Clerk Hollman: "House Perfunctory Session will come to order. Introduction and First Reading of House Bills. House Bill 5881, offered by Representative Bristow, a Bill for an Act concerning education. House Bill 5882, offered by Representative Frese, a Bill for an Act concerning appropriations. House Bill 5883, offered by Representative Greg Harris, a Bill for an Act concerning public aid. First Reading of these House Bills."

Speaker Lang: "The House will be in order. The House will be in order. We shall be led in prayer today by Father Andrew Kishler who is with St. George Orthodox Church in Spring Valley. Father Kishler is the guest of Representative Long. Members and guests are asked to refrain from starting our laptops, turn off cell phones, and rise for the invocation and Pledge of Allegiance. Father Kishler."

Father Kishler: "Let us pray. Almighty, God, You are the creator of all things and all good things come from Your great love for us. We thank You for all the blessings of life and liberty You have given us in this great nation, the freedom of religion, the freedom to peacefully protest. And we thank You for all the ways You have blessed this beautiful State of Illinois. God, we praise You and we glorify You as the great law giver, the one who gave the Torah on tablets of stone to the holy prophet, Moses. You have inspired sages and philosophers of all races and all cultures with a vision of eternal justice and the knowledge of right and wrong to guide human society and behavior. Gracious Lord, all those gathered here today have been entrusted by the people of this great State of Illinois with the right ordering of society through law. This is a good and important task, although sometimes a thankless one. There are many important and dire issues that I hear come before this Body this week and I ask Your blessing today and for this Session on all the men and women assembled here today as they begin their work. May they be guided by Your wisdom as was King Solomon. May their proceedings and their decisions be guided always by Your justice. May their hearts be ever filled with Your great love for men and women everywhere. As King David wrote in the 19th Psalm: The law of the Lord is perfect, reviving the soul. The testimony of the Lord is sure and making wise the simple. The precepts of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart. The commandments of the Lord are pure, enlightening the eyes. The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring forever. The ordinances of the Lord are true and righteous all together, more to be desired are they than gold, even much fine gold, sweeter also than honey and drippings of the honeycomb. Be with all of us, oh gracious Lord, in Your great love for mankind and with Your eternal wisdom, oh God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit both now and ever and unto ages of ages. May God bless all of you and may God bless this beautiful State of Illinois always now and forever and unto ages of ages. Amen. Thank you."

Speaker Lang: "We'll be led in the Pledge by Mr. Brady."

Brady - et al: "I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Speaker Lang: "Roll Call for Attendance. Leader Currie."

Currie: "Thank you, Speaker. Please let the record show that Representatives Crespo, Drury, Flowers, Tabares, and Welch are excused today."

Speaker Lang: "Mr. Demmer. Mr. Demmer."

Demmer: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Please let the record reflect that Representatives Bennett, Cavaletto, Fortner, Ives, Sosnowski and Stewart are excused for the day."

Speaker Lang: "Mr. Clerk, please take the record. We have 102 Members answering the roll. And we do have a quorum. The Chair recognizes the Clerk."

Clerk Hollman: "Committee Report. Representative Currie, Chairperson from the Committee on Rules reports the following committee action taken on May 21, 2018: recommends be adopted, referred to the floor is Floor Amendment 1 to Senate Bill 2428, Floor Amendment 1 to Senate Bill 2905, Floor Amendment 1 to Senate Bill 3139, Floor Amendment 1 to House Joint Resolution 95; approved for consideration, referred to Second Reading is House Bill 5769."

Speaker Lang: "Representative Bellock is recognized."

Bellock: "Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. A point of personal privilege."

Speaker Lang: "Please proceed."

Bellock: "I have a very special constituent who's up in the balcony above me on the right hand side. Her name is Erin Compton. She's visited us before. She was Ms. Amazing. She has been in the Special Olympics and won a gold medal in rhythmic gymnastics and does the horseback riding. She'll be participating again this year in the 50th anniversary of the Special Olympics. And today her parents are with her, Diane and Greg. And there's other parents with her today, too, because they're established a very special group called Partners in Policymaking and Leadership Training Program designed especially for parents of school-aged children with developmental disabilities and adults with disability. These partners teach leadership skills and the process of developing positive partnerships with elected officials so all of us can work with people with disabilities, not only with children but adults. And I think it's a very, very special program. So, I'd like them all to stand up and please welcome them and give them applause... and work with them during the next year on these special policy making issues for people... very, very special people like Erin. And welcome her today. Thank you."

