Don Ed: "Your attention, please. May I have your attention? The Honorable Michael J. Howlett, Secretary of State, is on the rostrum to begin the proceedings to convene the House of Representatives of the 79th General Assembly. Mr. Secretary."

Secretary Howlett: "Before calling the House to order, I want to thank the members of the 78th General Assembly for their very fine resolution and tell the members of the 79th General Assembly: if you want to reconsider the vote after the election, I'm sure that the Speaker will entertain a motion. The House will come to order. I now quote from the Constitution of the State of Illinois. 'Article IV, Section 6. On the first day of the January session of the General Assembly in odd-numbered years, the Secretary of State shall convene the House of Representatives to elect from its membership a Speaker of the House of Representatives as presiding officer.' And now it gives me a great deal of pleasure to present to you the Reverend Albert Hillestad, the Bishop of the Episcopal Church and the Rector of the Cathedral Church of St. Paul. Bishop Hillestad."

Hillestad: "Let us pray. Almighty God, who made all peoples of the earth to enjoy the liberty and the freedom of Your service, we call upon You to give wisdom and courage to those who have been called to public service by the people of the State of Illinois. Grant that, upholding what is right and following what is true, they may service the fight against evil and oppression. Grant also that they may use their freedom in the struggle for justice for equity and fraternity among all people. Direct them, Lord, in all their doings with Your most gracious favor and further their purposes with Your continual help. We ask this of Your goodness and mercy which is everlasting. Amen."

Secretary Howlett: "Thank you, Bishop Hillestad. The Chair now appoints, until the election of a Speaker, Mr. Donald Ed to serve as provisional Clerk and Mr. Joseph Heckenkamp to serve as provisional Doorkeeper. Will the Provisional officers please assume their respective posts? The provisional Clerk will call the roll of Representatives elect as certified by the State Board of Elections and proclaimed elected by the Governor, copies of which are on file in the Office of the Secretary of State. The roll will be called in alphabetical order. Please answer 'present' loudly as we shall not use the microphone system for this purpose. Mr. Ed."

Secretary Howlett: "We will poll the absentees."

Ed: "Juckett. Juckett is absent. Kosinski. We've been informed that he is here, but he is not on the floor.
175 'present' according to the answering of the roll call."

Secretary Howlett: "There being 175 present and 2 absent, a quorum is present and the House of Representatives, 79th Session of the Illinois General Assembly, is hereby convened. The Honorable Thomas E. Kluczynski, Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of Illinois, is present here at the rostrum and will administer the oath of office to the Representatives elect. Justice Kluczynski."

Justice Kluczynski: "Ladies and gentlemen, it is provided by law that every officer of each house of the General Assembly shall before entering upon the duties of his office take and subscribe the following oath, which shall be filed with the Secretary of State. All of those duly elected Representatives to this General Assembly please rise, raise your right hand, and repeat the oath after me. I....."

Justice Kluczynski: "Congratulations."

Secretary Howlett: "Will the members please sign the printed oath that is on their desk on the red line provided for their signature? Before we ask our guests to leave, I would like to take advantage of a personal privilege and present to you a man who is a very happy guest here this evening or today, because his nephew was just sworn in as a member of the House. He was a long time but effective member of the State Senate and is now a Judge of the United States District Court, the Northern District of Illinois, Judge Abraham Lincoln Marovitz. Will all but members of the House of Representatives and of the right staff please retire from the floor and the House will be in a five minute recess. Thank you for coming. We congratulate you upon the election of your relatives and your friends."

Don Ed: "May I have your attention for one moment? When you sign the oath, pass them to the desk on the aisle so the ah... clerks can pick them up, please. Thank you." Your attention, please. Kindly clear the aisles. Kindly clear the aisles. Only authorized personnel shall remain in the Chamber. So you'll have to clear the House Chamber here, please."

Secretary Howlett: "Will the House please come to order?
Will the members please take their seats?"

Don Ed: "May I have your attention, please? Mr. Kosinski is present. He did take his oath here so the attendance should read and will be corrected to read 176 present."

Secretary Howlett: "Ladies and gentlemen, will everybody who is not authorized to the floor please leave so that we can conduct the business of the House? Will the House please come to order? Will all members please take their seats? Will the Doorkeeper please clear the aisles of everybody who does not have authority to be on the floor?
Pursuant to the provisions of Article II, Section 6, of the Constitution the order of business in this House is the election of its members of a Speaker as presiding officer. This House is now governed by the Rules of the House of Representatives of the 78th General Assembly, which are made applicable to these proceedings by Section 3 of 'An Act relating to the operations of the General Assembly and to repeal certain Acts therein.'
Representative Matijevich."

Matijevich: "Mr. Secretary of State and members of the House of Representatives, it's an honor to address the Secretary of State again. Now that we are operating under the rules of the 78th General Assembly for the 79th General Assembly, some of you may know that I introduced a resolution yesterday in the 78th General Assembly calling for 89 votes electing a House Speaker. By the way, when all of the accolades for the House Speaker were passed out, and I can agree with all of them, I sat here for two hours waiting for the only business on the Regular Calendar to be called; that business wasn't called and it's that arbitrariness that I'm trying to eliminate in this House of Representatives. Mr. Secretary of State, I've always admired your fairness and here I am calling this business right now and that's a tribute to the fairness of you that everybody in the whole State of Illinois recognizes.

Ah... Mr. Secretary of State, I have a House resolution filed with the Clerk and I have a motion that the provisions of Rule 73 (d) be suspended for the purposes of immediate consideration in adoption of that resolution and I will just briefly say that that resolution is the same one, that this 79th General Assembly shall elect a Speaker of the House with the constitutional majority..... 89 members, rather than our present rules that it be a majority of the votes cast, and one voting 'present' shall not be a vote cast. Thank you, Mr. Secretary of State, and I would appreciate an 'aye' vote on that motion."

Secretary Howlett: "Representative Maragos."

Maragos: "Mr. Secretary, I have a parliamentary inquiry and that is....were there..... now that the 78th General Assembly is history, whether any motions or any business on the Calendar survives that General Assembly to this new one?"

Secretary Howlett: "Section 3 of An Act relating to the operation of the General Assembly to repeal certain Acts therein'is now operable. Representative Houlihan."

Houlihan: "Mr. Secretary, ah... point of inquiry. I believe that in our hope to run both houses with ah...joint rules ah... it would important to know whether the Senate has ruled ah... in which fashion on this matter and I believe that Senator Partee has suggested that it requires ah... 30 votes in the Senate and I believe that we're going to begin a 79th General Assembly with a sense of working both Houses together, that there might be some argument for the ruling to be... that there be a constitutional majority or 89 in the House."

Secretary Howlett: "I wouldn't presume to impose the Senate rules on members of the House. Representative Ewell."

Ewell: "Mr. Speaker, I'm going to rise to make a motion to lay that motion on the table for the same reasons that I enumerated yesterday. Ah... we are here at the first hour changing the rules, changing the guidelines for a very important election. We have operated under these rules for sessions numbered 78 prior to this session and we have done it successfully. We are now at the first minutes coming in and asking for a change in the laws and the rules governing the election without a committee hearing, without an opportunity for anyone to be heard either for or against this. The committee system would demand that this type of resolution go to a committee and be heard in the ordinary course of business and in that way all people might have a chance to be heard. It is a very bad principle that we should establish and for that reason I would make a motion to lay it on the table."

Secretary Howlett: "All those in favor..... John, it is my understanding that that motion is not debatable."

