95th GENERAL ASSEMBLY
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
TRANSCRIPTION DEBATE

239th Legislative Day

Speaker Hannig: "The hour of 2:00 having arrived, the House will be in order. The Members will please be in their seats. Members and guests are asked to refrain from starting their laptops, turn off all cell phones and pagers, and rise for the invocation and for the Pledge of Allegiance. We shall be led in prayer today by Wayne Padget, the assistant doorkeeper."

Wayne Padget: "Let us pray. Dear Lord, we come before You today in sound body and mind praying that on this day, You grant us wisdom and guidance. We pray for the men and women of our Armed Services, both here and abroad. Provide them with Your protection and give them the strength to make it through these tough times. Let us also pray for the men, women, and their families, who have made the ultimate sacrifice to defend our country. Let us also pray that Dan Hynes has enough money in the account to pay these Representatives their per diem. These things we ask in Your Son's name. Amen."

Speaker Hannig: "Representative McCarthy, would you lead us in the Pledge."

McCarthy - et al: "I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Speaker Hannig: "Roll Call for Attendance. Representative Currie."

Currie: "Thank you, Speaker. Please let the record show that Representatives Ford, Golar, Jefferies, Scully, Washington, and Rich Bradley are excused today."

Speaker Hannig: "The record will so reflect. And Representative Bost."

Bost: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Let the record reflect that Representative Kosel, Schock, and Watson are excused today."

Speaker Hannig: "Thank you and the record will so reflect. Mr. Clerk, take the record. There are 108 Members answering the Roll Call, a quorum is present. Representative Dunkin, for what reason do you rise?"

Dunkin: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. A point of information."

Speaker Hannig: "State your point."

Dunkin: "Today... I know we got in a little late, but the museums from across the State of Illinois were here today and they highlighted some of our best historical and future museums that draw people from all over the country and all over the world that made us proud. And I think all of us, as State Legislators, should be very, very proud of what our museum association here does and stand for and how it gives us a unique and special perspective on a number of fronts here in our great state. I think it's a fascinating opportunity for us to have such depth of wonderful museums here in our state and we should celebrate all of our museums here in the great State of Illinois. Thank you."

Speaker Hannig: "Representative May, for what reason do you rise?"

May: "Yes, I would like to make an announcement, please. In recognition of National Women's History Month, on behalf of the Conference of Women Legislators, we would like to recognize the women who've been trailblazers in Illinois

Government. Starting in 1922, just two (2) years after women were given the right to vote, Lottie Holman O'Neill was the first woman elected to the Illinois State Legislature and she continued to serve for forty (40) years. Two (2) years later in 1924, Florence Fifer Bohrer, the daughter of our Governor, was the first woman elected to the Illinois Senate. And in 1967, Genoa S. Washington of Cook County, became the first African-American woman to be elected to the Illinois House followed by Earlene Collins, the first African-American woman to be elected to the Illinois Senate in 1977. The first woman in a leadership position in the Illinois Legislature was Celeste Stiehl, who became Assistant Majority Leader in the House in 1975. And moving right along, Adeline Geo-Karis of Lake County in 1985 became the first woman to serve as Assistant Majority Leader in the Senate. Then Dawn Clark Netsch was elected as Comptroller in 1990 and she became the first woman to be elected to a Constitutional Office, and four (4) years later she ran for Governor, becoming the first woman in Illinois to be nominated for that job by a Majority Party. And Judy Baar Topinka in 1944 was the first when she was elected State Treasurer. In... Okay. And we get to something very important to all of us because our Illinois House Majority Leader, Barbara Flynn Currie, was the first woman to become Illinois House Majority Leader. In 1977... 1997... 1997, a position she continues to hold and make us all proud with her leadership. In 1997, Sonia Silvia (sic-Silva) became the first Hispanic woman to be elected to the Illinois House and Corrine Wood was the first... the state's first woman Lieutenant Governor beginning in 1999. In 2003... Corrine Wood from Lake County, yes... the first Hispanic woman, Iris Martinez, was the first Hispanic woman to be elected to the Illinois Senate. And in 2003, Lisa Madigan was the first woman to be elected Attorney General and reelected in 2006 by unprecedented numbers. Also currently Debbie DeFrancesco Halvorson became the first woman to hold the position of Senate Majority Leader in 2005. So, all of these women are first in government. We salute them all from the Conference of Women Legislators. Thank you."

