Speaker McPike: "The House will come to order. The Chaplain for today is Reverend Beverly Wilks of Sharon United Methodist Church in Decatur, Illinois. Reverend Wilks is the guest of Representative Noland. The guests in the balcony may wish to rise and join us for the invocation."

Reverend Wilks: "Let us pray. Creator, keep our State, our nation, under Your protection. Wipe out sin from this land. Lift it up from the depth of sorrow. Oh, Lord, our shining light, save us from deep grief and misfortune. God of all nations, bless us with Your wisdom so that the poor may not be oppressed and the rich may not be oppressors. Make this a nation having no ruler, except Yahweh, a nation having no authority but that of love. Open our eyes that we may see the needs of others. Open our ears that we may hear their cries. Open our hearts so that they need not be without substantive justice. Let us not be afraid to defend the weak because of the anger of the strong, nor afraid to defend the poor because of the anger of the rich. Show us where love, and hope, and faith are needed in the war of racial justice and use us to bring peace and justice to those places. Open our eyes and our ears and our hearts that we may this day be able to do some work of peace for Thee. Amen."

Speaker McPike: "We'll be led in the Pledge of Allegiance by Representative Deering."

Deering - et al: "I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Speaker McPike: "Roll Call for Attendance. Representative Kubik."

Davis: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker and Ladies and Gentlemen of the House. Amendment #1 to House Bill 4056 states that only if the test is positive does the results of an AIDS Test have to be given to the parent or guardian. We agreed to this Amendment in committee, based upon the concerns that some had that children or young people would be fearful of taking the AIDS test if they felt their parent would be advised. So the only reason they will be advised is if this child tests positive. Thank you."

Giglio: "Yes, yes we did. They inadvertently put it on another Bill for heavy equipment. The Bill didn't pass the Senate last year. It passed the House, so we put an Amendment on this Bill here, to take care of the same thing we had last year."

Black: "Wasn't this Bill also introduced this year as 3664, the same as Floor Amendment #1?"

Giglio: "It was, but I think it was, but it got caught up in the...I don't know...to wrong somehow...you know Representative Ronan's Committee, you've got to get up a lot earlier in the morning to work with Ronan, and I don't know what he did in that committee, truthfully, but it didn't come out right, Representative Black, so we had to put it on this Bill."

Black: "Oh, I can certainly appreciate that. Thank you very much, Representative. Madam Speaker, to the Amendment, and I would like to get out of here just as quickly as all of you would. This Bill has been before us before and there are some people who regard this as a controversial Amendment or controversial provision, and I think that we probably should have a Roll Call Vote on this because you're requiring commercial trucks to display the name of the company for which they are employed on the side of the vehicle. To the best of my recollection last year, there was considerable opposition, some of it from the City of Chicago, that people didn't want their company name, address, phone number, et cetera on the truck because it might make it more readily available for burglars or heist artists or something, so I would in all due respect to the Sponsor of the Amendment, would request a Roll Call Vote and those of you that remember the Bill from last year should keep your vote last year in mind."

Speaker Satterthwaite: "Representative Hultgren."

Hultgren: "Thank you, Madam Speaker. Will the Sponsor yield?"

Speaker Satterthwaite: "He indicates he will."

Hultgren: "Representative, I recall this Bill from last year both in committee and I believe a discussion that we may have had on the floor, and I expressed some concerns as to whether this might apply to farm trucks and that sort of thing and if I recall it was not your intention to include them within the purview of this measure, but there was some suggestion that, for example, if the farmer also sold some seed corn on a part-time basis, that, in fact, that pickup truck might then become a commercial vehicle and that he would have to qualify or he would have to comply with this Act. Have you taken steps with your Floor Amendment #1, to exclude that 'farm pickup truck' if in fact the farmer has a part-time job selling seed corn or something like that that would bring him within the commercial definition?"

Giglio: "Representative, the part-time...part-time job is not included as a commercial working vehicle. ...Truthfully we did talk about the farm vehicles. It was my understanding that the farm vehicles were not included. I haven't heard anything more from the Farm Bureau Association, and that's all that I can tell you right now."

Hultgren: "Your knowledge, the Farm Bureau has no position on your Floor Amendment?"

Giglio: "No."

Hultgren: "Thank you."

Giglio: "They are for it. With regards to the previous Speaker, Representative Black. Yes, he was correct. There was some concern from the Illinois Retail Merchants Association. That has been corrected. In fact, they drew up this Amendment so with that I would ask your favorable support for the Amendment to House Bill 3063."

