TRANSCRIPTION DEBATE

98th Legislative Day

April 9, 1986

Speaker McPike: "The House will come to order. Members will be in their seats. The Chaplain for today will be Father Charles Olshefsky, Pastor of St. Mary's Church of New Berlin. Father Olshefsky is a guest of Representative Karen Hasara. Will the guests in the balcony please rise and join us in the invocation?"

Father Olshefsky: "Let us pray, Almighty God, Father of us all, Whose love and care for each of us has been manifest on so many occasions, once more, we stand before You to make petition. We recognize Your supreme dominion over all of us and our complete dependence upon You. Bless our country, our State of Illinois. Bless our citizens, Thy children whom Thou hast invested with rich rights and freedoms. Bless our Legislators. May they be sustained by Thy special inspiration and support. Give them wisdom and prudence. Give them insight and foresight. And may they always be able agents of justice and charity at all times. Amen."

Speaker McPike: "Be led in the Pledge of Allegiance by Representative Ropp."

Ropp - et al: "I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Speaker McPike: "Roll Call for Attendance. ...Parcells in the Chair."

Speaker Parcells: "Are you girls all ready? Come on, coaches. Come on up here. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, it is a with great deal of pleasure and pride that I present this Resolution to my alma mater, New Trier Township High School, located in my district in Winnetka, Illinois, commending the Girls Swimming and Diving Team and their coaches. These young ladies exemplify the fine qualities we are so proud to see in our young people today. They work hard. They probably spend more of their waking hours wet than dry as they constantly strive to reach their goal of excellence in their chosen sport. And a great deal of credit must be given to their coaches who inspire them, encourage them, cajol them and maybe even harass them a little to make them become better and better swimmers and divers. But the outstanding thing is that these young girls have not only won the 1985 Illinois State Swimming and Diving title. These girls, their coaches and New Trier High School, have the amazing and enviable record of having won five straight State titles in a row and they have won six out of the last seven Illinois State titles in swimming and diving. It is with... Thank you. It is with great pride and pleasure that I present to you the New Trier Township High School Girls Swimming and Diving Team and their outstanding coaches. Here to accept the award is Susan Portugal."

Susan Portugal: "It's a great honor to accept this award for our team and our school. And we thank you very much. And thank you for having us down here."

Speaker McPike: "117 Members answering the Roll Call, a quorum is present. Representative Greiman, do you have any excused absences? Representative Piel, do you have any excused absences?"

Piel: "No excused absences today, Mr. Speaker."

Speaker McPike: "Thank you. Representative Klemm. Representative Klemm in the Chair."

Speaker Klemm: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Could I have your attention, please? Will the Members please take their seats? Today is POW/MIA day in Illinois. To commemorate this day, we, in the House of Representatives, are gathered to hold this special candlelighting ceremony to honor the 2,436 Americans still unaccounted by the Vietnamese. And we wish to especially call attention to the 102 brave Americans from Illinois who remain imprisoned or missing. Join with me as we ask Commander Robert Landers of the Interveterans Council to post the colors. I'd like to call upon Father Kaltenbach to lead us in an invocation, please."

Father Kaltenbach: "Let us pray, oh, Almighty God, we gather in this august chamber to deliberate and consider vital programs in our time. We know we are answerable to a greater chamber and that's Yours. And You have shown us how important each individual is. For You sent Your own Son to seek out those who were lost. You even stated You would leave 99 that are at home and go seek out the one lost. You spoke in many ways of not wanting to lose one of Your precious ones. This is what we consider when we think of our POW's and MIA's. They are lost, but we must care and remember or we're not truly Your children carrying out this mandate. We pray this then and ask Your guidance and inspiration to continue this special caring in the Lord's name. Amen."

Speaker Klemm: "We are fortunate today, in the House of Representatives, to have the past National Commander of the American Legion, Mr. Albert Keller, Jr., to say a few words concerning this subject. Commander Keller."

