Agreed Resolutions are adopted. Representative Giles, for what reason do you seek recognition?"

Giles: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise on a point of personal privilege."

Speaker Hartke: "State your point."

Giles: "Ladies and Gentlemen of the House of Representatives..."

Speaker Hartke: "Shhh."

Giles: "...on behalf of the..."

Speaker Hartke: "Shhh."

Giles: "...Illinois Legislative Joint Black Caucus and the Illinois Legislative House Black Caucus, we would like to congratulate each and every Member being elected and re-elected. appreciation, that we've provided for all the new Members. And just restate what Calvin had said, that if you don't see your name there because some of the names have changed rather quickly, we will accommodate you. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Speaker Hartke: "Thank you, Representative Colvin. On page 2 of the Calendar appears... on Third Reading appears House Bill 175, Representative Hannig. Mr. Clerk, read the Bill."

Clerk Rossi: "House Bill 175, a Bill for an Act concerning the state budget. Third Reading of this House Bill."

Speaker Hartke: "Representative Hannig."

Hannig: "Yes, thank you, Mr. Speaker and Members of the House. This Bill is very simple in its concept, in fact, it's not even a new idea, it's something that we did for our Governor Edgar back in the 1990s. We all recognize the difficulty that we face with our state budget at this time. We also probably, many of us know that the Governor is required to, by law, to give us a Budget Address each year on the third Wednesday in February. This proposal, if it were adopted and becomes law, for this year only, would grant to our new Governor, Rod Blagojevich, the opportunity to present a Budget Address to us no later than the third Wednesday in March. I'm sorry, the thir... the second Wednesday in April. So, it would change from the third Wednesday in March to the second Wednesday in April. By giving him some additional time, we will give him every opportunity as a new Governor to look at the options that are available and to bring forward to us the best possible product that his team can assemble. So, we worked together in the past on this, as I said, it's never been a partisan issue, I don't believe it's partisan today. I'd be happy to answer any questions and I'd ask for your 'yes' vote."

Speaker Hartke: "Is there any discussion? The Chair recognizes the Gentleman from Cook, Representative Parke."

Parke: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Will the Sponsor yield?"

Speaker Hartke: "Sponsor indicates that he will yield."

Parke: "Representative, we understand to some degree what's going on, but I have a... a more of a... a big picture issue. If we're going to delay the Governor's budget message, what does that mean to the appropriation process, in your opinion?"

Hannig: "Well, Representative, without question that puts the chairman and the spokesman..."

Parke: "Mr. Speaker, I think this is an important discussion and I'd like to have the Body..."

Speaker Hartke: "I agree. Ladies and Gentlemen, shhh, please. This is a very, very important piece of legislation. Would you please tone down so we can hear the speakers. Mr. Parke."

Parke: "Again, Representative, I understand that we're gonna talk about delaying it 'til the second Wednesday of March?"

Hannig: "April."

Parke: "That is correct."

Hannig: "April."

STATE OF ILLINOIS
93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY
TRANSCRIPTION DEBATE

7th Legislative Day

Parke: "April, I mean. And so, if we're gonna... that's really late in the course of things and we're doing it because we have a new administration, they're coming in with their budget negotiators, they're just trying to put pieces together at this point in time. Correct?"

Hannig: "Yeah. Representative, the way I see this unfolding, is that right now the State Board of Education, for example, already has a proposal out there for funding on the K through 12 side, so we can start getting that part of the budget, which is a big part of the budget, moving forward. Higher Education, I think, will have a proposal that we can start working with. And these will be independent of the Governor's, but it will at least give us an indication where those boards would like to go. And we've also, I think, have to recognize that what we're suggesting here is the absolute last day that the Governor can propose his budget to us. We would hope that as time goes by maybe he could find it in his heart to present this budget to us a little bit earlier as well, but we're giving him the last day that we feel we can realistically still have enough time to have our staffs and our appropriation people, our chairmen, spokesmen, and Members, digest this budget and look at the alternatives and then present to us some Bills on the floor to vote on."

Parke: "But in the meantime, your new budget director, Mr. Filan, will be working on it. Will... when does the General Assembly, in your vision of the big picture, will the Appropriations Committees be working on the old budget as

93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
TRANSCRIPTION DEBATE

was last year and then waiting for the Governor to fine tune that? What is... what will the Appropriation Committees be doing?"

Hannig: "Yeah. We're gonna have each of the five Appropriation Committees will already... will begin the process of hearing parts of this budget next week. So, I know the K through 12 budget will have some people from the State Board of Education in talking about their proposal, Higher Ed will get some people in, Human Services will have some folks come in, and I believe we're gonna try to talk about the problem we have in Medicaid. So we're gonna try to flesh out, ya know, where some of these problems are and what some possible solutions might be. And it also gives us a chance to present to the Governor some of our thoughts."