Speaker Lang: "Welcome. Thank you for being in the House chamber with us. Representative Scherer is recognized."

Scherer: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I have a great opportunity for my fellow Representatives. Many Senators have already done this. I would like to encourage you to take out a membership to the Abraham Lincoln Historical Museum. It's right up the street and you can get a membership for only $75. I checked with them last week and you are allowed to give this out to your constituents any time you'd like. And kudos to Representative Butler for already doing this and letting me know about it as well. So, I have membership forms here and there's a special exhibit going on right now from Illinois to the White House about our four past Presidents who all came from Illinois. So, please consider purchasing one of these memberships for your constituents. Thank you very much."

Speaker Lang: "Thank you, Representative. Mr. Phillips is recognized."

Phillips: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Point of personal privilege, please."

Speaker Lang: "Proceed, Sir."

Phillips: "I had the fortunate time to spend with a gentleman this weekend that is... has just gotten back to work in southern Illinois in the coal mines. And he had a couple of quick questions for me. He wanted to know why it took so long for us to start that. He's just several other friends that want to come back to work and he wanted to know what we could do to bring jobs back to Illinois. And I told him some things that we'd tried to work on in the Illinois House but got killed in the Illinois House, especially with coal. And I just wanted to report to you, you know what his starting wage is, Mr. Speaker? Twenty-seven dollars an hour. He wanted to thank me because now he's... he's been unemployed but now he's got a job, he has respect for himself. And he's doing so much better. Why is it so dad gum difficult in this state for us to work on good paying jobs? Thank you, Mr. Speaker, for this moment."

Speaker Lang: "Representative Wallace is recognized."

Wallace: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise for a point of personal privilege."

Speaker Lang: "You may proceed."

Wallace: "As you can hear, there are quite a few people here in the Capitol today who are participating in Moral Mondays, which is part of the people... the poor people's campaign, which is 50 years old this year. A campaign that ended when Dr.

Martin Luther King was assassinated. But has since been revised because when we revisit the measures of equality and economic justice that Dr. King talked about 50 years ago, we still see disparities amongst race and gender. And so, I just want to read briefly what Reverend Dr. William Barber has stated about this 50th anniversary and about this 2018 movement. And he states, 'With the realities of systemic racism, systemic poverty, ecological devastation, the war economy and the often false moral narrative of Christian nationalism, we are in a moment in time which we need a deeply moral, deeply constitutional, anti-racist, anti-poverty, pro-labor transformative fusion coalition where people of all different races, colors and creeds come together and work together to engage in moral direct action, massive voter mobilization and power building from the bottom up state by state and even in the U.S. Capitol. We need this to change the narrative and insist that we will no longer engage in attention violence against the poor and other interlocking injustices that connect to poverty.' That is what our fellow Illinoisans are here and... for today and throughout the next several Mondays for Moral Mondays across the nation. So, our State Capitol will be continued to be ascended upon by individuals who are fighting to give voice to those who live in poverty. And fighting to talk about the interconnectedness of our racial injustices and our economic injustices in this state and in this country. So, I hope that you will take a moment to learn more about the Poor People's Campaign of 2018."

Long: "Thank you, Speaker. It was a great privilege to have Father Andrew say the invocation this morning. One thing that he did forget is we are celebrating the 100th birth... 100 years birth of the St. George Church. I would also like to announce his family is here with him, if they would like to rise. Everybody up there in the gallery stand. We have not only Father Andrew Kishler but his lovely wife, Patricia Kishler, Magdalena Kishler, Susana Kishler, John Kishler, Isaac Kishler, Bridgit... Bridgit Kishler, Joseph Kishler. We also have George Anema from the church, these are parishioners, and we have a World War II Veteran amongst here today in the gallery. His name is William Miller, along with his beautiful wife Mary Miller. Can we give them a nice Springfield round of applause?"

