

STATE OF ILLINOIS
89TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
TRANSCRIPTION DEBATE

6th Legislative Day

January 24, 1995

Speaker Black: "The House will be in order. Members will be in their chairs. The Chaplain for the day is Father Ray Skriba of St. Joseph's Catholic Church of Round Lake, Illinois. Father Skriba is the guest of Representative Al Salvi. Our guests in the gallery may wish to rise for the invocation."

Father Ray Skriba: "God of Our Fathers we pause briefly before our deliberations here, turning to You as we recognize our human frailty, fear of our inadequacy and beg You for support. While we know too little of You to presume intimacy with either Your personality or Your providence, we know You well enough to risk coming before You for guidance. We hope our work is indeed Your work and that is why we pray. We gather here in the hope though not the certainty of the fact that we elected to carry out Your benevolent plans for the people of Illinois. Therefore if our hope be true then let all men of all men we bear great responsibility for the welfare of Your people, and if we have been called to do your work then we reasonably expect Your inspiration. The more than your inspiration we need Your power to do what needs to be done. We ask then not only Your light but also Your strength. Let love of neighbor become the very character of our labors. We are otherwise a state bound to destroy itself as other civilizations have destroyed themselves that way before us. The key to our future is a justice motivated by love. Most just God melt the hardness of our hearts that we may care for each other as brothers and sisters making this nation a society that heals its sick, educates its young, honors its aged, develops its resources, perfects its talents, multiplies its masterpieces and defends its innocence. In this hear us Lord, our God."

Speaker Black: "We will be led in the Pledge of Allegiance today by Representative Weaver."

Weaver - et al: "I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Speaker Black: "Representative Black in the Chair. Roll Call for Attendance. Representative Currie? Representative Currie you are recognized to report any excused absences on the Democrat side of the aisle."

Currie: "Thank you, Speaker. I'm aware of none."

Speaker Black: "Thank you very much. Yes, Representative Johnson for what purpose do you seek recognition?"

Johnson, Tim: "Just ask that...for these purposes and others that we get some quiet on the floor so we know who is excused and who isn't and we can go on with the business of the House."

Speaker Black: "Your point is well taken. The House will come to order. I suggest that you look at the message from the Clerk about access to the floor. All staff and those not authorized to the floor please retire to the rear of the chamber or in fact leave the chamber immediately. Representative Kubik for any excused absences on the Republican side?"

Kubik: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Let the record reflect that there are no Republican excused absences today."

Speaker Black: "Thank you very much, Representative. Mr. Clerk take the record. There are 117 Members answering the roll and a quorum is present. The Chair would like to call your attention to the memorandum that exists on the Members desk from the Chief Clerk of the House regarding General Assembly guidelines for access to the floor. The Chair would be appreciative if you would review that. We intend to enforce access to the floor starting today. Mr. Clerk, are there any announcements?"

Clerk McLennand: "Announcements regarding the changes in room assignments for committees."

Speaker Black: "The House will come to order. If I could have the attention of all the Members. It would behove all of us if we start this Session off on the right foot. I don't think it's necessary to have to turn up the volume to the point where it hurts your eardrums. When you have an announcement, that way if you'll listen we won't have to repeat it four times. If you would give your attention to the Clerk."
