Speaker Riley: "The hour of 12:00 having come and gone, the Illinois House of Representatives will come to order. Members and guests are asked to be in their seats, refrain from stop... starting all laptop computers, silence all cell phones, and rise for the invocation and Pledge of Allegiance. We shall be led in prayer today by Lee Crawford, the Pastor of the Cate... Cathedral of Praise Christian Center in Springfield. Pastor Crawford."

Pastor Crawford: "Let us pray. Holy God, who art sovereign in all of Your ways, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, the God of Jacob, God omnipotent, God omniscient, God omnipresent, we ask and pray Your blessings upon this great and august Assembly, upon the Speaker of this House and all of its Members. Gracious God, may You impress upon their hearts to do that which honors You the most, to do that which brings You the glory, to do that which brings You honor. God, as they deliberate this day, may You grant them wisdom. God, may You grant them strength. God, may You give them insight into

Your perfect plan. God, will You forever lead them and direct them with Your most precious spirit, that they would dream new dreams, see new possibilities, and look forward with great hope and find arrest in Your blessed promises, in Your calmed assurances? This we pray and ask in Your Son's name. Amen."

Speaker Riley: "We'll be led in the Pledge by Representative DeLuca."

DeLuca - et al: "I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Speaker Riley: "Roll Call for Attendance. Leader Currie."

Currie: "Thank you, Speaker. Please let the record reflect that Representatives Arroyo, Dunkin, Rita and Zalewski are excused today."

Speaker Riley: "Leader Bost."

Bost: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Let the record reflect Representative Cross and Senger are excused on the Republican side of the aisle today."

Speaker Riley: "Mr. Clerk, take the record. With 111 present, we have a quorum, ready to do the business of the State of Illinois. Representative Tryon, for what reason do you rise?"

Tryon: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise for a point of personal pliv... privilege."

Speaker Riley: "State your point."

Tryon: "Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, the Illinois Diabetes Caucus and the Illinois Diabetes Caucus Foundation is having their first annual bowling tournament tonight at the Spi... Strike 'n Spare Bowling Alley out off Lawrence and Veterans.

And it starts at 6, it goes to 8. We have several teams that have been entered here. We've had some challenges between Members of the House. We have a couple of Senate teams that have entered. I hope we beat them for sure. But this is Team Diabowlical. We put the bowling, diabetes, diabolical all together. And I... I'm going to bet on Team Diabowlical is going to be the winning team tonight. But we certainly hope that you all come. I also would like to tell you that tomorrow is the Diabetes Awareness Day Luncheon at the Comptroller's, Judy Barr Topinka's Office, and we'll have stakeholders from districts around the state there to meet with State Reps and to meet with the Diabetes Caucus. So, bowling tonight, lunch tomorrow, it's a grand slam for diabetes in Illinois. Show up and if you can't bowl, have fun. Thank you."

Speaker Riley: "Leader Osmond, for what reason do you rise?"

Osmond: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Point of personal privilege."

Speaker Riley: "Please state your point."

Osmond: "Today, I'd like ask the General Assembly to welcome the Queen Bees of the Zion Red Hat Society."

Speaker Riley: "Thank you for coming to your Capitol. Enjoy your day. Representative Harms, for what reason do you rise?"

Harms: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Point of personal privilege."

Speaker Riley: "State your point."

Harms: "I would like to welcome to the Capitol my honorary Page for today, Mikaela Cotter. And she's accompanied by her dad, Shannon Cotter, up in the gallery. If we could give them a Springfield welcome."

Speaker Riley: "Thank you so much for your service. Representative Will Davis, for what reason do you rise?"

Davis, W.: "A point of personal privilege, Mr. Speaker."

Riley: "State your point, Representative Davis."

Davis, W.: "Ladies and Gentlemen of the House and the gallery, You heard Representative Tryon throw down the gauntlet tonight for the bowling event on behalf of the Diabetes Caucus. He's obviously Team Dia-something, I'm not sure what that's all about. Think there are a couple other teams, but the team that you really need to be concerned about is my team, and we are Team Big Strike. And we are going to win tonight's tournament, Ladies and Gentlemen. Come out and support a fantastic effort. I really want to thank Representative Mike Tryon for all of his efforts on behalf of the Diabetes Caucus and everything that he's doing to bring awareness to something that impacts quite a... quite... quite a number of people throughout the State of Illinois. So, we definitely want to commend him on his efforts. But please come out and join us tonight for a evening of fantastic fun."

Speaker Riley: "Thank you. Representative Gabel, for what reason do you rise?"

Gabel: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Point of personal privilege."

Speaker Riley: "State your point."

Gabel: "Thank you. I would just like to remind everyone that today at 4:00 the Council of State Government is having a Great Lakes policy workshop. You all should have flyers at your seat. I want to encourage you to attend. The Great Lakes are 20 percent of the world's fresh water. So, let's learn how our Great Lakes are doing and what we need to do to restore and sustain them. Thank you."

Speaker Riley: "Representative Costello, for what reason do you rise?"

Costello: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Point of personal privilege."

Riley: "State your point."

Costello: "I am greatly honored to have back with me Halle Schlemmer, who's Paging with me for the day. She was here a little bit earlier in Session and I think we were only in for about 30 or 45 minutes. So, she asked to come back and she's with us for the full day here. Can we give her a big Springfield welcome?"

Speaker Riley: "Thank you for your service. Leader Osmond, for what reason do you rise?"

Osmond: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. My second point of personal privilege, please?"

Speaker Riley: "State your second point."

Osmond: "The Hammond, Osmond and Tracy team has shown that they've won in the past, and we're going to challenge everyone. We even have a sponsor that is going to give a dollar per pin on every pin that is hit by my... our team. So, I urge everyone to come out. Thank You."

Speaker Riley: "Thank you. Representative Soto, for what reason do you rise?"

Soto: "Thank you, Speaker. Point of personal privilege."

Speaker Riley: "State your point."

Soto: "I just want to welcome all my colleagues back from their break. And tonight's Illinois Diabetes Caucus Foundations, again I want to mention at the first annual bowling tournament, if you're not going to participate in bowling, please find it in your heart to give a donation to the Brady: "Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, I've been asked to share the following announcements with you. The Police Officers Memorial Service, which will be this Thursday, May the 1, will be at 11:00. But this year, due to construction around the present Police Memorial Statue, the event will be held on the east side of the steps here at the Capitol at 11:00 on Thursday, May the 1st. And if it rains or other bad weather, it will be held inside at the State Library. Again, that's the Police Memorial Service, this Thursday, May 1, at 11:00, will be on the east side of the Capitol steps. If it rains, it will be held in the State Library. And I know that many of us do everything we can to attend that solemn event and pay respects to the fallen officers that have given and paid the full price for the service and freedom and safety that they provide to us. Thank you."

Speaker Riley: "Thank you. Leader Bost, for what reason do you rise?"

Bost: "Thank... thank you, Mr. Speaker. I don't know what the intention of the Chair is on how long we're going to go, but if we adjourn shortly, the cau... the Republicans would like to caucus at 1:30 today if we could."