Matijevich: "Mr. Secretary, our basic experience in the House has always been that the one that started the motion ah... just have a moment to close ah.... and I would appreciate that."

Secretary Howlett: "Go right ahead, John, and lock it up as tight as you want."

Matijevich: "All right. We know what the results are going to be, Mike. Mr. Secretary of State, ah.. in fairness to my good friend, Ray Ewell, ah.. let me say that all this motion would be doing would be implementing what has been done for 78 elections in the General Assembly; ah.. that a constitutional majority has picked the Speaker in 78 elections in the General Assembly. That's all it does. It really doesn't change anything. In fact, what will happen if we don't pass this resolution is that something may change: that in the first time in the history of the State of Illinois the constitutional majority may not elect a Speaker and I think that's dangerous, that when we require 89 votes to pass legislation that we would require less than that to elect a Speaker, the most important vote that all of you are going to vote for the next two years. So with that I'll close and I will also say that I was at a conference last night when party member after party member said, 'We want 89 Democratic votes to elect our Speaker.' Ah... I want that, too. I think this rule will help us get that. Thank you."

Secretary Howlett: "On the motion to table, ah.. all those in favor say 'aye', opposed 'no'. We will have a roll call."

Don Ed: "Just one moment until we pass out the tally sheets here. Anderson..... This is a very..... may I have your attention for a minute? May I have your attention, please? The tally clerks here must hear this response and the boisterous conversation ah... please keep it in a monotone or in ah..... in a low monotone so that we can hear up here. Secretary Howlett: "Benedict Garmisa, will you vote loud and clear? That would do justice to Corneal Davis.
Ladies and gentlemen, the motion to table failed 112 to 63, with 1 present. Representative Matijevich."

Matijevich: "Mr. Secretary of State and members of the House, I now reverse the original motion to suspend the provisions of Rule 73 (d) for the purpose of immediate consideration and adoption of the resolution."

Secretary Howlett: "Will the Clerk read the motion, please?"

Ed: "The motion reads..... the motion reads as follows:
'I move that the provisions of Rule 73 (d) be suspended for the purposes of immediate consideration of House Resolution 1.' "

Secretary Howlett: "Representative Yourell."

Yourell: "Ah.. parliamentary inquiry, Mr. Secretary. Ah... how many votes does this take for passage?"

Secretary Howlett: "The rules.... the rules may be suspended only upon an affirmative vote of 107 members."

Yourell: "Mr. Secretary, are we voting on the suspension of the rules at the moment or the passage of the resolution?"

Secretary Howlett: "You're voting on the suspension of the rules if we have a second to his motion."

Yourell: "Thank you."

Secretary Howlett: "Seconded by Representative Rayson.

Continue with the roll call. Representative Duff, please."

Duff: "Mr. Secretary, if we are going to take the roll call immediately on this I would appreciate the opportunity at the time to explain my vote."

Secretary Howlett: "When the time comes, you can explain your vote, and I hope you are the only one. Yes, sir.

Representative Lundy, please."

Lundy: "Thank you. Mr. Secretary and ladies and gentlemen of the House, in the interest of the time of the House, may I suggest that the vote, the roll call record vote which just occurred on the motion to table the present motion was in substance precisely the same as the motion we are now voting on. 112 members voted not to table this motion and I suggest that we simply take a voice vote on it. We clearly have the vote."

Secretary Howlett: "Representative Lundy, you're too presumptuous. Continue with the roll call."

Daniels. Davis. Deavers. Deuster. DiPrima. Downs. Duff."

Secretary Howlett: "Representative Duff."

Duff: "Mr. Secretary, I appreciate your indulgence, the indulgence of this House. Sometimes it is difficult to be a minority as I'm sure this party will discover over the next two years and it is, of course, difficult to be in the minority on this issue. But I think there is a principle involved here, which is a very, very important one. All of us in this Chamber are caught up with the politics of the moment. And the politics of the moment is obviously the selection of the Speaker by the party which the people of Illinois have clearly put in the majority. I think there is a principle of rules involved here, Mr. Secretary. I hope that some of those who voted not to table this motion will seriously consider this point. Two years from today if this party should by any chance have a slim majority of 89, and this rule is in effect with 101 members on the other side of the aisle to prevent the change of this rule, and we should have the kind of instance that we have today, with one of our members in the hospital, or we should have the kind of instance that we had two years when I had to come to the floor of this House with pneumonia, or we should have one of our members who would perhaps be persuaded not to go along with the majority of 89, we would find ourselves in dire straits. This is a matter of real principle and although the politics of the moment are intense, I sincerely urge some of you to consider the potential of this double-edged sword in the future. And I vote no."

Ed: "Dunn, J. F. Ralph Dunn. Dyer. Ebbesen. Epton. Epton?"

Secretary Howlett: "Bernie Epton."

Ed: "Mark that as a call at the end. Ewell. Ewing. Farley. Fary. Fennessey. Fleck. Flinn. Friedland. Friedrich. Gaines. Garmisa. Geo-Karis. Repeat, please, on the Garmisa vote. Kindly respond loud and clear, folks. Thank you. Geo-Karis. Getty. Giglio. Giorgi. Greiman. Griesheimer. Grëiman. Griesheimer. Grotberg. Hanahan. Hart. Give me that again, Hart? One more time; we can't hear up here. No. Hill. Hirschfeld."

Secretary Howlett: "Representative Shea. We can't hear you, Jerry."

Shea: "What is Mr. Grotberg's vote?"

Secretary Howlett: "Yea. Aye. Right here, Jerry, with the green tie.....for St. Patrick's Day."

Ed: "The last voting was Hill, right? Now, Hirschfeld. G. L. Hoffman. R. K. Hoffman. Holewinski. D. L. Houlihan. J. M. Houlihan. Hudson. Huff. Jacobs. Jaffe. Aye, right. Emil Jones. Speak up, please. J. D. Jones. Kane. Katz. Keller. Kelly. Kelly again, please. We can't hear you here to record properly. Kelly."

Secretary Howlett: "Dick Kelly, come on."

Ed: "Kempiners. Kent. Klosak. Kosinski. Kozubowski. Kucharski. LaFleur. LaFleur. Lauer. Laurino. Lechowicz. Thank you. Leinenweber. Lemke. Leon. Leverenz. Londrigan. Lucco. Luft. Lundy. Macdonald. Repeat, White. Willer. Williams. Winchester. Younge. Younge, please? Yourell. We need two. Walsh voted aye, mark your records accordingly."

Secretary Howlett: "Representative Kelly. Representative Richard Kelly, no."

Ed: "There's a question. People didn't hear next to the last member here. Younge, how did Younge vote? No. Okay. Our records show Epton not voting. Epton, please?"

Secretary Howlett: "Bernard Epton. Mark him absent. Ladies and gentlemen, the motion to suspend is carried 113 yeas 61 nays and 2 present. Representative Matijevich."

Matijevich: "Mr. Secretary of State and members of the House,
I apologize for going through this time consuming procedural matter that is so important to all of us, but I now move to adopt the resolution and I wonder, Mr. Secretary of State, if now we would be too presumptuous to take that same roll call. I'll accept whatever you say. I'd ask for leave to accept the same, the last roll call, Mr. Secretary of State."

Secretary Howlett: "Representative Yourell."

Yourell: "I...I object to that motion, Mr. Secretary."

Matijevich: "Just want to go through this quickly."

Secretary Howlett: "Before I suggest that we call the roll, I want to tell the members of the House that after the election in the 79th or 78th General Assembly, I wrote to the leaders of this body and suggested that they should make the rules during the regular session for the election of a Speaker in the next session. And I may say to you, if I can be so presumptuous you should address yourself to that during the 79th session. Call the roll.

