Clerk Hollman: "House Perfunctory Session will come to order. Committee Reports. Representative Barbara Flynn Currie, Chairperson from the Committee on Rules reports the following committee action taken on November 13, 2018: recommends be adopted, referred to the floor is Floor Amendment #2 to Senate Bill 3247; approved for consideration, referred to Second Reading is House Bill 5769."

Speaker Madigan: "The House will come to order. The House will come to order. The Members shall please take their seats. We shall be led in prayer today by Lee Crawford, the Pastor of the Cathedral of Praise Christian Center in Springfield. Members and guests are asked to refrain from starting their laptops, turn off all cell phones, and rise for the invocation and the Pledge of Allegiance. Mr. Crawford"

Pastor Crawford: "Let us pray. Gracious and sovereign God, creator of us all, for it is from You, Oh God, that all of our help comes and it is from You, Oh God, that all of our blessings flow. We pray today that you will look upon this august Assembly that You have gathered here today. May Your blessings be upon the Speaker of this House, its Leaders, all of its Members, their families. May You bless them today, Oh God, to be as one, to be kind, to be gracious, to be loving, to be patient, to be forgiving, not holding any grudges, or any animosity toward one another. I pray today, Oh God, that You would order their steps in your ways, in all of your actions. That You would grant them gentle hearts to serve with passion and to serve with purpose. That You would bless them to have minds to acknowledge and to seek diligently after Your will and after You. Bless them today, Oh God, with Your power, with Your might. Assist them today, Oh God, with Your guidance and with Your wise counsel, and that may all of their endeavors be pleasing in Your sight, that they may find themselves doing that which is the good and that which is the most precious and most perfect will of God. This we ask and pray in Your precious Son's name, Amen."

Speaker Madigan: "We shall be led in the Pledge of Allegiance by Representative Greg Harris."

Harris, G. - et al: "I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Speaker Madigan: "Roll Call for Attendance. Representative Currie."

Currie: "Thank you, Speaker. Please let the record reflect the excused absences of Representatives Arroyo, Chapa LaVia, and Gabel."

Speaker Madigan: "Mr. Wheeler."

Wheeler, K.: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Please let the record reflect that Representatives Phillips and Long are excused today."

Speaker Madigan: "The Clerk, shall take the record. On this question, there are 111 people responding to the Attendance Roll Call. There is a quorum present. Mr. Durkin, state your point."

Durkin: "Well, it's good to see you, Mr. Speaker. It's been a long time. It's been a few months, but I'd like to make a point of personal privilege."

Speaker Madigan: "Could we all give our attention to Mr. Durkin, please?"

Durkin: "Mr. Speaker and Members of the General Assembly, I have the privilege of announcing that we have four new Members that have joined our caucus, it'll be their first day of Session today, and I'd like to identify each one of them. Representative Jeff Keicher is here from DeKalb. He took over for Bob Pritchard. Behind me is Representative Deanne Mazzochi from Elmhurst. She took over for Representative Bellock. Back and to my left is Representative Mike Marron. He took over for Representative Chad Hays. And in the front Representative Helene Walsh, who took over for Representative Sauer. Thank you, and welcome all."

Speaker Madigan: "The Chair recognizes Representative Currie. House Resolution 1268."

Currie: "Thank you, Speaker and Members of the House. House Resolution 1268 would fill the vacancy in the current... the vacancy in the office of the Chief Clerk of the Illinois House. The proposal in House Resolution 1268 is that we elect John Hollman to that position. John has spent pretty much his entire adult life working for the Illinois Legislature. Starting in 2003, he was an Illinois Legislative Staff Intern. He went to the Clerk's Office about six years ago and I think he is eminently qualified. You all know him and I hope you will join me in voting for the accession of John Hollman to Clerk... Chief Clerk of the Illinois House."

