TRANSCRIPTION DEBATE

53rd Legislative Day

June 11, 1985

Speaker Breslin: "The hour of 12:00 having arrived, this House will come to order. The Chaplain for today will be Father John Banahan, Pastor of St. Louise 'De Merrillac' Catholic Church of LaGrange Park. Father Banahan is a guest of Representative Jack Kubik. Will the guests in the gallery please rise for the invocation?"

Father Banahan: "I'd first like to thank Mr. Kubik for extending this invitation to be here with all of you today. And let me begin by saying, Almighty God, I stand before You to beg Your help for these fine men and women. Before I do, I might remind them that we do not answer two specific requests. Therefore, Mr. Madigan, who has asked me that I put in a special plug for Notre Dame, I had referred him to St. Jude. He is the patron saint of hopeless cases. Mr. Daniels has asked that I see if I can have the Vatican send an ambassador to DuPage County, and I explained our ambassadors not only speak Polish. We also observe that Mr. Rock could not be here in this building today. We understand he is doing his laundry. You might recall that he was a Dominican, and they have a perennial problem with those white robes. Dear God, You do remember the Dominicans. They're the ones who always fight for the Jesuits and who dress like members of the Klu Klux Klan. We would also hope today to pray for Mr. Hartigan, but we're under a gag rule imposed by the Governor. But, Dear God, for this we do pray. We ask for guidance for all of these fine men and women who represent us, and even as we do, we are reminded that You are the one who guided some 118 Jewish men and their wives and their families from bondage in Egypt to the promised land. It was a journey of a hundred miles and took You forty years for them to get there. And, Dear God, we ask that You either adjust your compass or show a brighter cloud by day and a more blazing fire at night so that this group of pilgrims will finish their work long before next year's Sater or Thanksgiving Day or, indeed, even Independence Day. Dear God, you know I am deliberately being frivolous in Your presence because I enjoy these people so much. I remind You that politician's are very much like priests, not only because we are all frail and fragile, as indeed we are, but because we dedicate ourselves to help others. We are chosen, some by vocation, and others by the electorate, but all of us do try to represent others. We pray for others. We minister to others. We care for others. Thus, in this year of 1985, we clergy, whether serving here in Springfield or wherever else, we minister to others. In a way, we are Your nobility. Help us then to be noble this day and throughout all the days to come. Amen."

Speaker Breslin: "We will be led in the pledge by Representative Ropp."

Ropp: "I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Speaker Breslin: "Roll Call for Attendance. Representative McGann, would you vote your switch? Turn the key again. There. Okay, fine. Is everyone recorded? Mr. Clerk, take the Roll. There are 118 Members recording themselves as 'present'. Representative Vinson?"

Vinson: "Yes, Madam Chairman, I was just going to ask you about the board. Do we have a problem with the board today?"

Speaker Breslin: "We do."

Vinson: "Does that mean that we're... that we can't run it for Roll Calls?"

Speaker Breslin: "Just a moment, please. We're checking it right now, Representative Vinson. But with 118 Members voting

I've been trying to find Representative Mulcahey who is Chairman of the Committee, and I can't locate him but I'm sure it will be fine."

Speaker Breslin: "Has this been cleared with the other side of the aisle, Representative Van Duyne? Would you please walk over and talk with Representative Didrickson or Representative Cowlshaw and get back to me, please? Representative Didrickson."

Didrickson: "Yes, Madam Chairman, that is okay with bypassing the posting rules.."

Speaker Breslin: "Representative Van Duyne, would you repeat your Motion, please?"

Van Duyne: "Thank you, Madam Speaker. I just wanted to waive posting rules so I could have Senate Bill 151 heard in Elementary and Secondary Education."

Speaker Breslin: "The Gentleman has moved for the waiving of the posting rules so that Senate Bill 151 can be heard this week in Elementary and Secondary Education Committee. Bullock: "Thank you, Madam Speaker and Ladies and Gentlemen of the House. I rise to make an announcement."

Speaker Breslin: "State your announcement."

Bullock: "State Government Administration and Regulatory Review Committee schedule for meeting tomorrow, Wednesday, at 2:00 instead will meet tomorrow, Wednesday, at 12:00 in Room 114."

Bullock: "Well, I'm just reading the announcement staff gave me. It said that the State Government Committee will meet at 12:00 instead of 2:00."

Speaker Breslin: "Representative Bullock has moved to waive the posting rules for Senate Bill 169 so that it can be heard tomorrow. Hearing no objection, the rule is waived. Representative Brunsvold."

Brunsvold: "Thank you, Madam Speaker. I would rise to move to waive the posting rules on Senate Bill 625 so it may be heard Wednesday at 9:00 a.m. in Exec Committee. I've cleared this with both sides of the aisle."