Speaker Lang: "Thank you for joining us today. Mr. Harris, what's right about Illinois, Sir?"

Harris, D.: "Well, thank you, Mr. Speaker. And a point of personal privilege. What's right about Illinois is what we're doing to... to reclaim land that used to be sites unusable. This comes from the U.S. EPA and they just announced their first annual National Federal Facility Excellence in Site Reuse Awards. These awards recognize the hard work, innovative thinking and cooperation among federal agencies, states, tribes, and local partners in cleaning up sites. And of the four sites that they mentioned two of them are... are in Illinois. One is the Glenview Naval Air Station, which is now... has projects of... of 2 million square feet of office and retail, four hundred acres of green space and a 165 thousand square foot community center. The other one that's on the list, the second one out of four, is the Joliet Army Ammunition Plant. And the public land in that plant is now the largest contiguous open space for bird habitat in northeastern Illinois and serves as a habitat for several endangered species. So, we're doing right by us here in Illinois."

Speaker Lang: "Thank you, Sir. We appreciate it. Mr. Clerk, House Resolution 969, Representative Katie Stuart."

Clerk Hollman: "House Resolution 969, offered by Representative Katie Stuart. Be it

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDREDTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we congratulate Kennison Adams on receiving the 2018 Prudential Spirit of Community Award for her exemplary volunteer service and thank her for her leadership and community spirit, and we wish her the best in all her future endeavors."

Speaker Lang: "Representative Stuart."

Stuart: "Thank you. I wanted... I have the privilege of introducing Kennison to the Body today. She's here if she could stand up. So, Kennison was one of only two students across the entire State of Illinois to win this award. She's traveled to D.C. and spent some time there with other winners of the award. Kennison is just finished up at Edwardsville High School; next year she'll be going to the University of Missouri in Kansas City and she's in their six year B.A./M.D. program. So, in addition to all of her volunteering with the Explorer Post, she was also a member of the cross country team, the track team, FCA, EPIC, and was also President of the Honor Society at Edwardsville High School. Carroll: "Yes. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This Bill is a very important Bill because DCFS is... does not maintain files on suspected child abuse or neglect. So, this Bill would call for them to maintain those files for 5 years. And currently as it stands right now it's for 1 year. So I'd like that to stand for 5 years. I'll take any questions."

Speaker Lang: "Mr. Breen."

Breen: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Will the Sponsor yield?"

Speaker Lang: "Sponsor yields."

Breen: "And Representative, I see DCFS is opposed and why are they opposed to your Bill?"

Carroll: "They discussed it in committee that it would be sort of a burden on them to maintain these files and they do similar work. But again, I just want to make sure that we're... we're keeping our... you know, we're keeping children safe that go into homes. And this is... this gives us the ability to do that."

Breen: "So, and... and I see that if you've got the death... these are unfounded reports? So, these are not founded reports, they're unfounded reports? Right?"

Carroll: "Yeah, that's correct."

Breen: "Okay. And so currently, death of a child, sexual abuse, serious physical injury to a child stays for 3 years even though they're unfounded they stay in the central register for 3 years. Any other unfounded reports are kept for 12 months."

Carroll: "Right."

Carroll: "My... my concern is the safety of children involved with DCFS. And again, I think we have to make sure that we're holding on to this information and these records as long as we can..."

Breen: "Well, why... why do we destroy it at all then? Why wouldn't we just keep it forever?"

Carroll: "Well, I think..."

Breen: "We have computers, it's an electronic record I'm assuming."

Carroll: "Well, this is a starting point."

Breen: "What's that?"

Carroll: "I said, this is a starting point. If we could start on a 5-year basis and then see where it can go from there, I think would be the best place to go."

Breen: "But for unfounded reports. So, it's people that may not have done anything wrong. So, they're gonna keep those reports for that extra period of time?"

Carroll: "That's correct. But again, we're keeping track of that information just moving forward. So therefore, they have that information available."

Breen: "Okay. I just... when... when they say that it means that there will be a cloud over certain people that may not deserve to have a cloud over them that was a... it was a concern there. So, that... just something to be aware of that DCFS is opposed. Thank you."

