Speaker Evans: "The House will be in order. The House will be in order. Members will be in their chairs. We shall be led in prayer today by Representative Severin. Members and guests are asked to refrain from starting their laptops, turn off all cell phones, and rise for the invocation and the Pledge of Allegiance."

Severin: "Heavenly Father, we thank you for this day and we thank you for the opportunity to gather together in this House and I pray for wisdom and direction as we make decisions that impact this state and all those that are involved. I pray, God, that you would be with Will Davis today. I pray that you would be with Representative Jones. Encourage them. I pray for continued healing in their bodies and their minds and their spirits, and I pray, again, that you would encourage them this day. Lord, again, I ask that you be with us as we are in committee, as we're on this House Floor. I pray for the staff. I pray for all those that are elected officials and all the visitors that have come into this building. Let them feel your presence this day, Lord, that you're here, that you care about them, that you love us. I pray, God, if there's somebody that's in this room that is experiencing concern, they're worried, they're afraid, they're body needs a touch from you, they need something, I pray, God, that you would touch them this day. Let them know that you love them, that you care about them, that you have a plan for us every day. And I thank you for that. And, again, I thank you for this group. I ask you for your blessings on this building and this state and this country. In your name, Amen."

Speaker Evans: "We will be led in the Pledge of Allegiance today by Representative Scherer."

Scherer - et al: "I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Speaker Evans: "Roll Call for Attendance. Leader Gabel is recognized for any excused absences on the Democratic side of the aisle."

Gabel: "Speaker, let the record show that Representatives Will Davis and Jones will be excused today."

Speaker Evans: "Leader Keicher is recognized to report any excused absences on the Republican side of the aisle."

Keicher: "Mr. Speaker, please let the record reflect that Representative Marron is excused for today."

Speaker Evans: "Have all recorded themselves who wish? Have all recorded themselves who wish? Mr. Clerk, please take the record. There being 112 Members answering the roll call, a quorum is present. Leader Hoffman is recognized on House Resolution 102. Leader Hoffman."

Hoffman: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House. If I could have the House's attention. I'd like to welcome the... I would like to welcome the Without Limits - Team Galaxy Special Olympics Cheer Team to the Capitol today. The Without Limits Team is one of five teams in the United States who have been invited to be part of the Special Olympics International Cheer Team for the 2023 World Games in Berlin, Germany in June. They're incredibly honored to be invited to not only represent the United States, but also the wonderful City of Belleville and the entire Metro East area. We're incredibly honored to recognize them for their hard work and accomplishments and would like to give them a very warm Springfield welcome."

Speaker Evans: "Representative Williams, what reason do you seek recognition?"

Williams, J.: "Thank you, Chair. For point of personal privilege, please."

Speaker Evans: "Please speak your point."

Williams, J.: "Members of the House, could I have everyone's attention, please? Could I direct everyone to the lovely Miss Illinois, welcoming us with her presence in this state and in the House. Let's give her a big, warm welcome, please."

Speaker Evans: "Representative Stuart, for what reason do you seek recognition? I'm sorry, Representative Williams."

Williams, J.: "Sorry, Chairman. I had a few words to say about everybody. Miss Illinois, also known as Miss Monica Nia Jones. Miss Jones was born and raised in the vibrant City of Chicago, where she attended Francis Xavier Warde School and the Chicago High School for the Arts. In 2018, she obtained her Bachelor of Science and Business and Special Environment... Special Events from Arizona State University and holds a certificate in marketing and communications for fashion at luxury brands from the Complutense University of Madrid. Monica Nia is both an accomplished dancer and a violinist, studying at the Alvin Ailey School, Chicago Multi-Cultural Dance Center, home of the Ballerinas. She's also attended Indiana University, Jacobs School of Music, Northwestern, and the Hyde Park Suzuki Institute. Her passion for music and arts has led her to her Since Miss America, Monica Nia has opened her franchise, HOTWORX. HOTWORKX is located in River North in Chicago, 9th District and is currently pursuing her master's of communications. Ladies and Gentlemen, one more time, let's give a please warm welcome for Miss Monica Nia Jones, Miss Illinois. And.. and she's... she's also being proudly presented by Mr. Illinois."

