Speaker Hannig: "The House will be in order. The Members will please be in their seats. Members and guests are asked to refrain from starting their laptops, turn off all cell phones and pagers and rise for the invocation and for the Pledge of Allegiance. We shall be led in prayer today by Lee Crawford, the Pastor of the Cathedral of Praise Christian Center here in Springfield."

Pastor Crawford: "May we pray. Most gracious and most kind God, the author and the finisher of our faith, and the giver and sustainer of our lives, we pray that You will bestow Your most precious blessings upon this most august Body. May You bless its Leader, may You bless all of its Members. May You bless them to walk in the spirit of Your servant, that they may serve in the spirit of integrity, that they may serve in strength, they may serve in the spirit of truth. This we ask in Your Son's name, amen."

Speaker Hannig: "And Representative Soto, will you lead us in the Pledge."

Speaker Hannig: "Mr. Clerk, take the record. There are 109 Members answering the Roll Call, a quorum is present. Representative Bost, for what reason do you rise?"

Bost: "I only wanted to add that that being said, it should be a very quiet day."

Speaker Hannig: "Representative Stephens."

Stephens: "Well, thank you, Mr. Speaker. And the way the doorman, Mr. Crawford, did the prayer, we always appreciate that. But, I'd like to put in a good word for Wayne Padget, the assistant doorman on our side of the aisle; he can pray with the best of them."

Speaker Hannig: "Mr. Clerk, will you read House Resolution 207?"

Clerk Mahoney: "House Bill 235, a Bill for an Act concerning criminal law. Third Reading of this House Bill."

Speaker Hannig: "Representative Monique Davis."

Davis, M.: "Thank you, Mr. Chairman. House Bill 235 merely asks judges and state's attorneys to consider the annual income when establishing bail on nonviolent crime. We find many times the county jails in Cook County are filled to capacity and sometimes it's merely because a person cannot afford the bail that has been set. And we would be certainly ready to answer questions."

Speaker Hannig: "This is on the Order of Short Debate, but we're going to move it to Standard Debate to accommodate our Members. And Representative Reboletti, you're first and you have (5) minutes."

Reboletti: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Will the Sponsor yield?"

Speaker Hannig: "She indicates she'll yield."

Reboletti: "Representative, is this only in Cook County? Because my experience has been that when a defendant fills out an application for a public defender they fill out what is known as an affidavit of assets and liabilities and on there they would indicate what their yearly income is, if they own a house, if they own a life insurance policy. Does this not happen in Cook County? Is that what we're dealing with?"

Davis, M.: "You're asking if they have a public defender will that apply in these cases, is that what you're asking?"

Reboletti: "Well, here's the situation is when... if they're out looking for bail because they've been arrested, they've been detained overnight. If you're applying for a public defender you have to show that you are already at a means level necessary to get a public defender. So, I've seen defendants fill out the application, they fill all zeroes, they have nothing, then they're appointed a public defender. And then the judge also would take that into consideration that the amount of money that they have. And every bail hearing that I've been to has always taken into account, either by representation by the public defender or by a private attorney that the defendant is of certain means and able to post whatever the bail may or may not be."

Davis, M.: "Yeah, well, this is just a policy statement for what already occurs."

Reboletti: "Well, Representative, I appreciate that, but I believe the statute already includes that. That one of the

95th GENERAL ASSEMBLY
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
TRANSCRIPTION DEBATE

57th Legislative Day

conditions in setting bond is one to bring the defendant back into court to assure their presence, but also to take into account the seriousness of the offense. There's about thirteen (13) different things and I believe one of those included is already in there is their means and their income level. Maybe staff could you advise you of that, but that's the case."

Davis, M.: "That's correct."

Reboletti: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Davis, M.: "Thank you."

Speaker Hannig: "Representative Durkin."

Durkin: "Will the Sponsor yield?"

Speaker Hannig: "Indicates she'll yield."

Durkin: "Representative Davis, let me just get this clear that we're saying that this is a consideration, it's not mandated that the court is going to set bail based on their gross income, correct?"

Davis, M.: "That is..."