Speaker Lang: "Representative Ammons, this Bill is on Short Debate. So, we've already had one speaker on each side. But, I'll indulge you."

Ammons: "Thank you for your indulgence as I rise to question in opposition of this Bill. I wanted to ask the Sponsor, this registry of unfounded have you done any analysis on the impact... the disparate impact of children in DCFS that are reported as mandated and maybe unfounded? Meaning, African-American children are reported to DCFS at a higher rate than other children and this may impact employment. Have you looked at that at all?"

Carroll: "I have not."

Ammons: "If a person is on this registry and they are in the child welfare as a career, have we looked at all... what the end... the pending investigation... keeping them on the registry would do to their employment?"

Carroll: "You know, I cannot hear the question. Can we get quiet in the chamber, please? Go ahead. Ask that again. I'm sorry."

Ammons: "Statistically, African-American children are reported to DCFS more than any other ethnic group. And so, if I were reported and.. and it was unfounded and I was also functioning in the child welfare system, meaning as a child worker or a head start worker, that unfounded report... my name being on that register could prevent me from employment. Have we looked at that at all?"

Carroll: "We have not."

Ammons: "Okay. Thank you for honestly answering the questions. I rise in opposition to this Bill. Because there is a disparate impact in the number of children that are reported and kept,

STATE OF ILLINOIS
100th GENERAL ASSEMBLY
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
TRANSCRIPTION DEBATE

134th Legislative Day

in this case, in DCFS. This Bill could lead to a disparate impact on employment for people who may end up on this registry without any actual founded reports. When you are added to a registry that makes it publically available to employers and others that could impact the outcomes of employment if I am studying child welfare, if I'm in school for child welfare, pre-school, head start, or any other child related case. This policy could have an unintended consequence for people who are going into this field of study. And it also could have unintended consequences for a parent who may be employed currently and end up on this registry. It is something that we should study before we add registries. Registries are often not studied once they are implemented. We do not study the impact of people being on registries and we also are concerned about how long once they get there. And so, unfortunately, I have to rise in opposition to this because it is regressive in its action, not because of the young person who unfortunately was a victim of DCFS's lack of responsiveness and resulted in the death of this child of whom is distantly related to my daughter, as I rose to speak to this when this came to our knowledge. But that is not going to solve the problem of DCFS. And so, I rise asking for a 'no' vote on this Resolution... on this Bill... on Senate Bill 293, because it doesn't answer the critical question about the impact of a person inadvertently ending up this registry. And the impact of their economic outcomes as a result. And so, with that I ask for a 'no' vote on Senate Bill 293."

Ford: "If they want to be... I'm lost."

Batinick: "Well, it... I'm happy to pull up the text of the Bill for you."

Ford: "I'm looking at it but I had a question, does it have any best interest factors to protect the child from a parent... from a grandparent that..."

Batinick: "I got you. We're... we're not changing the existing process. So, let's say there's... there's a... a stepfather and the mother dies. And the stepfather wants to petition the court for... for visitation rights, they only have to show that they are related to one of the parents of the child."

Ford: "That's a..."

Batinick: "It would be impossible for them to be related to both. Everything else in statute stays the same."

Ford: "So, in current law today how easy it for a biological father to receive the visitations and the rights? This seems as though it might put a stepfather in position over a biological father, because there are no best interest factors. What if the biological father objects to this?"

Batinick: "Well, under... understand that this... this is stepmothers, this is grandmothers, and this is grandfathers."

Ford: "Right."

Batinick: "So, this is... this is... the intent of the Bill previously was to do what this... what this did. But it is impossible for a grandparent to be related to both the father and mother of a child."

Ford: "Is it possible..."

Batinick: "So, this cleanup to that."

Ford: "...that this Bill would put grandparents in a position before biological parents?"

Batinick: "No. What this Bill does is it just... this... this Bill clarifies what was already in existing law. And says that if you are going to petition for visitation you have to be related to one of the parents."

Ford: "That's fine. So, you... if you petition, I understand. What does a parent have to do to gain visitation rights under current law?"

