Thank You for the opportunity to serve the people of Illinois. We confess we don't always know what is best, but You do. And we trust You for Your guidance and direction. Thank You for families that support us as best as they know how. Help us to show appreciation and true gratitude to them. Father, protect our minds and our hearts as we work here, hard, today. Protect us from our own pride and egos. Protect us from speaking harshly to each other as we get tired. Protect us from dangers we don't even know about. Protect our kids, our grandkids, and significant others as they are back home. Help them to know how much we love and adore them. Show us as state officials how to work in unity and to love for each and every one in our state. Thank You for Your unconditional love for us. Help us to pass the same love on to each other today. Batinick: "I had the joy of watching Revenue Committee last week and there was a lot of interesting talk about the State of Minnesota. And I want to mention to the Body, and I brought a few copies here, I wrote an Op-Ed about Minnesota in February. I'll give you some highlights, I will save the ending. You'll have to read it to hear the great ending. But as... as we're having all the talk about taxes and stuff, I want to talk about the whole picture of Minnesota and some of the differences between our states. Something unique Minnesota does is their property taxes are actually one percent less than the national average and they do something unique where they actually share commercial property tax wealth with their schools statewide, something we don't do here. They cap work comp attorney's fees at about $26 thousand. They have a significantly lower prevailing wage. For their minimum wage they have a training wage for teens and there's just a general training wage and a lower minimum wage for small businesses. They also actually are able to provide quality education while still spending less per student. So, as we're talking about comparisons with other states, I have a bunch of copies about Minnesota, the op-ed here. I would really appreciate if you came by and started learning a little about it. Thank you."

Speaker Turner: "Thank you, Representative. Representative Cavaletto, for what reason do you seek recognition?"

didn't exist three years ago. They didn't have a hockey team more than three years ago, but they put it together, they fielded their team. It's a team of largely juniors, some seniors, and I think there might some sophomores out there too. Yup, some sophomores as well. And they have done a fantastic job this year. They finished with a record of 26 wins, 3 loses, and 1 tie. That's under their first year coach, Michael Porillo, and the cadets by name are Mark Picchietti, Andrew Galle, Sammy Greco, Matthew Sitar, Logan Gayton, Cole Hostasa, Nicholas Greco, Dylan Foster, Gino Viscomi, Aaron Munson, Sean Gillian, Jacob Carlson, Collin Ayres, Sean Galle, Henry Waltoon, Tom Nowicki, Zachary Dietz, Andrew Madej. I apologize if I screwed that up. And the assistant coaches are Greg Sauers, Jared Weaver, Graham Mosey. And the strength coach is Joe Koup. So, I'd ask you to give them members of the Marmion Academy's Hockey Team a warm welcome and congratulate them on their win."

Speaker Turner: "Representative Fortner."

Fortner: "Thank you, Speaker. And I want to add my congratulations to the young men, the cadets of Marmion Academy, a school with a proud tradition, located in the 49th District. What they've been able to do in three short years in putting together this program and going from scratch to a state championship just shows the kind of dedication these young men have put in, dedication that I'm sure they will carry with them going forward as they advance their own futures and careers. Congratulations."

A new ranking from Consumer Finance Site, Wallet Hub, ranks the Land of Lincoln among the most fun states in the country. With pure enjoyment in mind, they compared 50 states and they range from a whole range of costs. And Illinois, while our weather may be unpredictable that doesn't mean there is a shortage of fun things to do in the Land of Lincoln on an objective basis, so there's lots to do and we're one of the most fun states in the Union.
