

STATE OF ILLINOIS
88th GENERAL ASSEMBLY
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
TRANSCRIPTION DEBATE

55th Legislative Day

May 6, 1993

Speaker Giglio: "The House will come to order. The Chaplain for today is the Reverend Albert Weidlich of the First Lutheran Church in Decatur, Illinois. Reverend Weidlich is the guest of Representative John Dunn. All the guests in the gallery may wish to rise for the invocation."

Reverend Weidlich: "Gracious Heavenly Father, You are our Creator and our God. You have taught us to come to You at all times and with all circumstances. This day, we come before You seeking Your blessing upon our state Legislature and General, and upon our House of Representatives in particular. Lord, You know how difficult is this work. They have only so much money to work with and so many demands for services. They wish to listen to their consciences, and also to hear the voice of the people they serve. We seek Your wisdom and insight for each Member of the House, for all our Senators, for our Governor, and for all who are makers of the law and preservers of the same. Give each person courage and strength to support the right and just and to deter the unjust and wrong. Give us who are the constituents understanding of the magnitude of the work being done here, as well as the will to support our elected Representatives. Please bless the families and loved ones of our Legislators as they are separated from each other during the Sessions of the House. Watch over them. Keep them in safety and good health. We also pray for the welfare of our state and our nation. Continue to bless us with conscience and a desire for the health of all, young and old, regardless of race, religion, and other circumstances. We commit this day into Your holy hands, trusting in Your mercy, and grace. All this we pray in the name of our gracious Lord, and in our hearts we join together in saying, Amen."