Durkin: "Correct? It's just bas..."

Davis, M.: "...that is correct."

Durkin: "...it's just one of the factors they will take into account?"

Davis, M.: "That is correct."

Durkin: "Now, I'm kind of curious why you separated... you only have this applying to nonviolent crimes as opposed to what is defined in the statute as violent crimes?"

Davis, M.: "Well, we didn't want to in any way limit a judge's ability to establish huge bail amounts that are certainly necessary for violent crimes or heinous crimes. We just

STATE OF ILLINOIS
95th GENERAL ASSEMBLY
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
TRANSCRIPTION DEBATE

57th Legislative Day

5/21/2007

felt that certainly whatever the judge's discretion was in those circumstances should remain. And in this Bill, we're merely asking the judge to be considerate. If it's nonviolent, to be considerate of their income when establishing bail."

Durkin: "Well, do you believe in the principle of the presumption of innocence? And perhaps somebody has been charged with a violent crime should be afforded the same rights as someone who has been charged with a nonviolent crime?"

Davis, M.: "Yes, I do believe in the presumption of innocence. But I also know that frequently if a person has committed a very violent crime, then judge, according to my experience, he establishes a little higher bail in order to assure that person will show up for trial."

Durkin: "So, I guess what they would have to do is just write down on a piece of paper what their gross income is without any type of backup. Sometimes people who are charged with nonviolent crimes they do have some type of tax return or something. Are we just taking them at their word of what their income is?"

Davis, M.: "I think they can show some documentation, maybe a check stub. The defendant can offer evidence of his or her annual income."

Durkin: "Well, I guess the issue is is that let's say there is a... and this has happened before, where we think that a person who is seeking representation by a public defender because they do not have the assets, I've seen it in the past, I've done that work, I've been at... I've worked at the

STATE OF ILLINOIS
95th GENERAL ASSEMBLY
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
TRANSCRIPTION DEBATE

57th Legislative Day

5/21/2007

courthouse, where they're... that they do not want to put the money down to buy a private attorney so they will understate their assets to get the... the services of the public defender. So, I... I... and all they have to do is just fill in the... a piece of paper stating exactly what their assets are. So, there really is no backup that's going into this."

Davis, M.: "Well..."

Durkin: "No backup which is being afforded by the individuals who's accused of the crime to establish that this is truly their net worth or their gross income for the year."

Davis, M.: "What we're asking is that the judge consider the annual income. And if they are afforded the use of public defender, you're saying with a public defender they don't have to have documentation of their income?"

Durkin: "All they have to do is just make a statement that they do not have the... make a statement and sign a piece of paper saying that they do not have the ability to afford a private counsel, therefore, they're requesting the services of a public defender."

Davis, M.: "So, this Bill would still leave it up to the discretion of the judge. We're merely asking the judge to take a look at the documentation of annual income."

Durkin: "But there's no documentation that's required to put up in this Bill. But I... I... I don't disagree with what you're trying to do. I just want to exactly, you know... where people in the courtroom would have to figure out how they're going to have to apply these... this legislation... I'm sure it's going to pass out of the House. But I just want to get an understanding of how you would... how this is going to

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
TRANSCRIPTION DEBATE

57th Legislative Day

work. But I also think it's important, though, when someone is going to... when a judge is going to base bond based on the gross income that they actually have a document other than just a statement from the person accused that I... either that I... they make no money or will make ten thousand dollars ($10,000) a year. I just think that it's... it would be better if they were able to provide something other than just their own statement, that's all."

Davis, M.: "I appreciate your comments. And this legislation doesn't require documentation. But it would allow someone to present it if they had it available."

Durkin: "All right. This will apply to misdemeanor offenses as well?"

Davis, M.: "Yes."

Durkin: "These are..."

Davis, M.: "It doesn't change the law where misdemeanor offenses are."

Durkin: "Okay."

Davis, M.: "And may I add, that all opposition was removed from the Bill, with the Amendment all of the opposition was removed."

Durkin: "Could you just tell me who opposed it and now who is no longer opposed to it?"