Speaker Evans: "Representative Stuart, for what reason do you seek recognition?"

Stuart: "A point of personal privilege."

Speaker Evans: "Please speak your point."

Stuart: "Thank you. Mr. Speaker, I think it's always important to recognize our staff, and we do have a staff member here in the well. It is Tommy Cory's birthday today, and I just want to say a quick happy birthday."

Speaker Evans: "Representative Severin is recognized."

Severin: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. A point of personal privilege, please."

Speaker Evans: "Please speak your point."

some of their accomplishments. They... they're the Christopher... Lady Bearcats from Christopher. Actually, the home of Chris Lowery in the... working in the well. That's where he was born. They... in the Class 1A IHSA Girls Basketball 2022-23 season, they were second place runner-ups. Their head coach is Hayden Carter, Assistant Coach Madeline Gossett, and Assistant Coach Grant Gordon. And their managers are Madison Brower... Brower, excuse me, Valerie Gunther, and Mason Hill. Before I read the accomplishments, I just want to share with you this is a first time ever that Christopher has gotten this far in basketball. So, here's some accomplishments. They were 31-4. They won the DuQuoin Tip-Off Tournament, champions. They were undefeated in the Black Diamond West Division, champions three years in a row. They were regional champions, beating Woodlawn 35-28. They beat Albion, Edwards County, in the sectional champion 58-43. They were the super-sectional champions over Neoga, 50-45. They were the state semifinal winners over Champaign, St. Thomas, 42-28. They, again, were the state runners-up. Charlie Meier, Representative Meier's Okawville team, they were the state champions. But look out, Charlie, because we're coming after you next year. Right, girls? So, they're the first basketball team in the boys or girls to win a sectional championship or a super-sectional in school history. I want to read their names off to you. Jessica Gordon, Makayla Dejean, Tori Crain, Emily Van Hoorebeke. Spell that one backwards, guys. Speaker Evans: "Representative Morgan, for what reason do you seek recognition?"

Morgan: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. A point of personal privilege."

Speaker Evans: "Please speak your point."

Morgan: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Good afternoon. I rise today... it's actually today, not as we discussed a little bit yesterday. Today, we recognize the 75th anniversary of the founding of the Nation of Israel. Israel's Independence Day, known in Hebrew as Yom Ha'atzmaut. Today, Israelis celebrate Independence Day, and we heard just a few months ago from the Counsel General of Israel from Midwest about the deep and irrevocable ties that bind Illinois to Israel. There's a long list of reasons detailing why Israel has been such a trusted ally since 1948. Her commitment to civil rights and equal treatment of LGBTQ+ community. Her multiethnic society, where multiple races and religions are represented in government. Her advances in technology and agriculture. And her security relationship with the United States. But I want to add a personal note to this personal privilege. I have visited Israel multiple times, and what is undeniable to anyone who's ever visited is the nation's perseverance despite long and difficult odds. So, celebrating 75 years of existence is truly a remarkable milestone. And I ask the House of Representatives to join me in a round of applause to say happy birthday to the State of Israel."

Tipsword: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise today with great honor to introduce to this Body the Washington High School wrestling team. The Panthers are the 2023 IHSA Class 2A State Wrestling Champions. They claimed their most recent wrestling title by defeating Joliet Catholic 28-27 at Grossinger Motors Arena in Bloomington. This is the fifth championship for the Panthers, along with their 2016, 2017, 2018, and 2019 championships. Only four other wrestling programs in Illinois have more state titles. This is truly a high school sports dynasty. In addition to the team championship, several members won individual state medals. Josh Hoffer, 6th place at 195 pounds. Zane Hulet, 4th place at 160 pounds. Wyatt Medlin, 3rd place at 126 pounds. Mr. Speaker, please bring the chamber to order. Wyatt Medlin, 3rd place at 126 pounds. Peyton Cox, 2nd place at 132 pounds. Blake Hinrichsen, 2nd place at 170 pounds. Justin Hoffer, 1st place at 220 pounds. And Kannon Webster won his third state title, this time at 145 pounds. Please give the 2A IHSA State Champion Washington Panthers a warm Springfield congratulations."

