HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
TRANSCRIPTION DEBATE

100th Legislative Day

March 23, 1998

Speaker Brunsvold: "The House shall come to order. All Members will be in their chairs. We are led today in prayer by Lee Crawford who is the Assistant Pastor of the Victory Temple Church of Springfield. Mr. Crawford."

Reverend Crawford: "May we lift our hearts as well as our minds. Almighty God, our heavenly creator, who has dominion over life and death, grant to us the grace to remember with love and reverence, that it takes the strength of God to sustain us, takes the power of God to preserve us, it takes the hand of God to protect us and the way of God to direct us. So, precious God, we ask that may Your love and Your peace be with us this day and always. We kindly say, Amen."

Speaker Brunsvold: "Thank you, Pastor Crawford. We'll be led in the Pledge today by Representative Dan Burke."

Burke-et al: "I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, and to the republic for which it stands, one nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Speaker Brunsvold: "Roll Call for Attendance. Mr. Clerk, take the record. There are 117 answering the Roll Call. We have a quorum. Mr. Cross, the Republican absentees."

Cross: "Looking around the room today, Mr. Speaker, I... I'm not sure if Representative Cross himself is here. No, he... he is so, we have no one excused. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Speaker Brunsvold: "Mr. McCarthy is here. I don't think he was recorded. Mr. Clerk, please record Mr. McCarthy... Representative McCarthy. Representative Hannig, the Democrats."

Hannig: "Yes, thank you, Mr. Speaker. There are no excused absences on our side of the aisle. Mr. McCarthy is here and I... did you indicate that he is to be added to the Roll Call?"

Speaker Brunsvold: "He has been added to the Roll Call."

Hannig: "Thank you."

Speaker Brunsvold: "Ladies and Gentlemen, it is the intent of the Chair to start on page 2, House Bills-Second Reading, and proceed through the calendar. Some Bills, of course, will have notes... requests on them. They will not be... they will not be called at this time and we will move through the Second Readings. Good afternoon, Mr. Black. Good afternoon. Okay, thank you very much, Mr. Black. Mr. Durkin, for which purpose do you rise?"

Durkin: "A Point of Personal Privilege."

Speaker Brunsvold: "State your point."

Durkin: "Yes, Mr. Speaker. I'm not sure if many people realize, but today is a very famous day in the House Republican Caucus and I think from, if people don't realize what March 23rd means to them, I think, after today, they will. But, March 23rd, which is today, it's John Turner's 50th birthday and I think all of us... he looks very good for his age, and I don't know how he does it, but John has asked, in lieu of handshakes, if everybody could come over and kind of rub his hair a little bit. That's how he would like to... people can congratulate him, and they'd... you could ask for his AARP card, as well. So, if everyone could extend you know, a little... something to John Turner in your own way, we'd appreciate it. But, Happy birthday, John. Speaker

Currie: "Thank you, Speaker. The underlying Bill says that people may not disclose the identity and the address and so forth of people who are kind enough to help the state out as foster parents. The Amendment just adds language making sure that the Department of Children and Family Services let's people who are not authorized to disclose that information, let's them know that they may not do so. We discussed the issue in committee and I'd appreciate your support."

Speaker Brunsvold: "The Lady has asked for the adoption of Amendment #2. And on that question, the Gentleman from Vermilion, Representative Black."

Black: "Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. Will the Sponsor yield?"

Speaker Brunsvold: "The Sponsor yields."

Black: "Yes, Representative, may I ask, who approved this Amendment to come to the floor? Did it go directly from the Rules Committee to the Floor or did it have a hearing in committee?"

Currie: "It came directly to the floor, but it did so with discussion about the Amendment in the Rules Committee, and before the Amendment was approved by the Rules Committee, the Minority Spokesman had been personally given a day and a half before a copy of the Amendment..."

Black: "Just for the record, Representative, do you know anyone on the Rules Committee? Did you exert any influence on the Rules Committee to get this reported directly?"

Currie: "I know people who serve on the Rules Committee. I..."

Black: "Well, perhaps you may want to enter it on the record. You might have a potential conflict here. Does, in your opinion, Representative, regardless of the chicanery to bring this to the floor, I am not aware of any opposition to the Amendment, but could you comment, has anyone approached you with any concerns about the Amendment?"

Currie: "No, as I say, I've discussed it with the Department of Children and Family Services, they have not said that they opposed this way of accomplishing our goal and so, it's my understanding that there is no opposition."

Black: "Well, I... it seems like a reasonable Amendment to me, Representative, and on the condition that you illuminate for many of the rest of us, how we might be able to get our Amendments directly to the floor. I certainly stand in support of this wonderful Amendment and the process by which it appears here today."

Currie: "Representative Black, I'll do my best."