A...Representative Maragos."

Maragos: "Again, I raise a parliamentary inquiry, Mr. Speaker, because according to the Constitution, the only order of business before us is the election of a Speaker. And I again raise the question whether this is a proper motion at this time even though it was considered to suspend the rules of a previous General Assembly and again, on the Section 6 of the Legislative Article of the Constitution, it says on the first day of the January session, which you already read, Mr. Secretary, of the General Assembly, in odd-numbered years, the Secretary of State shall convene the House of Representatives to elect from its membership a Speaker of the House as presiding officer. It doesn't include any other business and that's why I wonder if it is proper business at this time."

Secretary Howlett: "The resolution has to do with the election of a Speaker and it is proper before this body. Call the roll."

Ed: "Anderson. Arnell. E. M. Barnes. Now we're going, here we go again. We've got to get a proper vote; I'd like a loud response from the people voting, and I'd appreciate it very much if the members would keep their voices down as requested before. Barnes, E. M. J. M. Barnes. Beatty. Beaupre. Berman. Bluthardt. Birchler. Borchers. Boyle. Bradley. Brandt. Brinkmeier. Brummet. Byers. Caldwell. Calvo. Campbell. Capparelli. Capuzi. Catania. Chapman. Choate. Coffey. Secretary Howlett: "Jim Houlihan."

Winchester. Young. Yourell. Fleck was not recorded as voting. Representative Fleck votes aye."

Secretary Howlett: "Representative Ralph Dunn, please.

Ralph Dunn changed his vote from to aye. Yes, sir.

Dunn: "Mr. Secretary, I know that you only get to do this once every two years, so you may not have realized it is very difficult for us to hear how people are voting just as it is very difficult for you to hear how people are voting. And I wonder if we could go to the other procedure we adopted when we didn't have microphones and the lights went out and have the Clerk repeat how the person voted, how he is recording the person's vote so that we'll have some idea how it's coming."

Secretary Howlett: "The Clerk will record the vote, not only on his tally sheet, but will inform the members of the House. Yes, sir. Give your name, please. Louder. Max Coffey. Representative Berman."

Berman: "Parliamentary inquiry, Mr. Secretary. How many votes does this resolution require?"

Secretary Howlett: "Pardon me, Representative Berman."

Berman: "How many votes does this resolution require for adoption?"

Secretary Howlett: "Majority of those voting."

Berman: "Mr. Secretary, may I inquire, referring to Rule 73(d) that any resolution proposing to amend a House rule which is offered by a House member on the floor shall be referred to the Committee on Rules? Where it does not go to a Committee on Rules, there requires 107"

Secretary Howlett: "We've already voted, Representative Berman, to suspend Rule 73(d). That's already been voted on."

Berman: "So that is the ruling that this requires only a simple..."

Secretary Howlett: "That's right."

Berman: "Simple majority."

Secretary Howlett: "That's right. Representative Yourell."

Yourell: "Parliamentary inquiry, Mr. Secretary. The motion, as I understood it, was not to change the rule in its entirety but rather to amend a portion of the rule. Would the Chair rule on whether that takes 107 votes or whether that takes a simple majority? Wherein we are not amending, we are not changing the rule, but amending a portion of that rule, and I think that if the Parliamentarian would check, that would seem to me to take 107 votes or a 3/5 majority."

Secretary Howlett: "We have suspended 73(d). We will have a simple majority. The vote was 106 in favor, 61 no, and 9 voting present. Representative Berman."

Berman: "Before you proceed any further, may I respectfully call the Chair's attention to the implications of Rule 73(f) and (g). Now it is my understanding, or it was my impression, that the suspension of Rule 73(d), which was voted upon earlier, dealt with the...with the situation where the rule, where this resolution was not submitted to the Rules Committee, but Rules (f) and (g) however, were not suspended, and I think that a reading of (f) and (g) would give...indicate that any change of the rules that did not go through the House Rules Committee would require a 3/5 majority vote. And I would respectfully suggest that to the Speaker."

Secretary Howlett: "The Chair is not so persuaded. Representative Shea."

Shea: "Mr. Speaker, once we suspend or delete a rule and there is no rule in our rules covering it, do we then go to Robert's Rules of Parliamentary Procedure? What I'm talking about, Mr. Matijevich, is we suspended the rule with regards to amending our rules."

Secretary Howlett: "The motion we have just voted on affects and adopts the new rules."

Shea: "But as I say, we have suspended Section 73(d) of the rules of the House; therefore, we have no rule covering amending the rules. And in the absence of a rule, our rules require we go to Robert's Rules of Order, and I think if we look at Robert's Rules of Order on page 258, Section 34, sub 7, it requires a 2/3 vote of those voting on the question to amend the rules."

Secretary Howlett: "The Chair sticks with its rule. Representative Yourell...Ewell."

Ewell: "I'd just like to be the first to congratulate the Secretary of State as the permanent House Speaker."

Secretary Howlett: "I got some words for you, but I can't say them here. With the consent of the House, I would limit nominating and seconding speeches to five minutes. Nominations are now in order for the election of Speaker of the House of Representatives. The Chair recognizes Representative Gerald Shea."

Shea: "Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, I would, at this time, like to place in nomination the name of my good friend from Anna, Illinois, Clyde L. Choate. I am sorry that Clyde's wife and daughters are not here today. Clyde's wife is sick. But I would very much like to tell my colleagues about a young man who returned from World War II having won this nation's highest award for valor, the Congressional Medal of Honor. When Clyde returned a decorated hero, he was elected 28 years ago to this Chamber. He has served with distinction since that time, having been both the Minority Leader and the Majority Leader of my party. He has served well, has served the people of this State well, and therefore, I do wish to place his name in nomination for Speaker of the 79th General Assembly."

Secretary Howlett: "Are there any seconds or further nominations? Representative Corneal Davis, the Dean of the House of Representatives, who didn't need a microphone when he first came here, and doesn't need one now."

Davis: "Thank you, Mr. Secretary of State. Mr. Secretary of State and ladies and gentlemen of the House, I want to begin my seconding speech by congratulating the gentlemen on the other side of the aisle. Your fight for Speaker two years ago was just as intense as our fight has been, but the reason I am going to congratulate you is that you came back in this House. I don't know what happened in the caucus, but whatever happened in the caucus, you came back in this House and when the vote was counted, you had elected a Republican Speaker; you had adhered to the mandates of the people of the State of Illinois, because they had given the Republican Party a majority. You know, the greatest miser on earth is the miser who saves up all of his friends. I want to save up all of my friends, and especially those on this side of the aisle. And I want to save you up by telling you that the people of this State we gave you a mandate, a mandate to give them a Democratic speaker. I suppose we adopted the rule that we got to get 89 votes, so it's all right with me if you want us to get 89 votes, but Clyde Choate, there was 6 or 7 of them who ran against him in the caucus, Clyde got 59 of those votes; he doubled all of the other votes. He got a fair majority of the elected Democratic members of this House. Now he comes back here saying to you that with that majority he wants to be Speaker. Now,

