

STATE OF ILLINOIS
88th GENERAL ASSEMBLY
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
TRANSCRIPTION DEBATE

FIRST SPECIAL SESSION

14th Legislative Day

October 4, 1993

Speaker Brunsvold: "Representative Brunsvold in the Chair. The hour of 12:00 noon having arrived, the House First Special Session will come to order. We will be led in prayer by the Clerk."

Clerk McLennand: "Dear Lord, bless the House of Representatives and all the people who work and serve here on behalf of the people of this great State of Illinois. Amen."

Speaker Brunsvold: "Will be led in the Pledge of Allegiance by Representative Curran. Representative Curran."

Curran - et al: "I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Speaker Brunsvold: "Mr. Clerk, is there a quorum present?"

Clerk McLennand: "A quorum is not present."

Speaker Brunsvold: "The House shall wait for a quorum, and I believe we have waited almost fifteen minutes now. It is apparent that a quorum is not present. Representative Curran, for what reason do you seek recognition?"

Curran: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. There is important business for this First Special Session to consider that should not be delayed, and therefore, I move to adjourn the House until Wednesday, October 6, 1993, at the hour of 12:00 noon."

Speaker Brunsvold: "All those in favor of the Motion say 'aye'. Those opposed say 'no'. The 'ayes' have it, and the House stands adjourned for the First Special Session until Wednesday, October the 6th, 1993, at the hour of noon. The House stands adjourned."
