

STATE OF ILLINOIS
83RD GENERAL ASSEMBLY
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
TRANSCRIPTION DEBATE

55th Legislative Day

June 1, 1983

Speaker Madigan: "The House shall come to order. The House shall come to order. The Members shall be in their chairs. We shall be led in prayer today by the... by Father John Spreen, Pastor of the Church of the Little Flower in Springfield. Father Spreen is a guest of Representative Mike Curran. Would the guests in the gallery please rise to join us in the invocation?"

Father Spreen: "Let us pray. Oh God, giver of all gifts and provider of all of our needs, we begin this first day of the last month of this Legislative Session by asking for Your continued guidance and direction. We ask that You would give to our Legislators the patience of Job, the endurance of Moses and the wisdom of Solomon, and the loving concern for people like St. Francis of Assisi. With these virtues, they can be effective Legislators of our state. Help them to understand that bipartisan politics is healthy for growth and progress, that disagreements are good, if they are not in a disagreeable way. Help them to understand that there are some policies that cannot be changed and there are some policies that must be changed. Whatever must be changed is not for the good of the individual, but rather for the good of the whole State of Illinois. As the pressures of the last month press upon them, let our Representatives be patient with one another, and especially patient with the lobbyists and their public constituents who make unreasonable demands upon them. Let our Legislators be guided with wisdom of age and tradition. Let their concerns be always loving concerns for the good of people. Patience, wisdom and love, and the greatest of these is love. We ask for these virtues for this august Body of Legislators in the Name of Our Heavenly Father. Amen."

Speaker Madigan: "We shall be led in the Pledge of Allegiance by Representative Ropp."

Ropp et al: "I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Speaker Madigan: "Roll Call for Attendance. Mr. Curran. Mr. Greiman, are there any excused absences?"

Greiman: "Yes, Mr. Speaker. Let the record show that Representatives Christensen, for an illness in the family, and Representative DeJaeger for illness would be officially excused today. Their keys have been removed, Sir, pursuant to the rules."

Speaker Madigan: "Let the record show that Representative Christensen and DeJaeger have been excused. Mr. Vinson."

Vinson: "Yes, Mr. Speaker. Representative Zwick is absent for purposes of legislative business, and her key has been removed."

Speaker Madigan: "Thank you, Mr. Vinson. Let the record show that Representative Zwick is excused. Mr. Clerk, take the record. There being 114 Members responding to the Attendance Roll Call, there is a quorum present. Mr. Clerk, Messages from the Senate."

We have approximately five pages of Senate Bills on First Reading where there is no House Sponsor for those Bills. If those Bills are to be assigned to Committee and properly posted according to the rules, there should be House Sponsors affixed to those Bills sometime today, so that they can begin to move in the normal process. If you would be so kind as to examine that list with a view toward possible sponsorship of Senate Bills. Thank you very much. Mr. Clerk, Senate Bills, First Reading."

Speaker Madigan: "Committee Reports."

Clerk O'Brien: "Representative Stuffle, Chairman from the Select Committee on Economic Recovery, to which the following Bills were referred, action taken June 1, 1983 and reported the same back with the following recommendation: 'do pass' Senate Bills 713, 749 and 942."

Speaker Madigan: "The Chair is prepared to adjourn. Is there any business to come before the House? Agreed Resolutions. For what purpose does Mr. Flinn seek recognition?"

Flinn: "Well, Mr. Speaker, I have not had an opportunity to talk to some of the Sponsors for the Bills that are scheduled for Financial Institutions this afternoon, and rather than have a meeting that's no meeting at all, I'm going to, at this point, cancel the Financial Institutions meeting and will be... all the Bills will be re-posted for next week at the regular meeting time. Financial Institutions cancelled this afternoon."

Speaker Madigan: "For what purpose does Representative Stuffle seek recognition? The Membership would please give their attention. Certain meetings are being cancelled, so, Representative Stuffle."

Stuffle: "Yes, Mr. Speaker, I would rise to make a Motion to suspend the posting rule with regard to Senate Bill 881, which has been assigned to the Committee on Agriculture. I've cleared this on the Republican side and our side. The Bill is a companion to a Bill already assigned and posted there today, and the two Bills are identical to Bills which passed unanimously out of the House, so I would move to suspend the posting rule with regard to SB 881 so that it may be heard today in the Committee on Agriculture."

Cheryl Hill: "Thank you. I won't take up much of your time, because I know you're really busy, but I just wanted to take a minute to urge all of you to visit your neighboring county fairs, because they have a lot to offer. If you haven't been to one recently, you're really missing a lot, and the Illinois State Fair's coming up in August - August 11th through the 21st, and I want all of you to visit there, because it proves to be a bigger success every year. Also, tonight, on the Director's lawn at the Illinois State Fair, is the Department of Agriculture's barbeque, and it's at 6:00 p.m., and I'm inviting all of you to come to that. Thank you."

Curran: "Thank you, Cheryl. And now, Representative Hicks has a guest that he'd like to introduce."

Hicks: "Yes, Ladies and Gentlemen, it's a pleasure for me to be able to introduce one of my constituents, Mr. Jim Walsh, who is President of the Illinois Association of Agricultural Fairs here in Illinois. Also with him is his wife, Julia. They are two very fine people from my district that I've been acquainted for for some time and have been a very active part of my life for the last couple of years, and I'd like to introduce Mr. Jim Walsh, President of the Illinois Association of Agricultural Fairs."

Jim Walsh: "Thank you, Larry. Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, thank you for your time in letting me appear here today. As you know, county fair time is approaching rapidly. I have two universal passes for each of you and have placed them in your mailboxes, so to be sure not to miss anyone. Also, we have a list of all the county fair dates with names and addresses and a brochure telling of all the accomplishments of the county fairs. Please accept these passes as an invitation to attend any and all county fairs