Jerry has told you about his war record. And I agree with him that he did come with a Congressional Medal of Honor from the bloody beaches of the Mediterranean, and then he came to Springfield. Let me tell you about his record in Springfield. When I came to this town and members came to this town, there wasn't one hotel in this town where we could lay our heads. We spent our first night in the G.M. & O. station over there. The next morning my mother came down here and I wanted to move along the lines of least resistance, and I saw Thompson's Restaurant and I took my mother and her guests into Thompson's Restaurant and they said, and I was moving along what I thought was the line of least resistance, and they say, 'We do not serve colored people in here,' and I said, 'Where in the name of God can we eat in this town? If you don't serve us, I decided I'll serve myself, and I'm going to take some of everything I see on this counter and pay for it since you don't serve them.' I was like Fred Douglass; Fred Douglass said for seven years he was a slave, and prayed for freedom, and seven years I got no answer, but, he said, 'I fixed my eyes on the North Star and I used the legs that God gave me and with those legs that God gave me, He took me to the North where I enjoyed that freedom that I had to pay for.' Let me tell you about Clyde Choate. Clyde Choate stood with me when I needed him. Oh, I have thousands upon thousands of friends when I don't need them but Clyde stood with me for F.E.P.C. Clyde of Anna, not one black man lived in his district, but he was a young product, thank God. Of a World War he had soldiered in the trenches with black men and he came back here to this House determined that every man should enjoy this liberty and the rights which this Constitution gave us. Clyde, I'll never forsake you. I'll never turn my back on you. You are the choice of the Democratic, the majority of the Democratic party, and I rise to second the nomination of a man who came from the bloody beaches of the Mediterranean Bishop Fulton Sheen said that on the cross was three men, one on the left of the Savior and the other one on the right. The one on the left looked down at the Roman soldiers, and he said to these Roman soldiers 'Take me down.' The one on the right looked at the suffering Savior, and said, 'Take me up.' Clyde Choate, the Congressional Medal of Honor is looking at you now, and what does he say? 'I have served you well in all of these sessions. Democrats, today, because I have served you, because I have given honor to my country and honor to my party, take me up today.' What will you do? Take him up or take him down? I'm happy to second the nomination of Clyde Choate, my friend, whom I love."

Secretary Howlett: "Representative Hart."

Hart: "Am I on? All right. Mr. Secretary and fellow members, I have only had two Democratic leaders since I've been a member of this House: Jack Touhy and Clyde Choate. In the finest sense of the word, both of them are pros. All I have ever asked of anyone in Springfield is to be treated fairly, and respect for this House and its membership. Clyde Choate is a mature person with the experience and ability to cope with the opposition, whether it be on the other side of the aisle, the other side of the rotunda, or another floor of this building. We need his ability and know-how. The only criticism I have heard of him from other House members is that he isn't on the floor all the time. I think we all know that the job of Democratic House Leader during the last two years has not been easy. The issues were complex and the people with whom he had to deal were often inconsistent, and even, at times, unreliable. I think he did a fine job. There was never a time when I asked Clyde Choate to be on the floor of this House that he wasn't there giving me his help. I believe the same is true for the rest of you who were here. I want a Speaker of this House who is accessible to its members, who knows how to work with and handle people and issues and who will do everything he can, both here and in our District, to keep a Democratic majority in this House of Representatives. I want a leader whose word I can accept and depend on. I want a leader who will be fair. I believe that Clyde Choate is that kind of man and will be that kind of leader. I am proud to second the nomination of my colleague from the 59th District, Clyde L. Choate, as Speaker of the House of Representatives in the 79th General Assembly. Thank you very much."

Secretary Howlett: "Representative Madigan."

Madigan: "Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I rise to second the nomination of Clyde Choate for Speaker of the House of Representatives. I second Representative Choate's nomination because in my mind, he is the only member of the House that I know of today who has both the ability and the experience which will be required to lead this House of Representatives during our next arduous session. He is the only one with the years of experience and the ability to represent both the urban and the rural interests of this State. I'm from Chicago, but I know, despite the fact that Clyde Choate is from Anna, Illinois, he has never disregarded the interests of Chicago; he has never disregarded the interests of any metropolitan area in this State; he has never disregarded the interests of any area of this State. And for that reason alone, he deserves to be elected as the Speaker. It has been said by many that we should bring reform to the House of Representatives. Please remember when you speak of reform, speak of electoral reform. Remember the one member of this House who almost singlehandedly has advocated electoral reform for as long as I have been a member and long before I arrived in this House. Clyde Choate was advocating the reregistration of voters statewide long before I even thought of running for the House of Representatives. He knows what reform is, reform in the real sense, and he has long been a champion of reform. It has been said that we need a Speaker who will treat all members with equity and fairness. The Democratic members of this House, and as one who has been a follower of the Democratic leadership, Clyde Choate, for four years, I have always been treated fairly, and if you are going to be concerned about equity, remember too the days when the Income Tax Act was passed. Recall who was the leading proponent of a split rate differential on the income tax. It was Clyde Choate. Again, almost singlehandedly, he brought about a rate differential beneficial to the individual income taxpayers. I intend to vote for Clyde Choate on the first ballot. I intend to vote for Clyde Choate on the last ballot that we take today. I don't care how long we are going to stay here. I don't care if we finish today, tomorrow, Friday, Saturday, Sunday. I will be here and I will vote for Clyde Choate."

Secretary Howlett: "Representative Hill."

Hill: "Mr. Secretary and members of the House of Representatives, before I start, I would like to introduce to you Representative Choate's mother, who is back here in the audience, and she's 84 years old. Clyde said the whole section up there is his family. I consider it an honor to be able to second the nomination for Clyde Choate. I have served with him for sixteen years now, and they have been very good years. They have been honorable years, and I know of many things that he has done to improve the functions of the legislature. He is one of a few people that is responsible for us sitting here today, and having our offices. I have at all times been able to find this gentleman whenever I have had a problem in regards to the legislature or a problem in regards to my District. He is a person that has compassion. He is a hard working individual. I feel very confident that Clyde Choate is the person that can get us back together. In these troubled times, we need leadership like Clyde Choate in the State of Illinois. I feel confident that this will be accomplished. As I said, I have known him here in the legislature for 16 years. I was here several years before I found out that he landed on D-Day in Sicily, that his division and my division were close by all through Sicily and several times I had the opportunity of acting as a forward observer for that infantry division. I never knew I was that close to a great person, but I have found that out, and in seconding the nomination of Clyde Choate, it is my privilege to do this. Thank you."

Secretary Howlett: "Representative Bus Yourell."

Yourell: "Thank you Mr. Speaker...a...Mr. Secretary, ladies and gentlemen of the House, I'm delighted and honored to be given the opportunity, and I consider it a great privilege, to second the nomination of a great American and a great Illinoisian, Clyde L. Choate of Anna, Illinois. The gentleman from Anna has for 28 years in this House displayed a sense of responsibility, integrity, and dedication to any task assigned to him or undertaken by him. You, as members of this House, are going to hear many accolades attributed to Clyde Choate today, and I would remind you that the greatest accolade that any politician or elected public official or servant of the people can receive is that here's a man that has never failed to keep his word. I would remind the ladies and gentlemen of this House that there are individuals in this building who, through intimidation and threat, are attempting to block the election of Clyde Choate as Speaker of this House. I would also suggest to you that those people, on the most part, have never held an elected public office and if their individual and collective public records were put together, they wouldn't fill the back of a postage stamp. You've heard many candidates for Speaker and individuals seeking leadership in this House tell you that this House is in need of reform, that rules should be promulgated to give us that reform. I would remind you that Clyde Choate over a year ago delivered to each member of the House sitting then a set of rules that he had agreed to submit to this House in the 79th General Assembly. Clyde Choate, through his military efforts, was awarded the highest distinction an American can receive through the President and the Congress of the United States, The Congressional Medal of Honor. His efforts and contributions in that great war have proven to be and have molded him the man that he is today: a great leader of men in Illinois politics. And we have on the Democratic side of this aisle 6 or 7 candidates for Speaker of this House, each of whom is well qualified, well intentioned, and with the best interest of all of the members at heart. But I suggest to you, ladies and gentlemen of the 79th General Assembly, that when you review the legislative record and the accomplishments of Clyde Choate, who for 28 years, and you heard Representative Davis tell you what it was like years ago down here, when he had to stand alone and found a friend in Clyde Choate, and many of you today, who are sitting in this House, have found a friend in Clyde Choate, and now is the time, now is the time, ladies and gentlemen, to award for that service, that dedication, that integrity, and that sense of responsibility are to be rewarded. Clyde Choate, in my judgment is, has, and always will be the gentleman from Anna, the gentleman from Union County, who has never ever failed to keep his word to any of his colleagues. I'm delighted, I'm pleased, and it's a privilege to me to be able to place in nomination and to second that nomination, my great friend and yours, Clyde Choate. Thank you."

