Constitution as follows:

ARTICLE IX

REVENUE

SECTION 4.5. REVENUE LIMITATIONS

(a) Taxes upon real property and any other taxes or user fees imposed by a unit of local government or school district shall be levied at an amount no higher than that levy in effect on the effective date of this Section or at the levy in effect in 1990, whichever is less.

(b) There shall be no reassessment that would increase the assessed value of existing structures or land after the effective date of this Section.

(c) There shall be no equalization of assessments between or within townships, between or within counties, or between or within classes of property by application of a percentage increase to assessments after the effective date of this Section.

(d) Voters of a unit of local government or school district may initiate, by a petition signed by at least 1% of the registered voters in that unit of local government or school district, or 10,000 voters, whichever is less, referenda to lower the levy, taxes, or fees imposed by that unit of local government or school district. There shall be no limit on the number of local tax cut referenda at any election.

(e) An ordinance of a unit of local government or school district that would result in the increase of revenue to that unit of local government or school district may become law only with approval at referendum of at least three-fifths of the voters of that unit of local government or school district voting on the question.

(f) A bill that would result in the increase of revenue to the State may become law only with approval at a statewide

February 9, 1996

ARTICLE VI
THE JUDICIARY

(ILCON Art. VI, Sec. 2)

SECTION 2. SUPREME COURT AND APPELLATE COURT JUDICIAL DISTRICTS

(a) The State shall be divided by law into seven Supreme Court Districts for the selection of Supreme Court Judges. The First Supreme Court District consists of the City of Chicago. The Second Supreme Court District consists of Cook County exclusive of the City of Chicago. The remainder of the State shall be divided by law into five Supreme Court Districts of substantially equal population, each of which shall be compact and contiguous.

(b) The State is divided into five Appellate Court Judicial Districts for the selection of Supreme and Appellate Court Judges. The First Appellate Court Judicial District consists of Cook County. The remainder of the State shall be divided by law into four Appellate Court Judicial Districts of substantially equal population, each of which shall be compact and composed of contiguous counties.

SECTION 3. SUPREME COURT - ORGANIZATION

The Supreme Court shall consist of seven Judges. The terms of office of Supreme Court Judges holding office on the date of the general election in 1998 shall terminate on the first Monday in December, 1998. Beginning with the general election in 1998, one Supreme Court Judge shall be selected from each Supreme Court District. ~~Three shall be selected from the First Judicial District and one from each of the other Judicial Districts.~~ Four Judges constitute a quorum and the concurrence of four is necessary for a decision. Supreme Court Judges shall select a Chief Justice from their number to serve for a term of three years.

SECTION 5. APPELLATE COURT - ORGANIZATION

The number of Appellate Judges to be selected from each Appellate Court Judicial District shall be provided by law. The Supreme Court shall prescribe by rule the number of Appellate divisions in each Appellate Court Judicial District. Each Appellate division shall have at least three Judges. Assignments to divisions shall be made by the Supreme Court. A majority of a division constitutes a quorum and the concurrence of a majority of the division is necessary for a decision. There shall be at least one division in each Appellate Court Judicial District and each division shall sit at times and places prescribed by rules of the Supreme Court.

SECTION 6. APPELLATE COURT - JURISDICTION

Appeals from final judgments of a Circuit Court are a matter of right to the Appellate Court in the Appellate Court Judicial District in which the Circuit Court is located except in cases appealable directly to the Supreme Court and except that after a trial on the merits in a criminal case, there shall be no appeal from a judgment of acquittal. The Supreme Court may provide by rule for appeals to the Appellate Court from other than final judgments of Circuit Courts. The Appellate Court may exercise original jurisdiction when necessary to the complete determination of any case on review. The Appellate Court shall have such powers of direct review of administrative action as provided by law.

SECTION 7. JUDICIAL CIRCUITS

(a) The State shall be divided into Judicial Circuits consisting of one or more counties. The First Appellate Court Judicial District shall constitute a Judicial Circuit. The Judicial Circuits within the other Appellate Court Judicial Districts shall be as provided by law. Circuits composed of more than one county shall be compact and of contiguous counties. The General Assembly by law may provide for the division of a circuit for the purpose of selection of Circuit Judges and for the selection of Circuit Judges from the circuit at large.