Parke: "Now, if... if this is correct, then in five short weeks we have an adjournment date from this. Does it seem realistic to presume that five weeks later we're gonna adjourn? Wouldn't you presume that'll probably run a little longer than that?"

Hannig: "Well, Representative, that would be our plan and I would have to say in all fairness to our appropriations people, there may be days when the nonappropriation Legislators are back in their districts that we're gonna ask our appropriations people, that is the Members of the committee and our staff, to be here in Springfield hearing Bills. So, we're gonna probably have to do some extra work on the appropriations side on non-Session days, but that's part of the process."

7th Legislative Day

1/30/2003

Parke: "Okay. Well, thank you. To the Bill."

Speaker Hartke: "To the Bill."

Parke: "Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, it's become obvious that with the new administration coming in, with him putting his staff on line, that this is necessary, that's why Representative Beaubien and I have joined in cosponsoring this legislation. It's unfortunate that we're gonna have to wait because it's gonna mean that there's an awful lot of issues that relate to finance that will have to be set aside for the time being until we get direction from the Governor. I wanna remind the Body that the budget in Illinois is an executive-driven budget and so while we're waiting for the new Governor to get his staff on line and get 'em comfortable and familiar with the appropriation process that we're all gonna have to sorta mark time for awhile and work together. And it is intent of the Republican Minority in this chamber to work closely with the new Governor, with the Democratic Majority to find solutions to the crisis that we find ourselves in this state, the financial crisis that we have. This is not an issue that's a Republican issue, this is not a Democratic issue. As Governor Blagojevich stated at a luncheon shortly afterwar... after he was inaugurated that he doesn't place blame on Republicans or Democrats. This is an issue that we all are gonna have to work together to solve. So, in a bipartisan manner, we rise in support of this Bill and wish the Governor's staff good speed and we stand ready to join with them to try and solve the people... the problem for the people of Illinois. But we will always maintain the ability to be the loyal opposition when necessary. So, we rise in support of this legislation."

Speaker Hartke: "Further discussion? The Chair recognizes the Gentleman from... from Lake, Representative Beaubien. Mr. Beaubien."

Beaubien: "Yes. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Will the Sponsor yield?"

Speaker Hartke: "Sponsor indicates that he will yield. Ladies and Gentlemen, please, let's tone it down. Shhh. Mr. Beaubien."

Beaubien: "I rise in support of this Bill as cosponsor, along with Representative Parke. He mentioned many of the things that I would like to mention. I'd merely like to say that there is historic preference... precedent for this particular action. It says, up to that particular point in time. I would urge everyone involved in the Governor's staff to try to make it earlier rather than later. It's gonna be very difficult to do this in a short time frame and I would suggest all Members don't make any vacation plans in June and July. But I do rise in support of the Bill. Thank you."

Speaker Hartke: "Further discussion? Seeing no one is seeking recognition, Representative Hannig to close."

Hannig: "Yes, thank you, Mr. Speaker and Members of the House. It's gonna be difficult enough to pass a new fiscal year '04 budget with everyone working together in the House and the Senate, with the Governor's people, Democrats and Republicans. So, if we start fighting amongst ourselves, it will become an impossible task very quickly. So, I... I commend my colleagues on the Republican side of the aisle for extending this opportunity to us and working with us. We know it's a challenge. We know we will disagree from time to time, but at least we're getting the process off on the right foot and... and I thank you for that. And I'd ask for your 'yes' vote."

Speaker Hartke: "The question is, 'Shall the House pass House Bill 175?' All those in favor signify by voting 'yes'; those opposed vote 'no'. The voting is open. Have all voted who wish? Mr. Clerk, take the record. On this question, there are 114 Members voting 'yes', 1 person voting 'no', and 0 voting 'present'. And this Bill, having received a Constitutional Majority, is hereby declared passed. The Chair recognizes Representative Brunsvold. For what reason do you seek recognition?"

Brunsvold: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, we have a lot of new Members on the floor and we'd like to invite them, the new Members, to come to the back of the chambers and if you'd like to join the Sportsmen's Caucus. The Illinois Legislative Sportsmen's Caucus is made up of over a hundred House and Senate Members that are there to protect the sportsmen and sportswomen of this state. We have been organized since 1992, myself and Senator then, the late 'Babe' Woodyard, organized the Sportsmen's Caucus. And we've done some pretty outstanding things with youth and handicapped, raising money for the Department of Natural Resources. And we'd like anyone, the new Membership, that would like to join to please meet at Mr. Reitz's desk in the back corner of the Democrat side of the aisle and we will get your name down. We have a auction and reception in March that we're in the process right now of getting put together. We have... this'll be our tenth annual auction and reception at the fairgrounds. So, new Members, we invite you to join the Sportsmen's Caucus, please meet at Dan Reitz's desk. Thank you."

