Speaker McPike: "The House will come to order. Members will be in their seats. The Chaplain for today will be Reverend Donald McPeek from the First Congressional Church of Springfield. Reverend McPeek is a guest of Representative Curran. The guests in the balcony may wish to rise and join us in the invocation."

Reverend McPeek: "Psalms have been the favorite prayers of people for many many generations. Psalm 15 is a prayer in rhetorical form to teach as well as to pray. It's one of David's Psalm's so it's a King's Psalm and its lesson and its prayer is to set the parameters of who is acceptable to God to be an eligible part of God's Kingdom and decision making body. There's a very neat little line in this prayer as a parameter, as a, it was put in by the person who transliterated this, Leslie Brand, that you'll catch, it was made famous by our President. So I invite you to join me in prayer using Psalm 15. Who is the one, oh Lord, who remains part of Your kingdom? What are the prerequisites for membership in Your family? It is that one who walks circumspectly and in obedience to Your precepts and principals. He must be open and honest before God and humans. He must speak and act in love toward his neighbor. He cannot condone that which is evil and must not participate in that which promotes injustice. He must listen to his brothers griefs and complaints. He must seek to lighten his burden and to share his sorrow and pain. He must reach out to heal rather than to hurt and to be kind and gentle to all who cross his path. Those who lovingly relate to God and fellow humans will never be separated from the family of God. So it is oh Lord, that we ask that you inspire each person gathered in this chamber to be that person. Amen."

Speaker McPike: "We'll be led in the pledge of allegiance of Representative Ropp."

Ropp - et al: "I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Speaker McPike: "Roll Call for Attendance. Representative Piel."

Piel: "Yes Mr. Speaker, will the record show that Representative Gene Hoffman and Representative Kay Wojcik are excused today."

Speaker McPike: "Thank you, Representative Matijevich."

Matijevich: "Mr Speaker, let the record reflect the excused absence of Shirley Jones due to illness."

Speaker McPike: "Take the record Mr. Clerk. 115 Members answering the Roll, a quorum is present. Representative Wolf in the Chair."

Speaker Wolf: "Mr. Clerk, will you read the Resolution please?"

Clerk O'Brien: "House Resolution 238, offered by Representative Wolf; WHEREAS it has come to the attention of this Body that Cynthia Coakley was judged Miss Junior Illinois on January 14, 1989 in Lincolnshire; and WHEREAS the 18 year old daughter of Joanne and David Coakley, Cynthia is a senior at Granite City High School; and WHEREAS upon winning the Miss Junior Illinois competition, Cynthia Coakley earned the right to compete in the Miss Junior America Pageant in Orlando, Florida which will be held in October; and WHEREAS as a professional model, Cynthia Coakley has logged more than 1,000 hours working on the weekends for two agencies; and WHEREAS at school Cynthia Coakley is a member of Student Council, pom pom squad and drama and choral productions and she is a member of the West 22nd Street Baptist Church. Therefore be it RESOLVED by the House of Representatives of the Eighty-Sixth General Assembly of the State of Illinois, that we congratulate Cynthia Coakley on being chosen as Miss Junior Illinois, that we commend her on her dedication and hard work; and that we extend our best wishes to her for continued success in her future endeavors; and be it further RESOLVED, that a suitable copy of this preamble and Resolution be presented to Cynthia Coakley."

Speaker Wolf: "Members of the Assembly, you've heard the Resolution. All in favor of it's adoption, signify by saying 'aye', 'aye', contrary 'nay', the 'ayes' have it and the Resolution is adopted. Members of the Assembly, I'm very proud today to present to you a young lady, who on January the 14th of this year in competition with some 64 other young ladies across the State of Illinois, competed for and won the title of Miss Junior Illinois. Obviously she has all of the qualities to win a contest of this kind. I would like for you to meet Miss Cynthia Coakley, Miss Junior Illinois for 1989."

