

Speaker Redmond: "The House will come to order. Members please be in their seats. Be led in prayer by the Reverend Krueger, the House Chaplain."

Rev. Krueger: "In the name of the Father, and of the Son, of the Holy Ghost. Amen. O Lord, bless this House to Thy service this day. Martin Luther King, said: 'Our ultimate end must be the creation of the beloved community.' Let us pray. Almighty God, Who hast ordered in Creation that all men are to be equal, grant that this House of Representatives, to whom has been given the power and authority to enact legislation for welfare and benefit of the peoples of this State of Illinois, may address themselves to the critical needs which are confronting our society this day. May no one go in want who is in need. May no one suffer who has been a victim of the elements. May no one profit at the expense of the harmed. Rather, may equitable means be found to provide food, shelter, clothing and work for all. And, may this be accomplished only in the true spirit of love for this community of mankind of which we are a part. We ask this in the Name of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen."

Speaker Redmond: "Roll Call for attendance. Representative Deuster."

Deuster: "Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, to make a contribution toward our progress in handling Bills, there were three Bills introduced which actually were in the 79th General Assembly form. House Bill 128, 129, and 130. I'd like to table them at this time."

Speaker Redmond: "Is there any discussion? The question's on the Gentleman's motion. Is there any objections? Hearing none, the Bills are tabled. Resolutions. Speaker's table. Mr. Clerk."

Clerk O'Brien: "Senate Joint Resolution #2. It's the Adjournment Resolution. Resolved by the Senate, the 80th Assembly, the State of Illinois, the House of Representatives concurring herein, that when the Senate adjourns on Thursday, January 27, 1977, it stands adjourned until Wednesday, February 2, 1977 at twelve o'clock noon. When the House of Representatives adjourns on Friday, January 28, 1977, it stands adjourned until Wednesday, February 2, 1977 at twelve o'clock noon."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Bradley. Adjournment Resolution. Move the adoption of the Adjournment Resolution."

Bradley: "I:so move, Mr. Speaker."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Deuster, for what purpose do you rise?"

Deuster: "I thought the Adjournment Resolution that was read was the one that relates to us coming back today. What's the purpose for acting on that now? Just to... Oh, all right because I was going to make..."

Speaker Redmond: "It has something to do with making the child legitimate."

Deuster: "Yes, all right. I'm happy to do that. I might say, Mr. Speaker, coming down on the train today which arrived on time, a number of Members said that it might be appreciated if it were possible when the next Adjournment Resolution is put together, if we could convene the House at one o'clock instead of twelve noon. If that doesn't cause any problem, it would be convenient for those Members from the Chicago and Joliet and so forth who come down on train. Could you take that under advisement and consider that, Mr. Speaker?"

Speaker Redmond: "It's a good suggestion."

Deuster: "Thank you."

Speaker Redmond: "The question's on the Gentleman's motion of the adoption of the Adjournment Resolution. All in favor say 'aye', opposed 'no'. The 'ayes' have it. The Resolution is adopted. Representative Madigan."

Madigan: "Mr. Speaker, would the record show that Representative Yourell is excused because of illness and that Representative Sevcik is excused because of illness?"

Speaker Redmond: "Pardon me."

Madigan: "Would the record indicate those excused absences for Representative Yourell and Sevcik?"

Speaker Redmond: "Are there any objections? Hearing none, the record will so show. Representative Ryan, do you have any excused absences? Representative Geo-Karis."

Geo-Karis: "Mr. Speaker and Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, can you tell us when they are going to restructure our message buttons from our offices so that the right Representatives will get the right messages? They still haven't done it as yet."

Speaker Redmond: "Well, that's up to the phone company and we're currently going to proceed with all due dispatch. I can't tell you when. The order is in... My memory is it took a couple of weeks two years ago and my guess is it'll take a similar time."

Geo-Karis: "Okay, thank you."

Speaker Redmond: "Is there.. the order of business... Representative Madigan, do you have... Representative Madigan."

Madigan: "Mr. Speaker, we would request that the freshman Members pick up their mail at the post office. The mail for the freshman Members is still at the post office. It's not been delivered to the offices; and if they would please stop by the post office to pick up their mail..."