Secretary Howlett: "Representative Schneider."

Schneider: "Thank you Mr. Speaker. A parliamentary inquiry."

Mr. Speaker? Mr. Secretary, a parliamentary inquiry. Has it been clarified that all candidates for Speaker will be nominated prior to the first ballot and that that will be the only opportunity to nominate a candidate?"

Secretary Howlett: "It takes a majority vote to reopen the nomination. The rule has been the nominations will be made in the beginning."

Schneider: "Thank you."

Secretary Howlett: "Representative Schisler."

Schisler: "Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of this body, the name that I am going to place in nomination is not out of animosity for any other Speaker candidate, but it is out of a deep conviction that this House and this State deserves new leadership. In the candidate that I am going to nominate, we have the man that can lead this body. He is a man of great personal integrity. He is a family man. He is an outstanding Democrat. And yes, ladies and gentlemen, he is the man that I am willing, and I'll hope that you will be willing, to place your political future at his feet. I give you Gerald Bradley for Speaker of the House of Representatives. Thank you."

Secretary Howlett: "Representative Jack Beaupre. Representative Schraeder."

Schraeder: "Mr. Secretary of State, ladies and gentlemen of the House, it is extremely important in the critical days ahead in the State of Illinois that we place in the position of responsibility as the Speaker of the House of Representatives a man of proven ability, a man of experience, a man who can follow the tradition laid down by a great Democratic Speaker of the 74th General Assembly, Speaker John Touhy. I think we all realize that Speaker Touhy was one of the greatest Speakers, if not the greatest Speaker, the House of Representatives has ever seen. And I say to you today that we can do no less than to put into nomination and to elect a Speaker the only choice that we have, the man that can do the job and do it properly."

The challenges of the 79th General Assembly seem to be overwhelming. It seems to me that we can do no less than put in the place of trust a man who can do the job that must be done. It seems to me that Representative Gerald Bradley is the man that we should place in this awesome path of responsibility. It is with great pleasure that I second the name of Gerald Bradley as Speaker of the House of Representatives."

Secretary Howlett: "Representative Beaupre."

Beaupre: "Mr. Secretary, I rise for the purpose of placing in nomination. If there was another second to that, I would yield."

Secretary Howlett: "Oh, I thought you had the last chance, Roscoe. Go ahead, Jack."

Beaupre: "Mr. Secretary and ladies and gentlemen of the House, I rise in the spirit of compromise and of concern, of concern for my party, of concern for the General Assembly, concern for this House. I, of course, like the rest of you, am aware of the political static that permeates the air in regard to this leadership race. I, like the rest of you, am seeking to find a leader who will bring about the kind of reforms that have been talked about, who will create an image that we, in the General Assembly, can be proud of, the kind of man who can work toward putting together our party, putting together a General Assembly, that the next time when some foundation supported group goes around rating the General Assembly and the legislatures of various states, can point to Illinois as being the greatest in the country. It is for that reason and in that spirit of compromise that I offer to you the name of Paul Stone in nomination for Speaker of this House. I have come to know Paul as a man of great integrity, as a man who I have looked to and admired, a man of sound judgement, a man who prior to coming to this General Assembly served in public life as chairman of the Board of Higher Education, as chairman of the Board of Governors of the State University of Illinois, who has been interested in education throughout his career as a legislator, and who is a man that I, think, provides for us a solution to this dilemma that we face today. I give you in nomination the honorable Paul Stone. Thank you."

Secretary Howlett: The golden voice from Lawrenceville, Illinois, Roscoe Cunningham."

Cunningham: "Mr. Secretary, I hope that it is not out of order for this humble Representative to personally thank the Secretary for restoring seven drivers' license stations in the 54th District. I hereby publicly recant all the nasty things that I said about you when you took them away. Now, Mr. Secretary of State and distinguished Representatives of the 79th General Assembly, it is my great privilege and cherished honor to place in nomination for the Speaker of this House the name of one whose credentials are impeccable, whose legislative record is impressive, whose dedication to this House is total, whose friends, whose circle of friends, encompasses every other of the 176 members of this House. It has been oft and aptly said that the awesome job of Speaker of the House is second only to one as the most powerful position in the State of Illinois, and it follows as the night the day, that it is the duty of each of us to choose our best to lead us wisely and well. In the midst of the Civil War at a difficult time, the poet wrote, 'Sail on, O Ship of State!/ Sail on, O Union, strong and great!/ Humanity with all its fears,/with all its hopes of future years,/is hanging breathless on thy fate!/' Representative government here in Illinois faces today a similar moment of truth. It is time, ladies and gentlemen, that we do away with the silly old party labels. In the cause of good government, it should matter not that the best candidate for Speaker may have run on a different ticket.

It is time to think anew. It's time in the tide and the affairs of men to say that political partisan considerations must yield to the public need. The one whose name I will place in nomination is battle-tested and proved in war and peace. The same courage that it took to be a decorated wounded torpedo bomber pilot from a tiny deck on a carrier in the South Pacific is the courage that it will take to lead Illinois in this difficult period into this uncertain future. His grasp of government, the depth of his understanding of the human animal that permitted this man to serve with distinction by partisan acclaim as the chairman of the Appropriations Committee in the 78th General Assembly, as vice chairman of the 77th, as a hardworking, dedicated legislator in all the sessions are his in spades, and they are the things of which leadership is made. He wears no one's collar but his own; he will be responsible to each and every member of this House when you elect him as your Speaker and to no one else. He's a man in whom you can believe. Those who went before us have fashioned, Mr. Secretary, a very unique concept of government. We have three branches, but they are separate and equal. What a perverse thing it would be if we would destroy history by permitting our heritage to be frittered away through making the people's Chamber the rubber stamp of another branch of government! We should each resolve here and now that that shall never be. The one who I nominate has been five times overwhelming elected by the discerning voters of the 43d District. He is proud and humble, he is affable and serious, he is evenhanded, calm in the eye of the storm. His administration will be dedicated to the open door, and more important, to the open and receptive mind of every member of this particular House. My nominee for this office is as soft as a marshmallow and as hard as a blackjack. He, ladies and gentlemen, exemplifies the things that we believe in and with regard to a Representative. He wears with equal dignity the lofty title of chairman and the common touch of Bud. This man believes that progressive reform of the legislative process is basic to his faith. He will bring to the Office of Speaker an unequal sensitivity to all of the myriad concepts of conflict of interest that that Office is particularly subject to. He is, in my judgment, and in the judgment of all who know him so well, the original Mr. Clean in Illinois politics. Known and admired by a great many, he is the unanimous choice of his party caucus. Mr. Secretary, ladies and gentlemen, it is with pride unlimited and hope and expectation that I give you the next Speaker of the 79th General Assembly, the distinguished son of Grundy County, the Honorable James Washburn."