Cynthia Coakley: "Thank you, thank you very much. Good afternoon. Thank you for giving me the opportunity to be a guest Speaker today. It's really exciting and I'm so excited to be here, it's a beautiful place. I'd like to extend a special thank you, to Mr. Sam Wolf for taking the time to take care of me while I have been here. He's been such a great person. Well first of all, let's see, I am a Senior at Granite City High School. I'm in student Government. I'm with the thespians, I'm also in the advanced Speech Club. I have just received the lead play, it's call Lil Abner. In January I'll be representing Granite City in Chicago for those who excel. I have been asked to go to Washington D.C. to be in the 1989 National Youth Leadership Conference. I won my competition on January 14th of this year and will be competing in Miami, Florida at September 4 to the 11th for Miss Junior America. I have traveled through 4 states and will be in my 5th state on April 23rd to host the Miss Tennessee and Miss Kentucky Pageant. I'll be singing and entertaining plus introducing all the girls. I am active with the special olympics. I'm a volunteer for Community Service. I am presently in a new organization we're trying to get an after prom party for our students to keep them off the roads and out of the parties who serve alcohol. My future goal is to attend SIU-Edwardsville to earn a Bachelors Degree in Elementary School Education or Multiple Handicap Education. I would like to compete in the Miss Illinois Pageant and I will do this until something good comes out of it. I hope to be busy this year for my state doing anything possible. It is such an honor to be a Representative for Miss Illinois. Thank you very much."

Speaker Wolf: "Cynthia, on behalf of the General Assembly, we want to present you with a copy of the Resolution that we adopted a few minutes ago. And also on the behalf of the Assembly, we want to wish you a lot of luck in the National Competition for the title of Miss Junior America. Best of luck to you."

Cynthia Coakley: "Thank you, thank you very much."

Speaker McPike: "Committee Report."

Clerk O'Brien: "Representative Matijevec, Chairman of the Committee on Rules on April 5, 1989 reported the following Committee Resolution. House Resolution 235, Speaker's Table."

Speaker Giglio: "You heard the gentleman's Motion. All those in favor signify by saying 'aye', those opposed 'nay', and in the opinion of the Chair the 'ayes' have it and the Resolutions are adopted. Gentlemen, Death Resolutions. Representative McCracken, for what purpose do you rise sir?"

McCracken: "I'd like to make a brief announcement. I wonder, could I have the Bodies attention for a brief announcement. It's not for, it's not to introduce anybody. Ladies and Gentlemen I have been reflecting over Easter Vacation, apparently some people think when I get up here and speak that I do so in anger at times. And you know, and I thought to myself, how could anyone come to that conclusion? It's just intensity. I try only to speak when I believe in what I'm saying. But I thought, well maybe there are reasons that a third party could conclude that I am angry when I speak at times, but I assure you it's not the case. But more than that, I thought it's probably time to take some steps to get rid of that stigma. And so, Mr. Speaker, out of deference to the Chair, I pledge today that no matter what the abuse I suffer at your hands, that I will not raise my voice in anger, even if you turn off my microphone, I will not shout at the Chair anymore. No sir, in a very cool, calculated and statesman like manner, I will calmly pull out my bullhorn. Now that the Chicago election is over, and the Democrats are once more unified, on behalf of the Minority Leader, House Republicans and myself, we are reporting ready for business. Thank you."

John Consenza: "Introduction of House Joint Resolution Constitutional Amendment #8, Mulcahey. Whereas the Illinois General Assembly has enacted the States Mandates Act, in which the General Assembly states. The General Assembly finds that proceeding actions of the State Government and specifying the manner standards and conditions under which Public Services are rendered to citizens by the Political Subdivisions of this State on occasion have not resulted in equitable relationships between the State Government and its Local Political Subdivisions. Some of these actions have doubt in detail with the Internal Management of Local Governments others have specified the establishment of new services and facilities without providing any new Revenue Sources or any Financial participation by the state in meeting the additional cost. So, others have specified the adoption of higher service standards without a full assessment of the impact upon local expenditures and tax rates, and whereas the General Assembly has on repeated occasions enacted Legislation which has necessitated the expenditure of funds by Local Governments without a source of replacement funding, therefore which has been specifically exempted from the States Mandates Act. Therefore be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the 86th General Assembly of the State of Illinois, the Senate concurring herein that there shall be submitted to the electors of the state for adoption or rejection, at the General Election next occurring at least six months after the adoption of this Resolution, a proposition to amend Section 8, of Article 14, of the constitution to read as follows. Article 4, section 8 passage of Bills (a) The enacting clause of the laws of this state shall be it enacted by the people of the State of Illinois represented in the General Assembly. (b) The General Assembly shall be enact laws only by Bill. Bills may originate in either House but may be amended or rejected by the other. (c) No Bill should become a Law without the concurrence of a majority of the Members elected to each House. Final passage of a Bill should be by a record vote. In the Senate at the request of two Members and in the House in request of five Members a record vote may be taken on any other occasion. A record vote is a vote by yays and nays on the journal. (d) A Bill should be read by title on three different days in each House. A Bill and each Amendment thereto shall be reproduced and placed on the desk of each Member before final passage. Bills except Bills for appropriations and for the codification, revision or rearrangement of laws shall be confined to one subject except as otherwise provided in Sub-Section E-2 of this Section. Speaker McPike: "The House will come to order. Members will be in their seats. The Chaplain for today will be Reverend Donald McPeek from the First Congressional Church of Springfield. Reverend McPeek is a guest of Representative Curran. The guests in the balcony may wish to rise and join us in the invocation."

