growth, and high standards throughout the Asia/Pacific Region. Our bi-lateral cooperation is demonstrated by Japan's relationship with Illinois. Altogether, there are 630 Japanese business facilities in Illinois which employ over 44 thousand people. The Aisin Group in downstate Marion is a great example that illustrates of a combined success. This group is part of Aisin Seiki, one of the largest automotive component manufacturers in the world, based in Kariya, Japan. They celebrate their 15th anniversary in Marion this year. Employment in Marion increased by 15 percent from 2000 to 2014 and Aisin has grown to three plants there over that time. In addition to direct investment by Japanese companies, Japan also imports 4.2 billion dollars' worth goods and services from Illinois. We have a vital two-way economic partnership. I ask you, Representatives, to help us encourage and further develop this relationship. I hope to that end that each of you can help cultivate a grassroots understanding of Japan's investment in Illinois with your constituents as well. In closing, let me turn our attention to a more contentious international situation. Lately, the world has been alarmed by the increasing frequency of the provocations of North Korea. You may recall that a ballistic missile was fired into the Sea of Japan while Prime Minister Abe was visiting President Trump at the Mar-a-Lago in February. We fully appreciate the strong determination demonstrated by the United States to address and solve the situation in our region. When Vice President Pence visited Japan in April, he warned North Korea not to test the resolve of the U.S. military while aboard the U.S.S. Ronald Reagan. The USS Ronald Reagan is home ported in Yokosuka, Japan, which is the headquarters of the United States Seventh Fleet. Of course, Illinois has a special connection with the Navy through the Great Lakes Naval Station, where every sailor receives his or her basic training. Japan is assuming larger roles and responsibilities and Secretary Mattis called Japan's host nation financial support a 'model of cost sharing for other nations to follow'. The Japan/U.S. alliance continues to serve as the cornerstone of peace, stability and prosperity for the whole Asia/Pacific Region. Thank you again for your warm welcome today. I would like to note that this December, the Consulate General of Japan in Chicago, which is my office, will celebrate its 120th anniversary. I am confident that our future together will be as productive as our past. I am excited to discover more about Illinois and the Midwest. And to work with you to promote a two-way economic partnership and cultural exchange. Thank you very much."
