We come to you today asking that You'll be with each of these men and women who have been elected by our people to serve the people. We pray, dear Lord, that You will guide their minds, You'll guide their decision making and above everything else that this will done for Your glory. I pray, dear Lord, that in all that they do here today and in the days to come they'll be reminded that they will give an account of those decisions. Now Father, just help us through this day. And again, thank you, for the things You've given us and to forgive us of our sin and trespasses, for it's in His name we pray. Amen."