Secretary Howlett: "Representative Totten."

Totten: "Thank you. Mr. Secretary and members of the General Assembly, it is indeed an honor, and certainly with some humility, that I arise to second the nomination of James Washburn as next Speaker of the Illinois General Assembly. I've had the opportunity in the last session to work with Bud as the leader of our House Appropriations Committee. He molded very carefully many freshmen in our party into a group that followed his leadership, listened to his wisdom, and worked diligently behind him. He was chairman of our House Appropriations Committee and it was an honor for all of us to serve with him. He is a man of foresight; he's a man of vision; he's a man of extensive ability. He's a man of integrity. He's a man of courage. He's a man of strong character. He's a man with wisdom and he's a man who possess and purports simplicity: qualities that we, as members of the General Assembly, need in our next leader. And while we search today for a Speaker, let me suggest to those of you on the other side of the aisle that you need look no farther. For we have a man who possesses everything we need to lead this next session of the General Assembly: the gentleman from Grundy. It is indeed an honor that I stand here before you to second the nomination of James R. "Bud" Washburn to be the next Speaker of the Illinois General Assembly."

Secretary Howlett: "Representative Satterthwaite. 'Representative Satterthwaite. Will you turn on her microphone?"

Satterthwaite: "In the 79th General Assembly, I'm pleased to share representation of the 52d District with Paul Stone, a fine upstanding Democrat, who has had a long record of service in the State of Illinois in education, in mental health, and as a legislator. He has served diligently and capably in whatever role he has been in. It's now my privilege to commend Paul Stone to the members of the 79th General Assembly in a new role, in which, I am sure, he will serve you and the people of the State of Illinois just as diligently, just as capably, and just as fairly as he has executed his duties in the past. The 52d Legislative District is centrally located in Illinois. From that place, Paul Stone will be equally accessible to all of the residents and all of the Representatives, whether we are here in Springfield in session or not. Along with that accessibility, I can assure you that you will receive treatment which is unbiased, fair to all regions of the State, to all interests of the State, and to all people of the State. I believe that my presence here today is an indication that the people of Illinois want to see a new set of leadership in this House and I commend, and very proudly commend to you, Paul Stone as Speaker of the 79th General Assembly."

Secretary Howlett: "Representative Rigney."

Rigney: "Mr. Speaker, for a Republican to arise on this occasion and to second the nomination for a Republican candidate for Speaker of the House, I feel somewhat, I guess probably, like General Custer must have felt as he stood there counting the Indians. We know we're realists over on this side of the aisle; we know that since the fifth day of November, that we've had a little arithmetic problem. We know that the equation for winning says the 76 plus X will bring outstanding leadership to the Illinois General Assembly. And, of course, the missing factor here, the X factor, can only come from those enlightened and fairminded Democrats who are not really concerned about the elephant and the donkey. They only want to bring to this Chamber the type of leadership to which we are entitled. We do have the choicest product to recommend to you. You know that we have a very highly capable candidate for this position. You have worked with this man. You like him. You know that he is very fair in all his dealings. You know that he is progressive. You know that he has worked for such things as fair wages for our State employees, for fully funding our Teachers' Retirement System, for a highway system in the State of Illinois. You've seen him do all of these things and you have been proud to support him as he has led us in this kind of legislation. You know that here is a man that is highly rated by both management and labor in this State. Everyone thinks highly of our candidate, and you also know one other thing about our candidate: you know that he is the hardest working man in the Illinois General Assembly. As the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee, I don't think anyone would deny the work that this man has done. So we invite you, the fairminded Democrats on the other side of the aisle, to now come over and join us. We ask you to help us to complete this equation. You are the missing part. And when you finally make that decision to back Bud Washburn for Speaker of the Illinois House, you know that you'll have the kind of leadership here in Springfield that you'll be proud to talk about when you go back home to your home district. Thank you."

Secretary Howlett: "Representative McGrew."

McGrew: "Thank you very much, Mr. Secretary. Ladies and gentlemen of the House, it's with great pleasure that I rise to place the nomination of Rollie Tipsword of Christian County for Speaker of the House of Representatives. Representative Tipsword has been in this legislature now for five terms. He has been the type of individual that has consistently dealt with each and every member fairly and has been quite available for all questions that we might have. Representative Tipsword has been the type of legislator that has both been a positive force in passing constructive legislation, as well as an individual that would help weed out poor legislation. These, I believe, are the two criteria that we must look for in selecting a Speaker. It's my honest opinion that Rolland Tipsword is the man that faces these two criteria the best. I therefore submit to you the name of Rolland Tipsword for Speaker of the House, in my honest opinion, the man for all reasons. Thank you."

Secretary Howlett: "Representative Dan Pierce."

Pierce: "Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, eight years ago, a young man from Lake County was sworn into the Illinois House of Representatives. Those in Lake County knew him as the chief law enforcement officer of his city, as a magistrate at the time that we had magistrates sitting in courts and municipalities, and already knew of his fairness to all people in his community. For that reason, he was elected eight years ago to the Illinois House of Representatives. Since that time, his total concern has been the Illinois General Assembly. He has devoted his full time to being a legislator, not only from Lake County, but for the people of all the State. His name is John Matijevich. Now, those of you who have sat here today have seen John Matijevich in action, have seen him fighting for all the members of the House, for their dignity and for fairness for each and every member of the House, Republican or Democratic organization or independent, whatever his philosophy may be. John Matijevich's interests have been the interest of the members of the General Assembly so that we can govern more effectively, restore respect to representative government, and maintain State government as a meaningful..... as a meaningful part of our federal system. That has been the rule and objective of John Matijevich. He carries.... he carries no ax to grind, nor does he carry water on his shoulder for any particular public official in this State, nor is he on the end of a telephone line to any other public official in this State. John Matijevich is fighting for all the members of this General Assembly to effectively perform their tasks as legislators and to restore dignity that has been so often missing from this House, to restore respect for State government, and with that in mind, I'm proud to nominate my fellow Lake Countyan, Representative John Matijevich of North Chicago, Illinois."

Secretary Howlett: "Representative Mike Getty."

Getty: "Mr. Secretary of State and ladies and gentlemen of the House, there have been many who have been nominated this afternoon who I believe would work well and be qualified and serve this General Assembly well, but I feel that we are in danger. I feel we may have come to an impasse and I think that there should be a viable alternative. I think to be acceptable, this individual must be geographically and politically acceptable, but most important, I believe that it should be an individual who is beholden to nobody but to his own conscience. I believe that this individual must be dynamic and he must be a fair leader. I wish to submit a man to you who has a background in all three branches of State government, who has served as a fair and impartial Judge in Will County, who has served as an outstanding and courageous State's Attorney in Will County, and has proven to be a most effective and knowledgeable legislator. I wish to submit to you a man who I believe will lead this General Assembly to greatness. It is my privilege to nominate George Sangmeister."

Secretary Howlett: "Representative Van Duyne."

Van Duyne: "Mr. Speaker..... ah... I mean, Mr. Secretary and members of the House of Representatives, in deference to Mr. Sangmeister who has asked me not to give him any flowery oratory, I will just simply say that it gives me great pleasure and very briefly to ah.... second the nomination of my running mate and good friend from the 42d District, George Sangmeister, for the Speaker of the House of Representatives. Thank you very much."