Speaker Redmond: "Where is the post office?"

Madigan: "Maybe you can answer that question better than I can."

Speaker Redmond: "Where is it? It's downstairs in the office building, State Office Building in the north end. The order of business is a message from the Members to the Speaker. Mr. Clerk, will you read the message that you have? Pay attention to this most important message."

Clerk O'Brien: "A message to the Speaker. Never again will I bet with you. Signed, Representative Leinenweber."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Leinenweber, do you seek recognition?"

Leinenweber: "You fooled me once. Shame on me or shame on you. You fooled me twice, shame on me."

Speaker Redmond: "What's the subject matter of that message?"

Leinenweber: "Basketball."

Speaker Redmond: "What teams were involved?"

Leinenweber: "A small school in Wisconsin."

Speaker Redmond: "Is it they who beat the big monster from South Bend?"

Leinenweber: "I heard that they did. I was not there and it's heresay, but I heard that they did."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Collins. Representative Collins."

Collins: "I just wanted to note, Mr. Speaker, you notice that in my case, discretion was the better part of valor."

Speaker Redmond: "Introduction and First Reading. Incidentally, I believe some hundred and seventy-five Bills have been introduced. My memory is we had thirty-two hundred Bills in the last Session. I would encourage the Membership to... let's say, you really don't have to introduce them. But if you feel so impelled, why, maybe we should do it in a hurry. Mr. Clerk."

Clerk O'Brien: "House Bill 159, Telcser. A Bill for an Act to grant law enforcement personnel the right to organize and bargain collectively. First Reading of the Bill. House Bill 160, Telcser. A Bill for an Act making appropriation to the Illinois Law Enforcement Personnel Employment Board. First Reading of the Bill. House Bill 161, Birchler. A Bill for an Act to authorize the Department of Transportation to convey deed for certain land located in Randolph County. First Reading of the Bill. House Bill 162, Epton. A Bill for an Act to amend Sections of the Illinois Governmental Ethics Act. First Reading of the Bill. House Bill 163, Schlickman. A Bill for an Act to amend Sections of an Act in regard to limitations. First Reading of the Bill. House Bill 164, Schlickman. A Bill for an Act to amend Sections of the Crime Victims Compensation Act. First Reading of the Bill. House Bill 165, Kosinski. Kosinski-Capparelli, that is. A Bill for an Act to amend Sections of the Code of Criminal Procedure. First Reading of the Bill. House Bill 166, Kosinski-Capparelli. A Bill for an Act to amend Sections of the Code of Criminal Procedure. First Reading of the Bill."

Speaker Redmond: "Approval of the Journal."

Clerk O'Brien: "Journal of the House of Representatives, the 80th General Assembly, the State of Illinois. Wednesday, January 12, 1977, twelve o'clock noon. At a Regular Session of the 80th General Assembly, the State of Illinois, began... and held at the Capitol, the City of Springfield at twelve o'clock..."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Kelly, do you move that the reading of the Journal be dispensed with? It's been moved by Representative Kelly that the reading of the Journal be dispensed with. All in favor say 'aye', opposed. And the Journal is approved, motion carried and the Journal is... Agreed Resolutions."

Clerk O'Brien: "House Resolution 15, Kucharski. House Resolution..."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Lechowicz, for what purpose do you rise?"

Lechowicz: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. To briefly move the passage of the three Agreed Resolutions. House Resolution 15 honors Mr. Edward Saltiel who recently celebrated his 80th birthday, offered by Representative Kucharski. House Resolution 16 by Representative Yourell honors Captain John Weigand from the Oak Lawn Police Department who is retiring. House Resolution 17 offered by Representative Geo-Karis is for Mr. Richard F. Flanders, the National Commander of the Military Order of the Purple Heart will be honored at a testimonial dinner this week, this past month. I move for the adoption of the three Agreed Resolutions."

Speaker Redmond: "Any discussion? The question's on the Gentleman's motion. Agreed Resolutions. All those in favor, say 'aye', opposed 'no'. The 'ayes' have it and the motion carries. Agreed Resolutions are adopted. Further Resolutions."