They're up in the gallery behind us on the Democratic side. I want to recognize the students. Over the last 9 years now, I have hosted an undergraduate intern program in the 103rd District, where the flagship University of Illinois is, and we have had over 109 interns serve the people of the 103rd District and, ultimately, the people of the State of Illinois through their research. We want to welcome all of the interns that are here from my office this semester. And if they would just raise their hand and wave, that would be amazing, when I call your name. We have Emma, who is in our communications. Emma is back there. We have Aidan, Gregory, Nason, Jocelyn, Avneet, Khalia, Aditi, Matt, Amir. And I have two staff persons here today, Andrea and Sally, who have brought them over from the 103rd District. Please welcome them to their Capitol. Thank you so much for your service."

Additionally, we would like to welcome 4-H members from across Illinois who are attending the University of Illinois extension 4-H Legislative Connection event today and tomorrow at the Capitol. These youth represent 12 different 4-H programs from counties reaching to touching our Wisconsin border to our southernmost counties and across the state. They represent nearly 100 thousand 4-H participants in all 102 counties. These teens that you see here represent the Illinois 4-H Youth Leadership Team and 4-H members trained through the Speaking for Illinois 4-H program. They have been active in their local 4-H clubs and communities and in community service projects, including 4-H learning experiences that include STEM, animal sciences, healthy living, civic engagement, and the creative arts. Now, we know that many of you are 4-H alumni or have a connection to 4-H. If you are a 4-H alumni or are engaged with 4-H, please stand and be recognized. Speaker Evans: "Representative Coffey, for what reason do you seek recognition?"

Coffey: "Point of personal privilege."

Speaker Evans: "Please speak your point."

Coffey: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. If I could have your attention. If we could look to the back left here. Today, I have the honor of having some future lady leaders here. Please stand up. They amassed a 30-0 season, advancing to the state tournament to play Bloomington Corpus Christi where they won in 2 games instead of 3, 25-21, 25-16. So, if I could give them a big round of applause and welcome them to Springfield. Well, they're from Springfield. So, congratulations."

Cabello: "Thank you. Sorry about that. So, this would name portions of 173 from Highway 251 to I-90 as the 'CPL Nathan Carlson Highway'. I've known Nathan since he was two. After graduating high school, nine days later he entered the Marines. He became a crew chief for an Osprey. On June 3 of last year, the Osprey crashed, killing five members. Nathan was like a son to me. He served his country with honor, dignity, and respect. And I would humbly ask an 'aye' vote. Thank you."

Speaker Evans: "Representative West is recognized."

West: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I wanted to speak on the Joint Resolution. Thank you, Leader Cabello, for bringing this forward. As we reflect upon the life of Corporal Nathan Carlson, what resonates with me is how fiercely intentional he lived at such a young age. Before enlisting, he showed leadership skills as a swim team captain. And within two years of being a Marine, he was focused on becoming an instructor of others. This teaches me that there's no time to allow the pieces to fall as they may in our lives because we do not know what the future holds. We must always be intentional, seize every moment, and be selfless. Nathan is a son to the 815 region and a hero to many in our state. Much love to his wife, Emily, his parents, Karrie and Eric, to his sisters, Casey and Mylee. May Nathan's memory be a blessing to us all. And because of this Resolution, may he never be forgotten. And I ask as well for a moment of silence."

man. Representative Cabello moves for the adoption of House Joint Resolution 5. All those in favor vote 'aye'; all those opposed vote 'nay'. The voting is open. Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Mr. Clerk, please take the record. On this question, there are 112 voting 'yes', 0 voting 'no', and 0 voting 'present'. And this Resolution, having received the Constitutional Majority, is hereby declared adopted. Representative Johnson, for what reason do you seek recognition?"

Johnson: "Point of personal privilege, Mr. Speaker."

Speaker Evans: "Please speak your point."

