Speaker Madigan: "The House shall come to order. The Members shall be in their chairs. We shall be led in prayer today by Pastor Mike Fogerson of the First Baptist Church of Chester, Illinois. Pastor Fogerson is the guest of Representative Reitz. The guests in the gallery may wish to rise and join us for the invocation and the Pledge of Allegiance."

Pastor Fogerson: "Honor to be here. Let's pray. Dear God, I just want to thank You for the great leaders you've given the State of Illinois and the freedom we share. Lord, I pray today that as we do business, I know that You're totally capable of doing it. Lord, I pray that these men and women would help You fulfill Your purpose. Lord, I pray that You would bless their homes, their families, protect them in Your mighty arm of love. And Lord, pray that these men and women would not be content with just doing good things, but they would do God things. We love You. And it's in Your name I pray and Your son's name in the crucified and resurrected Lord Jesus Christ. Amen."

Speaker Madigan: "We will be led in the Pledge of Allegiance by Representative Tenhouse."

Tenhouse - et al: "I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Speaker Madigan: "Roll Call for Attendance. Representative Currie."

Currie: "Thank you, Speaker. Please let the record reflect that there are no excused absences among House Democrats today."

Speaker Madigan: "Mr. Poe."

Poe: "Mr. Speaker, let the record show that Representative Ron Stephens is excused today."

Speaker Madigan: "Mr. Clerk, take the... reflect the excused absence of Mr. Stephens and take the record. There being 117 persons responding to the Attendance Roll Call, there is a quorum present. Mr. Hartke in the Chair."

Speaker Hartke: "Committee Reports."

Clerk Rossi: "Introduction of Resolutions. House Resolution 96, offered by Representative Hoffman; House Resolution 102, offered by Representative Crotty; House Resolution 107, offered by Representative Mautino; and House Joint Resolution 16, offered by Representative Poe; were assigned to the Rules Committee."

Speaker Hartke: "Representative Daniels in the Chair."

Speaker Daniels: "Thank you, Ladies and Gentlemen. The past summer I had the honor of traveling with my friend, the noted journalist, Bill Kurtis, to South America, where he filmed a documentary on the Cofan Indians. This area of the world is one of the most profoundly beautiful and unspoiled regions I've ever seen. And under the leadership of Randy Borman, the Cofan are creating innovative programs building toward a solid base for conservation to preserve the biological riches the region has to offer. As the son of linguists, Randy is equally comfortable at home and in the Cofan culture. His goal is quite simple. The goal of the Cofans is to help preserve this native culture and to keep the large expanses of forests intact for the Cofan Indians. For his leadership, courage, and efforts, the Field Museum, our own Field Museum in Illinois, their founders' council presented Randy Borman with the Parker-Gentry Award in 1998. Illinois is, indeed, fortunate to have the Field Museum and the Museum is equally fortunate to work with pioneer leaders today, such as today's guest, Randy Borman. Ladies and Gentlemen, he has an Illinois connection. Randy Borman's father and mother came from Illinois in the Geneva/St. Charles area, represented by Representative Schmitz. And yes, he is the Chief of the Cofan Indians in Ecuador. I'm pleased, today, to have with us Sophie Twitchel, who is from the Field Museum. And I'm joined by the Chief of the Cofan Indians, with Illinois roots, Randy Borman and his wife Amelia. So, Ladies and Gentlemen, will you welcome our own Chief, Randy Borman, of the Cofan Indians."