Davis, M.: "Cook County State's Attorney, State Police..."

Speaker Hannig: "Representative, your... your time has expired. Representative Davis, why don't you finish answering the Gentleman's question."

STATE OF ILLINOIS

Davis, M.: "...the Chief of Police, the Cook County State's Attorney and the Illinois Association of Chiefs of Police. But with the Amendment, they have removed their opposition."

Speaker Hannig: "So, now I had one (1) in favor and two (2) in response. Representative Rose, which side would you like to speak on?"

Rose: "Response, I guess."

Speaker Hannig: "Okay. In response, 5 minutes."

Rose: "Will the... will the Lady yield for a question?"

Speaker Hannig: "She indicates she'll yield."

Rose: "Representative, I... I notice with the Amendment... let me tell you the nature of my concern. One is, they can already consider this and actually they should consider this, there's applicable United States Supreme call... Supreme Court opinion that says that the purpose of bond, one (1), is to secure the return of the defendant for court. Okay? That's the purpose of bond. When in considering the return to court, you look at a number of things. One of the things the court should look at is their income. Do they have a job? Are there significant ties to the community? Are they from the community? Are there someone from outside the community? There's a whole laundry list of factors the court is already required to consider under a U.S. Supreme Court opinion and one (1) of those is the income of the defendant. So, one (1), I think that the Bill as amended is... is extremely duplicative at best. And at worst, it may actually do something that... that you're not intending it to do. And that is, you may be limiting it only to the consideration of gross income and not looking at the other

STATE OF ILLINOIS
95th GENERAL ASSEMBLY
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
TRANSCRIPTION DEBATE

57th Legislative Day

5/21/2007

things like community ties, where they're from, do they have family in the area, do they have kids in the schools. All the different circumstances that the U.S. Supreme Court has said feed into whether or not someone would be likely to return to court. And so, I... I'm very wary of your legislation here, Representative. I'd invite your response."

Davis, M.: "Well, I would certainly urge you, Representative, to look at the Amendment. Which states, 'when the defendant is charged with a nonviolent crime in setting the amount of bail the court shall consider with any evidence offered as to the annual gross.' Now it... it in no way limits the court from looking at those other things that you certainly mentioned. It in no way limits that."

Rose: "Representative, if I may, there's case law to say that if the Legislature did not include other things, then we explicitly decided not to include those other things, thereby, limiting the statute to only those things considered."

Davis, M.: "But then you... "

Rose: "And there's case law on that, point one. Two, they're already required... all courts are already required to look at income for purposes of bail."

Davis, M.: "That is true, Representative. It is absolutely necessary and of course this Bill in no way would supersede Federal Law. As you know, Federal Law always supersedes State Law. So, if the Federal Law..."

Rose: "Then what's the point of the Bill?"

STATE OF ILLINOIS
95th GENERAL ASSEMBLY
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
TRANSCRIPTION DEBATE

57th Legislative Day

5/21/2007

Davis, M.: "The point of the Bill is to ask judges to look at the annual income when establishing bail in order that we don't place a one hundred thousand dollar ($100,000) bail on a person for a minor offense when they can't pay it. And they go to Cook County jail and they remain there, losing their job, perhaps losing their apartment because they couldn't afford that bail for..."

Rose: "But Representative, what I'm saying is under the Clerk of the United States Supreme Court opinion on bail, they're already required to do that anyway. So, I don't know what putting in the statute does that they're not already required to do? I'm not going to belabor the point, I'll just vote 'no'. Thanks."

Speaker Hannig: "We've had... we've had three (3) in response and one (1) in support. The Rules would provide two (2) additional speakers in support. So, Representative Molaro, would you like to rise in support?"

Molaro: "Yes."

Speaker Hannig: "Proceed."

