

Doorkeeper Koehler: "Attention, Members of the House of Representatives, the House will convene in fifteen minutes. All persons not entitled to the House floor please retire to the gallery."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Vitek, will you come up here, please. The House will come to order. Members please be in their seats. Be led in prayer by the Reverend Krueger, the House Chaplain."

Reverend Krueger: "In the Name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost. Amen. O Lord, bless this House to Thy service this day. Amen. Leonardo da Vinci observed: Iron rusts from disuse; Water loses its purity from stagnation and in cold weather becomes frozen; Even so does inaction sap the vigors of the mind. Let us pray. Almighty Father, we acknowledge Thee this day and every day to be our Creator, our Provider and our Sustainer; to Thee alone do we place all our trust and confidence. As Thou hast given freely to each of us the power to think, the ability to evaluate and the freedom to make decisions, grant, O Lord, that we may constantly avail ourselves of these privileges so that we may vigorously pursue that which is for the good of the people of this State of Illinois. Through Jesus Christ we pray. Amen."

Speaker Redmond: "Today is a historic day. The gavel that I am using today has some history connected with it and I will recognize Representative John Vitek."

Vitek: "Mr. Speaker, Members of the House, today marks a historical day. It was forty-eight years ago this month that Speaker Dave Shanahan who has served in this House his six terms as Speaker, from 1892 to 1932. And on his demise we had a write-in campaign in my district to fill the seat of the former House Member and Speaker Shanahan. And that illustrious man, who was my Mayor Richard J. Daley, and we had a write-in campaign and we elected him as a Member of this House. And I owe a vote of thanks to Mark Rhoads, a Senator from the 6th District, for presenting that gavel to our Speaker and I hope it will be used in good and final determination. Thank you very much."

Speaker Redmond: "With...With the consent of the House I would like to give the privilege of the floor to the strongest advocate of pay raises for Members of the Hi...House to Senator Mark Rhoads. He didn't think the Senate was entitled to it and I agree, but he did think that the House... Senator Rhoads advised me that ...that the former Speaker Shanahan, owned the home that...that Senator Rhoads now resides in. and that his father purchased it from Senator Shanahan's widow... And, I think that just as Senator...Speaker Shanahan's seat was filled by a Democrat, I don't know whether Senator Rhodes is telling us that his house is liable to be filled by a Democrat and that he has seen the light and that he's liable to embrace the true faith. Representative Meyer. Representative Meyer. Ted Meyer, he's the Gentleman from Beverly Hills. He... rough rides on Western Avenue."

Meyer: "He's the real Sponsor of the pay Bill, Mr. Speaker. I..I'd just like to point out a..historical inaccuracy in something that Representative Vitek neglected to mention. That the late Mayor Daley was elected as a Republican in that write-in."

Speaker Redmond: "Well, I think he...he did. And just as Senator Rhoads probably is doing, he immediately decided that he would embrace the true faith and was seated on the Democratic side. So I think that really is the thread that's running through this whole thing. Roll Call for attendance. Representative Mahar. Mahar. Representative Mahar. William Mahar, from Homewood. Son is running for Trustee. He's a former Mayor."

Mahar: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'd like to ask for a Republican Conference immediately, in Room 114. Not for that reason, however."

Speaker Redmond: "Any objection?"

Mahar: "Republican Conference."

Speaker Redmond: "Most of the objection, I think, is coming from those who have reservations on the 4:45 plane. Be that as it may.. How long will it take?"

Mahar: "Thirty minutes."

Speaker Redmond: "The Republican ConferenceRepresentative Lechowicz."

Lechowicz: "Mr. Speaker, before we get to that order of business, may I have the record indicate that Representative Domico and Representative Doyle are absent because of illness?"

Speaker Redmond: "Any objection? Hearing none, the record will so show."

Representative Ryan."

Ryan: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Representatives Swanstrom..."

Speaker Redmond: "Who? I can't hear you unless you speak into the microphone."

Ryan: "Representative Swanstrom, McAuliffe and Vinson."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Walsh, do you have any objection to their absence being excused?"

Ryan: "Swanstrom is sick, McAuliffe is on legislative ...business and I don't know what's the matter with Vinson."

Speaker Redmond: "McAuliffe, Vinson and Swanstrom, is that correct?"

Ryan: "McAuliffe, Swanstrom and Vinson, that's right, Mr. Speaker."

Speaker Redmond: "Hearing no objection, their record will indicate that their absence is excused. Yeah. May we go into Perfunctory Session for the purpose of First Reading and Introduction and reading Committee Reports? We'll stand in Perfunctory Session....How long will it take, Mr. Clerk?.... Stand in Perfunctory Session until 3:30. And we'll be back on the floor at 3:45, is that correct?"

Perfunctory Session

Clerk Hall: "Committee Report. Representative Jaffe, Chairman of the Committee on Judiciary I, to which the following Bills were referred, action taken February 28, 1979, reported the same back with the following recommendations: 'Do not pass as amended' House Bill 268 and 270. Constitutional Amendments, First Reading. House Joint Resolution Constitutional Amendment 26. Resolved by the House of Representatives of the 81st General Assembly, the State of Illinois, the Senate concurring herein, that there should be submitted to the electors of this state for adoption or rejection at the general election next occurring at least six months after adoption of this Resolution a proposition to amend Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution to read as follows: Article IV, the Legislature.

Section 1. Legislature - Power and Structure. The legislative power is vested in a General Assembly consisting of a Senate and House of Representatives elected by the electors from 31 Legislative Districts. ...This Amendment to Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution, if approved by the electors of this state, shall apply to the legislative redistricting in 1981 and thereafter, to the election of Senators and Representatives in 1982 and thereafter, and to the composition of the General Assembly commencing with the convening of the regular annual Session in 1983. First Reading of the Constitutional Amendment. House Joint Resolution Constitutional Amendment 27. Resolved, by the House of Representatives of the 81st General Assembly of the State of Illinois, the Senate concurring herein, that there shall be submitted to the electors of the state for adoption or rejection at the general election next occurring at least six months after the adoption of this Resolution, a proposition to amend Sections 5 and 6 of Article IV, Section 13 of Article V and Section 2 of Article VIII of the Constitution to read as follows: Article IV. Section 5. Sessions. The Sessions of the General Assembly shall convene at 12 o'clock noon on the second Wednesday of January in the year next ensuing the election of Members thereof, and at no other time, unless as provided by this Constitution. The Governor may convene the General Assembly or the Senate alone in special Session by a proclamation stating the purpose of the Session; and only business encompassed by such purpose, together with any impeachments or confirmation of appointments shall be transacted. ...Special Sessions of the General Assembly may also be convened by joint proclamation of the presiding officers of both Houses, issued as provided by law.

