Speaker Manley: "The House will be in order. Members will be in their chairs. Welcome back, everyone. We shall be led in prayer today by Pastor Steve Cassell who is with the Beloved Church in Lena, Illinois. Pastor Cassell is the guest of Representative Chesney. Members and guests are asked to refrain from starting their laptops, turn off all cell phones, and rise for the invocation and the Pledge of Allegiance. Reverend."

Pastor Cassell: "It is with great honor and an acknowledged favor that I stand before this Honorable Assembly in this hallowed place. I am aware that these very walls have had the resonance of some of the greatest men and women, and their voices that have ever taken a podium. I'm humbled to stand where many much greater than me have stood. Will you please join me in meekness as we implore the creator of heaven and Earth for his vision and guidance that greatly surpasses the sum total of all the wisdom of all the legislative halls in all the world? Omnipotent God of perfect clarity and righteous judge of the intents of the heart of all men, I pray boldness and favor on these, your servants, as they align legislation to your perfect and just will. We come before you today in humility to implore your wisdom and vision for the work that must be accomplished in our State Government. This solemn gathering of public servants has been granted the most powerful, but yet the most accountable position that any man or woman can ever receive. The position of representing other people, their desires, their needs, and their futures. The awesome and daunting reality is that these Legislators are equally confined and free in that unique work. And I pray that they understand when to exercise the revelation of both freedom and restraint. As we stand before you today as citizens of this great nation and the people of the Land of Lincoln, we are reminded in reverence that you are the creator of this institution of government that we so highly cherish and serve. Supreme author of life, I pray that each of these precious men and women have clarity from your spirit that brings conviction against arrogance or pride, as defined by only you and your Holy Scriptures can. I also passionately invoke the authority of Jesus' name against any plans or purposes of pain, destruction, or death towards our nation, our state, and in particular, these great congressional Members. Father, as legislation is discussed today, let only those laws that align with your heart and divine purpose have strength to advance. I pray that in a spirit of unity and brotherly love our Body of government truly articulates the best parts of democracy for our citizens. Dear Father, I acknowledge that the universal desire of all of these Legislators is that this congress would bring liberty and prosperity to all of their constituents that they dutifully represent, and even deeply love. So we implore your guidance in every Legislator and committee person to rigorously uphold the simplicity of our inalienable rights. Gracious Father, I thank you that order, harmony, and peace be affectionately nurtured. That the truth and justice, through piety, prevail and flourish among this honorable people as they serve the people. We, in unified heart, acknowledge that this duty is only possible with your grace and empowerment. I now release these great Legislators into your supernatural care as they accomplish these eternal goals. I do not pray for Republican, Democrat, or independent. I only pray for humble public servants, who are moved by the intimidating reality that they are here to speak and vote for thousands who have no other voice but these Legislators. I do this through the only name that gives us right and privilege to approach your heavenly legislative halls, the name of Jesus, the savior, the true Son of God. Amen."

Speaker Manley: "We will be led in the Pledge of Allegiance today by Representative Halpin."

Halpin - et al: "I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Speaker Manley: "Roll Call for Attendance. Leader Harris is recognized to report any excused absences on the Democratic side of the aisle."

Harris: "Madam Speaker, let the record reflect that Representatives Andrade, Evans, and Lilly are excused today."

Speaker Manley: "Representative Spain is recognized to report any excused absences on the Republican side of the aisle."

Spain: "Thank you, Madam Speaker. Please let the record reflect that Representative Welter is excused today."

Speaker Manley: "Have all recorded themselves who wish? Mr. Clerk, please take the record. There being 112 Members answering the roll call, a quorum is present. Chair recognizes Representative Costa Howard."

Costa Howard: "Point of personal privilege."

Speaker Manley: "Please proceed."

Costa Howard: "At this time, in following that opening prayer this morning, I'd like to recognize and honor somebody who is serving our country from the Springfield area. His name is Roy Campbell. He's up in the gallery today with his mom, Elizabeth Campbell, who is the legislative assistant for myself, Representative Moeller, and Representative Mason. Roy Campbell is... began thinking about his career in the Marines when he was only a junior in high school. At that time, he became more and more interested in the Marines and he enlisted his senior year. He left for Marine... recruit boot camp July 22 for 13-long weeks. This is where he received his robust training, skill, and knowledge needed to be a Marine. October 1 began the crucible, a 3-day course mimicked in the field. And on October 3 he climbed to the summit of the Reaper, and that is where he officially became a United States Marine. Roy graduated from boot camp on October 18 with his family in tow, and tomorrow he sets off before dawn to return to San Diego to complete his next course of training. Congratulations, Roy Campbell. We are proud that you are a citizen of the State of Illinois, and thank you for your service."

Speaker Manley: "The Chair recognizes Representative Bryant."

Bryant: "Thank you, Madam Speaker. Point of personal privilege."

Speaker Manley: "Please proceed."