Molaro: "Thank you. As to the previous speaker, from the Supreme Court said and what says in State Law is that you should look at the financial resources of the individual. What this Lady is saying that, not only should look at the financial resources, but you should also look at the annual gross income. Now, that's two (2) different things. I may have resources, but my annual gross income this year might be zero even though I might have five thousand dollars ($5,000) in the bank. What this Lady is doing is exactly what we're talking about when we talk about bail and the

STATE OF ILLINOIS
95th GENERAL ASSEMBLY
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
TRANSCRIPTION DEBATE

57th Legislative Day

5/21/2007

presumption of innocence. And it's a very simple concept. If me and another Representative or me or two (2) individuals get caught doing a nonviolent crime, now if it's violent the judge can do whatever he wants, but nonviolent crime. So, we both get caught for shoplifting or we both get caught for theft. Now, we're presumed innocent, both of us go to court. When we go to court for bail, both charged with the same crime, exactly the same, the judge comes up and says, okay, ten thousand dollars ($10,000) bail and your court date is two (2) months down the road. Now we might be innocent, we might be guilty, doesn't matter. What happens is because I'm making twenty grand ($20,000) a year I could go there and easily post a thousand dollar ($1,000) bail and I'm home for two (2) months, living my life. But the person I was arrested with, same exact crime, same exact circumstances, who is... doesn't have a job or only makes ten thousand (10,000) a year he can't post a thousand ($1,000) so he has to stay in jail for that two (2) months. Now we go to court two (2) months, later, Macy's decides not to prosecute or they don't have the evidence and they throw the case out. I was okay, the other man was there for... for... for two (2) months in jail and he couldn't post bond. Now, if you take everything into consideration and the judge says, ten thousand (10,000), well, then he stays in jail, no problem. All this Lady is saying, when the judge considers bail he should consider the annual income of the defendant. Doesn't say he must... must then lower the bail, it just said he shall consider it, as he considers everything else. After considering it, if the judge says, well, I considered

STATE OF ILLINOIS
95th GENERAL ASSEMBLY
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
TRANSCRIPTION DEBATE

57th Legislative Day

5/21/2007

it, but I want it to be twenty thousand (20,000), two million (2,000,000), then that's what it is. All the Lady's saying is, judge, take into consideration what his annual gross income is. And all you have to do is ask a defendant and it says, 'any evidence that's introduced.' So, if the state doesn't want to introduce it, if the defendant doesn't bring it up, then there's no evidence. But if the defendant says to his lawyer, what do you make, I don't have a job, I only make ten thousand dollars ($10,000) a year, the judge should consider it. Now, that seems fair to do that. And the case law just talks about resources. And in our law, just so we're clear, case law could say whatever it wants to say. If you look in our law today it says, should consider financial resources. This Lady is saying make it even more specific and consider his annual gross income. It's not soft on crime, but the law today, so we should change it to the Lady's Bill. It's a good Bill and we should vote 'yes'."

Speaker Hannig: "The rules provide for one (1) additional speaker in support. Representative Gordon, are you in support? Okay. You have 5 minutes."

Gordon: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Ladies and Gentlemen, to the Bill. I... I believe that there's been some confusion as to what the Bill actually says. The only changes to the statute that the Lady is making is to say, any evidence offered of gross income. In the same way that a judge can now put someone under oath when they're handing in their affidavit for the public defender, they can do this when they're offering evidence about their gross income. Nothing is removed from the statute, the judge can still take into consideration all of the other things that are now available. You have to read the entire statute and not just take out the few words that the Lady is asking to be considered. What's been thrown out there, Ladies and Gentlemen, is a red herring. Please, this is a good Bill. It clarifies some things for some judges who don't always listen to defense attorneys and don't always listen to prosecutors. But it is asking something very, very easily done. So, we take into consideration someone's gross income when giving them bail, because one of the other things to be taken into consideration when setting bail, not only if someone is going to return to court, their ties to the community, but also the hardship of being kept in jail was going to cause for them and their family. This is a good Bill; it's a good Bill for law enforcement. The Lady has done a very good job in working with everyone who was initially opposed to it. And I urge you all to support this Bill. Thank you."

Speaker Hannig: "Representative Davis to close."

Davis, M.: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I thank my colleagues for their support. I think it's a good policy statement from all of us. And I would just urge an 'aye' vote."