(c) Sessions of each House of the General Assembly and meetings or Committees, Joint Committees and Legislative Commissions shall be open to the public. Sessions and Committee meetings of a House may be closed to the public if two-thirds of the Members elected to that House determine that a public interest so requires; and meetings of Joint Committees and Legislative Commissions may be so closed if two-thirds of the Members elected to each House so determine.

Section 6. Organization. A majority of the Members elected to each House constitutes a quorum. On the first day of each Regular Session of the General Assembly, the Secretary of State shall convene the House of Representatives to elect from its membership a Speaker of the House of Representatives as presiding officer, and the Governor shall convene the Senate to elect from its membership a President of the Senate as presiding officer. For purposes of powers of appointment conferred by this Constitution, the Minority Leader of either House is a Member of the numerically strongest political party other than the party to which the Speaker or the President belongs, as the case may be. Each House shall determine the rules of its proceedings judge the elections, returns and qualifications of its Members and choose its officers. No Member shall be expelled by either House, except by a vote of two-thirds of the Members elected to that House. A Member may be expelled only once for the same offense. Each House may punish by imprisonment any person, not a Member, guilty of disrespect to the House by disorderly or contemptuous behavior in its presence. Imprisonment shall not extend beyond twenty-four hours at one time unless the person persists in disorderly or contemptuous behavior. Article V. Governor - Legislative Messages. The Governor, at the beginning of each Regular Session of the General Assembly and at the close of his term of office shall report to the General Assembly on the condition of the state and recommend such measures as he deems desirable. Article VIII. State Finance. The Governor shall prepare and submit to the General Assembly, at a time prescribed by law, a state budget for the ensuing fiscal biennium. The budget shall set forth the estimated balance of funds available for appropriation at the beginning of the fiscal biennium, the estimated receipts, and a plan for expenditures and obligations during the fiscal biennium of every department, authority, public corporation and quasi-public corporation of the state, every state college and university, and every other public agency created by the state, but not of units of local government or school districts. The budget shall also set forth the indebtedness and contingent liabilities of the state and other information as may be required by law. Proposed expenditures shall not exceed funds estimated to be available for the fiscal biennium as shown in the budget. The General Assembly by law shall make appropriations for all expenditures of public funds by the state. Appropriations for a fiscal year shall not exceed funds estimated by the General Assembly to be available during that biennium. Schedule. The foregoing Amendment to the Constitution takes effect on the second Wednesday in January next after its adoption by the electors. First Reading of the Constitutional Amendment. Introduction and First Reading of House Bills. House Bill 670, McClain, a Bill for an Act to amend the Capital Development Bond Act. First Reading of the Bill. House Bill 91 has also been removed from the Consent Calendar."

Speaker Redmond: "Any discussion? The question is, shall these Bills pass? Those in favor vote 'aye', opposed vote 'no'. Have all voted who wish? The Clerk will take the record. On this question there's 112 'aye' and 5 'no'. These Bills having received the Constitutional Majority are hereby declared passed.

Clerk O'Brien: "House Bill 148, a Bill for an Act to amend Sections of the Illinois Marriage and Dissolution of Marriage Act. Second Reading of the Bill. No Committee Amendments.

House Bill 360, a Bill for an Act to amend Sections of the Illinois Vehicle Code. Second Reading of the Bill. No Committee Amendments."

Speaker Redmond: "Third Reading. On the Order of Motions. appears House Joint Resolution 10. Representative Reilly."

Reilly: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House. I've ...checked this yesterday with Representative Madigan and Representative Ryan and they had no objection. House Joint Resolution 10 simply recreates the existing Joint Committee on the budget process. We simply need a couple more months to finish our work. I would now move toI would move to suspend Rule 41 and for immediate consideration of House Joint Resolution 10."

Speaker Redmond: "Is there any objection? Representative Leinenweber."

Leinenweber: "I missed the Gentleman's explanation. What is the Joint Resolution about?"

Speaker Redmond: "Would you explain it, Representative Reilly?"

Reilly: "Yes. The Joint Resolution just extends ...or recreates..."

technically it recreates....it just extends for a couple of....about six months, the life of the Joint Committee on the budget process."

Speaker Redmond: "The question is on the Gentleman's motion for the suspension of the rule. Those in favor vote 'aye', opposed vote 'no'. Takes 107 votes. Have all voted who wish? The Clerk will take the record. On this question 135 'aye' and 2 'no'. The motion carried. Representative Reilly on the motion."

Reilly: "I move the adoption of the Resolution."

Speaker Redmond: "Any discussion? The question's on the Gentleman's motion for the adoption of the Resolution. Those in favor vote 'aye', opposed vote 'no'. 89. Have all voted who wish? The Clerk will take the record. On this question there's 117 'aye' and one 'no', and the motion carries. Representative Conti."

Conti: "Mr. Speaker and Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, for the benefit of the large turnover that we have every year in the General Assembly I know, in order to expedite some of these Resolutions that are almost innocuous...we call innocuous. I wonder if they could have a better detailed explanation of it because we do have 35 new Members and it's pretty difficult for them to grasp this all in the first couple of weeks...when you are doing something like this."

Speaker Redmond: "I think your point is well taken. Adjournment Resolution. Representative Jaffe, for what purpose do you rise?"

Jaffe: "Mr. Speaker, I really rise, I guess, on a point of personal privilege. In going over the Resolutions...the Agreed Resolutions I find that on January 31st we passed out of this House as an Agreed House Resolution, House Resolution 28 and also House Resolution 29. What House Resolution 28 does is that it petitions Congress of the United States to propose an Amendment to the Constitution of the United States to permit a moment of prayer in the public schools. In addition to that House Resolution 29 goes even further and memorializes Congress to permit the singing of Christmas carols in the public schools. I would submit to this House that the purpose of Agreed Resolutions are not to put through controversial things which may be controversial for only a few people, but nonetheless Agreed Resolutions, I think, are supposed to be agreeable to everything. I don't think that the people who take care...Mr. Speaker, I don't think that the people who take care of Agreed Resolutions should only do it for the conservative aisle of the House and overlook the liberals. I think that by and large the Agreed Resolution process should be one that protects all of the Members. As you know most people don't listen to the Agreed Resolution process. And Representative Giorgi, who I respect greatly, does a marvelous job of mumbling these things through, but I think when it comes to prayer in the public school, and I think when it comes to singing Christmas carols in the public schools and memorializing Congress to doing that and passing it out as an Agreed Resolution, I really think that that's unconscionable. I don't know what we could do at this point but I would like to be recorded as voting 'no' on both of those Resolutions."

Speaker Redmond: "I think the Gentleman's point is well taken. And Members who are agreeing to agreed Resolutions please exercise more care and judgment. The Adjournment Resolution."