Johnson: "We hear all the time here from the Leader of our Caucus that winners do the work. We see it every day here in the gallery and here in the chambers. I have a group, special group from the Quad Cities here who exemplify that right up here to my right. It's the Moline Maroons basketball team. For 71 years, Moline basketball has tried to get to the top of the mountain here in Illinois. And this year, in the 72nd year, they finally did it, and they didn't take any shortcuts. I know Coach Taylor, Coach Rangel, they made sure that this team took on all challenges. And if you follow along, you can see that they did just that. They built momentum. They took on every single challenge. They got better. They did the work. And by the end of the season, they were an absolute machine. I'd like to point out that this team, they won their last 9 regular season games by an average of over 26 points a game and that's competing in the Western Big 6. In my opinion, the best conference in 4A basketball here in Illinois. They carried that momentum into the playoffs, and by the time they got to the championship game, they won each playoff game by an average of over 18 points a game. And because of what they've accomplished, there are kids all over the Quad Cities picking up basketballs every single day because of the inspiration that these kids, their coaches, and their families provided them. So, I want to thank you for inspiring all of us in our community, for doing the work, and you will live forever in Quad Cities legend. Thank you very much, Moline Maroons."

Speaker Evans: "Representative Swanson, for what reason do you seek recognition?"

Swanson: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. A point of personal privilege."

Speaker Evans: "Please speak your point."

Swanson: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I, too, would like to recognize... don't sit down yet, young men. There you go. Thank you. I, too, would like to recognize the champions, the 4A champions of the State of Illinois in IHSA basketball. The team was 35-3 overall, a 92 percent winning average. Any of us that got a 92 percent on a paper in school would think that was pretty darn good. Well, these young men had a 92 percent winning average. They were 14-0 in conference play and had a 16-game winning streak. Sixteen games, that's hard to believe. Sixteen times being the top scorer, top team after every game. One individual I would like to recognize especially is Brock Harding, who was named Illinois' Mr. Basketball for the '22-'23 basketball season. The first Moline player to achieve such recognition. He's going to the University of Iowa. Although, I did remind him there are some great schools here in Illinois. But I know he will be a champion there, along with many other players that we talked about here and continue with their basketball skills or other athletic skills as they go off to college. I'd also like to recognize the head coach, Taylor, and his assistant coaches, Noble and Rangel. It is because of their leadership and their work with these young men that created a winning team, a championship team. And that's what we like about our coaches, not only to have... be able to coach teams, but also to instill that pride. And right now, Moline... the City of Moline is all maroon because of what these young men did. So, I, too, would like to congratulate you, thank you, best of luck as you go on in your high school or college careers. Thank you."

Speaker Evans: "Representative Hammond, for what reason do you seek recognition?"

Hammond: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. A point of personal privilege."

Speaker Evans: "Please speak your point."

Hammond: "So, Members, I would just like to draw your attention, there are a couple of events tonight that I've been asked to bring to your attention. Today is Township Officials of Illinois Day. They will be hosting a legislative reception at the Illinois State Library this evening from 5 to 7 p.m. And so you don't have to travel too far, the IMA and IRMA are also hosting a tent event this evening on the corner of second and Adams. All staff and Members are invited to attend. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

And he is extremely talented, extremely talented. He's currently competing at the state level. And he also plays guitar, piano, and he's competing at the state level for Honors and Jazz Bands. He likes working on cars, dirt bikes, riding quads, and mechanically inclined. He also likes Rubik's Cubes, LEGOs, and then he's fascinated with President Lincoln. So, he's in the right town for sure. And he also likes President John F. Kennedy. He's a gifted speaker regarding politics. And I want to welcome his mother, if you want to stand up. WHEREAS, Clarence Johnson was born in Chicago and attended Loyola University, where he received his bachelor's and master's degrees and embarked on a career as a teacher; and

WHEREAS, Clarence Johnson served locally as president of the Iota Alpha Chapter from 1959 to 1961, as state director for Illinois from 1971 to 1974, as vice president of the Upsilon Sigma Chapter in 1976, and as president of the Upsilon Sigma Chapter from 1995 to 1999; and

WHEREAS, Clarence Johnson served as director of the Great Lakes Region from 1974 to 1980 while also serving as regional director of collegiate affairs from 1974 to 1977, as regional director from 1977 to 1980, and as a regional parliamentarian from 2000 to 2001; during his tenure, he helped charter more than 60 chapters; and