(b) Each Judicial Circuit shall have one Circuit Court with such number of Circuit Judges as provided by law. Unless otherwise provided by law, there shall be at least one Circuit Judge from each county. In the First Appellate Court ~~Judicial~~ District, unless otherwise provided by law, Cook County, Chicago, and the area outside Chicago shall be separate units for the selection of Circuit Judges, with at least twelve chosen at large from the area outside Chicago and at least thirty-six chosen at large from Chicago.

(c) Circuit Judges in each circuit shall select by secret ballot a Chief Judge from their number to serve at their pleasure. Subject to the authority of the Supreme Court, the Chief Judge shall have general administrative authority over his court, including authority to provide for divisions, general or specialized, and for appropriate times and places of holding court.

SECTION 8. ASSOCIATE JUDGES

Each Circuit Court shall have such number of Associate Judges as provided by law. Associate Judges shall be appointed by the Circuit Judges in each circuit as the Supreme Court shall provide by rule. In the First Appellate Court ~~Judicial~~ District, unless otherwise provided by law, at least one-fourth of the Associate Judges shall be appointed from, and reside, outside Chicago. The Supreme Court shall provide by rule for matters to be assigned to Associate Judges.

SECTION 12. ELECTION AND RETENTION

(a) Supreme, Appellate and Circuit Judges shall be nominated at primary elections or by petition. Judges shall be elected at general or judicial elections as the General Assembly shall provide by law. A person eligible for the office of Judge may cause his name to appear on the ballot as a candidate for Judge at the primary and at the general or judicial elections by submitting petitions. The General Assembly shall prescribe by law the requirements for petitions.

(b) The office of a Judge shall be vacant upon his death, resignation, retirement, removal, or upon the conclusion of his term without retention in office. Whenever an additional Appellate or Circuit Judge is authorized by law, the office shall be filled in the manner provided for filling a vacancy in that office.

(c) A vacancy occurring in the office of Supreme, Appellate or Circuit Judge shall be filled as the General Assembly may provide by law. In the absence of a law, vacancies may be filled by appointment by the Supreme Court. A person appointed to fill a vacancy 60 or more days prior to the next primary election to nominate Judges shall serve until the vacancy is filled for a term at the next general or judicial election. A person appointed to fill a vacancy less than 60 days prior to the next primary election to nominate Judges shall serve until the vacancy is filled at the second general or judicial election following such appointment.

(d) Not less than six months before the general election preceding the expiration of his term of office, a Supreme, Appellate or Circuit Judge who has been elected to that office may file in the office of the Secretary of State a declaration of candidacy to succeed himself. The Secretary of State, not less than 63 days before the election, shall certify the Judge's candidacy to the proper election officials. The names of Judges seeking retention shall be submitted to the electors, separately and without party designation, on the sole question whether each Judge shall be retained in office for another term. The retention elections shall be conducted at general elections in the appropriate Supreme Court District for Supreme Court Judges, in the appropriate Appellate Court Judicial District, for Supreme and Appellate Judges, and in the circuit for Circuit Judges. The affirmative vote of three-fifths of the electors voting on the question shall elect the Judge to the office for a term commencing on the first Monday in December following his election.

(e) A law reducing the number of Appellate or Circuit Judges shall be without prejudice to the right of the Judges affected to seek retention in office. A reduction shall become effective when a vacancy occurs in the affected unit.

SECTION 18. CLERKS OF COURTS

(a) The Supreme Court and the Appellate Court Judges of each Appellate Court Judicial District, respectively, shall appoint a clerk and other non-judicial officers for their Court or District.

(b) The General Assembly shall provide by law for the election, or for the appointment by Circuit Judges, of clerks and other non-judicial officers of the Circuit Courts and for their terms of office and removal for cause.

(c) The salaries of clerks and other non-judicial officers shall be as provided by law. SCHEDULE