Reverend McPeek: "Psalms have been the favorite prayers of people for many many generations. Psalm 15 is a prayer in rhetorical form to teach as well as to pray. It's one of David's Psalm's so it's a King's Psalm and its lesson and its prayer is to set the parameters of who is acceptable to God to be an eligible part of God's Kingdom and decision making body. There's a very neat little line in this prayer as a parameter, as a, it was put in by the person who transliterated this, Leslie Brand, that you'll catch, it was made famous by our President. So I invite you to join me in prayer using Psalm 15. Who is the one, oh Lord, who remains part of Your kingdom? What are the prerequisites for membership in Your family? It is that one who walks circumspectly and in obedience to Your precepts and principals. He must be open and honest before God and humans. He must speak and act in love toward his neighbor. He cannot condone that which is evil and must not participate in that which promotes injustice. He must listen to his brothers griefs and complaints. He must seek to lighten his burden and to share his sorrow and pain. He must reach out to heal rather than to hurt and to be kind and gentle to all who cross his path. Those who lovingly relate to God and fellow humans will never be separated from the family of God. So it is oh Lord, that we ask that you inspire each person gathered in this chamber to be that person. Amen."

Assembly of the State of Illinois, that we congratulate Cynthia Coakley on being chosen as Miss Junior Illinois, that we commend her on her dedication and hard work; and that we extend our best wishes to her for continued success in her future endeavors; and be it further RESOLVED, that a suitable copy of this preamble and Resolution be presented to Cynthia Coakley."

Speaker Wolf: "Members of the Assembly, you've heard the Resolution. All in favor of it's adoption, signify by saying 'aye', 'aye', contrary 'nay', the 'ayes' have it and the Resolution is adopted. Members of the Assembly, I'm very proud today to present to you a young lady, who on January the 14th of this year in competition with some 64 other young ladies across the State of Illinois, competed for and won the title of Miss Junior Illinois. Obviously she has all of the qualities to win a contest of this kind. I would like for you to meet Miss Cynthia Coakley, Miss Junior Illinois for 1989."

Cynthia Coakley: "Thank you, thank you very much. Good afternoon. Thank you for giving me the opportunity to be a guest Speaker today. It's really exciting and I'm so excited to be here, it's a beautiful place. I'd like to extend a special thank you, to Mr. Sam Wolf for taking the time to take care of me while I have been here. He's been such a great person. Well first of all, let's see, I am a Senior at Granite City High School. I'm in student Government. I'm with the thespians, I'm also in the advanced Speech Club. I have just received the lead play, it's call Lil Abner. In January I'll be representing Granite City in Chicago for those who excel. I have been asked to go to Washington D.C. to be in the 1989 National Youth Leadership Conference. I won my competition on January 14th of this year and will be competing in Miami, Florida at September 4 to the 11th for Miss Junior America. I have traveled through 4 states and will be in my 5th state on April 23rd to host the Miss Tennessee and Miss Kentucky Pageant. I'll be singing and entertaining plus introducing all the girls. I am active with the special olympics. I'm a volunteer for Community Service. I am presently in a new organization we're trying to get an after prom party for our students to keep them off the roads and out of the parties who serve alcohol. My future goal is to attend SIU-Edwardsville to earn a Bachelors Degree in Elementary School Education or Multiple Handicap Education. I would like to compete in the Miss Illinois Pageant and I will do this until something good comes out of it. I hope to be busy this year for my state doing anything possible. It is such an honor to be a Representative for Miss Illinois. Thank you very much."