WHEREAS, Clarence Johnson served as national director of collegiate affairs from 1980 to 1981 and as a trustee on the Phi Beta Sigma's National Real Estate Commission from 1997 to 2001; he was inducted into the Distinguished Service Chapter in 1997 in recognition of his service to the communities served by Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity; therefore, be it RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED THIRD GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we recognize Clarence Johnson for exemplifying the ideals of brotherhood, scholarship, and service through his years of dedication to strengthening Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc. and the communities the members serve; and be it further RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this resolution be presented to Clarence Johnson as an expression of our esteem and respect. Please, Ladies and Gentlemen, put your hands together for a great man in our organization, Clarence Johnson. All right, Speaker, hold on. And as you guys know that Leader Ford and I are members of Phi Beta Sigma, and today is our... is Zeta Phi Beta Sigma Day, and I think Rep. Ford wants to say a couple words. Rep. dealing with soil health and soil conservation. As a farmer, I can tell you soil health is vital to family farms like mine. However, this same House is responsible for policies that encourage and incentivize installing solar panels on thousands of acres of prime farm... farmland in Illinois. This is a profound contradiction. Illinois is home to some of the most fertile farmland in the world, which we use to feed the world as top producers of soybeans and corn. Covering thousands of acres of fertile farmland with solar panels disrupts the soil, causes drainage and pollution issues, as well as the irreparable loss in production. Solar panels contain hazardous materials that can leech into the soil, which is why some landfills refuse to take solar panels. Covering green fertile farmland with Chinese-made solar panels that contain hazardous material does not benefit the environment. I would encourage everyone to use a little common sense and remember that if we replace fertile farmland with Chinese solar panels that we have no way to produce the food that we need to feed our state, our country, and our world. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Speaker Evans: "Mr. Clerk, Committee Reports."

Clerk Bolin: "Committee Reports. Morgan: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I move to concur for House Bill 559, the Health Care Workforce Reinforcement Act. We discussed this a little bit yesterday. The only thing that this Bill does that's different from what we passed unanimously in the House previously is it removes a Public Aid Code, a reference to Medicaid, which was redundant. Could have cost the state money. We didn't need it. It was deleted. That was the only change, and I ask for your 'aye' vote."

Speaker Evans: "Representative Keicher is recognized."

Keicher: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Will the Sponsor yield?"

Speaker Evans: "He indicates he will."

Keicher: "Thank you, Representative, for bringing this. I just want to confirm for those of us on our side of the aisle this passed unanimously. We have a small tweak for that Public Aid provision, and it's the same language..."

Morgan: "That's right."

Keicher: "...otherwise. Thank you."

Speaker Evans: "The question is, 'Shall the House concur in Senate Amendment #1 to House Bill 559?' This is final action. All those in favor signify by voting 'aye'; all those opposed signify by voting 'nay'. The voting is open. Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Mr. Clerk, please take the record. On this question, there are 112 voting 'yes', 0 voting 'nay', 0 voting 'present'. The House does concur in Senate Amendment #1 to House Bill 559. Flowers: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker and Ladies and Gentlemen of the House. House Bill 1097 is a Bill that... back in 2008, we passed legislation that would require exonerees to have a education and be able to get a scholarship. Unfortunately, a lot of people that have been exonerated didn't know about the scholarship or did not take the opportunity to take advantage of it, but they had family members that wanted to or wished they had the opportunity to do so. House Bill 1097 is setting forth those scholarships that's not being used by the exonerees to be able to pass on to their families. That's exactly what the Bill does, and I would appreciate an 'aye' vote. Thank you."

Flowers: "That is correct."

Keicher: "Okay. And I see that two Amendments have been filed.. or three Amendments have been filed, and I don't see any of those on the board. Can you talk to me about the status of those and where we might be proceeding?"

