Reverend Lindstrom: "Let us pray. Our heavenly Father, it is an awesome privilege to call on You for mercy and help for the people and leaders of the State of Illinois. Your word calls those who exercise political power servants and ministers of God. They do not simply serve the 13 million people of the great State of Illinois but most importantly, they are to serve you the Living God. And so, I ask that you would grant them conviction in doing that which is right, not what is defined by popular opinion or polls, but that which is defined on Your precious Word. And so, give them sensitive hearts to be led even by Your Holy Spirit. We do pray for our state which is burdened by violence, by incredible debt. We know that the ultimate answers cannot