Speaker Breslin: "Representative Bullock (sic - Brunsvold) has moved that we waive the posting rules on Senate Bill 625 so that it can be heard tomorrow in the House Executive Committee. Speaker Breslin: "Personnel and Pensions will meet tomorrow at 8:30 a.m. in Room 122-B. Representative Hannig, for what reason do you rise?"

Hannig: "Yes, thank you, Madam Speaker. I'd ask leave of the House to suspend the posting requirement on Senate Bill 913. I have checked out with both sides of the aisle, and this was just inadvertently not put in the requirement. And I would ask leave of the House..."

Speaker Breslin: "Excuse me. I thought..."

Vinson: "And I want to call that to your attention."

Speaker Breslin: "Okay. We have eight lights on so I can't tell who is seeking recognition to speak on something or who wants to make another announcement. I had assumed yours was for another announcement."

Vinson: "No."

Speaker Breslin: "Do you have a question on this particular one?"

Vinson: "I am now advised that it's alright."

Terzich: "Thank you very, very much. It's very nice of you."

Speaker Breslin: "You're welcome. Representative Vinson, for what reason do you rise?"

Vinson: "Madam Speaker, I am just in receipt of a memorandum from the Speaker dated June 11, 1985 dealing with the House schedule, which would suggest that there might be alternative dates for discharge Motions to be heard by the House. I am just inquiring whether it's going to be Representative Dunn's practice to badger witnesses and Sponsors in Committee who might protect themselves by filing discharge Motions because of that questionable schedule."

Speaker Breslin: "Representative Dunn is not on the floor at this time. However, we will consult with him."

Vinson: "Yes, would you mind exercising the persuasion of the Chair to suggest that given the fact that the Chair hasn't decided on a schedule, that it may be necessary for Members who want to protect themselves?"

Speaker Breslin: "I will exercise my persuasive powers. Ladies and Gentlemen, we would ask your indulgence in helping us check the board to see if it is operating properly. Would everyone please vote 'present' at this time? Every switch should be voted 'present'. This is not. It's just like the quorum call. If everyone's switch would be voted 'present'. Speaker Breslin: "Representative Dunn is now on the floor and is voting his own switch, Sir."

Vinson: "I see. Okay. Thank you."

Speaker Breslin: "Representative Dunn, we are, at the present time, just taking a Roll Call in order to test the board. They are now checking the board, the switch that has the problem. And while they are doing that, the Chair recognizes Representative Dunn on a point of personal privilege."

Dunn: "Madam Speaker, let the record show that I was here and voted my own switch when the previous Roll Call was taken. I am here now. I was in the back of the chamber doing what all of us do, stepping outside to talk to lobby groups. There are four lobby groups that have called me out since the first Roll Call, and I resent any implication the Gentleman makes about not being here. I am on this floor a hell of a lot more than he is."

Speaker Breslin: "Representative Vinson."

Vinson: "Madam Speaker, I believe the Gentleman has jumped to an untoward conclusion. I would never question his integrity. I simply was responding to that because I knew that just before you had said that he was not on the House floor when we were discussing discharge Motions in Judiciary. And I was only calling that to your attention so that nobody would inadvertently commit a felony."

permit trucks to pay their new registration fee on a quarterly basis. This applies to interstate trucks to have their registration fee reduced on a quarterly basis. At the present time, as I explained before, a trucking company might put a new truck on line in October or November. They have to pay the whole calendar year license fee right now and then they have to turn around in January and pay the whole fee all over again. We have found, number one, that truck dealers have a difficult time selling trucks at the end of the year and, number two, that trucking companies will keep their trucks off the highway until the new calendar year. So, we think that this is the only, as I understand it, the only license schedule right now that is handled in this manner, and we think it is unfair. And I would ask for an 'aye' vote."

Speaker Greiman: "The Lady from LaSalle, Ms. Breslin, has moved for the passage of House Bill 605. And on that, is there any discussion? There being none, the question is, 'Shall this Bill pass?' All in favor signify by voting 'aye', those opposed vote 'no'. Voting is now open. This is final action. Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Mr. Clerk, take the record. On this question there are 111 voting 'aye', none voting 'no' and none voting 'present'. This Bill, having received the Constitutional Majority, is hereby declared passed. On the Order of Senate Bills Third Reading appears Senate Bill 667. Out of the record. On the Order of Senate Bills Third Reading appears Senate Bill 1183. Out of the record. On the Order of Senate Bills Third Reading appears Senate Bill 1239. Mr. Clerk, read the Bill."