Borman: "Thank you, Lee. It's a real privilege to be here and it's a real privilege to have been able to get to know Lee Daniels this last summer when he came down to visit us. We took him out in a very, very different environment than this and I think managed to show him a little bit of our world and now he's kind of getting me back, I think, bringing me up here. Yes, my great-grandfather came across from Germany and settled in Illinois and married an Illinois girl here and had their brood of Bormans back in the... right at the turn of the last century. And so, we had very solid Illinois roots. As I was growing up, we'd... my parents would... I was born in Ecuador. My parents were missionaries down in Ecuador and then living with the Cofans. And we would come back here about every four or five years and spend a year here in Illinois. So, I wound up spending quite a bit of time here. As I grew up, I got more and more involved with the people my parents were working with, the Cofan people. I spoke Cofan from the time I was a little baby and then once I got a little older, started really working on some of the issues for the survival of this group that's down in the Amazon basin. There's about 1,000 people altogether, dealing with about a million acres of rain forest. We got involved in a number of initiatives such as ecotourism, various conservation programs. We became involved with the Field Museum about four years ago and have been working very, very closely with them on a number of conservation initiatives aimed at studying the rain forest, working on the conservation plans for this area that is really, really crucial to the rest of the world. And just in the past couple of years, we've been dealing with alternatives for the Plan Columbia initiative that the U. S. is involved in at the moment, as it spills across into the Ecuadorian side of the border. About half of the Cofan people originally lived on the Columbian side and have been largely forced across into the Ecuadorian side because of the violence occurring over there, as it's escalated, especially in the last few months. We're also trying to find alternatives to things like the Ecotourism Projects, which are really, really shaky right now because of the violence right across... you know, only 40 or 50 miles north of where we're at. And so, we're very, very involved in that. It's a great opportunity to be able to be here. We're on a... right now, we're on a trip around to several locations in the U.S., working on fundraising for education and land acquiring, and also for alternatives to the whole Plan Columbia problems that are occurring right now. So, it's just a real privilege to be here. And I appreciate, deeply, the opportunity to say 'hi' to you all from Ecuador. That's a longways from Illinois, but we've still got those strong memories and strong roots up here. And it's just a real privilege. Thank you."

Speaker Daniels: "As Chief Borman has indicated to us, they're working on the ecosystem in Ecuador, very important work on the rain forest and the cloud forest. He lives in the After you land in Quito, a direct flight from Chicago, you then have to fly to an oil town called Lago Agrio, take a taxi for about an hour and a half to the river braid to the Aguarico, and about four and a half to five hours going into the Amazon, you'll run into Randy Borman. So, if you have a desire to do that, he'll give you his address. You come down and see him sometime. So, thank you. Thank you, Chief. Thank you."

Speaker Hartke: "State your inquiry."

Black: "... on procedural issue. It's my understanding that our staff filed a fiscal note in the name of one of our Members, on House Bill 732 on page 6 of the Calendar, on the Order of Second Reading. The fiscal note request was filed in the Journal Room about 10:00 this morning. And we have checked with the well and it somehow didn't get down. We realize that we probably should have filed it with the Clerk in the well, as well as the Journal Room. But normally, it would get down here and be noted. I don't know why it happened. But if it be within the power of the Chair, we would like the note acknowledged, and the Bill moved back to Second Reading."

Speaker Hartke: "Okay. We'll comply with your request."

Speaker Hartke: "Representative Currie, on the Amendment."

Currie: "Thank you, Speaker and Members of the House. I move adoption of Amendment 1. This Amendment shells the Bill. There are some technical questions and issues still unresolved in the views of our analysts and Representative Moore. And the organization that requested this legislation has agreed to the strategy. So, I'd appreciate your support for adoption of the Amendment."

Speaker Hartke: "Is there any discussion? The Chair recognizes the Gentleman from Vermilion, Representative Black."

Black: "Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. It's very hard to hear."

Speaker Hartke: "Yes."

Black: "If our file is in order."

Speaker Hartke: "Shh. Ladies and Gentlemen, please. Mr. Black."

Black: "Thank you. Telephone solicitation Bills are very important and we should pay attention. If I understood the Majority Leader, who normally I can hear over the din of this chamber, particularly when she wants me to hear something. It's my understanding that the Floor Amendment makes this a shell Bill. Is that correct?"

Speaker Hartke: "Representative Currie."

Currie: "Representative, that's exactly what I said in my explanation. Thank you for clarifying for all the rest of us."

Black: "I have no doubt that what you said is what you said, but unfortunately, we could not hear you at all. Then, I would just simply ask you, there is at least one Bill that, I think, I was under the impression, was going to be the Bill that any telephone solicitation language would end up on. I believe it's in charge of a Member on your side of the aisle. Is the purpose to use this for a telephone solicitation Bill if you need it, or is there something else in mind for it?"

Currie: "No, it was the intention to continue to use the Bill for the purposes for which it was introduced. It's just that there are some technical and other questions which are, at this time, unresolved. And rather than hold up the Bill, we thought we would shell it, move it along, and when those questions are resolved then restore to the Bill language that would accomplish the intent of the measure as introduced."

Black: "All right and that was my point. I will defer to my colleague, Representative Moore, as the underlying Bill was her Bill and I thought had agreed language on it. But let me defer to my colleague, Representative Moore. If she tells me this is the situation that she wants for this Bill, then I certainly would have no objection."

Speaker Hartke: "Representative Moore."

Moore: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Yes, Representative, that is the intention to try and resolve some of these unanswered issues and come back with substantive language that will be agreed to."