Clerk O'Brien: "House Resolution 14, Nardulli."

Speaker Redmond: "Committee on Assignments. Representative Bradley, you seeking recognition? Will the Members between the Chair and Representative Bradley please disperse? Disperse ye rebels. Representative Bradley. Representative Capparelli, Representative Lechowicz, I can't see Representative Bradley."

Bradley: "Mr. Speaker and Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, if I could have the attention of all of the Chairmen and the Vice-chairmen of the Committees. The meeting that was originally scheduled for one o'clock, it looks as though the meeting will be held at 12:30. So if those Chairmen and Vice-chairmen of the various Committees would meet in Room 118 at 12:30, I think we can expedite things. And also, Mr. Speaker, I notice that we're finally being paid and for those new Members, they are circulating your checks and I'm wondering how in the world the Federal government and the state government have been able to survive this last month without getting our income tax the first of January as they generally do and I see they're taking it out now. But the checks are available, but the main purpose of my stating was to announce to the Speaker, those Chairmen and Vice-chairmen, we'll meet at 12:30 in Room 118."

Speaker Redmond: "Incidentally, if the check is not delivered to you at your desk, they will be in the Speaker's office. Introduction and First Reading."

Clerk O'Brien: "House Bill 167, Deuster. A Bill for an Act to amend Sections of the Unified Code of Corrections. First Reading of the Bill. House Bill 168, Griesheimer. A Bill for an Act to restrict smoking in designated areas and provide penalties for violation thereof. First Reading of the Bill. House Bill 169, Griesheimer. A Bill for an Act to amend Sections of the Regional Transportation Authority Act. First Reading of the Bill."

Speaker Redmond: "Some of the Members got caught in the traffic jam, so I think we'd better dump that other Attendance Roll Call and have a new Attendance Roll Call called. We're going to discourage the practice that we had in the past of coming up to the Clerk's well here and ask them manually to make changes because that gave us a lot of trouble. So, we're going to dump the other Roll Call and the Attendance Roll Call. Representative Waddell. Waddell. Roll Call for attendance. Representative Ryan, do you seek recognition? Representative Ryan."

Ryan: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker and Ladies and Gentlemen of the House. Immediately after adjournment, I would like to have the Republican Spokesmen, the Committee Spokesmen report to my office, immediately after we adjourn here this morning, this afternoon. And I'd also like to have Representative Collins in that meeting, too."

Speaker Redmond: "Roll Call for attendance. Is everybody on the Roll Call? Introduction and First Reading."

Clerk O'Brien: "House Bill 170, Kelly. A Bill for an Act to amend Sections in the caption of Article XXIX of the Illinois Insurance Code. First Reading of the Bill. House Bill 171, Kelly. A Bill for an Act to amend Sections of the Illinois Municipal Code. First Reading of the Bill."

Speaker Redmond: "Roll Call for attendance. We're about ready to take the Attendance Roll Call. Representative Matijevich. Matijevich."

Matijevich: "Mr. Speaker, I didn't want to interfere with the Roll Call but there was some question whether Appropriations I could meet. Yesterday, the Chairman, the Sponsor of the only Bill we're going to consider wasn't sure if he wanted to proceed. But he called me last night and said he did want to proceed, so Members of Appropriations I, the Committee will meet at 2 p.m. in Room 114."

Speaker Redmond: "Thank you. Take the record on the Roll Call for attendance. Representative Tipsword, do you seek recognition?"

Tipsword: "Yes, sir. For the purpose of an announcement, if I might."

Speaker Redmond: "Proceed."

Tipsword: "I'd like to announce that... We were first informed that the Insurance Committee tomorrow should meet at eleven o'clock. And thereafter, the time was changed. The time posted for the Insurance Committee is eleven o'clock tomorrow, but that time has been changed to ten o'clock tomorrow morning at the same room."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Madigan, do you have an announcement?"

Madigan: "Mr. Speaker, could we have some attention?"

Speaker Redmond: "Please give the Gentleman order."