Clerk O'Brien: "Senate Bill 1239, a Bill for an Act to amend Sections of the School Code. Third Reading of the Bill."

Speaker Greiman: "The Lady from Cook, Ms. Didrickson."

Didrickson: "Yes, thank you, Mr. Speaker. Senate Bill 1239 amends the School Code. It provides for the determination of a student's school district of residency and the party responsible for the costs of special education services therein. I ask for its adoption."

Speaker Greiman: "The Lady from Cook, Ms. Didrickson, moves for the passage of House Bill... of Senate Bill 1239. And on that, is there any discussion? There being none, the question is, 'Shall this Bill pass?' All in favor signify by voting 'aye', those opposed vote 'no'. This is final action. Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Mr. Clerk, take the record. On this question there are 112 voting 'aye', 4 voting 'no', 1 voting 'present'. And this Bill, having received the Constitutional Majority, is hereby declared passed. On page two of the Calendar, Senate Bills Third Reading, Short Debate Calendar, appears Senate Bill 82. Mr. Ryder? Mr. Clerk, read the Bill."

Clerk O'Brien: "Senate Bill 82, a Bill for an Act concerning certain real estate property in the City of Jacksonville. Third Reading of the Bill."

Speaker Greiman: "The Gentleman from Jersey, Mr. Ryder."

Ryder: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This Bill is exactly the same Bill that was previously passed out. It does provide some real estate transfer from the Developmental Center for use ... maintained by the City of Jacksonville for use by the residents."

Speaker Greiman: "The Gentleman from Jersey moves for the passage of Senate Bill 82. Does anyone stand in opposition? There being no one, the question is, 'Shall this Bill pass?' All in favor signify by voting 'aye', those opposed vote 'no'. Voting is open. This is final action. Have all voted who wish? Yes, I'm sorry. Mr. Giorgi, for what purpose do you seek recognition?"

Giorgi: "Mr. Speaker, before you announce the Roll Call, I'd like to introduce the House to the... to one of the former Legislators, the terrible Tommy Hanahan, the Representative from McHenry County who is the last of the blue ribbon candidates from 1965. Tom Hanahan."

Speaker Greiman: "Mr. Clerk, take the record. On this question there are 116 voting 'aye', none voting 'no', 1 voting 'present'. This Bill, having received the Constitutional Majority, is hereby declared passed. On the Order of... Mr. Vinson, for what purpose do you seek recognition?"

Vinson: "Mr. Speaker, I just wonder if former Representative Hanahan would like to address the chamber on the subject of comparative worth before we get away?"

Speaker Greiman: "On the Order of Senate Bills Third Reading, Short Debate, appears Senate Bill 165. Mr. Clerk, read the Bill."

Clerk O'Brien: "Senate Bill 165, a Bill for an Act to amend Sections of an Act concerning land titles. Third Reading of the Bill."

Speaker Greiman: "Gentleman from Cook, Mr. Capparelli. Mr. Levin is going to take that. Mr. Levin."

Levin: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House. Senate Bill 165 was requested by our former colleague, Bus Yourell, the Recorder of Deeds of Cook County, and it permits the register of titles to cancel preparation of Torrens title certificates when there is a change in title that takes place prior to the time that that certificate is produced. As amended in the House, we also added a provision that if there is a cancellation, the applicant may get back the fee that they've paid. If there are any questions, I'll be able... happy to answer them. This basically deals with the Torren system which is only in effect in Cook County and corrects a problems which exists because of the backlog that took place several years back."

Speaker Greiman: "The Gentleman from Cook, Mr. Levin, moves for the passage of Senate Bill 165. Does anyone stand in opposition? The Gentleman from DuPage, Mr. McCracken."

McCracken: "No opposition. Will the Gentleman yield?"

Speaker Greiman: "Indicates he'll yield for questions."

McCracken: "Representative, I remember this from debate in Committee. This makes no substantive change to the Torrens Law?"

Levin: "No."

McCracken: "It's merely administrative so that in the event of an intervening Act which renders the old certificate null, that certain administrative procedures do not have to be employed. Is that correct?"

Levin: "That is correct."

McCracken: "And the House Amendment does not change that effect."

Levin: "That's correct. We put on an immediate effective date, and we also put in the provision that was in the House Bill that provides that if this procedure is followed, a person can apply and get back the fee that they've paid for the certificate."

McCracken: "Okay. Very good. Thank you. I support the Bill."

Speaker Greiman: "Question is, 'Shall this Bill pass?' All those in favor signify by voting 'aye', those opposed vote 'no'. Voting is now open, and this is final action. Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Mr. Clerk, take the record. On this question there are 116 voting 'aye', none voting 'no', none voting 'present'.