Clerk O'Brien: "House Joint Resolution 14. Resolved by the House of Representatives of the 81st General Assembly of the State of Illinois, the Senate concurring herein, that when the House of Representatives adjourns on Thursday, March 1, 1979, it stands adjourned until Wednesday, March 7, 1979, at 11:30 o'clock, a.m. And when the Senate adjourns on Friday, March 2, 1979, it stands adjourned until Wednesday, March 7, 1979, at 11:45 a.m."

Representative Lechowicz in the Chair....

Speaker Lechowicz: "The Gentleman from Winnebago, Mr. Giorgi."

Giorgi: "Mr. Speaker, I move for the adoption of the Adjournment Resolution."

Speaker Lechowicz: "The Gentleman has moved for the adoption of the Adjournment Resolution. All in favor signify by saying 'aye'...all opposed... The Resolution is adopted. Now on the Calendar on... House Bills, Second Reading, page 2. House Bill 45. The Gentleman from Cook, Mr. Terzich."

Clerk O'Brien: "House Bill 45, a Bill for an Act to amend the Sheriff's Act to coordinate terminology with Public Act 80-1284. Second Reading of the Bill. No Committee Amendments."

Speaker Lechowicz: "Any Amendments from the floor?"

Clerk O'Brien: "Floor Amendment #1, Pullen, amends House Bill 45 on page 3, line 10, by deleting 'human' and inserting in lieu thereof 'man'."

Speaker Lechowicz: "The Lady from Cook, Ms. Pullen."

Pullen: "Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, this Bill is a Bill which makes several reference changes in the statutes and most of those are all right. But I think in the case of changing manmade disaster to human made disaster, some of our friends are going a little bit too far and being a little bit too nitpicky and I think that they are emasculating the Statutes of the State of Illinois. And I think that we should leave it just the way it is, 'manmade' disaster. And that's what this Amendment does. Although the Bill proves that there is such a thing as a woman made disaster, that's not really the point. So I urge your adoption of this Amendment."

Speaker Lechowicz: "Any discussion? The Gentleman from Cook, Mr. Terzich."

Terzich: "Well, Mr. Speaker, I can appreciate the Representative's opinion on this. However we did ...pass the Bill last Session with regard writs...And the Law Revision Commission has been charged with deleting obsolete language and so forth out of the Statutes. This is simply another step forward in this process. And certainly there is no substantive change in this legislation and it's a difficult job trying to clean up all of the Articles in the State Statutes and certainly this is simply one little step forward. And therefore I would suggest to leave the Bill as is and would oppose this Amendment."

Speaker Lechowicz: "The Gentleman from Livingston, Mr. Ewing, on the Amendment."

Ewing: "Mr. Speaker, I wonder if the Sponsor of the Amendment would yield for a question?"

Speaker Lechowicz: "She indicates she will."

Ewing: "I wonder if you could more thoroughly explain to us what the problem with the word 'mankind' is. I mean 'humankind' over 'mankind'."

Pullen: "Well, I think that there are usages that we have had in the English language for countless years and I don't see why we are messing around with statutes that have been on the books for a long time unnecessarily. This Amendment does not do anything to attack the Bill. And I'm sorry that the Sponsor thinks that it does. This Amendment does nothing to block the Bill. This Amendment simply changes one of the changes they are attempting to make, back to the way that it was in the statute. It has nothing to do with writs or anything like that. But I really think that they are going a little too far when they change the word 'manmade' to 'human made'."

Ewing: "Wouldn't the word 'human made' be really more responsive to showing both sexes and the fact that we want to spread the responsibilities in the equality in this ...in this Body. I stand for that."

Pullen: "Oh, I know you do, Mr. Ewing. But, it's really not the point. There is such a construction in the statutes and has been for many years that the word 'man' means man and woman unless the context is clearly otherwise. And when you are talking about a Sheriff's office and you are referring to a manmade disaster it's really silly to go through this statute and change manmade disaster to human made disaster. And I think that it brings disgrace on the State Legislature that we would do something so silly as this. So I would like to change.... keep the statute the way it is to say 'manmade'."

Speaker Lechowicz: "The Gentleman from DuPage, Mr. Hudson."

Hudson: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker and Ladies and Gentlemen of the House. Representative Pullen's Amendment, I think, deserves support and I feel that way for this reason. The term mankind is one that's been accepted in its generic sense, meaning men and women. It is basically inherent in our Biblical and Bible...in the Bible. Other documents refer to mankind and it is meant...it is meant to mean men and women. I think we all recognize that. We all also recognize the difficulties involved when we begin to proceed down this road of changing these terms. We remember a case in the East where it was decided to change manholes to person holes....for this very same reason. And it developed into such consternation and such complexities that they finally came back and called it...went back to the term manhole. I think if we're going to be consistent once we start down this road we'll have to go all the way through and we'll have to change these things from beginning to end. And I think it's fruitless. I think it's simply useless. It's really very silly, I believe. And I would recommend that we support Representative Pullen's Amendment in this case. It isn't going to change the thrust of the basic Bill or law here. And let'slet's restrain ourselves on some of these needless changes in the English language that have been inherent in it and accepted for centuries. I would urge you to support it."

Speaker Lechowicz: "The Gentleman from Lake, Mr. Matijevich."

Matijevich: "I would...would wonder if the Sponsor of the Bill would yield to a question, Mr. Speaker?"

Speaker Lechowicz: "He indicates he will."

Matijevich: "Representative Terzich, I wonder if you would take the Bill out of the record. You know we are just starting the Session and I really hate to go through this thing. I know it's going to come up again. As I read the Bill, I don't know of any other type of disaster than a natural disaster...or a man...human-made or whatever. If we took out natural and human or manmade, whichever, and just left the word disaster. Wouldn't you be amenable to that Amendment, and then clear it all up?"

Speaker Lechowicz: "John, (foreign language phrase)..You know...For any of you..."

Matijevich: "Let me.....Let me.."

Speaker Lechowicz: "...that don't understand...'Take it slow'."

Terzich: "You know, this Bill has created such interest. I..I would like to move the previous question and let the darn thing go up or down one way or another on the Amendment. I can't be....we can't be taking up the time of the house on the...on whether it's human-made or manmade or crazy-made. This is...this place is a disaster...it might be. So let's go up or down on the Ameidment."

Speaker Lechowicz: "The Gentleman from Rock Island, Mr. Darrow."

Darrow: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I move the previous question."

Speaker Lechowicz: "The Gentleman has moved the previous question. All in favor signify by saying 'aye', 'aye'; all opposed ... The previous question has been moved. The Lady from Cook, Ms. Pullen, to close."