Speaker Hannig: "Representative Bost, for what reason do you rise?"

Bost: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker, on a point of personal privilege."

Speaker Hannig: "State your point."

Bost: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I guess it's actually... probably a congratulatory note. When the new sales tax, which was approved the other day by Cook County board, takes effect on July 1, residents of the City of Chicago will hold a distinction on having the highest tax burden of any taxpayers in the entire nation. Let me repeat that. The number one tax burden in the entire country. You and your allies in the Cook County... in Cook County have remarkably and successfully... been successful at three (3) things: taxing people out of their homes, taxing business either out of the state or out of business entirely, and now taxing consumers right out of Chicago and Cook County. You see, I'm not alone in this observation. I got a few quotes here for you. Christine Jones from Park Forest wrote in a letter to the Chicago Tribune, 'I for one will be shopping in Will County in Indiana. Taxpayers are being stretched to the limit and I've reached mine. Property tax assessments are up, sales taxes went up. Everything from food and gas has gone up and the Cook County board doesn't have a clue about the problems of Cook County taxpayers.' Tony Lezzaro of Harwood... Harwood Heights wrote to the Chicago Tribune, 'It seems whenever the political leaders can not come up with a solution to fix any of the budgetary problems, they fall back on the plan, as always, to raise... as always, to raise taxes or tack on fees. Starting immediately, I will stop shopping in the City of Chicago and try to avoid shopping in Cook County. I will encourage others to try to do the same.' And Patrick Duncan of Chicago wrote to the Tribune, 'Our Democrat Mayor, Governor, and the County Board President have worked together to raise taxes at every level. Chicago has the highest of any major metropolitan area... taxes in the... in any major metropolitan area in the country. On a small scale, we will buy our gas and bottled water elsewhere on a regular basis. On a larger scale, businesses will locate in other states. People who take jobs with those companies will buy houses somewhere else.' So, with that, congratulations, tax and spend Democrats of Illinois, you're number one."

Speaker Hannig: "Representative Meyer."

Meyer: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise on a point of personal privilege."

STATE OF ILLINOIS

Speaker Hannig: "State your point."

Meyer: "Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, the first ten (10) years I served in the House of Representatives I represented Lamont, which is part of Cook County and earlier this week there were constituents that came down on a number of different issues and I went to one of the receptions and ran into an old friend of mine, an old supporter of mine from Lamont, and I asked him how everything was going in Lamont. And he indicated to me, 'You know, Jim, at some point you've got to stop... you've got to prevent us from having to pay the high taxes in Cook County that we're paying.' And he's a gentleman that's retired. He said, 'I want to stay in my home, I want to continue to live in Lamont, but quite frankly we're thinking about going to move where my... my daughter is living in another state, because we just can't afford it here.' And that's not only felt by people in Lamont, but it's felt by people in other parts of the state and other parts of Cook County. A case in point, David Harris of Arlington Heights, in a letter to the Chicago Tribune writes, and I quote, 'Old habits die hard and it's easier to raise taxes than to make the right choices to deflate a bloated bureaucracy.' I think he has a point. And all we do here basically is talk about what revenue source we want to increase, not on how we can save through economies of taking a look at programs that aren't working anymore and doing away with those if we feel that something else is better. Another letter is from John Corsei of Chicago to the Tribune and he writes, and I quote, 'I was born and raised in Chicago in Cook County. I own a home in Chicago in Cook County. I thought that I would retire and live out my days in Chicago in Cook County. I cannot and will not do that now. I was always proud of living in Chicago, but I am now embarrassed and outraged by the incompetence and the blatant greed of those who supposedly govern. This is a city and a county that is in rapid state of decline and decay. What a shame.' And that's the end of the quote. Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, this is what our constituents are thinking about us. And having represented in Cook County for ten (10) years... my first ten (10) years here, I feel their frustration that they have with government. They feel it's not serving them properly. They're asking for a change and they want a change that will reduce the cost of their living in this area. They like it here, but they want to reduce the cost of living here. And they can't do that as long as this Body allows other bodies to increase their taxes. Thank you."

