

Doorkeeper Koehler: "Attention, Members of the House of Representatives, the House will convene in fifteen minutes. Attention, Members of the House, the House will convene in five minutes. All persons not entitled to the House floor, please retire to the gallery."

Speaker Redmond: "House will come to order. Members please be in their seats. Be led in prayer by Reverend Krueger, the House Chaplain."

Reverend Krueger: "In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost. Amen. O Lord, bless this House to Thy service this day. Amen. Benjamin Franklin once wrote: 'The longer I live, the more convincing proofs I see of this truth; that God governs the affairs of men. And if a sparrow cannot fall to the ground without His notice, is it probable an empire can rise without his aid?' Let us pray. Almighty God, the Author and Creator of all things, we come to Thee this day with thankful hearts for our creation, preservation, and all the other benefits of this life. We acknowledge Thee as the source of all that is good in the world in which we live; and we pray that Thou will enlighten our minds and control our wills that what is here done for the State of Illinois may be in harmony with Thy Divine plan; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

Speaker Redmond: "The Chair recognizes the County Chairman from Lake County, County Chairman John Matijevidch. Reading of the Journal."

Speaker Redmond: "The House will please come to order. I have a couple of announcements. On...on page 3 of the Calendar under Motions, they should not have been on the Calendar because, under the Rules, those motions died. The ones to discharge and bypass the rules. Anyone that has a...a Bill, a new Bill, I would suggest that you get the forms either in the Speaker's Office or down here in the well if you want the Rules Committee to exempt them. You've only got this week and next week in order to do that, so the forms are here, they're also in the Speaker's Office, anyone who has a Bill you want the Rules Committee to exempt. And the 14th, I believe, is the last day; so it's only this week and next week. Now, Representative Hart, do you have an...an announcement? Representative Hart."

Hart: "There will be a Democratic Conference in Room 114 right after adjournment. Democrats will meet in Room 114 for a conference. I'd like for you all to be there and we'll get it right....get right down to it."

Speaker Redmond: "The Committee Chairmen have previously been advised that there would be a meeting in the Speaker's Office immediately after adjournment, I think we probably should do that immediately after the adjournment of the caucus. The caucus won't take that long, so I would encourage all of the Members to be at the caucus and encourage all of the Committee Chairmen and the Leadership to be at the caucus so that we can transact our business. Anybody got anything on the Calendar that they want called? Representative Bradley."

Bradley: "Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, I had sent a letter a couple of weeks ago to all the downstate Members of the House, the Democratic Members, suggesting we have a meeting and I told them right at that time I would announce the time and place of the meeting. We'll hold that meeting on School Formula for downstaters... will be held tomorrow at 1 o'clock and at that time when we adjourn I will announce the place where we'll meet. Thank you."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Kelly. The House will be...please be in order. Representative Kelly."

Kelly: "Yeah. Mr. Speaker, I'd like to have leave of the House on House Bill 764 and 765 to waive the posting requirement so that we could have a meeting on Friday one hour before the House Environment, Energy and Natural Resources Committee will meet. We had a meeting this morning and there was not a quorum and that's why I'm requesting that this meeting be changed to Friday morning which would be approximately 9:30."

Speaker Redmond: "What...what has...what's the posture of the Bills right at the present time, is it Interim Study Bill or what...."

Kelly: "Oh. The Bill, both of these Bills are in the...are under Subcommittee consideration and have been reviewed by...by a House Subcommittee which I'm Chairman of and..I've discussed this matter with the Chairman, State Representative Monroe Flinn. He agreed that we could meet on Friday, our Subcommittee."

Speaker Redmond: "Is there any discussion? There any objections?"

Gentleman have leave to have the appropriate posting rule waived in order that these Bills may be heard in Committee on Friday? Hearing no objections, the Attendance Roll Call will be used for unanimous consent. Anybody from the University of Michigan want to make any explanation about their basketball schedule last year? And 710 by Schuneman for Schlickman honors Mary Hyczyk for her long outstanding service to Prospect Heights School.

I move for the adoption of the Agreed Resolutions. Mr. Speaker, I move for the adoption of the Agreed Resolutions."

Speaker Redmond: "Gentleman has moved the adoption of the Agreed Resolutions. Those in favor say 'aye', 'aye', opposed 'no'. The 'ayes' have it, the motion carries and the Agreed Resolutions are adopted. General Resolutions."

Clerk O'Brien: "House Joint Resolution 77, Reilly."

Speaker Redmond: "Committee on Assignments. Death Resolution."

Clerk O'Brien: "House Resolution 701, Lechowicz. With respect to the memory of the Honorable Norbert A. Kosinski, State Senator from Chicago, Illinois.

House Resolution 7....House Resolution 704, Hart. With respect to the memory of Supreme Court Justice James A. Dooley.

House Resolution 711, Lechowicz. With respect to the memory of the Reverend Anthony J. Laskowski of Chicago."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Lechowicz."

Lechowicz: "Mr. Speaker, I move the adoption of the Death Resolution.

I would ask that the Clerk read the Resolution, the Death Resolution, on behalf of Norbert Kosinski. And I'd like to have a little order in this House...as a Member of the General Assembly that passed away on March the 10th. And I think it's only proper and fitting on Death Resolutions that we show the respect that is intended to do."

Speaker Redmond: "Please...please come to order. Read the Resolution, Mr. Clerk."