Bryant: "Well, I have two Pages with me today, and you may know their grandfather very well. There's a few people in here that served with the Honorable Congressman Mike Bost. So we... I have with me Lilly Rose and Sydney Fred and up in the gallery is their grandma, Yaya to them, Tracy Bost. And just a little bit about these two young ladies. Lilly goes to Murphysboro Middle School and Sydney goes to Desoto Elementary School. Lilly's in the sixth grade and Sydney's in the seventh grade. They're both cheerleaders. And this was actually Mike Bost's seat at one time, so they got to sit in the same seat that grandpa got to sit in. And I know that I'm honored to have them here today. Ladies and Gentleman, I'd sure appreciate it if you would welcome another generation of Bost to the House Floor today."

Speaker Manley: "Welcome to Springfield. The Chair recognizes Representative Welch."

Welch: "Thank you, Madam Speaker. Point of personal privilege."

Speaker Manley: "Please proceed."

Welch: "Madam Speaker, Members of the House, I'm honored to welcome my newest fellow in my district office to Springfield, today, as my Page for the day. Please welcome Ms. Olesia Boichuk. Olesia is a lawyer who works for the center of legal drafting for the union faction at the Parliament of Ukraine. She is serving as a fellow in the American Council's

Speaker Manley: "Welcome to the Capitol. Chair recognizes Representative Hurley."

Hurley: "Thank you, Madam Speaker. Point of personal privilege."

Speaker Manley: "Please proceed."

Hurley: "Along with everybody else, I welcome everyone back to Springfield but I, too, have a Page for a day. His name is Richie Lippert. He is here with his mom, up there in the gallery, and his grandpa. So I'll talk a little bit about them. Jean Lippert comes down here and advocates for Alzheimer's. And his grandpa is a retired Chicago police officer. And today is First Responders Day, National First Responders Day, so let's clap for them first. And then Richie, he's an eighth grader from St. Cajetan. He was down here for the summer but we weren't here, so he wanted to come back to see how things go. So, please welcome Richie as well."

Speaker Manley: "Thank you for being here, Richie. Chair recognizes Leader Batinick."

Batinick: "Thank you, Madam Speaker. Point of personal privilege."

Speaker Manley: "Please proceed."

Batinick: "I, too, have an assistant with me today, if you see the future Representative Max Batinick, please come by and say hi. Thank you."

Speaker Manley: "Welcome to Springfield. Chair recognizes Representative Barbara Hernandez."

Hernandez, B.: "Thank you, Mrs. Speaker. Point of personal privilege."

Speaker Manley: "Please proceed."

Hernandez, B.: "I want to acknowledge three special individuals who are up in the gallery with me today. Please help me welcome my parents and my brother. They actually called off work and they came to visit and spend the day with me. So I'm really excited to have them here and they can see the experience of what exactly I do, and why I'm always gone from home. So, [In Spanish] mom and dad, welcome to the House of Representatives, and thank you for everything you have done for me. Thank you so much."

Speaker Manley: "Welcome to Springfield. Chair recognizes Representative Stuart."

Stuart: "Thank you. Point of personal privilege."

Speaker Manley: "Please proceed."

Stuart: "Thank you. I also have a special guest to introduce today. With me I have Taylor Bond who is here as a Honorary Page and is also shadowing me for the day. She's from my hometown of Edwardsville. She actually attends St. Louis University where she's a senior sociology major. Today she's here because of a course that she's taking, philosophy of law, and this is to help her fulfill one of her course requirements. So if you see her later today, please give her a warm welcome to the Capitol. Thank you."

Speaker Manley: "Chair recognizes Representative Stava-Murray."

Stava-Murray: "So I'd also like to welcome to the Capitol today a family friend, Dr. Sean Pauzauskie, who is in town doing research for a book, which involves a Legislator from Illinois who has connections to both the Wild West and Abraham Lincoln. So very interesting story there but welcome to the Capitol."

Speaker Manley: "Welcome to Springfield. Chair recognizes Representative Weber."

Weber: "Thank you, Madam Chair. Point of personal privilege."

Speaker Manley: "Please proceed."

Weber: "I would just like to bring attention to the chamber, a special person from my district. That is my wife, standing up in the chamber. Would you please stand up? Just like to point out we had a rough end of Session last year if people remember. But I would like to point out that we have recently have celebrated 30 years of marriage, and I just want to tell her, thank you for putting up with me."

Speaker Manley: "Welcome to Springfield, Mrs. Weber. Chair recognizes Representative Windhorst."

Windhorst: "Thank you, Madam Speaker. Point of personal privilege."

Speaker Manley: "Please proceed."

Windhorst: "I also have a special guest here today. I have with me, my wife, Holly. Holly's birthday was yesterday, and her present is a week in Springfield. So, please join me in welcoming Holly."

Speaker Manley: "Holly, he owes you big time. Welcome to Springfield. Representative... the Chair recognizes Representative Conroy."

Conroy: "Thank you, Speaker grandma. I would... I have the privilege today of introducing a new Member. Today we have... I'd like you all to help me welcome Representative Lindsey LaPointe, yet another Member of the House Democratic Women's Caucus."