Speaker Hannig: "Representative Bassi."

Bassi: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Point of personal privilege."

Speaker Hannig: "State your point."

Bassi: "Mr. Speaker, as you know, Cook County will soon charge the highest sales tax in the nation. Cook communities that are close to the border with other counties like Palatine, which I represent, will be devastated; I mean, devastated by these new taxes. Why would families in Palatine, struggling to make ends meet, pay more to shop here when they can drive just a few extra minutes to Lake County and pay much less? According to a recent article in The Daily

STATE OF ILLINOIS
TRANSCRIPTION DEBATE

239th Legislative Day

3/13/2008

Herald, 'After the increase goes into effect, Palatine's going to have a 3 percent higher tax rate than nearby Deer Park in Lake County.' That's about a five-, ten-minute drive. So, a hundred dollar ($100) item purchased in Palatine is going to be three dollars ($3) more expensive than if it was bought at the Deer Park shopping center. This is going to be the end, the end for some suburban Cook County businesses. The end. It'll cost jobs. It's going to cost municipalities, and park districts, and schools the tax dollars that they need to operate and provide services. In fact, Palatine is talking about the possibility of seceding from Cook County altogether because they are fed up. They've had enough and I support them. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Speaker Hannig: "Representative Winters."

Winters: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise on a point of personal privilege."

Speaker Hannig: "State your point."

Winters: "In Illinois, we are looking at a budget that is so seriously out of whack, that we're hearing tax increase proposals. Time after time, we've seen tax increases already this year, sales tax in Cook County, sales tax in a collar county, increases by the Cook County board. And now when we're trying to balance our state budget, what do we hear? More tax increase proposals. At the federal level, both Republicans and Democrats realize that in a time when the country is losing jobs it is not a time to raise taxes. As Illinois raises taxes, we're going to be driving jobs out of our state. Families will not be able to earn a living, they won't have the new jobs, the new companies that we need to create additional jobs. In May, most families are expecting to receive back three to six hundred dollars ($300-$600) in rebate checks from the Federal Government. But what's going to happen when they go out to spend it? They're going to find that suddenly Illinois has higher sales taxes. In my district, because of these high taxes, I'm afraid they're going to spend those rebate checks in Wisconsin. We're going to see sales increases in Illinois, we're going to see them in Missouri, we'll see it in Kentucky, Iowa, Indiana, anyplace but Illinois. We are proposing, the House Republicans are proposing a sales tax holiday, four (4) days over Memorial Day weekend when you'll be receiving your rebate check from the Federal Government, you can spend it on items of six hundred dollars ($600) or less in Illinois and not pay sales tax. What a novel idea, lowering taxes. It's time that we did this. It will bring about forty million dollars ($40,000,000) in tax relief on the estimated sales over that weekend alone. Fifteen (15) other states have done sales tax holidays. In fact, some of them are doing it a second time, even a third time, because their constituents like the fact that their states can live with a little bit lower tax burden. Illinois should learn from their successes. And I hope that the Democrats in this chamber will join with the Republicans and vote for a sales tax holiday Memorial Day weekend, four (4) days only. Be there or be square. Spend your money in Illinois. Now I'll mention the fact that we have a few fingers over on this aisle. They're not... they're not exactly an insult, but they do say that Democrats rate number one on raising taxes. Now they're red. Why did we choose red as the color? Because you're bleeding our taxpayers. You're bleeding our consumers. The state is also in the red, both this year's budget, next year's budget, and let alone any chance of getting a capital program this year if we continue to bleed our taxpayers dry, they won't have the money to support the state economy. The bleeding of the taxpayers, we have to stop it. Help us to lower state taxes if only for four (4) days. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Speaker Hannig: "Representative Lang."

