86th GENERAL ASSEMBLY
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
TRANSCRIPTION DEBATE

Speaker McPike: "House will come to order. House will come to order. The Chaplain for today is the Reverend Knight Wells, from the Trinity Luthern Church in Galesburg Illinois. Reverend Wells is a guest of Representative Hultgren. The guests in the balcony may wish to rise and join us for the invocation."

Reverend Knight Wells: "Let us pray. Almighty God, Creator and Substainer of life, we pray today for this Illinois House of Representatives. For the serious issues that face not only our state but also our nation. For the importance of wisdom and understanding on the part of each duly elected leader gathered here today. We pray that these Representatives who have given the responsibility for the decision making on behalf of our State of Illinois will be given the strength, the foresight and the courage to do what is right. We know that our state faces difficult decisions in the months ahead, serious decisions and questions of justice. Decisions that will dramatically affect the future of our state, our nation and our children. We pray that these Representatives may be delivered from all self-serving considerations. That they may be lifted above the claims of politics, that they may be focused on making decisions which are based on truth, justice and the well-being of the people of this state. Strengthen and empower each person. Bring them to a sense of humility about their vocation and calling. Enable their leadership and influence on others to spread a renewed sense of integrity to their office. May they continue to look to You for spiritual guidance. To place You first in their lives as well as in their prayers. Hear us today at the beginning of this legislative endeavor, grant Your divine wisdom as you lead us in thought, in word, and in

I would be amiss if I did not first thank my family for their love and their support who has given me this opportunity. And I...if you would please, allow me a personal introductions. My son, Blake, who's squeezing my neck tightly. Grant, and my lovely wife Tina, who I initially saw in the first grade at Blue Mound Grade School. In the back I have my father, Neil, in the red tie. My mother Erma, my beautiful sister Dianne, who is a horticulture professor at the University of Illinois. My brother David, who is an investment banker from New York, who'll be helping with the duties on the farm until I get through the transition. My younger brother Dennis, who farms with our family. And then there are a host of people from Blue Mound in the area in the back and all in the Gallery. So I thank them for coming. In advance, allow me to thank each of you for the opportunity to work with you, and it'll be a pleasure meeting each of you. And lastly on behalf of the citizens of the One hundred and Second District, I want to thank Mike Tate for ten years of unselfish dedication to the district for his tremendous work ethic and his leadership ability. And thank you Mike and thank you for this great honor."

Speaker McPike: "I don't know if he can play softball, but we've got another farmer on the House Floor. Representative Daniels."

Daniels: "Well, Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, let me join in the many of all of you here in welcoming Representative Dwayne Noland to the House. Let me take a second and tell you a little bit about Dwayne Noland. Born in 1956, you've met his wife Tina, and his two sons, Grant and Blake. He's a graduate of one of the most outstanding universities in the United States, that's the University of Illinois, where he has a B.S. in agriculture economics and education. Graduated with high honors. He truly is a man that knows his district because he was born and raised in that area. And since 1982, he served in Nolans Farms Incorporated as Vice-President. It's a 1400 acre grain and livestock family farm corporation, which he serves in that business with his father and his brother. He's had a tremendous list of awards of achievements in excellence from the Award of Excellence by the National Corn Growers Association. And I know Todd Sieben wants to talk to him right away, about that award because he's got some of the Sieben Corn that he wants to share with him. He was the Illinois Young Leader Award, the American Soybeans Association' Outstanding Young Farmer, Conservation Farm Family of the Year, Panelist at Millikin University, and a graduate of Agriculture Leaders of Tommorrow. In leadership positions he served as Director and Treasurer of the Illinois Corn Growers Association, from 1988 to the present, and the Director of the Macon County Farm Bureau, from 1988 to the present. His professional affiliations include the First Christian Church of Blue Mound, the Macon County Farm Bureau, the Masonic Lodge, the Illinois National Corn Growers, Land of Lincoln Soybean Associations, and many others. So will you join me in granting a very special welcome to a man that today commences his career in public service. And as Representative McPike said 'the greatest deliberative body in the United States.' Representative Noland, its a high honor, we're proud to have you join our institution, and wish you nothing but success and good luck, and to your wife and children, and to your family with us today we offer all of you our best wishes. Thank you."

Speaker McPike: "Representative Ropp."

Ropp: "Thank you Mr. Speaker and Members of the House. I too certainly want to congratulate our newest Representative. Certainly coming from a strong agricultural background, but not only that, he comes in representing an outstanding district. And he's just about the right size to make an outstanding Legislator."