Speaker Hannig: "Question is, 'Shall this Bill pass?' All in favor vote 'aye'; opposed 'nay'. The voting is open. Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Bellock: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'd like to be recorded as a 'yes' on House Bill 3633. Thank you."

Speaker Hannig: "The record will reflect your intentions, Representative. Representative Sacia, for what reason do you rise?"

Sacia: "And I'd like to be a 'no' on 3633."

Speaker Hannig: "The record will reflect your intentions as well, Representative. Representative Currie, you have Senate Bill 148. Mr. Clerk, read the Bill."

Clerk Bolin: "Senate Bill 148, a Bill for an Act concerning courts. Third Reading of this Senate Bill."

Speaker Hannig: "The Majority Leader, Representative Currie."

Currie: "Thank you, Speaker and Members of the House. This measure, as amended, does two (2) things. First, it applies appropriate penalties to people who are practicing law without authorization. And those penalties would be that there would be equitable relief, there would be a fee... a possibility of a fee that would not exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000) to go into the Illinois Equal Justice Foundation and actual damages. The second part of the Bill would create an historic Supreme Court Commission to talk about ways to restore and show some respect and reverence to that institution. The building, as you know, will be a hundred (100) years old in 2008. So, we're not a moment too soon in getting started. I would appreciate your support for passage of Senate Bill 148. I'd be happy to answer your questions."

Speaker Hannig: "This is on the Order of Short Debate. And in response, Representative Biggins."

Biggins: "Thank... thank you, Mr. Speaker. I wonder if I could ask a couple of questions. Sponsor yield?"

Speaker Hannig: "Lady will yield."

Biggins: "Yeah. So, what kind of practice of law would this..."

Currie: "People..."

Biggins: "...preclude?"

Currie: "...who are not lawyers."

Biggins: "And what is the actual law being... practicing... what's being done here?"

Currie: "What we're doing is statutory remedies for people who violate the current prohibition against practice of law if you're not authorized to practice law. And the three (3) items would be equitable relief, the possibility of a fine not more than five thousand ($5,000), proceeds to go to the Illinois Equal Justice Foundation, and third, actual damages. So, if somebody told you they were a lawyer, they handled your case and in fact you lost money, you lost your property, then you would be able to go to court and take that individual and get the damages that... that that person's harmful action caused you."

Biggins: "Thank you."

Speaker Hannig: "Any further discussion? Representative Currie to close."

Currie: "Thank you. I'd appreciate your 'aye' votes."

And let's give the Clerk your attention for a moment, he's going to read the committees that have been canceled."

Clerk Mahoney: "The following committees have... have been canceled. For tomorrow, on May 22, the 10 a.m. Prison Reform Committee Meeting that was supposed to be in 115 has been canceled. 7, I believe, is what they're looking at. Same place, Washington... over by the school. Everybody that's interested, please show up. Thank you."

Speaker Hannig: "And for the Democratic Members, could I have your attention? There's going to be a Democratic Caucus in Room 114 immediately after adjournment. So, a Democratic Caucus in 114 immediately after adjournment. Representative Molaro, for what reason do you..."

Molaro: "Yes."

Speaker Hannig: "...rise?"

Molaro: "Thank you. Just to mention again the softball game, which is Wednesday night. The Senate has really laid down the gauntlet this time. And for those of you who usually don't come to the softball game, now I was one of these guys who didn't go to COWL Capers my first years down here and I found it to be... it's really a heck of a lot of fun. And if you've never gone to the softball game, it's also a lot of fun. See a lot of players in shorts, see a lot of people kidding around that you normally don't see. There's a rumor going around that Speaker Madigan may be playing ball this year. I don't know, it's just a rumor. I say we put him in right field if he doesn't come out... if he comes out. But I heard he might be playing. So, it'd be... be good idea if we actually came to the game. It is a lot of fun. Thank you."

Speaker Hannig: "Is there any other business to come before the chamber? I just remind Members there's going to be a Democratic Caucus in Room 114. And now, allowing perfunctory time for the Clerk, Representative Currie moves that the House stands adjourned until tomorrow, Tuesday, May 22, at