Pullen: "Thank you. The Gentleman from Will was going to tell you that there is a statute on statutes in Illinois which specifically says that a masculine reference in the statutes is ...is to include feminine unless it states otherwise obviously in the context. So it isn't necessary to neutralize every doggoned thing. And quite frankly I could have taken every Bill that you are changing to her or she and attack that one too and we're letting that go. But I think when you are changing a perfectly good phrase like 'manmade disaster' to 'human made disaster' that it's going too far. And I would like to point out to everyone that ..that the Digest should be changed on this Bill if this Amendment is not adopted because one of the Sponsors of this Bill's name should be changed to Representative ... Greiperson. Please adopt this Amendment. Thank you."

Speaker Lechowicz: "The question is, shall Amendment #1 be adopted. All those in favor vote 'aye', all opposed vote 'nay'. The Gentleman from Champaign, Mr. Johnson, to explain his vote. The timer's on."

Johnson: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker and Members of the House. I think the Members should be aware that Representative Terzich and the Members of his Commission has spent long hours trying to do something that the Legislature charged them to do, and that is to update the statutes. This Bill came out....or this Bill came out in the form that it did through the Commission. Our Committee in Judiciary I unanimously approved the Bill. It's trying to make sense or at least update some antiquated language in the statutes and I think it's silly for Representative Pullen to turn this into some kind of an issue of ERA or ...feminine versus masculine or anything else. It's not that. It's an attempt to upgrade the statutes and I think to adopt this Amendment is to tell Representative Terzich and the Members of his Commission that they're not doing the job that we asked. And regardless of what you recommend we're going to make these little picky changes along the way. And I would certainly ask the Members of this House on both sides that whatever your philosophy is on general questions, to vote 'no' on this Amendment and go along with the Law Revision Commission which I think is the most smooth functioning, one of the best Commissions we have in state government."

Speaker Lechowicz: "The Gentleman from Macon, Mr. Borchers, to explain his vote. Timer's on."

Borchers: "I just want to point out...historically, for thousands of years, we have always used 'manmade'. In all languages French, German, take your choice. It's manmade. Now, another angle of this is the cost. If we start this foolishness it's going to take us down a long road in which all will be changed in all of the legal matters whatsoever in this state. And what that will end up in costing us all for a foolish proposition I haven't the faintest ide...idea; but I'll bet you one thing there'll be tens and tens of thousands of dollars and this is silly."

Speaker Lechowicz: "Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? The Clerk will take the record. On this question there are 58 'ayes', 71 'nays'. The Amendment is defeated. Any further Amendments?"

Clerk O'Brien: "No further Amendments."

Speaker Lechowicz: "Third Reading. House Bill 142, Mr. Davis."

Clerk O'Brien: "House Bill 142, a Bill for an Act to amend Sections of the Illinois Highway Code. Second Reading of the Bill. No Committee Amendments."

Speaker Lechowicz: "Any Amendments from the floor?"

Clerk O'Brien: "Floor Amendment #1, John Dunn, amends House Bill 142 on page 2, line 11, by inserting immediately after the period, the following: 'in those places where experience shows the drifting snow has....'"

Speaker Lechowicz: "Excuse me. Who's Amendment is it?"

Clerk O'Brien: "John Dunn."

Speaker Lechowicz: "The Gentleman from Macon, Mr. Dunn, to explain the Amendment."

Dunn: "Mr. Speaker, it would be fine with me if the Clerk would continue to read the Amendment. It's one sentence and I can't find it on my desk so if he would read...."

Speaker Lechowicz: "The Clerk will read the Amendment."

Clerk O'Brien: "...In those places where experience shows that drifting snow has been an obstacle to traffic."

Speaker Lechowicz: "The Gentleman from Macon, Mr. Dunn, on the Amendment."

Dunn: "The purpose of the Amendment is merely to insert some clarifying language in the Bill. The purpose of the Bill is good. It provides for ...leaving standing rows of crops that...in those areas where ... snow has been a problem and of course we know it'sa great problem this winter. But as originally drafted, the...the Bill left things kinda open as to who could be paid and under what circumstances and the purpose of this language is to simply make it clear that crops will only be purchased in those ...specifically in those places where experience has shown that drifting snow has been an obstruction to traffic. So there will be no ...no incentive, no temptation to...to pay everyone who has...farmland along side a right-of-way...to pay them for their crops. It will mean only where snow drifts and where it has been known in the past to drift."

Speaker Lechowicz: "The Gentleman from Will, Mr. Davis, on the Amendment. Mr. Davis."

Davis: "Yes, thank you, Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House. I agree with the language of the Amendment and I think it's well thought out and I would urge its adoption as the Prime Sponsor of the Bill."

Speaker Lechowicz: "Mr. Dunn moves the adoption of Amendment #1. Any discussion? All in favor signify by saying 'aye', 'aye'; all opposed...Amendment #1 is adopted. Any further Amendments?"

Clerk O'Brien: "No further Amendments."

Speaker Lechowicz: "Third Reading. House Bill 176."

Clerk O'Brien: "House Bill 176, a Bill for an Act to amend Sections of the Probate Act, Second Reading of the Bill. Amendment #1 was adopted in Committee."

Speaker Lechowicz: "Any motions from the floor?"

Clerk O'Brien: "No motions...no motions filed. No Floor Amendments."

Speaker Lechowicz: "Any Amendments from the floor?"

Clerk O'Brien: "None."

Speaker Lechowicz: "Third Reading. House Bill 186."

Clerk O'Brien: "House Bill 186, a Bill for an Act to amend Sections of an Act to provide for the ordinary and contingent expense of the Commission on Delinquency Prevention and Department of Children and Family Services. Second Reading of the Bill. No Committee Amendments."

Speaker Lechowicz: "Any Amendments from the floor?"

Clerk O'Brien: "Floor Amendment #1, Peters, amends House Bill 186 on page 1, line 1 and so forth."

Speaker Lechowicz: "The Gentleman from Cook, Mr. Peters, on Amendment #1."

Peters: "Mr. Speaker and Ladies and Gentlemen of the House..."

Speaker Lechowicz: "Excuse me. Is the Lady from Cook, Mr. Chapman, on the floor? Mrs. Chapman, this is your Bill. You want to take it out of the record? Take it out of the record. I'm sorry. Yes, Sir, Mr. Peters."

Peters: "Mr. Speaker, if I might just indicate...for the purpose of the record that this Bill has now been on the Calendar since February 8, and was supposed to have been an emergency measure for child abuse. I would hope we get to it next week."

Speaker Lechowicz: "I would hope we would get to it today. Mrs. Chapman. Maybe at a later portion of today we can get to 186? House Bill 231."

