

Speaker Redmond: "House will come to order, Members please be in their seats. Please clear the aisle and be in your seats, please. Be led in prayer by the Reverend Krueger, the House Chaplain."

Reverend Krueger: "In the Name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost, Amen. O Lord, bless this House to Thy service this day. Amen. Admiral Richard E. Bryd said: 'A man doesn't attain wisdom until he recognizes that he is no longer indispensable.' Let us pray. ALMIGHTY GOD, our Father from whom all good gifts do come and from whom all might power, dominion and majesty alone belong to Thee; we ask Thee this day for guidance as we are faced with a transition in the form of our representation in this House of Representatives. Make us deeply sensible of our constituent responsibilities as we commence the begin the closing days of this 81st General Assembly of the State of Illinois. Enable us with wisdom and prudence that our actions and directions be not self-seeking, rather that they be for the good of those whom we do serve and all the peoples of this great State. We ask this in the name of Thy Son. Amen."

Speaker Redmond: "Pledge of Allegiance, Clerk."

Clerk O'Brien: "I pledge allegiance to the Flag, of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation, under God, indivisible with liberty and justice for all."

Speaker Redmond: "Mr. Clerk do you have any messages of any kind. Messages from the Governor."