Batinick: "Well, I... I'm... I'm not an expert on what that... and that's not what this Bill addresses. That would be something that would go into a different Bill. I understand where... where you're coming from. That would be tangential to this Bill and something that I would as... as somebody who has a stepdaughter..."

Ford: "All right. Let me ask another question then."

Batinick: "Sure."

Ford: "So, once... if your Bill..."

Speaker Lang: "Mr. Ford, this Bill is on Short Debate."

Ford: "Okay."

Speaker Lang: "Please bring your remarks to a close."

Batinick: "No."

Ford: "No?"

Batinick: "No. It will not."

Ford: "What do they have to do?"

Batinick: "They have to petition the court."

Ford: "And so, what... what is the courts guidance on granting those rights? They... what would a court have to do to grant those rights? Will there be any best interest factors for the court to be guided by?"

Batinick: "There's... I'm looking at the other part of the law. I'm... I'm... my Bill addresses one part. I guess there's five factors before it gets to this point. This is just cleanup language. This is cleanup language to existing..."

Ford: "To the Bill. I would just urge a 'no' vote because this Bill is not good. It sort of puts grandparents in a position of preference over biological parents and it also have no protections in it for the children. And so, we know that the current law says that there must be best interest factors for an individual to gain visitation rights. There are no visitation best interest factors in this Bill. I urge a 'no' vote."

Speaker Lang: "I apologize to those whose lights are on, this Bill is on Short Debate. Mr. Batinick to close."

Batinick: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This is clarifying language. It clarifies what already is existing in current law. It affects grandparents, grandmothers, grandfathers, stepmothers, stepfathers. This is important clarifying language that just simplifies existing laws. I'd be happy to Guzzardi: "Representative Breen, in the past I recall you having been critical of the creation of new task forces, why do you feel that this one merits our consideration?"

Breen: "Well... and... and I'm critical of the creation of task forces because of what happens is when folks try to run a Bill that turns out it was a very bad idea then we kind of collapse to doing a task force on the idea. On this one, we're already got an existing law on pharmaceutical disposal. The problem is, is folks are still not using the various tools available to them. So now is the time for public information campaign. So the task force is the appropriate way to do that with the various medical professionals and the other entities involved. And of course, we all share a concern of not having pharmaceuticals in our waterways and, you know, in our various, you know, environmental concerns that come up from the improper disposal of pharmaceuticals. So that's... that's the answer."

Speaker Lang: "Representative McCombie."

McCombie: "Thank you, Speaker. SB3036 is the same as HB5505 which passed unanimously out of committee. It is also an agency Bill and its intent to codify and uniform term lengths with a max of 10 years of service on the advisory boards on IDFPR on matters of licensing and education. It affects four of their boards; there's no compensation on any of those boards."

months as long as the participants were in the program. The intent of... this will provide a backstop for low income individuals as they work towards self-sufficiency and economic security."

Flowers: "So, basically what you're saying that we will have a five-year demonstration program and the income will be disregarded for this group of people, low income people, to see how they can become self-sufficient?"

Hays: "Well, the... the... the underlying progress... problem is the so-called eligibility cliff, right? That... that individuals who... who have... in this case there are two programs, Job Readiness and Learning Program and the Healthy Beginnings Program for healthy moms and babies. And what happens traditionally is when these individuals get back on their feet and get into the job world they have to make this untenable decision between the new job and losing some of the services. And this is saying while they folks are in the program, getting the training, et cetera, if they have additional income it's disregarded for a period of 3 years. So, they don't face this eligibility cliff issue."

Flowers: "Well, Representative, let me just explain that I love your Bill. And... and quite frankly, I am so sorry because it's such a commonsense Bill, I'm so sorry that it's a mere demonstration. Because commonsense will tell anyone that you can never become self-sufficient under the guidelines in which the State and the Federal Government is holding you back. And the only way... the only way you would need a helping hand from the government and it's okay to ask for a helping hand from the government because you want to get off. And if...

but if they want to keep you on they'll hold you back. So, I commend you for bringing this legislation forward. And I must say that I am pleasantly surprised and thank you very much. This is a fantastic piece of legislation. Are you okay?"