Secretary Howlett: "Ladies and gentlemen, we could stay here all day giving seconding speeches. May I ask at this time, are there any further nominations? Representative Lundy."

Lundy: "Thank you Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, it's my pleasure to place in nomination the name of a man who is today commencing his 17th year in the House of Representatives, William A. Redmond of DuPage County. Bill Redmond is a man whose integrity is unquestioned among his colleagues in the House and by the public; the man who believes that this House of Representatives is no man's private domain, but must be run for the benefit of all members and for the public. Bill Redmond is a man who brings no ambition to the Speakership except the ambition to serve his colleagues well, to run the House well and fairly and efficiently. He is a man who as Speaker would be beholden to no one in this State except those members of the House who elect him today. It is my great pleasure to place in nomination the name of the Honorable William A. Redmond of DuPage County."

Secretary Howlett: "Representative Mugalian."

Mugalian: "Thank you, Mr. Secretary. Ladies and gentlemen of the House, the public, the press, and, indeed, many of my esteemed colleagues are watching the Speaker's race with expectations grounded in a century of tradition. It is my fervent hope that these expectations fail and that the tradition is destroyed, never to reappear. I look forward to a new Illinois. It is widely expected that we are to learn which one of us is to become the second most powerful person in State government. Tradition has it that out of all this will come concentrated power. The new Illinois would have us confer a burden, not power: the burden of an Office charged only with the duties of making this a legislature of equals, a legislature that works, a legislature with dignity, a legislature that is effective. It is time that we think in terms of service and obligation, not in terms of power. It is time that we act in that way. The press awaits to see how the deals are cut. It watches to see who will occupy the leadership position: with these committee Chairmanships, commission appointments, how severe the retribution to those who back the losing contenders. The media loves to report in terms of winners and losers. It glorifies cleverness, but the new Illinois, ladies and gentlemen, the new Illinois watches and waits for the end of deals; the end of the granting or withholding of favors to that interest group or the other; the dissolution of intractable voting blocs. It looks for the end of the organization of the House on the basis of political ambition or the distribution of plums, the mortgaging of votes on critical State issues, the advanced accommodations to party leaders or Cook County or a Chief Executive or agricultural interests or what have you. I wish to see Bill Redmond as Speaker of the House because he believes as do I that the Office of Speaker belongs to all of us, singly and collectively and individually. It is not a prize to be won by political maneuvering, not a reward for past or future favors. It should not necessarily be considered as an exalted Office, although one entitled to respect. Essentially, ladies and gentlemen, it is an Office that is burdensome. It is a service Office; one whose principal functions are protection of our rights and facilitation for our duties. Last of all, it is a stepping stone for higher office. I know that Bill Redmond does not share my views on many substantive issues. We do not even completely agree as to the role of political parties, nor does he share some of my views regarding the operations, rules, and practices of this Chamber, but we do agree as to the principal functions of the Speaker of the House, and his commitment to this shared view is as strong as mine: a commitment to fair play, equal treatment, and the abnegation of power for its own sake; renunciation of power, certainly for the Speaker's personal advancement; a useable leverage of his Office to give back to us the self respect that comes from knowing that the Speaker is one among equals, 177 legislators representing our Districts, voting our consciences, advancing our bills, with neither special advantage nor impediment. We have a new Constitution, and now it's time for a new House of Representatives which requires a new kind of Speaker. On behalf of the revolution of rising expectations of one of the world's most disadvantaged classes, that is, the Illinois electorate, and of you, my colleagues, who demand your inalienable right to represent your constituents on behalf of the new Illinois, I proudly second the nomination of William Redmond."

Secretary Howlett: "Representative Lucco."

Lucco: "Mr. Secretary of State, distinguished ladies and gentlemen of this Assembly, it's indeed a pleasure for me as a freshman to have the opportunity to place before this august body the name of a man that I believe can pull together all the factions that we seem to be getting together here in this Assembly here today. As we go down this road of balloting, I hope that you'll keep this name before you, and as you near the end of the balloting, if you haven't reached a decision on anyone who can appeal to all groups, I want you to keep this name before you. This is a man that comes from southwestern Illinois, a man that represents the second most populous area in the State of Illinois. He represents Madison and St. Clair Counties and as you Democrats well know, when they count the votes in Madison and St. Clair, if there are some of those across the aisle, they find out where they came from. I'm very, very proud to nominate a man that I believe is very, very highly respected by labor, by agriculture, by industry in our part of the State. We in southern Illinois believe that we need some representation from that part of the State and again I encourage you to vote.... to keep this man in mind before you cast you final ballot a man who is now serving his fourth term in this august body. And I deem it a pleasure to now place in nomination my colleague from the 56th District, from Granite City, Madison County, the Honorable Horace Calvo."

Secretary Howlett: "Are there any further nominations? Leland Rayson."

Rayson: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker and to my colleagues, Will Rogers once said that he was not a member of any political party for he was a Democrat, and in keeping with his statement, as a Democrat I feel privileged after a decade in this House to place in nomination one of our most distinguished legislators. I do not take this privilege lightly, however, because I do know that our distinguished Minority Leader served well in Miami and with the actistry and the skill that he displayed there, certainly he could be a great Speaker here. I also recognize that the other gentlemen placed in nomination can be effective, and fine, fair Speakers for this burgeoning and potentially effective, ah... 79th General Assembly. But notwithstanding that, I discern that there is division in the Democrat ranks, and an honest, healthy division. And because of this division I feel that the name of this gentlemen should be given equal consideration, because I don't know where we will end up. And I think it's very therapeutic that we are having this race, competitive race today. I am reminded of the remarks of Adlai Stevenson II in 1952 at the Democratic National Convention, when he said, 'Where we have error, let there be no mistake. Where we have wronged the public trust, let there be no doubt, for confession and candor are good for the political soul.' I feel that the Democrat Party nationally, as well as in the State of Illinois, has not quite found the candor and the confession which would breathe new viability into its political soul, and until that time comes, I will stand by my friend and colleague, who needs no introduction to each and every one of you, and even to the freshmen. The self-effacing gentlemen from Glencoe has carved a grand and impressive legislative career and would give to you his endowment, which is a balanced sense of justice and knowledge in all areas of the legislative process. So therefore, I feel it an extreme honor to place in nomination the name of my colleague and dear friend, for ten years, Representative Harold A. Katz."

Secretary Howlett: "Representative Caldwell."