Speaker Manley: "Welcome to Springfield, Representative LaPointe. Chair recognizes Representative Ammons."

Ammons: "Thank you, Madam Chair. Happy Veto Session days. Point of personal privilege, please."

Speaker Manley: "Please proceed."

Ammons: "Thank you. I just wanted to announce to the Members who may have received an email from me that at the State House Inn today and tomorrow, there's a convening on higher education in Illinois prisons. It is being led by a new group called IL-CHEP. With the name that I just mentioned, and part of this point is that in the 80's and 90's, early 90's, Illinois actually was a leader in low recidivism rates in relationship to our institutions, because we had robust programs in our Department of Corrections that allowed members of those facilities to get education while incarcerated and come out and never return. And so, that is taking place at the State House Inn right now. Any Members who have time in between, don't have committees, please run over to the State House Inn and pick up your packet on education in prisons. And it is taking place right now. Thank you."

Speaker Manley: "Under the Order of Resolutions. We have House Resolution 489, offered by Representative Connor. Mr. Clerk."

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FIRST GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we congratulate Talicia Levy on receiving the Girl Scout Gold Award, the highest honor a Girl Scout can earn, and wish her success in her future endeavors."

Speaker Manley: "Representative Connor on the Resolution."

Connor: "Thank you, Madam Speaker. I rise today to support this Resolution for Talicia Levy who received the Girl Scout Gold Award. And when I attended the ceremony for this, I did not have the certificate in place, so I told Talicia and her family that I would have every Member of the House sign this particular Resolution. So, I am asking my fellow Members as I pass it around today to please add your signatures to this particular Resolution. Thank you, Madam Speaker."

Speaker Manley: "Representative Connor moves for the adoption of House Resolution 489. All those in favor say 'aye'; all opposed say 'nay'. In the opinion of the Chair, the 'ayes' have it. And the Resolution is adopted. Chair recognizes Representative Flowers."

Flowers: "Thank you, Madam Speaker and Ladies and Gentleman of the House. I would like to take this opportunity to thank each and every last one of you. For those who do not know, I recently lost my husband. And I want to thank you for... your... I want to thank you for your cards. I want to thank you for your letters. I just want to thank you for taking the opportunity to remember my husband. For the 35 years that I have been in the House of Representatives, he has been right by my side. Right by my side, in the good times and the bad. And I couldn't have asked for a better husband. So, thank you all for helping me to honor him. Because he was always in the background. He never desired to be nothing but my daughter's father, and my granddaughter's papa, and of course, my loving husband. And he will be missed. When I came down to my condo this week, I realized... 'cause we were here in July, everything was clean. I said, well what happened? And I remembered I went to the store, while I was down here and he stayed at the condo because he wasn't feeling well. And everything was just perfect. And I'm going to miss him. I'm going to miss him terribly. And I just can't say enough of the beautiful flowers and the cards that I'm still getting, and the thank you's will be coming out soon. I promise you that. But I love you all, and thank you for caring about me, and my husband, and my family. Thank you."

Speaker Manley: "Everybody, please join me in a moment of silence.

Thank you. The Chair recognizes Leader Demmer."

Demmer: "Thank you, Madam Speaker. Point of personal privilege."

Speaker Manley: "Please proceed."

Demmer: "I'd like the Body to join me in welcoming the newest Member on the Republican side of the aisle, Representative Brad Stephens from Rosemont. Representative Stephens was appointed to take over the spot of our longtime friend, Representative Mike McAuliffe, and I'd just like the Body to join me in welcoming Brad to the chamber."

Speaker Manley: "Welcome to Springfield, Representative. Chair recognizes Representative Kifowit."

Kifowit: "I am announcing to the Body that my senior in high school just signed papers to join the United States Navy. He... in an act of defiance, he wouldn't join the Marine Corps. I don't know why, we have a strappy young Marine up there. But he ships out two months after graduation on July 22, and he is going to be an advanced electronics technician and he hopes to be working on the computer systems of the ships. So, I wanted to announce that my family is represented by the Army, Marine Corps, and Navy. And unfortunately, my daughter would not join the Air Force, so. So, thank you very much."

Speaker Manley: "The Clerk is in receipt of Motions in Writing to waive the posting requirements for several Bills. If there is leave, we will take these Motions together in one Motion. Is there leave? Leave is granted. Leader Harris on the Motion."

Harris: "Madam Speaker, I move the posting requirements be waived so the following Bills can be heard in committee this week. House Bill 3929 to be heard in Appropriations-Human Services. House Bill 391 to be heard in Appropriations.. I'm sorry, to be heard in Human Services. Senate Bill 1597 in Executive. Senate Bill 1756 in Appropriations-Human Services. And Senate Bill 1970 in Executive."

Speaker Manley: "Leader Harris has moved to waive the posting requirements. All those in favor say 'aye'; those opposed say 'nay'. In the opinion of the Chair, the 'ayes' have it.