Speaker Wolf: "Cynthia, on behalf of the General Assembly, we want to present you with a copy of the Resolution that we adopted a few minutes ago. And also on the behalf of the Assembly, we want to wish you a lot of luck in the National Competition for the title of Miss Junior America. Best of luck to you."

McCracken: "I'd like to make a brief announcement. I wonder, could I have the Bodies attention for a brief announcement. It's not for, it's not to introduce anybody. Ladies and Gentlemen I have been reflecting over Easter Vacation, apparently some people think when I get up here and speak that I do so in anger at times. And you know, and I thought to myself, how could anyone come to that conclusion? It's just intensity. I try only to speak when I believe in what I'm saying. But I thought, well maybe there are reasons that a third party could conclude that I am angry when I speak at times, but I assure you it's not the case. But more than that, I thought it's probably time to take some steps to get rid of that stigma. And so, Mr. Speaker, out of deference to the Chair, I pledge today that no matter what the abuse I suffer at your hands, that I will not raise my voice in anger, even if you turn off my microphone, I will not shout at the Chair anymore. No sir, in a very cool, calculated and statesman like manner, I will calmly pull out my bullhorn. Now that the Chicago election is over, and the Democrats are once more unified, on behalf of the Minority Leader, House Republicans and myself, we are reporting ready for business. Thank you."

John Consenza: "Introduction of House Joint Resolution Constitutional Amendment #8, Mulcahey. Whereas the Illinois General Assembly has enacted the States Mandates Act, in which the General Assembly states. The General Assembly finds that proceeding actions of the State Government and specifying the manner standards and conditions under which Public Services are rendered to citizens by the Political Subdivisions of this State on occasion have not resulted in equitable relationships between the State Government and its Local Political Subdivisions. Some of these actions have doubt in detail with the Internal Management of Local Governments others have specified the establishment of new services and facilities without providing any new Revenue Sources or any Financial participation by the state in meeting the additional cost. So, others have specified the adoption of higher service standards without a full assessment of the impact upon local expenditures and tax rates, and whereas the General Assembly has on repeated occasions enacted Legislation which has necessitated the expenditure of funds by Local Governments without a source of replacement funding, therefore which has been specifically exempted from the States Mandates Act. Therefore be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the 86th General Assembly of the State of Illinois, the Senate concurring herein that there shall be submitted to the electors of the state for adoption or rejection, at the General Election next occurring at least six months after the adoption of this Resolution, a proposition to amend Section 8, of Article 14, of the constitution to read as follows. Article 4, section 8 passage of Bills (a) The enacting clause of the laws of this state shall be it enacted by the people of the State of Illinois represented in the General Assembly. (b) The General Assembly shall be enact laws only by Bill. Bills may originate in either House but may be amended or rejected by the other. (c) No Bill should become a Law without the concurrence of a majority of the Members elected to each House. Final passage of a Bill should be by a record vote. In the Senate at the request of two Members and in the House in request of five Members a record vote may be taken on any other occasion. A record vote is a vote by yays and nays on the journal. (d) A Bill should be read by title on three different days in each House. A Bill and each Amendment thereto shall be reproduced and placed on the desk of each Member before final passage. Bills except Bills for appropriations and for the codification, revision or rearrangement of laws shall be confined to one subject except as otherwise provided in Sub-Section E-2 of this Section. Bills shall be limited to the subject of appropriations. A Bill expressly amending a law shall set forth completely the Sections Amendment. (e) A Bill which would require the expenditure by a unit of local government or School District of funds in order to implement that Bill shall not become law unless either; 1. the Bill passes with the concurrence of at least three-fifths of the Members elected to each House; or 2. the Bill passes with the concurrence of a Majority of the Members elected to each House and the Bill provides for reimbursement by the State to the unit of local government or school district of those funds necessary to implement it. A Bill passed under this Section E-2 shall not be subject to actions by the Governor under Sub-Section D or E of Section 9 of Article 4 of this Constitution but shall be subject to actions under Sub-Sections A, B or C of that Section. For the purpose of this Sub-Section E, unit of local government shall have the meaning ascribed to it in Article VII, Sub-Section I of this Constitution. (f) The Speaker of the House of Representatives and the President of the Senate shall sign each Bill that passes both Houses to certify that the procedural requirements for passage have been met. SCHEDULE; this Amendment takes affect upon it's adoption by the voters of this State. First Reading, House Joint Resolution Constitutional Amendment #8."