Speaker Hartke: "Thank you, Representative Brunsvold. On page 2 on the Calendar appears a Motion by Representative Daniels on House Bill 291. Representative Daniels."

Daniels: "Yes, I move to table House Bill 291. This'll be talked about in several other venues. And I wanna table the Bill."

Speaker Hartke: "You've heard the Gentleman's Motion. All those in favor signify by saying 'aye'; opposed 'no'... opposed 'no'. In the opinion of the Chair, the 'ayes' have it. And the Motion passes. Mr. Clerk, for an announcement."

adjourned. Representative Wojcik, for what reason do you seek recognition?"

Wojcik: "Well, Mr. Speaker, since this is my last day in this august Body, I would just like to say good-bye and thank everybody. It's been wonderful. You're super. I just love you all. Ya know, we're a family. You've been so wonderful to me on both sides of the aisle. I can't thank you enough and after 20 years it's difficult to say good-bye, but I'm not, I'm just going across the aisle. Now listen, my office is 413. I'm at the top. I can hang over the railing if you shout, 'Hey, Kay'. Okay? So, come in and see me and thank you all. And I just love you all. Thanks a lot. Bye-bye."

Speaker Hartke: "The Chair recognizes Representative Daniels."

Daniels: "Mr. Speaker, Ladies, and Gentlemen of the House, I wanna just wish Kay Wojcik the best of everything as she moves over to the Senate. Kay and I were running mates for 20 years. I remember when she first ran, she won a tough primary. I'm not sure if people really thought you were gonna win at that time, but you knew better and I knew better because of your work ethic. You'll do great in the Senate. We send you there with our fondest of wishes and best of dreams for you and your vision of the future. We love you, Kay and thanks for everything you've done for the people of Illinois, in particular in the House. You leave here as a leader of the General Assembly, but you're a leader in life and that's what we appreciate the most."

Kosel: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I also want to wish Kay the very best and we will probably be visiting her over there. I also wanted to announce that my district got one Republican stronger yesterday with the birth of Madison Elizabeth Kosel, yesterday afternoon at 3:40 and we are pleased to welcome her to our family."

Speaker Hartke: "Congratulations, grandma. Chair recognizes Representative Lyons, Joe Lyons."

Lyons, J.: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Kay Wojcik, on behalf of the Ralph Capparelli supper club, of which you are a charter member, I think I speak for all the Members of the Democratic side of the aisle in saying you will be missed, you are a class act, you are loved and we're glad to have you as a friend in the Senate. God bless you, Kay."

Speaker Hartke: "Representative Brunsvold."

Brunsvold: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Kay, it's real... I'm here now, I'm here now. I know it. Congratulations on your move to the Senate. We have served together now for 20 years. There are four Members now on the House Floor that started in 1983. Kay Wojcik and I are the only two that have served continuously since 1983. Mr. Churchill and Mr. Wait are part of our class, but they took a leave of absence some place along the way and so have not served continually. And Kay, congratulations and I'll see you over there, I hope. And after Kay leaves, I have declared myself the winner of the class of '83, the one... the last one standing. So, Kay, I'll be over to see you later and congratulations. Thank you."

Kay, it's been a pleasure for me working with you over the last two years. You're an inspiration, I think, to a lot of us here. And I look forward to now seeing you along with the rest of the clan during dinner. Over in the Senate, I'll have somebody I can go take my Bills with and work in a bipartisan fashion over there as well. So, thank you, Kay."

Speaker Hartke: "Kay, we're all gonna miss you. Being nothing further, now... Representative Monique Davis."

Davis, M.: "Hi. To Senator Kay Wojcik, ya know, I think you'd been here about four years when I arrived, but I've always known you to be a Legislator. Your word has always been your bond and you've really been a role model for many of us. We've had absolutely no words of disagreement and I appreciate the kind of Legislator that you show the world that women can be. And I know you'll be a leader over in the Senate very, very soon. Thank you."

Speaker Hartke: "Representative Flowers."

Flowers: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, I would like to say to my sister, Senator Kay Wojcik, I love you and I'm gonna miss you. But I wanna take this opportunity to thank you, because 19 years ago when I came to this House you, Jane Barnes and others took me by my hand and you obviously led me down the right path. And for that I wanna say thank you, love you."

We've been up on the 6th floor together for the past four years and I will say that Kay is one of the most sharing persons I have ever known. Now, we all know what she shares with us up there in her office and we've had many fun nights up there. And we're gonna miss her, but hopefully she won't be one of those Senators who we never see and... we'll get to see her over here often, too. Thanks Kay. We love you and we'll miss you."

Speaker Hartke: "There being nothing further, allowing perfunctory time for the Clerk, Representative Currie now moves that the House stand adjourned 'til Tuesday, February the 4 at the hour of 1 p.m. All those in favor signify by saying 'aye'; opposed 'no'.