Albert Keller: "Thank you so very much. Distinguished Members of the General Assembly, my fellow veterans and friends, I'm honored to be with you today as we recognize more than 100 men from Illinois who served their country during the Vietnam War and who are still unaccounted for. We honor their service today and we continue to work to bring them back home at last. And we will bring them back. Working together, we are a powerful force. The Proclamation that Governor Thompson signed sometime ago, is a strong signal to the government of Vietnam that the United States is still committed to resolve the POW/MIA issue. We cannot let our efforts lay. We must preserve. We must be steadfast because we need to know where these brave men are. I think I speak for most veterans when I tell you that it is action such as this POW/MIA recognition day that is the responsible course for this Nation to take. We cannot allow ourselves to be deluded into either forgetting about the more than 2000 Americans still missing or ranting for some sort of direct military action to try to pull them out physically. Either of those approaches will end unhappily for us and for the people who might still be there. This recognition day does just exactly what it's supposed to. It reinforces the government's policy of government to government discussions with the Vietnamese which will ultimately lead to a resolution of the issue. Since 1981 our progress has been good. It is not nearly as good as any of us... many of us would like, but it is progress at least. Now we appear to have convinced the Vietnamese that we will continue to negotiate and we will not pay or beg. What we are asking for is a humanitarian end to this struggle and we see evidence that they are listening. With each new agreement, with each new concession on their part, we see that our reasonable, responsible approach has been the correct path to take. I'm proud to say that Illinois has joined the ranks of the states and the organizations which have said loudly and clearly, 'Return our sons, Hanoi and return them now'. I commend those of you who worked so hard to make this day possible. Ten years after the fall of Saigon, it would have been easy for us all to forget Vietnam and forget about the lessons that we learned there. And even if we did forget, even if we turned our backs on those sons of Illinois who are still missing, there are those in this state that would not forget. We must join with the families and the friends of our prisoners of war and those missing in action to show them that we care about their loved ones. Our vigilance is critical now as it has... was ten or 20 years ago. We must continue to support these men if we are to expect others to serve us in the future. What you have said to the Vietnamese government is that we will not surrender to their propaganda. We will not forget and we will not rest until the fates of all our missing are resolved. On behalf of the veterans of Illinois, I thank you for your recognition of some of our brethren who need and deserve the respect which you are showing today. As a veteran and a former prisoner of war during World War II, I promise you that words cannot express how much our action means. Thank you for the support and please do not let it end here with this day. We have presented all of you with packets relative to the POW/MIA day and we would hope that you would transmit this information to your constituency as we continue to work with this very sensitive problem and continue to work to make sure that our MIA/POW men are not forgotten. Thank you so very much."

Speaker Klemm: "Thank you, Commander, for those inspiring words. The National League of Families of American Prisoners and Missing in Action in Southeast Asia, the Illinois Coordinator, Dorothy Lippert and Michael Ferguson, are here to symbolically light a candle in respect for our missing and they wanted me to personally thank the Members and colleagues in the House of Representatives for allowing us to be here today. Dorothy, if you would care to light the candle and while we're doing that, Representative Michael

Speaker Klemm: "May we bow our heads. Today under this beautiful blue sky, we, in this House chamber, enjoy the freedom of our great Nation, the freedom to govern ourselves, to agree or disagree with each other and to live and work in peace. But half the world a way, 2,436 souls are unable to enjoy that freedom and peace. Some, we know, are still being held in captivity. Others have already slipped their bonds for another world. Still, they all cry out with one voice. Remember us. Fight for us. Bring us home. Help us today to hear their calls and help us also to remember the families and friends they left behind. Inspire us in a new compassion for those loved ones that they may know and that they are not alone in their struggle. As our soldiers fought for us, let us now fight for them. Give us the strength and the conviction to continue our efforts to win a full accounting of their fates. Let us never surrender. Let us never forget. Amen. Will Commander Robert Landers please come forward to retire the colors? Thank you, Members of the chamber of the House of Representatives, for your sharing and joining with us in the ceremony. Thank you."

Speaker McPike: "The Gentleman from Cook, Representative Parke."

Parke: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, in keeping with this program, on May 26 we will have Memorial Day. The American Legion has prepared speeches for the Memorial Day programs that will be held in your communities. I'll be going around passing out the speeches. You might want to remember the POW's and MIA's in the speeches. Thank you."

Speaker McPike: "Committee Reports."