Caldwell: "Thank you, Mr. Secretary. Ladies and gentlemen of this 79th Illinois General Assembly, I arise to place in nomination a young man who has been a working, fulltime legislator for the last decade. I had the privilege and pleasure two years ago to place his name in nomination. And at that time, had he not withdrawn, it would have been another first for his ethnical group. I think that we need to examine the situation in which we find ourselves this afternoon. The fact that we have some eight or ten candidates for this high honor indicates that democracy is at work. I, as a member of a so-called minority group, would feel that I were not carrying out my duties, did I not give you the opportunities to consider this man and utilize his talent as Speaker in this House. When the... all the candidates will have been presented to you, and when we begin to vote, and if it gets one, two, or whatever, it will be the first time in the history of this State that a black man has been considered for Speaker, and I think that this is far too long; it's indicative to me that our State is still functioning in the 19th century. I think, ladies and gentlemen, that the man that I'm going to present to you, and with whom I have worked during my first 8 years here in this body, is known to all of you who have been here that length of time. I believe that Representative Washington's skills are known to most of you; he has passed legislation; he has been involved in legislation across the board. Much of the legislation that he presented as a freshman, and as a sophomore, and as a junior, is now law, but it was not passed under his jurisdiction. It was picked up by others and passed because it was considered, at the time that he presented it, ahead of its time. It's not... ahead of his time for you to give him the type of consideration that he has earned through his dedication, through his hard work, through his ability to communicate with his ah... colleagues here on this floor. I would believe that we would be doing ourselves an honor. I believe that we would be indicating to the world that Illinois is truly a democracy when we consider Representative Washington, along with many of our other colleagues, because of his capabilities, because of his dedication, because he has the time and the energy and the desire to serve us in the capacity that we so badly need at this particular moment in history. Ladies and gentlemen, I urge you and suggest that as we go over the list of candidates that have been presented here this evening, that we take a good, long, hard look at Representative Washington's record; we take a good, long, hard look at what Representative Washington stands for, and if we want to go to the political side, he has been a precinct captain since he began wearing long pants. I knew his father ... he was a very able lawyer ... a very able politician, when the word 'politician' was considered to be somewhat ah... ah... not ah... the best of language, but Representative Washington knows that politics ... the definition is the science of government ... and he has become a specialist in that particular field. It's a privilege and an honor for me to present him to you for your consideration as Speaker of this House."

Secretary Howlett: "Ladies and gentlemen, if... I would hope that we could do away with seconding speeches at this time, so we get on with the voting, and I would ask if anyone has anybody's name to place in nomination? Matijevich."

Matijevich: "Mr. Secretary of State and ladies and gentlemen of the House, two years ago it was my pleasure and honor to have to introduce ah... and nominate to this General Assembly the name of Toby Barry Ah... he has since been elevated to the Appellate Court. Many have told me today that if Toby Barry were here we wouldn't be going through this process. Ah... I am today going to place a name in nomination who I feel can... heal the wounds, if there are any, in the Democratic Party; a man whose political life has been a history in getting along with people, people in all levels of government and in all branches of the government, and we desperately need that today. I have most concern about this legislative process and the legislative branch of government. I don't want anybody to use this legislature for their own political ambitions; I don't want the interruptions that we had two years ago ... last year ... when others toyed around and used us as a boxing arena ah... that they would further their political ambitions. I am nominating today a man who has been the President of the Young Democrats of Illinois; a man who serves with me, has served with me, on the Executive Committee, who has always been punctual, who's always on time, who's fought for the interest of the overburdened taxpayer at every turn in this legislative process. Ladies and gentlemen, I feel that I have a candidate here that can spend more time than any of us, because he lives right here in the seat of State government in Springfield. I think I will nominate a man who will recognize that we want to be home once in a while. On many occasions he and I have talked about, in this General Assembly, that we have spent all day... all day here doing absolutely nothing, and that will come again too, unless we choose a leader who recognizes that when we're here, we're going to work, and if there is not work to be done, we're going right back to our families.

I have that type of man to introduce, and I commend him to all of you and especially to the Democratic Party; the man who can unify all of us, so that we are not toying with the ambitions of any one man, but with all the legislators here. I commend to you for nomination Jim Londrigan, here in Springfield, for Speaker of the House."

Secretary Howlett: "Are there any further nominations? Representative Greiman."

Greiman: "I respect your ah... request, of course, in respect to seconding ah... speeches and merely ask that ah... that it be noted in the record that I arose to second the nomination of Representative Harold Katz, who is ah... a candidate of all th... of all men who believe in the spirit and the triumph of the intellect. Thank you."

Secretary Howlett: "If I was from your District, I would do the same thing. Ah... are there any further nominations? Any further nominations? Any further nominations? We are waiting for the results of Republican caucus. Ladies and gentlemen, if the Republican caucus is not yet finished, we will declare a 5 minute recess."

Secretary Howlett: "Ladies and gentlemen, since there are no further nominations we will declare the nominations closed, and the Chair recognizes Representative Washburn."

Washburn: "Ah... Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, I would ask leave for a 15 minute recess for a Republican conference in Room 212. Could I have leave for that purpose?...Oh wait a minute, wait a minute, 212 is occupied. Will the 'M' room.....?"

Secretary Howlett: "If you can't find a place, you can use my office."

Washburn: "Thank you, sir."

Secretary Howlett: "We will declare a 15 minute recess for the purpose of a Republican caucus, and the House will reconvene again at 3:20."

Seicke: "All those members that haven't received their check yet can go into the Clerk's office and get the check. We've got your money back there, so if you have time, come back and get it."

Selcke: "Ah... another thing, before you can get your check, you have to sign your oath, and I have up here three oaths that have not been signed, so if you're in the room, I wish you would come up here and sign the oath. E. G. Steele, William A. Marovitz, Wyvetter H. Younge.... which one are you? Marovitz. Younge, will you come up?... Announce again, those of you that have not received their checks, go into the Clerk's office and the ladies are there with the checks."

Secretary Howlett: "Is the Republican caucus finished? Ladies and gentlemen, the House will come to order. The Clerk will call the roll.....the nominations being closed. The nominees for the office of Speaker are... Representative Choate, Representative Bradley, Representative Stone, Representative Washington ah... Washburn, pardon me, Representative Tipsword, Representative Matijevich, Representative Sangmeister, Representative Redmond, Representative Cl... Calvo, Representative Katz, Representative Harold Washington, Representative Londrigan. The Clerk will now call the roll for the election of Speaker. As your name is called, name the candidate for Speaker for whom you desire to vote. Ah... Ah... Representative Madigan."

Madigan: "Mr. Speaker, would you... again instruct the Clerk, to call back the vote of each Representative?"

Secretary Howlett: "The Clerk will record your vote and will announce what it is. We have 12 nominees. Now we must... we.... Will the Doorkeeper please clear the aisles and remove everybody from this Chamber who is not authorized to be here?"

Madigan: "Thank you, Mr. Secretary."

Secretary Howlett: "Will you please close the door? "

Don Ed: "Anderson votes for Washburn. Arnell votes Washburn. E. M. Barnes.... E. M. Barnes votes Choate. J. M. Barnes votes Washburn. Beatty votes Choate. Beaupre votes Stone. Berman ... Choate. Bluthardt votes Washburn. Birchler votes Choate. Borchner votes Washburn. Boyle votes..."

We'll proceed with the next roll call." The House come to order, please. We'll proceed with the roll call. Will you give him his microphone, please?"

Member: "I wonder when it would be appropriate to ask for the last roll call? Permission just to record it."

Secretary Howlett: "For your information, Washburn has 74 votes."

Member: "Yes, that was not my question. Perhaps I'm not stating it correctly. If no one is going to change their votes, why do we have to go through this--- why can't we just reprint the roll call and go to the next one?"

Secretary Howlett: "I don't have to tell you your business; if you want to make a motion go ahead."

Member: "Well, I would ask unanimous consent that we just have the same roll call last time for the sixth ballot."

Secretary Howlett: "That's very undemocratic. Proceed with the roll call."

ten hours and there doesn't seem to be a great deal of progress being made on anyone's part. I think ah... most of us are pretty well exhausted and certainly we're ready to get on with the work of the State and the work of the legislature so I think in the best interest of everybody, I'd like to move that we recess until tomorrow morning at 10:00."

Secretary Howlett: "All in favor signify by saying 'aye'; opposed, 'no'..... you're out of your mind. The House is recessed until 10:00 tomorrow morning. In order that you can get your per diem, we'll adjourn until tomorrow morning at 10:00."
