83RD GENERAL ASSEMBLY
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
TRANSCRIPTION DEBATE

101st Legislative Day

April 10, 1984

Speaker McPike: "The House will come to order. The House will come to order. The Members will be in their seats. The Chaplain for today will be the Reverend Richard May, Pastor of Pleasant Grove Baptist Church, Springfield, Illinois. Reverend May is a guest of Representative Mike Curran. Will the guests in the gallery please rise to join us in the invocation?"

Reverend May: "Let us pray. Almighty God of whom the whole family in heaven and on earth is named; we bless You for a fellowship which joins earth and heaven and unites us with the worshipping faithful of all ages passed who found in Christ the true meaning of life. We bless You for fellowship which is at this moment of our awareness becomes world wide and makes us one with men and women of every land and nation who know him as Savior and Lord. May this time spent together in this place give richness to our thinking, clearness to our words and guidance to our lives that we may take one step further toward that goal of perfection found in your Son, Jesus the Christ. Forgive us Lord if we have tried to be self-made persons. Instead of allowing Your holy spirit to work through us, we have tried to rely on our own standards, but have found them faulty. We have tried to rely on our own power; have found it to be defenseless. We have tried to promote our own good works; we have lost interest and become stale. Forgive us Lord for not using the vast resources within us, the divine energy of Your spirit. Empower this Body with that spirit we pray, energizing their consciences, their tongues, their hands, their feet, Lord, their bodies with the same power that brought this universe into being. In this name of Jesus we pray, Amen."

Speaker Madigan: "Mr. Levin."

Levin: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House. This Bill comes from the Joint Committee on Administrative Rules. And it amends the Vehicle Code to provide that a driver education instructor, who teaches exclusively in a commercial driving school, shall not be required to furnish the Secretary of State with the State Board of Education certificate attesting to his qualification to teach driver education courses. It simply clarifies the jurisdiction between the Secretary of State and the State Board of Education so that there is no longer overlap. With Amendment #3 it makes clear that any rules and regs that the State Board of Education has on this subject shall continue in full force in effect until such time as the Secretary of State promulgates under the Administrative Procedure Act new rules and regs."

secondly, the Secretary of State's Office. What's their position if any on this Bill?"

Levin: "They are all supporting this Bill."

Johnson: "What about the National Voluntary Association of Driver Education Instructors?"

Levin: "This Bill was initially on the floor last year. It was just not called because of lack of time. It was last year checked out with everybody. It was gone over again this year, and there is no opposition to this Bill that I'm aware of."

Johnson: "I'm just concerned about the NAVDEI - what their position is."

Levin: "I... You know, I believe that they were involved in it last year. And they, you know, they, too, do not want to have this dual jurisdictional requirement."

Johnson: "Now, I... I appreciate your comments, but I...I'm just deeply concerned that that group of voluntary people who associate together for occupational purposes have been consulted on the legislation and have taken a position one way or the other on the merits of it. So it's your feeling, that they're in support. Is that right?"

Levin: "I believe so."

Johnson: "Okay, thank you."

Speaker Madigan: "Is there any further discussion? There being no further discussion, the question is, 'Shall Senate Bill 751 pass?' All those in favor signify by voting 'aye', all those opposed by voting 'no'. Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? The Clerk shall take the record. Representative Brunsvold and myself, being the two most physically fit Members of the General Assembly, would like to remind the Body that tomorrow the Governor's Council on Physical Fitness along with the State Association on Physical Education and Physical Fitness would like to have the Members come up to Room 400 where you will be checked for your physical fitness. They will do a blood exam, check body fat, et cetera. And a reminder that if you want to have the blood work done, you must have a twelve hour fast. And the hours for doing this will be from 9 a.m. tomorrow until 2 a.m. Certainly, would urge the Members to attend and take advantage of this physical fitness day. And, I will defer to Representative Brunsvold."

Speaker Madigan: "Thank you, Mr. Hastert. We are now on the Order of Announcements. And the Chair recognizes Mr. Brunsvold."

And I think this Body ought to show some leadership tomorrow morning by getting into the Room 400 and going through this fitness assessment. So, I'm going to lead the way tomorrow. Ladies and Gentlemen... Please let me have your attention. Concerning consideration of your Bills during this Session, there will be no deadline for the introduction of House Bills. There will be no deadline for the introduction of House Bills. However, there will be a Committee deadline for consideration of House Bills, and there will be a floor deadline for consideration of House Bills. Therefore, please be advised that the House will be in Perfunctory Session this week on both Thursday and Friday to receive the introduction of Bills. If the Bills are introduced this week, either today, tomorrow, or Thursday or Friday, then those Bills could be considered by the Rules Committee during the first week after the Easter vacation, which would then permit consideration of the Bills approved for consideration by the Rules Committee in the appropriate standing Committee the following week which will be the final week for the consideration of House Bills in House Committee. So please understand that the timetable that we will work under only provides for three more weeks for House Committee consideration of House Bills, this week, the first week after Easter, and then the following week after that. So if you have new legislation that you wish to be considered during this Session of the Legislature, that legislation should be introduced this week, and we will provide that there will be Perfunctory Sessions on Thursday and Friday to receive the introduction of Bills. Those Bills should be considered by the House Rules Committee the first week after Easter for consideration by the appropriate standing Committee the following week, which will be the last week for Committee consideration of House Bills. We will submit a memorandum to all of you that will embody what I have just said, but please be advised of that today. Thank you very much. And on the Shaw, the Sponsor of both Resolutions? Let the record show that Mr. Shaw is not in the chamber and those Resolutions shall be placed on the Order of the Speaker's Table. Is there anything further to come before the Body? Mr. Vinson."

Vinson: "Yes, Mr. Speaker, I was wondering if you had made inquiry in regards to the... a serious matter of impropriety which we discovered in the Executive Committee last week."

Speaker Madigan: "You will recall that I told you that I wanted to take that up with the Attorney General, which I did. He told me he's too busy at this time because he's working to move those cyanide chips out of Illinois to Canada, and that when he completes that project that he'll be back with us on this allegation of impropriety."

Vinson: "May I rely on the fact that no one would attempt to move one of those Bills out of the House until we've discovered the degree to which they're tainted?"

Speaker Madigan: "That question should be properly directed to some of my principle Cosponsors."

Vinson: "Well I... I have a tendency to rely on you, Mr. Speaker, because of your concern for the rules and integrity of the House."

Speaker Madigan: "Mr. Vinson, we now have an important matter to be brought before the Body by Mr. Friedrich, who asked me to ask you if he could be recognized on his important matter."

Vinson: "Yes. Will you come back to me at an appropriate point, Mr. Speaker?"

Speaker Madigan: "Yeah, in do time."

Vinson: "Thank you."

Speaker Madigan: "The Chair recognizes Mr. Friedrich."

Friedrich: "Mr. Speaker, I had talked to Representative