Lang: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Ladies and Gentlemen, none of us on this floor on either side of the aisle are all that happy when taxes are raised, but let me remind you that Cook County is a separate government from the State of Illinois. I think these speeches are interesting, but these speeches should have been made before the Cook County Board of Commissioners, not on the floor of the House. I also noted with great interest that most of the speakers don't even live in Cook County, but we who do appreciate your great concern for the welfare of Cook County residents. I would also add that at some point in this Session we may see legislation to advance economic development all over the state, including Cook County. One that might help the taxpayers lower their tax burden and I'm going to expect that each one of you, who had such interesting and heartfelt public policy comments about the actions of Cook County government, will be supporting each

Speaker Hannig: "Representative Moffitt."

Moffitt: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House. Floor Amendment #1 clarifies to say that this allowing consortiums of the wind turbines is only between units of local government, and that includes schools. It would not be between a utility and a unit of local government, so that the utility could get tax breaks. It would also would allow that they could ask for assistance from the Illinois Power Agency. That's what the Amendment does."

Speaker Hannig: "Is there any discussion? Then all in favor of the Amendment say 'aye'; opposed 'nay'. The 'ayes' have it. The Amendment is adopted. Any further Amendments?"

Meyer: "Well, my understanding is that the balanced budget note is to be used for supplemental appropriations. Mine is not a supplemental appropriations. It's a fiscal year '09 appropriation, which is different than a supplemental."

Speaker Hannig: "Well, there's... I guess if your... if your Motion... are you trying to make a Motion that it does not apply, Representative?"

Meyer: "5013, yes."

Speaker Hannig: "Okay. So, on page 13 of the Calendar, there's a Motion for a balanced budget note request by Representative Granberg. Representative Meyer has moved that that note is inapplicable. This is a Roll Call vote. All those in favor vote 'aye'; opposed 'nay'. The voting is open. Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Speaker Hannig: "The Gentleman will yield for a question. Representative Davis."

Davis, W.: "Yes. If I understood Representative Meyer correctly, that his appropriation is for fiscal year '09, not fiscal year... not a supplemental in the current fiscal year. And my appropriation is for fiscal year '09 as well."

Eddy: "Okay. Thank you very much for the clarification."

Davis, W.: "Thank you."

Eddy: "We agree with that. Thank you."

Howard: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. My colleagues, belatedly I ask that this Body adopt House Resolution 970, which designates March 12, 2008, as Alpha Kappa Alpha Day in Illinois. Yesterday over two hundred (200) members of AKA made their annual trek to Springfield to interact with lawmakers and to increase their knowledge of the legislative process. It was the tenth such time that this activity has occurred. The visit to Springfield this year of nearly two hundred (200) women in pink and green representing both undergraduate and graduate chapters, was of particular significance because the sorority is celebrating its 100th year of existence. It was in 1908 that AKA was founded by African-American college women on the campus of Howard University in Washington, D.C. In August of this year tens of thousands of the International Sisterhoods two hundred thousand (200,000) members will Pritchard: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise to remind the Body that the Education Caucus had invited all Members of the General Assembly to Room 349 in the Stratton Building following Session to hear the preliminary report from the board... from the Illinois Higher Education Board, looking at a public policy agenda regarding higher education. You can at least pick up a packet and if you care to talk to the consultant, Dennis Jones, who is here, you may do that. We realize the lateness of the hour. You may want to head home, but they do have preliminary reports with some significant findings about the results of higher education in Illinois that I would encourage you to get a packet and study at your leisure.
