Aikman: "House Joint Resolution Constitutional Amendment 23. Resolved, by the House of Representatives, the 79th General Assembly, the State of Illinois, the Senate concurring herein, that there shall be submitted to the electors of this State at the General Election occurring next at least 6 months after the adoption of this Resolution, a proposition to amend Sections 3 and 5 of Article IX and the Constitution to read as follows. Article IX, Section 3. Limitations of Income Taxation. A) A tax on or measured by income shall be at a non-graduated rate. At any one time there may be no more than one such tax imposed by the State for State purposes on individuals and one such tax so imposed on corporations. B) Laws imposing taxes on or measured by income may adopt by reference provisions of the laws and regulations of the United States, as they then exist or thereafter may be changed, for the purpose of arriving at the amount of income upon which the tax is imposed. Section 5. Personal Property Taxation. A) The General Assembly by law may classify personal property for purposes of taxation by valuation, abolish such taxes on any or all classes and authorize the levy of taxes in lieu of the taxation of personal property by valuation. B) Any ad valorem personal property tax abolished on or before the effective date of this Constitution shall not be reinstated. C) On or before January 1, 1979, the General Assembly by law shall abolish all ad valorem personal property taxes and concurrently therewith and thereafter shall replace all revenue lost by units of local government and school districts as a result of the abolition of ad valorem personal property taxes subsequent to January 2, 1971. Such revenue shall be replaced by imposing statewide taxes, other than ad valorem taxes on real estate, solely on those classes relieved of the burden of paying ad valorem personal property taxes because of the abolition of such taxes subsequent to January 2, 1971. If any taxes imposed for such replacement purposes are taxes on or measured by income, such replacement taxes shall not be considered for purposes of the limitations of one tax set forth in Section 3(a) of this Article. This amendment takes effect immediately upon its approval by the electors."

Greg Sullivan: "House Joint Resolution Constitutional Amendment 24. Resolved, the House of Representatives, the 79th General Assembly, the State of Illinois, the Senate concurring herein, that there shall be submitted to the electors of this State, at the general election next occurring at least 6 months after the adoption of this Resolution, a proposition to amend Section 4 of Article IX of the Constitution to read as follows. Article IX, Section 4. Real Property Taxation. A) Except as otherwise provided in this Section, taxes upon real property shall be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by the law. B) Subject to such limitations as the General Assembly may hereafter prescribe by law, counties may classify or to continue to classify real property for purposes of taxation. Any such classification shall be reasonable and assessments shall be uniform within each class. The level of assessment of rate of tax of the highest class in a county shall not exceed two and one-half times the level of assessment or rate of tax of the lowest class in that county. Real property used in farming in a county shall not be assessed at a higher level of assessment than single family residential real property in that county. C) Any depreciation in the value of real estate occasioned by a public easement may be deducted in assessing such property. Schedule. This amendment takes effect immediately upon its approval by the electors. First Reading of the Constitution. House Joint Resolution Constitutional Amendment 25. Resolved, by the House of Representatives, the 79th General Assembly, the State of Illinois, the Senate concurring herein, that there shall be submitted to the electors of this State at the general election next occurring at least 6 months after the adoption of this Resolution, a proposition to amend Section 4 of Article IX to read as follows. Article IX, Section 4. Real Property Taxation. A) Except as otherwise provided in this Section, taxes upon real property shall be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law. B) Subject to such limitations as the General Assembly may hereafter prescribe by law, counties may classify or to continue to classify real property for purposes of taxation. Any such classification shall be reasonable and assessment shall be uniform within each class. The level of assessment or rate of tax of the highest class in that county shall not exceed two and one-half times the level of assessment of rate of tax of the lowest class in that county. Real property used in farming in a county shall not be assessed at a higher level of assessment than single family residential real property in that county. C) Any depreciation in the value of real estate occasioned by a public easement may be deducted in assessing such property. Schedule. This amendment takes effect immediately upon its approval by the electors. First Reading of the Constitution. House Joint Resolution Constitutional Amendment 26. Resolved, by the House of Representatives, the 79th General Assembly, the State of Illinois, the Senate concurring herein, that there be submitted to the electors of this State at the general election next occurring at least 6 months after the adoption of this Resolution, a proposition to amend Section 3 and 5 of Article IX of the Constitution to read as follows. Article IX, Section 3. Limitations on Income Taxation. A) A tax on or measured by income shall be a non-graduated rate. In any such tax imposed upon corporations the rate shall not exceed the rate imposed on individuals by more than a ratio of 8 to 5. B) Laws imposing taxes on or measured by income may adopt by reference provisions of the laws and regulations of the United States, as they then exist or thereafter may be changed, for the purpose of arriving at the amount of income upon which the tax is imposed. Section 5. Personal Property Taxation. A) The General Assembly by law may classify personal property for purposes of taxation by valuation, abolish such taxes on any or all classes and authorize the levy of taxes in lieu of the taxation of personal property by valuation. B) Any ad valorem personal property tax abolished on or before the effective date of this Constitution shall not be reinstated. C) On or before January 1, 1979, the General Assembly by law shall abolish all ad valorem personal property taxes and concurrently therewith and thereafter shall replace all revenue lost by units of local government and school districts as a result of the abolition of the ad valorem personal property taxes subsequent to January 2, 1971. Such revenue shall be replaced by imposing statewide taxes, other than ad valorem taxes on real estate, solely on those classes relieved of the burden of paying ad valorem personal property taxes because of the abolition of such taxes subsequent to January 2, 1971. If any taxes imposed for such replacement purposes are taxes on or measured by income, such replacement taxes shall not be considered for purposes of the limitation the ratio of 8 to 5 set forth in Section 3(a) of this Article. Schedule. This amendments takes effect immediately upon its approval by the electors. First Reading of the Constitution. House Joint Resolution Constitutional Amendment 27. Resolved, by the House of Representatives, the 79th General Assembly, the State of Illinois, the Senate concurring herein, that there shall be submitted to the electors of this State at the general election next occurring at least 6 months after the adoption of this Resolution, a proposition to amend Section 5 of Article IX of the Constitution to read as follows. Article IX, Section 5. Personal Property Taxation. A) The General Assembly by law may classify personal property for purposes of taxation by valuation, abolish such taxes on any or all classes and authorize the levy of taxes in lieu of the taxation of personal property by valuation. B) Any ad valorem personal property tax abolished on or before the effective date of this Constitution shall not be reinstated. C) Unless sooner abolished by law, all ad valorem personal property taxes are abolished on January 1, 1979, but this shall not preclude the collection of any such taxes levied before that date. Schedule. This amendment takes effect immediately upon its approval by the electors. First Reading of the Constitution."