Speaker Brunsvold: "And on the question, the Lady from Cook, Representative Feigenholtz."

Feigenholtz: "Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. Representative Currie, is there anything in this Bill that enforces a penalty on people who work at DCFS who disclose information?"

Currie: "Yes, there is but that's the underlying Bill. This Amendment merely makes it clearer that the department has responsibility to tell them that they may not disclose personal information about DCFS foster parents."

Feigenholtz: "And there's nothing in this legislation that pertains to any other adoptive parents, just foster parents?"

Currie: "Foster parents."

Feigenholtz: "Okay, thank you very much."

Speaker Brunsvold: "Any further discussion on the Amendment? Seeing none, the question is, 'Shall Amendment #2 be adopted to House Bill 2326?' All in favor say 'aye'; opposed 'nay'. The 'ayes' have it and the Amendment is adopted. Any further Amendments?"

Clerk Rossi: "No further Amendments. A fiscal note's been requested on the Bill as Amended and the note has not been filed."

Speaker Schoenberg: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House. It is with great honor and great distinction today that we have the pleasure of a very special guest, not just to my community, not just to the State of Illinois, but someone who's truly a hero throughout the country. Sarah Tueting captured the hearts of millions of Americans across the country as the star goaltender for the Women's U.S. Olympic Hockey Team in Nagano, Japan. That same hockey team, which won the gold medal, that same hockey team that brought us so much pride and so much happiness, and along with Mr. Daniels, I'm here today to present to you Sarah Tueting. Sarah. Mr. Clerk, please read House Resolution 359."

Clerk Bolin: "HOUSE RESOLUTION 359

medal game, using dramatic kick saves, glove saves, sliding saves, split saves, and absorbing slap shots in the pads to stop Team Canada; and

WHEREAS, Sarah Tueting was instrumental in the United States gold medal winning performance; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETIETH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we express our pride in Sarah Tueting on her sensational performance as goaltender and commend her on her hard work and dedication in leading the United States Olympic women's ice hockey team to a gold medal in the 1998 Olympic Women's Ice Hockey Tournament in Nagano, Japan; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this resolution be presented to Sarah Tueting of Winnetka, Illinois."

Speaker Brunsvold: "Is there any discussion? Seeing none, those in favor please say 'aye', opposed say 'no'. In the opinion of the Chair, the 'ayes' have it and the Resolution is adopted. Congratulations, Sarah Tueting."

Tueting: "First of all, I want to thank Speaker Madigan, Representative Daniels, and Representative Schoenberg for having me here today. It's definitely an honor for me and my family to be down here. Although, I'm much more comfortable in that than standing up here talking to you all, I'll try it. I'll give it a shot. I started skating when I was four years old. My parents took me over to the rink and put me in white skates. Every little girl should be wearing white skates, and I guess I sat down in the middle of the ice and refused to skate and threw a super tantrum until they'd give me black skates like my brother, so. So, I guess that's the beginning of my hockey career. It had less to do with wearing... it had less to do with playing hockey and more to do with wearing the right color skates, but I grew up the only girl on my teams playing hockey and, I mean, I never saw it that way. I just saw myself as another hockey player and luckily I had teammates and coaches who saw it the same way. But, it did make for some interesting stories. I think I was twelve years old and we were playing a game out in Rolling Meadows and I had covered the puck and I was down on my knees and I, you know, my head was down and somebody came in and slashed me after the whistle and so, you know, being the big, tough girl that I am, I stood up and I pushed this guy and looked up and he was probably, at least a foot taller and probably a hundred pounds heavier, and we just both started laughing. It was the most ridiculous thing ever, it was really funny. I think. When I was in high school, playing for my boys team, we went to a tournament. It was either in Minnesota or in Canada, I don't remember, but I went into the bathroom to change my clothes and there was the cheerleading team from the opposite team in there, and they were getting all done for the game and they kind of looked at me real strange, and I looked at them, and one of them finally said, 'Where's the rest of them?' and I said, 'Them, like them who? What are you talking about?' And she looked at me like totally, you know, surprised, and she says, 'You mean your team only brought one cheerleader?' She thought it was totally preposterous that our team had only brought one cheerleader. So, I just kind of laughed and said, 'Yep, just me.' And went and got dressed for the game. But, so I played hockey through high school and then I went to two years at Dartmouth and I made the team in August of '96. So, I played the national team for two years and, you know, it gets easier and easier to put off school. I don't know when I'm going to go back, maybe in the fall. But, my parents won't like to hear that, you can see, oh, don't say that. But, the Olympics was great. We were over in Japan for about a month. We got to the Olympic Village about a week before the games started and it was a good thing, because there's so much excitement and so much energy at the Olympic Village. I mean, when we got there, there's, you want to meet all the other athletes. You want to go to the, you know, see what your dining situation is going to be like. You want to go to the Post Office and get cards for friends and change money, and go to the gift shop, and over in Japan, they massage your head for like an hour before you get your hair cut, so, everyone had to get their hair cut before the games and the embroidery shop, all that. And so, we did that. Ran around for about two days until we got totally exhausted and realized that that wasn't our focus. So, we kind of had a team meeting and brought everybody together and then we went undefeated for the tournament. So, that was a good time, for sure. Everyone asks what it feels like, you know, to win a gold medal and I always joke when I hear that, because I have, it's so hard to describe, you know. I mean, we should get a poet to go over there and win and then they can write about it. But, it's, the way I try to describe it is joy, excitement, you know, energy verging on mass hysteria. Just total happiness and at the same time, contentment and total calm in accomplishing a dream. And so, somebody's got to put that to words, I don't know who it's going to be. But, and then, the unexpected aftermath, I mean, since we've been home there's been so much support and letters from people. Little kids coming to the door. They're the best. You know, they come to the door with little presents and one of them, he had to have been about seven years old, came with a bottle of champagne. You know, and one girl wrote me a card, and she said, you know, 'Congratulations. We watched the game. Can I have your autograph?' And at the bottom it said, 'P.S. You should really keep this letter because someday I'm going to be President of the United States and you'll want to have it.' So, although I'll never be President, I wish all you guys luck in that endeavor. But, it's been a lot of fun, I mean... How has my life changed after the Olympics, that's another big one, and we definitely get to fly around a lot. I've even got to fly in first class every once in a while. It's really big up there and they give you warm nuts instead of the packaged ones and always asking if you want something to drink. It's great. And then this jacket, I wear it all the time. I don't think I'm ever not in it. So, those are the two big differences, but, I don't know. It's really an honor to be here and I just want to thank everybody again for listening and... or Representative Schoenberg for having me and Representative Daniels and thanks."

90TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Speaker Schoenberg: "I'd like to introduce Sarah's parents, Bill and Pat Tueting and her brother Jonathan. And Sarah, before you go, I told you when you came for Sarah Tueting Day in Winnetka just the other day, that I had some gifts for you. On behalf of all of us, here at the Illinois House of Representatives, I have an American flag and an Illinois flag that have flown over the Capitol and we hope

Speaker Brunsvold: "I believe Sarah's available for photographs down front here if any of the Members would like to have a photograph of Sarah. Mr. Cross, for what purpose do you rise?"

Black: "Yes, I was one of those souls who believed we could only have one or two Bills this session, and I've sat here patiently for an hour on the order of Madigan, on the order of Saviano, on the order of several other people, and then you get to the one Bill that I have on the Calendar on page 20, 3844 (sic - House Bill), and you skipped over it. I don't understand that. Could you enlighten me as to why that one lonely Bill didn't get moved to Third?"

Wirsing: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Floor Amendment #2 is strictly technical, and it deals with a couple of issues that were raised in committee as we moved the Bill through committee was raised by some Members of the Democratic side, and this Amendments clears up those concerns and just purely makes some technical changes."

bring the Bill into alignment with the request of the Illinois Association of Park Districts and with this Amendment, which I would move that we do adopt, the Bill, I

Those of you who have a Bill to move, let's move them, and we're going to try to go through these rapidly. House Bill 2299, Mr. Lawfer. Out of the record. Mr. Black, for what reason do you rise?"

Black: "Thank you very much, Mr. Clerk. Mr. Speaker, an inquiry of the Chair."

Speaker Lang: "State your inquiry."

Black: "You just stated we've gone through the Calendar three times, which we have done so, but might I point out to you in a very selective way. If you could enlighten us as to why dozens of Bills on Second Reading with no notes, no Amendments, no opposition that we know of have been ignored and yet, now we're going to go back through the Calendar on a fourth time for Bills that are cluttered with something. I don't understand this."

Speaker Lang: "Mr. Black, I have only been in the Chair 18 minutes. We'll try to accommodate you this time through the Calendar."

Black: "Well, may I ask where the real Speaker is?"

Black: "How well I remember that, yes. Well if you could look into that, if we're going to go through this Calendar, this exercise and futility for the fourth time, at least let's give everybody a fair chance to move their Bills to Third Reading so the Senate can kill all of them."

Speaker Lang: "Thank you, Sir. House Bill 3472, Representative Hoffman. Mr. Clerk, please read the Bill."

Cross: "How about this particular Government Ethics Bill?"

Speaker Lang: "Have you cleared this Bill with our side of the aisle, Sir?"

Cross: "I'm not aware that there's any opposition. Can you show me the letter I need? I see that Mr. Madigan's got about 90 Bills out. Can I have a copy of his letter? Maybe that will work."
