Speaker Redmond: "Constitutional Amendment."

Selcke: "House Joint Resolution Constitutional Amendment Number 17. Hart. 'Resolved by the House of Representatives of the 79th General Assembly of the State of Illinois, the Senate concurring herein, that there shall be submitted to the Electors of this State at the General Election next occurring at least six months after adoption of this Resolution, a proposition to amend Section 9 of Article VII of the Constitution to read as follows: Article VII, Section 9. Salaries and Fees. A. Compensation of Officers and Employees of the office expenses of units of local government shall not be paid for fees collected. These may be collected as provided by law and by ordinances and shall be deposited upon receipt of the Treasurer of the Unit. Fees shall not be based upon funds dispursed or collected nor upon the levy or extension of taxes. However, when a county officer collects taxes for other units of local government, the county may charge the other units of local government the actual cost of collecting such taxes, which costs may be distributed among the several units involved, proportionately on the basis of the amounts of taxes collected for the respective units. B. An increase or decrease in salary of an elected officer of any unit of local government shall not take affect during the term for which the officers are elected. Schedule. This amendment shall take effect on the first day of January in the year following its adoption'. First Reading of the Constitutional Amendment. Constitutional Amendment whose is this one. O'kay, give me a pencil. House Joint Resolution Constitutional Amendment 18. Chapman-Dyer et al. 'Whereas, the 92nd Congress of the United States of American, Second Session, both Houses by Constitutional Majority or 2/3rds thereof, adopted the following proposition to amend the Constitution of the United States of America, the Joint Resolution resolved by the House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, two-thirds of each House concurring therein, the following article proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, shall be valid to all as part of the Constitution and ratified by Legislatures of 3/4ths of the States within seven years from the date of its submission.

Section 1. Equality of rights under law shall not be denied or bridged by the United States or any State on account of sex. Section 2. The Congress shall have the power to enforce by appropriate legislation and provisions of this article. Section 3. This Amendment shall take effect two years from the date of ratification. Therefore, be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the 79th General Assembly of the State of Illinois, Senate concurring therein, that the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America be as the same as hereby ratified and be it further resolved that a certified copy of this Resolution be forwarded to the Secretary of State of the State of Illinois, to the Administrator of the General Services of the United States, the present Pro Tem of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives, Congress of the United States, each Senator and Representative from Illinois in the Congress of the United States.'