Clerk O'Brien: "House Bill 231, a Bill for an Act to amend Sections of the Illinois Highway Code. Second Reading of the Bill. No Committee Amendments."

Speaker Lechowicz: "Any Amendments from the floor?"

Clerk O'Brien: "None."

Speaker Lechowicz: "Third Reading. House Bill 252."

Clerk O'Brien: "House Bill 252, a Bill for an Act to amend Sections of the Illinois Pension Code, Second Reading of the Bill. No Committee Amendments."

Speaker Lechowicz: "Any Amendments from the floor?"

Clerk O'Brien: "None."

Speaker Lechowicz: "Third Reading. House Bill 309. At the request of the Sponsor 286 and 287 are not being called. House Bill 309."

Clerk O'Brien: "House Bill 309, a Bill for an Act to amend Sections of the Illinois Highway Code. Second Reading of the Bill. Amendment #1 was adopted in Committee."

Speaker Lechowicz: "Any motions?"

Clerk O'Brien: "No motions filed."

Speaker Lechowicz: "Any Amendments from the floor?"

Clerk O'Brien: "No Floor Amendments."

Speaker Lechowicz: "Third Reading. House Bill 342."

Clerk O'Brien: "House Bill 342, a Bill for an Act to amend Sections of an Act relating to the salaries of certain elected county officers. Second Reading of the Bill. Amendment #1 was adopted in Committee."

Speaker Lechowicz: "Any motions?"

Clerk O'Brien: "No motions filed."

Speaker Lechowicz: "Any Amendments from the floor?"

Clerk O'Brien: "No Floor Amendments."

Speaker Lechowicz: "Third Reading. House Bill 345."

Clerk O'Brien: "House Bill 345, a Bill for an Act to amend Sections of the Illinois Public Aid Code. Second Reading of the Bill. No Committee Amendments."

Speaker Lechowicz: "Any Amendments from the floor?"

Clerk O'Brien: "None."

Speaker Lechowicz: "Third Reading. On the Calendar on page 2 is House Bills, Third Reading. House Bill 33. Representative Deuster. Take it out of the record. House Bill 41. Representative Terzich."

Clerk O'Brien: "House Bill 41, a Bill for an Act to amend Sections of an Act concerning insolvent debtors. Third Reading of the Bill."

Speaker Lechowicz: "The Gentleman from Cook, Mr. Terzich."

Terzich: "Yes, Mr. Speaker. The following Bills, from House Bill 41 through 75 are Law Revision Commission Bills which are not substantive changes. All of these Bills came out of the Judiciary I Committee, 11 to 0. On House Bill 41 it makes nonsubstantive changes in the Insolvent Debtors Act, effective immediately. It was recommended by the Law Revision Commission. The changes made include to coordinate the terminology with Public Act 80-124, which was the writ Bill we passed last year, which eliminated the need to issue separate writs to enforce certain judgments and orders and adds female pronoun in places where only male now appear and replaces antiquated and awkward language. There was one Amendment which was simply a technical error. The change was 'shall be' as to 'is', but neglected to delete 'be'. And I would urge support of House Bill 41."

Speaker Lechowicz: "The Gentleman from Cook, Mr. Getty."

Getty: "Would the Gentleman yield?"

Speaker Lechowicz: "He indicates he will."

Getty: "Bob, I thought this was one of the Bills we had talked about and was going to be taken out of the record?"

Terzich: "I will take....this was not one of them that was brought to my attention from Lee, but if you want it out I'll take it out of the record. It's no problem."

Getty: "Good. I'd appreciate that."

Terzich: "We'll take House Bill 41 out of the record, Mr. Speaker."

Speaker Lechowicz: "The Gentleman asks leave to take House Bill 41 out of the record. Hearing no objection, it's out of the record. House Bill 43."

Clerk O'Brien: "House Bill 43, a Bill for an Act to amend Sections of an Act to revise the law in relation to replevin. Third Reading of the Bill."

Speaker Lechowicz: "The Gentleman from Cook, Mr. Terzich."

Terzich: "Again, this brings it...coordinate with public Act 80-1284. It adds female pronoun in places where males now appear. And replaces obsolete and awkward language. Amendment #1 wasjust change...inserted 'for' after 'order'. The identical language already appears elsewhere in the Bill. And I would urge support of House Bill 43."

Speaker Lechowicz: "The Gentleman from Lake, Mr. Deuster. Mr. Deuster, please. Eddie."

Deuster: "Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, I understand that all of these Bills in sequence here, up to 75, make no substantive change. They are just the gender neutralization Bills. And I'm wondering whether the Sponsor might want to make a motion to consider them all on one Roll Call, unless there's objection by some Members?"

Terzich: "Yes. If...I believe Representative Getty has objections to... another Bill or...is it this one?"

Speaker Lechowicz: "Let's take them one at a time. Any further discussion on House Bill 43? The Gentleman from Cook, Mr. Terzich, to close."

Terzich: "Mr. Sp...."

Speaker Lechowicz: "Do you want this out of the record?"

Terzich: "All right. Take 43 out of the record, Mr. Speaker. Are there any objections to any others, ... Mike?"

Speaker Lechowicz: "Why don't we just go with them, Bob? The Gentleman from Cook, Mr. Terzich."

Terzich: "Yes, again, Mr. Speaker, you know, we went through this last Session and for this specific reason we did have these Bills submitted to Judiciary I and they did come out of Judiciary I, 11 to 0, which consisted of all of the lawyers on the Committee. So I don't see any objections on this part here."

Speaker Lechowicz: "The question is, shall House Bill 43 pass? All in favor vote 'aye', all opposed vote 'nay'. The Gentleman from Cook, Mr. Getty, to explain his vote."

Getty: "Mr. Speaker, Members of the House, I just think when we do it we ought to have it...have the Bill in proper shape. And I regret that Mr. Terzich didn't get the message and I think it's just a misunderstanding. I had understood that he had had a consultation concerning it. But I direct your attention to page 4, line 4, where there is an obvious omission of the proposition 'the'. It should read 'to be used in the several counties'. And I don't think we should be passing it out in that condition. Secondly, on page 6, line 2, clearly there is an error in not having the word 'for'. It should clearly read 'in order for replevin', not 'in order replevin'. So for that reason I...I think really they ought to be taken out of the record. I thought Mr. Terzich and Mr. Schwartz and I had discussed it and there was an agreement to hold them until they were cleaned up."

Speaker Lechowicz: "Are there any more typo errors? We can do it in Enrolling and Engrossing. It's in the record. Have all voted who wish? The Clerk will take the record. On this question there's 104 'ayes', 16 'nays', 13 recorded as 'present'. This Bill having received the Constitutional Majority is hereby declared passed. House Bill 48."