Madigan: "Mr. Speaker, all Democratic freshmen received a notice by mail of a meeting scheduled for this afternoon with myself and the Speaker in Room 118 at five o'clock. So that I would like to simply reiterate that the meeting scheduled for Democratic freshmen is set for five o'clock in Room 118. We would appreciate your attendance. Thank you."

Speaker Redmond: "Death Resolutions."

Clerk O'Brien: "House Resolution 20, Madigan-Beatty-Kucharski et al. Respect to the memory of Patrick J. Crowley."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Madigan."

Clerk O'Brien: "Death Resolution of Police Officer Patrick J. Crowley."

Madigan: "I move the adoption of the Resolution, Mr. Speaker."

Speaker Redmond: "The Gentleman's moved the adoption of the Resolution. All in favor say 'aye', opposed 'no'. The 'ayes' have it. The Resolution's adopted. Representative Bradley. Pardon me, Representative Barnes. Representative Barnes."

Barnes: "Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, the Appropriations II Committee is not on the... does not appear on the Calendar, but there will be a meeting of the Democratic Members of Appropriations II at two o'clock in Room 118. So, all of the Members, Democratic Members, of Appropriations II at two o'clock, Room 118."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Peters."

Peters: "Mr. Speaker, for purposes of an announcement."

Speaker Redmond: "Give the Gentleman order please."

Peters: "Again, although Appropriations II is scheduled today for a meeting at two o'clock, we have no Bills posted. However, we will have a meeting, an initial orientation meeting of the Republican Members of the Appropriations II Committee in Room 11 of the state building across the street. Room 11 for the Members of the Republican Appropriations Committee II. Room 11, two o'clock."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Tipsword."

Tipsword: "Mr. Speaker, I think I misquoted myself on times in the announcement a minute ago regarding the Insurance Committee. It was originally posted at ten and will be held at eleven tomorrow in Room 122A. It will be at eleven and not at ten as it was originally posted. Thank you."

Speaker-Redmond: "Representative Schneider."

Schneider: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker and Members. The Elementary and Secondary Education Committee which is scheduled for 8:30 really is scheduled for nine. That's an error and I think the Members ought to be aware of it. It's a nine o'clock meeting. We have two Bills."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Bradley."

Bradley: "Well, Mr. Speaker and Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, I again announce to the Chairmen and the Vice-Chairmen that there will be a meeting at 12:30 in Room 118 and if everybody gets down there, we'll get the business over with. And now, Mr. Speaker, I move that the House stand adjourned until tomorrow Thursday the 3rd of February at the hour of twelve o'clock."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Pierce."

Pierce: "Well, Mr. Speaker, for announcement, the House Revenue Committee will meet tomorrow morning at 10:30 and the new Director of Revenue will come before us to introduce himself and to tell us about his plans. And we do have a Bill that is scheduled in the House Revenue Committee at 10:30 tomorrow morning in Room 118 in the Capitol Building."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Pierce, are you still in the broom closet?"

Pierce: "I think I've been promoted out of the broom closet.. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Mugalian. Representative Mugalian."

Mugalian: "Mr. Speaker, the Elections Committee will have its meeting as scheduled in D1 but it may be a few minutes late. It's a very important meeting and I urge all Members to be prompt."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Katz."

Katz: "The Judiciary II Committee will meet in Room 114 tomorrow morning at 8:30 a.m. for the purpose of hearing two Bills that are scheduled and appear on the Calendar. That's Room 114 tomorrow morning at 8:30, Judiciary II."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Katz. Mann, pardon me. I get you guys mixed up."

Mann: "That's a great compliment, Mr. Speaker."

Speaker Redmond: "To whom?"

Mann: "To Katz. Judiciary I will meet today at two o'clock in Room C1

and we'il consider three Bills."

Speaker Redmond: "Anything further? Now, the question's on Representative Bradley's motion to adjourn till tomorrow at twelve o'clock. All those in favor indicate by saying 'aye', opposed 'no'. The 'ayes' have it. The House now stands adjourned till tomorrow at twelve o'clock."