Flowers: "Well, there is Amendment #3 that deals with the FAFSA part of the Bill. I'll be more than happy because I promised my colleagues that I would add that to the Bills, if the Amendment is ready. But I really never thought that it was necessary because these exonerees, some of them have been in prison for years and their families have suffered. And so, we could automatically assume that they would qualify for the scholarship. But I do have that Amendment ready, and please forgive me for... it's the Clerk's fault because they didn't call it."

Keicher: "Okay. So, I'm also being told that there's a Senate version of this same proposal and that the Senate proposal..."

Flowers: "No."

Keicher: "...has a little bit closer..."

Flowers: "Nope, nope, nope, nope, nope. There's a... there is a Senate version that addresses exonerees..."

Keicher: "Okay."

Flowers: "...but is totally different. I cannot... the only thing that's similar and/or the same is the word 'exonerees'. Other than that, it's totally different."

Keicher: "Okay. Can you share with me a little bit about the population this might serve? How many numbers we've got in that general grouping?"

Flowers: "You know, currently, I don't know how many people have been exonerated. These are people who have served years in prison and their lives have been destroyed. They were falsely incarcerated. So, therefore, they lost their jobs, their homes, their families. And so, this is a way of the state giving back for the livelihood of the families that they destroyed. And so, to give you a number, I think the number is growing every day. Every day in the newspaper, we read about new people getting certificates of innocence because they were truly, truly innocent. It's not by, you know, chance, but the judge deemed that they were truly innocent. So, therefore, they were entitled to the certificate of innocence. But more importantly, when we did the Bill back in 2008, and this has nothing to do with the current Bill..."

Keicher: "And the Bill in 2008 was the original exoneree?"

Flowers: "Yeah, in 2008."

Keicher: "Okay."

Flowers: "And so, back then I included housing, which has not been implemented, job training, which has not been implemented, as well as education. And so, when I looked around the landscape and I realized we haven't done anything for the family. And so, I figured with this Bill, House Bill 1097, it's the least we could do to... it's just the least that we could do for these family members to be able... if they so choose to."

Keicher: "I like and understand where you're heading. I'm told by my staff that Senate Bill 2426, which it seems like a Representative on your side of the aisle might be carrying, does also extend that to the dependents of exonerees and is much more reflective of the ease of ISAC to implement the program. So, here's what I would ask. Would you mind pulling this for today, conferring on Senate Bill 2426, and we reconsider later today or tomorrow on this same measure?"

Flowers: "Let... let me tell you... and I'll do that, maybe, but let me explain something. I've got to think about this because I've been waiting so long. You know? I mean, years..."

Keicher: "And I'm not saying defer it for a long time. I just... if we have one that's... that's got language in it that works..."

Flowers: "But... but let me explain the difference. I see that the Sponsor is not here, and she and I have talked. So, what that Bill... what the Senate Bill does is... it was really rather concerning to me. What the Senate Bill does... and you have your staff there. So, he could, if he would like, prove me wrong. But that Bill... that Senate Bill says, any part of a scholarship that's not used could be passed down. Now, I was really insulted when I saw the Bill drafted like that, you know, because why is it that an exoneree's child have to have a hand-me-down?"

Keicher: "Did you talk to Senator Villivalam about that? Has he proposed the language?"

Flowers: "I did talk to him when... yes."

Keicher: "And what was his response?"

Flowers: "He was standing right in front when we had Mayor Johnson down... Mayor-Elect Brandon Johnson. Yes. I talked to him that day, and I have spoken to the Sponsor in the House a few times. And she knows and she realized the concerns of the Senate Bill as well and how it would conflict with 1097. But it was really our intention because 1097 was stuck in Rules, and it was our intention... I was going to put my language on her Bill, but then I realized that her... the Senate Bill is not germane to House Bill 1097. So, it just wouldn't fit."

Keicher: "Okay. All right."

see if I'm right or wrong. Because that's what my staff told me, and he's standing right here."

Keicher: "I... and we don't need to belabor the point. I just... it seems like, from ISAC's position, it would be easier to implement the language that's coming over in the Senate Bill. But to the Bill. We have some concerns. We'd like to see a reconciliation between the two. In scope, I think it's a fine idea, and we'll go from there."

Speaker Evans: "Representative Davidsmeyer is recognized. Leader Flowers to close."