Speaker Satterthwaite: "Representative Hartke."

Hartke: "Will the Sponsor yield?"

Speaker Satterthwaite: "He indicates he will."

Hartke: "Representative Giglio are you aiming this at those licensed profession that do repair work and things like that?"

Giglio: "I'm sorry, I didn't hear you."

Hartke: "Are you aiming this Amendment at...or this piece of legislation at those individuals that do licensed repair work and electrical work and plumbing work?"

Giglio: "That...what...what this is, is to try to protect those people who have...are licensed people, people that are in business, people who are legitimate business people. We've had a lot of trouble up in our area with regards to people prying on the senior citizens who have panel trucks with no name, no indication of what they're doing, and we have people on the bordering lines of our State on the Iowa side and Indiana that come across into Illinois do work without no name, no identification. We've had a lot of seniors who were abused and robbed of their things by people who come in, and these people that want this feel that they are legitimate business people. They have no qualms about displaying who they are and what they are and that's what this Bill's trying to do."

Hartke: "Well I admire you. That's an laudable goal, and I think it's...it's a good idea, and I think I could support it, provided that there was an addition to it that said, 'if you were a licensed profession doing that type of work you must display your name on the truck possibly. That will alleviate the question of the farmers who sell seed corn part-time. You do not need a license to do that and would you be happy to do that?'"

Giglio: "Well, if there's anything you feel or the Farm Bureau feels that this doesn't address, I'd be happy to do it. If you want, I'll leave it on Second Reading right now. Take the Bill and the Amendment to the Farm Bureau, whomever, and if we have to correct it I'll come back with another Amendment."

Hartke: "Okay, I'd be happy if you would do that. Thank you."

Speaker Satterthwaite: "Representative Black."

Black: "Thank you very much, Madam Speaker. I don't have any particular problems with the Amendment, but perhaps an inquiry of the Chair would be in order. This Amendment appears to be so narrowly drawn that it might run into special interest legislation problems, and I would hesitate to do anything to damage the Gentleman's Bill because the Amendment may be drawn so narrowly. It only affects how many counties, Representative? One?"

Flinn: "Madam Chairman...Madam Chairman, maybe I could answer Representative Black's question. This is merely a shell Bill that they've had me put in. The Governor's Office supports it. It has to do with the Scott Joint Use Airport in the event they need a Bill. It is simply one to one that dealt with the aeronautics, and that's all it's for. Most likely we're not going to use the Bill, but in the event we do, we will make those corrections that the Amendment does to it if it's a special interest Bill. I'm sure it is not. We've used this kind of language on other Bills."

Black: "Yes, I understand now, and I appreciate that. We just had some confusion over here as to what counties were involved. Thank you."

Speaker Satterthwaite: "Seeing no objection, the Motion is, 'Shall Amendment #1 be adopted?' All in favor say 'aye', opposed, 'nay'. noise level in here has been pretty high."

Speaker Satterthwaite: "Representative Giorgi, are you willing to explain the Amendment again?"

Giorgi: "Madam Chairman...Speaker, there are five points to this Amendment. One is, the court may appoint a special advocate upon the filing of a petition under this Article at any time during the pendency of a proceedings under this Article. Number two, the court-appointed special advocate shall act as a monitor and conduct an independent assessment of the facts, evaluate the needs of the minor and exercise independent judgment in making reports and recommendations pertaining to the welfare of the minors ordered by the court. Number three the Court appointed special advocate shall be notified of all administrative case reviews pertaining to the minor, work with the parties' attorneys, the guardian ad litem and others assigned to the minor's case to protect the minor's best interests and insure the proper delivery of child welfare services. Number four, the court-appointed special advocate shall serve as volunteers without compensation and shall receive training consistent with nationally developed standards. Number five, no person convicted of a criminal offense as specified in Section 4.2 of the Child Care Act of '69, and no person identified as a perpetrator of an act of child abuse or neglect as reflected in the Department of Children and Family Services, shall serve as a court-appointed special advocate."

Giorgi: "If the court appoints it."

Hultgren: "In paragraph four, you indicate that the court-appointed special advocate would serve as volunteers and would receive training. Who is going to do the training?"

Giorgi: "The courts are going to provide a system of training under the Supreme Court."

Hultgren: "I'm sorry, you said a couple of times...where this Amendment came from, but I think because of the noise in the chamber, I couldn't hear. Whose Amendment is this?"
