Speaker Turner: "Leader Currie moves for the adoption of the Agreed Resolutions. All those in favor say 'aye'; all opposed say 'nay'. In the opinion of the Chair, the 'ayes' have it. And the Resolutions are adopted. Representative McDermed, for what reason do you seek recognition?"

McDermed: "Thank you, Mr. Chair. I'd like everyone to give a warm Springfield welcome to my intern who is here with us this week. With us from Lockport is Nick Rainieri. Nick is a college student and working as an intern this fall in my office. And in January will be working for a Congressman in Washington D.C. So, I want all of us to put on our best foot so he can see that it's way better here in Illinois than anything that they.. any show that they could be putting on in Washington D.C. So, please everyone welcome Nick Rainieri.

Speaker Turner: "Thank you, Representative. And welcome to your Capitol. Representative Currie."

Currie: "Thank you, Speaker, and Members of the House. I have two wonderful introductions to make this afternoon. First, let me tell you about Natalie Phelps Finnie, sitting right back here. She replaces Brandon Phelps, who has been our longtime friend and colleague. Please give her a warm Springfield welcome. And the replacement for another good colleague and longtime friend, Elaine Nekritz. His name is Jonathan Carroll, right back here. Join me in welcoming him."

Turner: "Representative Finnie, would you like to say a few words?"

Finnie: "Yes. Thank you, Mr. Speaker and Representative Currie. Thank you so much. This is a huge honor. Unbelievably humbling experience to be here in this chamber. As you know, I come from a rich history of family who have served here. I have wonderful personal memories as being a child here in this chamber. Couldn't imagine that I would be here today at this time. But I take... I feel the full responsibility that has been put upon me and I have been in prayer that I could serve the people of the 118th District with wisdom, integrity, and compassion. And so, I look forward to working with all of you, both sides of the aisle, and getting to know you better. I'm a mother of three children and a wife of 18 years, a cattle rancher, and so I look forward... thank you so much to all of you. Thank you."

Speaker Turner: "Thank you and welcome Representative. Representative Carroll, would you like to say a few words?"

Carroll: "Yes, I would. Thank you. First of all, yeah, I'd like to start off by thanking Leader Nekritz for her service to this to... this House of Representatives. She was a great person in our community. She's a powerful force in our state and somebody that certainly will be missed. So, I hope to serve my district the same as she did with such honor and integrity. I'm humbled by this opportunity to continue her legacy to be standing here in the same place with so many great people before me and currently that I serve with. I look forward to this opportunity. I think it's just great. And I want to work together with everyone just, you know... and be a part of the process. I'd also like to thank my parents by name so they can be on the record... State Legislator. My parents are Paula and Alan Carroll and my wife, Katrina Carroll, and my children, Asher and Brooke Carroll. So, thank you for the opportunity to speak and I look forward to working together with everybody."

Speaker Turner: "Thank you, Representative, and welcome. Representative Skillicorn, for what do you seek recognition?"

Skillicorn: "Point of personal privilege, Mr. Speaker."

Speaker Turner: "Please proceed, Sir."

Skillicorn: "I just want to announce the Stair Caucus is again meeting while we are doing Veto Session. So tomorrow morning, 7:30, North Wing of the Stratton Building. And then when we are here for November, we're going to be Wednesday mornings 7:30 in the South Wing of the Stratton Building. So, see you tomorrow morning. Legislators that sweat together can work together."

Speaker Turner: "Thank you, Representative. Members, immediately following adjournment Democrats will caucus in Room 114. Democrats will caucus in 114 immediately following adjournment. And now allowing perfunctory time for the Clerk, Leader Currie moves that the House adjourn until Wednesday, October 25, at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, October 25, 10:30 a.m. All in favor say 'aye'; all opposed say 'nay'.