Clerk O'Brien: "House Bill 48, a Bill for an Act to amend Sections of an Act in regard to practice of actions of ejectments. Third Reading of the Bill."

Speaker Lechowicz: "The Gentleman from Cook, Mr. Terzich."

Terzich: "Well, again this amends the enactment to coordinate with the writ Bill which eliminated the need for separate writs. It repeals sections, setting out the form for writ of possession, effective immediately. There was one Amendment which added the word 'of' at the end of line 24, page 1. And again this came out of Committee, 11 to 0."

Speaker Lechowicz: "Any discussion? The question is, shall House Bill 48 pass? All in favor vote 'aye', all opposed vote 'nay'. Teddy, would you get me, please? Thank you. Have all voted who wish? The Clerk will take the record. On this question there's 125 'ayes', 3 'nays', none recorded as 'present'. This Bill having received the Constitutional Majority is hereby declared passed. House Bill 53."

Clerk O'Brien: "House Bill 53, a Bill for an Act to amend Sections of an Act to revise the law in relation to habeas corpus. Third Reading of the Bill."

Speaker Lechowicz: "The Gentleman from Cook, Mr. Terzich."

Terzich: "Well, again it coordinates with the writ Bill and it amends the Habeas Corpus Law to coordinate with the Act. And again this came out 11 to 0, out of the Committee."

Speaker Lechowicz: "Any discussion? The question is, shall House Bill 53 pass? All in favor vote 'aye', all opposed vote 'nay'. Dawson. The Gentleman from Cook, Mr. Getty."

Getty: "Mr. Speaker, in explaining my vote. Apparently there is a technical error in that the title indicates it amends Section 2, whereas, the Amendment has taken out Section 32. I think that could be taken up in Enrolling and Engrossing."

Speaker Lechowicz: "According to the Clerk it's already been done."

Getty: "It has been done in the Bill but the Amendment, I don't know that it takes out the title. It says 'an Act to amend Section...'"

Speaker Lechowicz: "The engrossed version does. Would you repeat the Section, Sir?"

Getty: "In the title it indicates that 'An Act to amend Section 32', whereas, we have by Amendment Committee Amendment #1, which was adopted, deleted 32 from those Sections in the Bill which...."

Speaker Lechowicz: "It's been corrected and journalized, Sir. Thank you for bringing it to our attention. But it's been done before. Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? The Clerk will take the record. On this question there's 128 'ayes', 5 'nays', 7 recorded as 'present'. This Bill having received the Constitutional Majority is hereby declared passed. House Bill 56."

Clerk O'Brien: "House Bill 56, a Bill for an Act to amend Sections of an Act to exempt the homestead from forced sales and provide for the setting off of the same. Third Reading of the Bill."

Speaker Lechowicz: "The Gentleman from Cook, Mr. Terzich."

Terzich: "Again, Mr. Speaker, this is coordinating with the writ Act. It's a nonsubstantive Amendment to the homestead exemption from forced sales Act, in it's title...It coordinates with the recent public Acts. Replaces reference to writs and execution. Replaces reference to divorce, reference to probate code, adds female pronoun where only male now appears and replaces awkward and antiquated language. There was one Amendment which was inserted after 'Act of 1975'. And again this Bill came out of Judiciary I Committee 11 to 0."

Speaker Lechowicz: "The Gentleman from Cook, Mr. Beatty."

Beatty: "Representative, could you tell me....I understand there is some change with regard to age 21 in this Bill. What's the significance, if any, of that?"

Terzich: "There was aa problem in the fact that with the homestead exemption...I believe that it was agewas moved to age 18. It was to coordinate it with the homestead exemption. It brought it back to its original one....21. So there was no change in the age. Just kept it at the same age."

Beatty: "I don't understand. There's a homestead...I don't understand what you're...you changed it back from...the way it used to be or... I don't understand..."

Terzich: "Well, right. To its original.....to its original age. It was brought down when the Bill was drafted...I believe it was 18. They brought it back to amend it back to age 21."

Beatty: "So there's no change in it? Thank you."

Speaker Lechowicz: "Any other questions? The Gentleman from Cook, Mr. Barnes."

Barnes: "Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker and forgive me for not standing up but I've got some back problems. Representative Terzich, when...."

when...when was it changed to 18? I'm a bit confused there."

Terzich: "Well theythey had the problem that it included a reference to the age of majority, which is now rather than 21....and at the Committee they suggested that they keep the age of majority, I believe, at the present age of 21."

Barnes, Gene: "Well, that depends on what you are looking at. The age of the majority can be 18. That's the reason I raised that question."

Terzich: "That's correct and therefore there was no change in the present statute on the age."

Barnes, Gene: "But isn't this Bill changing that...isn't this Bill stating that the majority now, under this Bill, would be 21 not 18? Isn't it specific in that form? Because if it is it is a problem."

Terzich: "Well, that I would have to suggest that let one of the attorneys answer that one. I can't answer that. ...I can only....It says here under Section 2, it says, 'for the benefit of the husband and wife surviving, so long as he or she continues to occupy such homestead and the children until the youngest child becomes'... it was 18 and previously it was 21 and so it was just simply changed back to 21 years of age. In the case of a husband who deser...in the case of the husband or wife deserts his or her family. So it's like I say, it just kept the age, age 21 as far as the exemption shall continue... as far as the children's age."

Barnes, Gene: "Change it back...last term we changed it to 18. That's what's bothering me, Bob. I'm here. What's bothering me...Right here, Bob. What's bothering me, Bob, is last year we changed that ...right here...last year, last Session, ..."

Terzich: "Are you standing..."

Barnes, Gene: "No, I'm sorry. Last Session we changed that to 18, that's what we did...in the Homestead Exemption Act. Now, what you're saying is you're changing it back from 18 to 21 and I'm saying 'Why?' We reduced it. It was 21, you're correct. Last Session we reduced it to 18. I guess, along with the other changes we were making relative to the age of majority. Okay?"

Barnes, Gene: "So now you are changing it back to 21. And I guess what I'm suggesting is that...you know...there is some controversy about whether or not the age of majority is either 18 or 21. That's the point that I'm trying to make."

Terzich: "It certainly is."

Barnes, Gene: "Thank you."

Speaker Lechowicz: "Any further discussion? The Gentleman from Cook, Mr. Terzich, to close."

Terzich: "Well, again, Mr. Speaker, as I mentioned, this was thoroughly heard and ...it's my...my impression it doesn't make any substantive changes and the age that was previously in there simply continued to remain in there so therefore there is just wording changes and no actual age changes. And it was approved 11 to 0, in the Judiciary I Committee."