Clerk O'Brien: "House Bill 701, Lechowicz, et al. Whereas, the People of Illinois have suffered the loss of a great friend and public servant with the passing of our esteemed friend and colleague, the Honorable Norbert A. Kosinski, State Senator from Chicago, Illinois; and

Whereas, Senator Kosinski passed on unexpectedly on Friday, March 10, 1978, while campaigning for his fifth term in the Illinois Senate; and

Whereas, He was born August 21, 1918 in the district he represented, was educated in Chicago elementary and high schools, and a veteran of World War II; and

Whereas, A civic-minded man, he served on the Community Advisory Board of St. Mary's Hospital, and was active in numerous fraternal, charitable and community organizations, including the American Legion, Amvets, Knights of Columbus (3rd degree), and was past commander of the Polish American League and past president of the Holy Name Society; and

Whereas, A public servant, he served as a member of the 77th, 78th, 79th and 80th General Assemblies, during which tenure he served as Chairman of the Elections and Reapportionment Committee, Vice Chairman of the Finance and Credit Regulations Committee and as a member of the Labor and Commerce, Insurance and License Activities and Public Health, Welfare and Corrections Committees; and

Whereas, Senator Kosinski served as an administrative aide to Illinois Supreme Court Chief Justice Daniel P. Ward and Illinois Appellate Court Justice John Stamos while each served as Cook

County State's Attorney; and

Whereas, The People of Illinois were well served by this outstanding Senator and his presence in this General Assembly will be sorely missed by all who knew and worked with him; and

Whereas, He leaves a proud heritage to mourn his passing in the persons of his beloved wife, Hazel, and five daughters, Antoinette Vlasak, Barbara Gasik, Claudia, Darleen and Dorene; therefore, be it Resolved, by the House of Representatives of the Eightieth General Assembly of the State of Illinois, that we deeply mourn the passing of the Honorable Norbert A. Kosinski, a good friend, able counselor, and dedicated public servant; that we extend our heartfelt sympathy to his beloved wife, Hazel, and to each of the members of his family in this time of bereavement; that we find comfort in the knowledge that the work and good deeds performed on earth by this wonderful human being will be remembered by the Lord as he rewards Norbert in Heaven; and be it further Resolved, That a suitable copy of this preamble and Resolution be presented to Mrs. Norbert A. Kosinski as a formal and lasting expression of our deep sympathy and sincere feeling toward her husband and our beloved and esteemed late colleague."

Lechowicz: "Mr. Speaker, I want to thank you for getting this House into order and it's with a very deep...our hearts that I move the adoption of this Resolution. Norbert Kosinski was a very dedicated public official and a good friend and will be missed by all, I'm sure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Speaker Redmond: "Question is on the Gentleman's motion for the adoption of the Death Resolution. Those in favor say 'aye', 'aye', opposed 'no'. The 'ayes' have it, the Resolutions are adopted. Representative Madigan, do you have....adjournment? Anything else to be brought before the House before we adjourn till tomorrow? Introduction, First Reading. I understand we've got three....Introduction, First Reading."

Clerk O'Brien: "House Bill 2799. Campbell. A Bill for an Act to provide for the ordinary and contingent expense for the Legislative Advisory Committee on Public Aid. First Reading of the Bill.

House Bill 2800. McMaster. A Bill for an Act to amend Section 2 of an Act relating to the tenure of certain public officials. First Reading of the Bill.

House Bill 2801. McMaster. A Bill for an Act to amend Sections of an Act to revise the law in relation to township organization. First Reading of the Bill.

No further introductions."

Speaker Redmond: "Again I want to remind you to fill out the form that have the Rules Committee consider excluding any Bills that you think should be excluded, we've only got two weeks in which to do that. So may I encourage you that forms at the well and in the Speaker's Office. Representative Katz on the floor? The Rules Committee tomorrow? The Rules Committee tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock, it's in Room 114, I believe. Representative Pierce."

Pierce: "The House Revenue Committee meeting that's scheduled for 2 p.m. today, it will take place when we finish the Democratic Conference and the Committee Chairmen's Meeting. And so the meeting will take place, it may be a little bit after 2 p.m., but it will take place this afternoon, the House Revenue Committee, although we probably won't be able to vote on any Bills today."

Speaker Redmond: "Again I want to encourage the Democrats to attend the caucus, the Chairmen of the Committees, to attend the caucus, it won't take very long. And, again, remind you that when Representative Madigan moves that we adjourn, we will stand in Perfunctory Session to permit the introduction of Bills. And, again, may I remind you of the forms necessary to be filled out in order to have the Rules Committee consider that they're exempt. And there will be a meeting of the Rules Committee tomorrow morning. Representative Geo-Karis."

Geo-Karis: "Mr. Speaker, you said we're going to adjourn right after and....you're going to have the Perfunctory. What time do we reconvene tomorrow?"

Speaker Redmond: "11 o'clock."

Geo-Karis: "Thank you."

Speaker Redmond: "If you had your legislative aide read the correspondence you got from the Speaker's Office, why you would have found the 11....."

Geo-Karis: "That's the only thing I have time to do."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Madigan. The Clerk indicates he'd like to be in Perfunctory Session for a few minutes and as.... Representative Madigan."

Madigan: "Mr. Speaker, have you suggested our time of...."

Speaker Redmond: "11 o'clock."

Madigan: "11 o'clock tomorrow morning. I move that we adjourn until 11 a.m. tomorrow subject to the conditions set out by the Clerk."

Speaker Redmond: "Question's on the Gentlemen's motion. Those in favor indicate by saying 'aye', opposed 'no'. The 'ayes' have it. In Perfunctory Session for about ten minutes...which time we adjourn, stand adjourned until 11 o'clock tomorrow. Again, the Democratic Caucus, the Leadership and the Committee Chairmen."

Clerk O'Brien: "Introduction and First Reading."

House Bill 2802. McGrew. A Bill for an Act to amend Sections of the School Code. First Reading of the Bill.

House Bill 2803. McGrew. A Bill for an Act to amend Sections of the School Code. First Reading of the Bill.

House Bill 2804. McGrew. A Bill for an Act to amend Sections of the School Code. First Reading of the Bill.