Speaker Madigan: "Representative Currie has moved for the adoption of the Resolution. Are those... there's anyone who wishes to speak on the Resolution? There being no opposition, those in favor of the Resolution... those in favor of the Resolution vote 'yes'; those opposed vote 'no'. The Clerk shall take the record. On this question, 111 people voting 'yes', 0 voting 'no'. The Resolution is adopted. HJR142, Representative Carroll. Will all Members please rise for this Resolution? Mr. Carroll."

Carroll: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. We have to talk about these events more often than we used to. In Pittsburgh, a few weeks ago, we had another mass shooting in this country. Me, being of Jewish descent, my family would go to Synagogue on a regular basis. That would be a place that we would find to be a safe haven where we could pray, reflect, and all the above, and that's becoming less and less of an option for us. So, we put this Resolution forward today to honor the memory of those that perished in the... in the shooting. I want to read a small part of a prayer. It's called the Mourner's Kaddish that we would say at the times when people pass. So, I'm going to read it to you in Hebrew first and then I'll do the part in English. The part in Hebrew is (recites Mourner's Kaddish in Hebrew).

And that says, May you establish peace in heavens, give peace to all of us, and to the earth. And let us all say Amen. May God comfort you among the mourners around the world. Thank you."

Speaker Madigan: "You've all heard the Resolution. Those in favor please say 'aye'; those... excuse me. Representative Feigenholtz."

Feigenholtz: "Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. To the Resolution. The American Jewish community witnessed a tragedy that many of us have quietly feared. At the Tree of Life Synagogue in Pittsburgh, 11 of our Jewish brothers and sisters were killed simply because they were Jews. It is devastating, heart wrenching, and shocking. While the Jewish community has long known its fair share of hate through history, this atrocity serves as a reminder that anti-Semitism is not a problem of the past. Anti-Semitism is thriving, growing, all over the United States and the world. This vicious incident is part of a larger trend in Illinois and across the country. In 2017, the Anti-Defamation League tracked a 57 percent increase in anti-Semitic incidents, the second highest number of incidents ever recorded. In the Midwest region, including Chicago, 103 percent increase in incidents was noted. Four point two million Anti-Semitic tweets posted from three million unique handles. Violence against Jews does not occur in a vacuum. It is made possible by the slow and insidious normalization of anti-Semitism. What we have learned time and time again, is that hateful words lead to hateful action. We cannot let this normalization take root and we cannot stand quietly when these hateful words are spread. As every person here understands, hate crimes are meant to target not just victims, but entire communities. In this incident, the shooter's goal was to terrorize American Jews and anyone who believes in a just, inclusive society. This was his intent, but we will not let him succeed. With all of us standing together, as we are today and across the country, he will fail and he will fail miserably. We have joined together with united and determined group of allies of all races and ethnicities, elected officials from both sides of the aisle, law enforcement, faith leaders, friends and neighbors who have all sworn to stand up against bigotry. Let's take comfort in one another. Let us not forget this image right now, and let us dedicate ourselves to the task of eradicating hate from our great state and our great nation. Thank you."

Speaker Madigan: "Is there any further discussion? There being no further discussion, Representative Carroll moves for the adoption of the Resolution. Those in favor say 'aye'; those opposed say 'no'. HJR142 is adopted. HJR127, Representative Jimenez."

Jimenez: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. House Joint Resolution 127 is an initiative that came to me from one of my constituents who's a World War II veteran. His name is Vincent Speranza. And what the Resolution talks about is honoring our Vietnam veterans. He has talked to me at length, and I think some other Members about the way that he was treated when he came back from World War II, and continues to be treated as a war hero. And I am appreciative of the bipartisan support that we have on this Resolution and thankful for the service of all the veterans here in the Illinois House and across Illinois for cosponsoring the Resolution. I ask for an 'aye' vote."

Speaker Madigan: "Representative Jimenez moves for the adoption of HJR127. Is there any discussion? There being no discussion, the question is, 'Shall the Resolution be adopted?' Those in favor say 'aye'; those opposed say 'no'. The 'ayes' have it. HJR127 is adopted. Representative Martwick, were you seeking recognition? The plan is for both Democrats and Republicans to go to caucus. Democrats in 114. Republicans in 118. So,