Speaker Lechowicz: "The question is, shall House Bill 56 pass? All in favor vote 'aye', all opposed vote 'nay'. Have all voted who wish? The Clerk will take the record. On this question there's 108 'ayes', 13 'nays', 11 recorded as 'present'. This Bill having received the Constitutional Majority is hereby declared passed. House Bill 58."

Clerk O'Brien: "House Bill 58, a Bill for an Act to amend Sections of an Act relating to contractors' and material men's liens, known as mechanics' liens. Third Reading of the Bill."

Speaker Lechowicz: "The Gentleman from Cook, Mr. Terzich."

Terzich: "This again is another Law Revision Commission Amendment to the mechanics' lien. The following changes are made and it eliminates the antiquated procedural references and awkward language. The change in reference on page 5, line 5, from persons who appear to all parties might be interpreted as substantive change broadening the effect of the adjudication. And it also...it adds the female pronoun where only the male now appears. And again this was approved by 11 to 0."

Speaker Lechowicz: "The Gentleman from Macon, Mr. Dunn."

Dunn: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker and Ladies and Gentlemen of the House. On page 5 of this Bill the word 'parties' appears at two occurrences and in the first instance it would appear to me that parties refers to those who are doing work and in the second instance it refers to claimants. And it appears to me to be an inconsistent use in...of these words...in this particular Bill, in this instance. And I wonder if maybe we shouldn't take another look just to straighten this out, since this is a Law Revision Commission Bill? And perhaps we ought to make sure that we have the ...the language correct or we may not be doing the job we intend to do."

Speaker Lechowicz: "The Gentleman from Will, Mr. Leinenweber."

Leinenweber: "A question for the Sponsor."

Speaker Lechowicz: "He indicates he will yield."

Leinenweber: "The second from the last point that you brought out sounded to me like it was substantive. Was it? And what was it?"

Terzich: "Harry, it beats the heck out of me. That's all you lawyers were, the ones who determine whether or not it was substantive. That's why it went to Judiciary I. ... I don't know anything about mechanic liens, I never use them."

Leinenweber: "Well, let me ask you this, Representative Terzich. Would the world behave any differently if we passed this Bill than it would if we killed it?"

Terzich: "Definitely not. I would even survive. But again, I would like to reiterate that I have approximately one hundred Bills from the Law Revision Commission which has been charged with doing a very difficult and hard job that no one else in this Legislature has been doing. And for this particular reason I know that a lot of these are legal and technical. They've been submitted to the Bar Associations, the Chicago Bar Association, the Illinois Bar Association, to the Judiciary Committee and all of these people in essence have ruled upon it. The members of the Law Revision Commission they are also all lawyers and I'm just presenting this as is. I personally don't have any interest in it one way or another. But.. certainly if there...if there's a good piece of legislation, I think, Representative Leinenweber, you should lend to help pass this legislation and not to be objective about it."

Leinenweber: "Well, Mr. Speaker, very briefly on the Bill. There used to be a test that some Members spoke about and that was whether we need the Bill or not...."

Speaker Lechowicz: "Excuse me,..."

Leinenweber: "Not whether or not it won't hurt anything."

Speaker Lechowicz: "Mr. Leinenweber. Excuse me just for a moment.

Because Mr. Dunn had a question which wasn't responded."

Leinenweber: "Oh, I'm sorry."

Speaker Lechowicz: "And I recognized you and there was a little bit of dialogue between the two of you. I think we better take this one out of the record until we have Mr. Dunn's question answered

Until you can sit down with the Sponsor, okay? Take it out of the record.

Dunn, John: "I'd appreciate that."

Speaker Lechowicz: "How about 75?"

Clerk O'Brien: "House Bill 75, a Bill for an Act to amend various Acts updating cross-references to the Probate Act of 1975. Third Reading of the Bill."

Speaker Lechowicz: "The Gentleman from Cook, Mr. Terzich."

Terzich: "Well, again this amends the various Acts to update the cross-reference to the Public Act of 1975. It's effective immediately. Again it was rea...by the Law Revision Commission and passed out of the Committee 11 to 0."

Speaker Lechowicz: "The Gentleman from Will, Mr. Van Duyne."

Van Duyne: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Really I don't know what we're talking about either. And I get this sort of scenario that a lot of other people don't either. So would it be possible, as long as there are so many of these Bills like 100 of them, to appoint some type of a committee or make some type of an agreed list that whoever the responsible people in this General Assembly are, could come up with say...okay, we should do this because of X amount of reasons? And it would save us an awful, awful lot of time."

Speaker Lechowicz: "Well, Mr. Van Duyne, these Bills all were reviewed by, one - a Commission; two - by the Judiciary Committee of this House. I believe they are responsible. If there's any flaws that you may point out or any other Member at...time on Second Reading or on Third Reading, that's your opportunity and our duty."

Van Duyne: "Well, Mr. Speaker, you know there are three or four points here. First, whether the Bill is necessary as Mr. Terzich indicates somebody else has given him the Bills. Sort of a cleanup type of a thing. Also, as Representative Leinenweber has said, 'Well what the heck is the sense of doing it if it really doesn't change much?' And, but by the same token when there are 100 Bills, as he just.... he alluded to the fact that there was 100 Bills and also we are now talking about one of them, and if it's going to take that much time with ...with all 100, really, I think, my suggestion is valid and I think that somebody in the legal field should say, 'Well, I'll take up the cross and I will say yes, they are not much but they are necessary nevertheless.'"

Speaker Lechowicz: "The Gentleman from Cook, Mr. Jaffe, to respond."

Jaffe: "...I think that if Representative Van Dwyne would follow the ...the procedure that we have gone through you would find that most of these Bills are really on the Consent Calendar, on the Third Reading, Second Day. The only reason that we're hearing these Bills at this particular time is that most of these Bills are... had an Amendment to them and because they had an Amendment to them we could not put them on the Consent Calendar. I might say to the House that it was assigned to the Judiciary Committee. The Judiciary Committee heard all of these Bills, referred all of them to the Law Revision Subcommittee, which was headed by Representative Beatty, made up of three Democrats, two Republicans. They all came out unanimously. And they went to the Bill...the Full Committee and they all came out of the Full Committee unanimously. There might be some technical difficulty with one or two of these but by and large I think you're going to find that most of these are on the Consent Calendar and there are no problems with them."

Speaker Lechowicz: "Is there any further dis...House Bill 75, the Gentleman from Cook, Mr. Terzich."

Terzich: "Again, Mr. Speaker, I urge a favorable...support."

