

STATE OF ILLINOIS
96th GENERAL ASSEMBLY
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
TRANSCRIPTION DEBATE

44th Legislative Day

4/23/2009

Speaker Lyons: "Good afternoon, Illinois. Your House of Representatives will come to order. Members are asked to please be at their desks. We'll be led today in prayer by Reverend Luis Rivera who is the pastor of the Church of Apostolic Road in Capron, Illinois. Reverend Rivera is the guest of Representative Jack Franks. Members and guests are asked to please refrain from starting their laptops and to turn off all cell phones, and pagers and our guests are asked... also asked to rise for the invocation and for the Pledge of Allegiance. Reverend Rivera."

Reverend Rivera: "Thank you. Let us pray. Eternal God, we come before You, Lord, in this special day. A day, Lord, that You have made. We ask You, God, to shower us with Your blessings. Shower us with Your wisdom. We ask in the mighty name of Jesus Christ, bless each and every one of us, Amen."

Speaker Lyons: "Representative Mike Zalewski, will you lead us in the Pledge."

Zalewski-et al: "I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Speaker Lyons: "We'll consider a Motion to send a cab for Reverend Rivera to do that at least twice a week. Roll Call for Attendance. Leader Barbara Flynn Currie, Democrats."

Currie: "Thank you, Speaker. Please let the record reflect the excused absences of Representatives Collins, Dugan, Careen Gordon, Harris, and Osterman."

Flider: "Yes, Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, Representative Mitchell and I have some very special guests here today and they are behind me in the gallery. Today is Student Advocacy Day and we have students from Richland Community College in Decatur are here with us today. Please give them a warm Springfield welcome."

Speaker Lyons: "Welcome to Springfield. Enjoy your day. Representative Black, for what purpose do you seek recognition, Sir?"

Black: "Mr. Speaker, if I can have the attention of the Body. It has come to my attention that your side of the aisle has once again made an oversight... a terrible oversight, that I intend to correct, with your permission."

Speaker Lyons: "I don't know if you have our permission, but please proceed, Repre..."

Black: "I don't know who voted 'no', but we didn't call for a vote. They're out of order. Throw them out. All right? Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, it has come to my attention that once again those of you on the Democrat side of the aisle refuse to acknowledge the anniversary of Speaker Michael Madigan's birthday. I... yes, I, on the other hand, sent him a birthday card. And I think you should join me in wishing Speaker Madigan a very happy birthday that he celebrated on April the 19th and I would hope that you not overlook that momentous day next year. And thank you, Mr. Speaker. When you need something done of kindness and compassion and recognizing the talent and milestones of our Members, both Republican and Democrat, you can always call on the Republicans to do that. It was my pleasure to do so. Thank you."

Speaker Lyons: "Thank you, Mr. Black. And I'll remember that kindness and from the bottom your heart stuff in the middle of a different argument on your part. But always hear... always good to hear from you, Mr. Black. David Reis, for what purpose do you seek recognition?"

Reis: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. A point of personal privilege."

Speaker Lyons: "Please proceed."

Reis: "At the appropriate time, when we'll be recognizing the first week of May as the Children's Interstitial Lung Disease Week and we have some representatives today from the Respiratory Health Association and the Children's Interstitial Lung Disease Child Foundation. And this is a growing problem. It's very hard to diagnose in very young children: one, two, three years old. And it can affect and scar their lung tissue for the rest of their lives. And it's... it was an honor for Senator Jones and I to go to their home and see their young grandchild. But we just want to bring awareness to this growing disease and bring awareness and attention to the fact that much more research needs to be done with that. So, will you please join me in recognizing these two groups today."

Speaker Lyons: "Welcome to Springfield. Enjoy your day. Representative Cavaletto, for what purpose do you seek recognition, Sir?"