Speaker Lechowicz: "The question is, shall House Bill 75 pass? All in favor vote 'aye', all opposed vote 'nay'. Jerry, would you get me over there, please. Thank you. Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? The Clerk will take the record. On this question there's 114...115 'ayes', ...kindly record Mr. Kozubowski as

'aye'. 116 'ayes', 2 'nays', 15 recorded as 'present'. This Bill having received the Constitutional Majority is hereby declared passed. House Bill 95, Mr. Deuster. Take it out of the record. House Bill 96, Mr. Deuster. Take it out of the record. House Bill 108, Mr. Deuster. Take it out of the record. House Bill 160, Mr. Von Boeckman. Take it out of the record. House Bill 211, Mr. Sharp. "

Clerk O'Brien: "House Bill 211, a Bill for an Act to amend Sections of the School Code. Third Reading of the Bill."

Speaker Lechowicz: "Is the Gentleman on the floor? Take it out of the record. Any announcements? The Gentleman from Lake, Mr. Matijevich."

Matijevich: "Mr. Speaker, Representative McClain, my seatmate, asked me just a minute ago to let the Members know that a former Representative Leland Kennedy had a very serious operation. He had a nine-hour operation and has been in intensive care at St. Joseph's Hospital in Alton. He is getting better but some Members who knew... who know Leland would like to know that he is getting better and maybe you could drop him a card."

Speaker Lechowicz: "Thank you, Sir. The Gentleman from Marion, Mr. Friedrich."

Friedrich: "Mr. Speaker, I don't know if I am in order or not but I introduced House Resolution 19, which had an error in it which I did not catch. The Reference Bureau said it's easier to introduce a new Resolution. So if it's in order I'd like to move to table House Resolution 19, which is in Executive Committee."

Speaker Lechowicz: "The Gentleman moves to table House Resolution 19. Any objection? Hearing none. The Resolution is tabled. Any further announcements? Representative Giorgi, on Agreed Resolutions... Is your eye okay?"

Clerk O'Brien: "House Resolutions 76, Boucek; 77, Hudson; 78, Pechous; 80 Dawson-Collins-DiPrima; 82, Marovitz; 83, Terzich-Stuffle; 84, Younge; and House Joint Resolution 12, Garmisa."

Speaker Lechowicz: "The Gentleman from Winnebago, Mr. Giorgi."

Giorgi: "Mr. Speaker, House Joint Resolution 12, by Garmisa, petitions the Congress to try to keep AMTRAK going. 74...is that the first one? 76 by Boucek."

Clerk O'Brien: "76, Boucek."

Giorgi: "Boucek has the Citizen of the Year Award. 77 by Hudson, honors John Erickson Republican League. 78 by Pechous, talks about a Y.M.C.A. party. 80 by Dawson, honors the American Legionaire. 82 by Marovitz, honors the great Bob Elson into the Hall of the baseball Hall of Fame. 83 by Terzich, wants the Pension Commission to look at the recodification of the Pension Laws. and 84 by Younge, honors a minister...a great minister from America. And House Resolution 28 and 29, alluded to by ...by Jaffe, were written in the same clear, elucidative manner that I did today...and he should have been aware of them. I move for the adoption of the Agreed Resolutions."

Speaker Lechowicz: "The Gentleman has moved the adoption of the Agreed Resolutions. All in favor signify by saying 'aye', 'aye'; all opposed...The Agreed Resolutions are adopted. Further Resolutions."

Clerk O'Brien: "House Joint Resolution 13, Yourell, House Joint Resolution 15, Friedrich."

Speaker Lechowicz: "Committee on Assignments.Death Resolution."

Clerk O'Brien: "House Resolution 79, Tuerk, with respect to the memory of Thomas E. Metts."

Speaker Lechowicz: "The Gentleman from Peoria, Mr. Tuerk, moves the adoption of the Death Resolution. All in favor signify by saying 'aye', 'aye'; all opposedThe Death Resolution is adopted. How much time do you need? Half hour? Representative Giorgi moves that the House now stand adjourned. Giving the Clerk fifteen minutes for a Perfunctory Session. We'll return back into Session on Wednesday, March the 7th at 11:30 in the morning. All in favor signify by saying 'aye', 'aye'; all opposed....The House stands adjourned."

Clerk O'Brien: "Committee Report. Representative Farley, Chairman of the Committee of Labor and Commerce, to which the following Bill was referred, action taken March 1, 1977 (sic), reported the same back with the following recommendation, 'Do not pass as amended' House Bill 255."

Clerk Leone: "House Joint Resolution Constitutional Amendment 28. Walsh. Resolved, by the House of Representatives of the Eighty-first General Assembly of the State of Illinois, the Senate concurring herein, that there shall be submitted to the electors of the state for adoption or rejection at the next general election occurring at least six months after the adoption of this Resolution, a proposition to amend Section 2 of Article IV of the Constitution to read as follows: Article IV. Legislative composition. One Senator shall be elected from each Legislative District. Immediately following each dicennial re-districting the General Assembly by law shall divide the Legislative Districts as equally as possible into three groups. Senators from one group shall be elected for terms of four years, four years and two years; Senators from the second group, for terms of four years, two years and four years; and Senators from the third group, for terms of two years, four years and four years. The Legislative Districts in each group shall be distributed substantially equally over the state.

(b) Three Representatives shall be elected from each Legislative District for a term of two years. No political party shall limit its nominations to less than two candidates for Representative in any Legislative District. In elections for Representatives, not including those for nomination, each elector may cast three votes for one candidate or distribute them equally among no more than three candidates. The candidates highest in votes shall be declared elected. There shall be no cumulative voting for nomination of candidates for Representatives. To be eligible to serve as a Member of the General Assembly, a person must be a United States citizen, at least 21 years of age, and for the two years preceding his election or appointment a resident of the district which he is to represent.

In the general election following a redistricting, a candidate for the General Assembly may be elected from any district which contains a part of the district in which he resides at the time of the redistricting and reelected if a resident of the new district he represents for 18 months prior to the reelection. (d) Within thirty days after the vacancy occurs, it shall be filled by appointment as provided by law. If the vacancy is in a Senatorial district with more than twenty-eight months remaining in the term, the appointed Senator shall serve until the next general election, at which time the Senator shall be elected to serve for the remainder of the term. If the vacancy is in a Representative Office or in any other Senatorial office the appointment shall be for the remainder of the term. An appointee to fill a vacancy shall be a member of the same political party as the person he succeeds. (e) No Member of the General Assembly shall receive compensation as a public officer or employee from any other governmental entity for time during which he is in attendance as a Member of the General Assembly. No Member of the General Assembly during the term for which he was elected or appointed shall be appointed to a public office which shall have been created or the compensation for which shall have been increased by the General Assembly during that term. Schedule. The foregoing Amendment to Section 2 of Article IV of the Constitution takes effect on January 1 following its adoption by the electors of the state. First Reading of the Constitutional Amendment. Being no further business the House now stands adjourned."
