HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
TRANSCRIPTION DEBATE

112th Legislative Day

4/6/2016

Speaker Lang: "The House will be in order. Members will be in their chairs. We shall be led in prayer today by Pastor Edward Weston, who is with Union United Methodist Church in Belleville. Pastor Weston is the guest of Representative Hoffman. Members and guests are asked to refrain from starting laptops, turn off cell phones, and rise for the invocation and the Pledge of Allegiance. Pastor Weston."

Pastor Weston: "Let us pray. Loving and gracious God, Creator of all and sustainer of all, we bow before You today acknowledging that this is Your world, and the beauty of the world is Your doing. Thank You for allowing us to be raised in this great country full of freedoms, but always remind us that with freedom comes responsibility to act according to Your will and direction. Today we lift in our prayers these men and women who have been sent here by the people. You've called as your servants to do the very best for the citizens of Illinois. They're faced with difficult decisions each day. So we pray for wisdom, that they may see all sides of an issue, and then to have the courage to do what is pleasing in Your sight. May they be guided each day with Your presence, Your spirit, and Your wisdom. Lord, we ask that You open our eyes that we may see the suffering around us. Open our ears that we may hear the cries of the powerless, open our hands that we may serve those who are hurting, open our hearts that we may work together and accomplish our goals. As we enjoy the freedoms of speech, of travel, of assembly, of worship, of education, may we also remember those who have provided that freedom, our Armed Forces. Today we especially remember those men and women that are serving in harm's way across the globe, protecting us and our families from war and injury. Never let us take for granted their sacrifice, their courage, their commitment to our country. Lord, watch over each and every one of them and bring them home safely. Give courage to their families at home. And we pray that war will be no more, and peace will reign throughout the world. Remind us all today that You have called us to serve, that we are to be servants to all. God, give us this day with all the challenges and all the dreams for a better Illinois. May we see this day, and every day, as a gift from Your gracious hand. A gift we can use to build Your kingdom and to do what is right. This we pray in the name of Jesus, Amen and Amen."

Speaker Lang: "We'll be led in the Pledge today by Representative Bill Mitchell."

Mitchell, B. - et al: "I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Speaker Lang: "Roll Call for Attendance. Leader Currie."

Currie: "Thank you, Speaker. Please let the record show that there are no excused absences among House Democrats today."

Speaker Lang: "Mr. Brown."

Brown: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Please let the record reflect that all Republicans are present this afternoon. Also a point of personal privilege, if you will, please."

Speaker Lang: "We'll get back to you on that, Sir. All 118 Members being present, we do have a quorum. And Mr. Mitchell, you're welcome. Mr. Brown is recognized."

Speaker Lang: "The Chair recognizes Representative Wallace. For what reason do you rise?"

Wallace: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise for a point of personal privilege."

Speaker Lang: "You may proceed."

Wallace: "Thank you. I'm rising to recognize the Executive Director of the Rock River Valley YMCA, Mr. Michael Brown, his son Mr. Kevin Brown, and a wonderful staff member, Mr. Paul Nolley. Please welcome them to the Capitol, and thank them for all they do at the YMCA."

Speaker Lang: "Welcome. We're happy you're joining us today. Representative Bellock, for what reason do you rise?"

Bellock: "Thank you... thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. I have two things today. I'd like a point of personal privilege. One to..."

Speaker Lang: "Proceed."

Bellock: "Thank you. One to welcome my Page for a day, who's Calvin Czapko, who's come here all the way from Gower School in Willowbrook, with his grandparents who are up in the balcony. I'd like everybody to welcome him. And then I have one more thing. Thank you."

Bellock: "Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. I also would like to thank all of the men and women today, on behalf of Deb Conroy and myself, who brought together t-shirts and signs about fighting sexual assault. And a lot of us, if you saw, we were all in front to draw awareness. This is through Elmhurst's Edward Hospital. And they're sell... they're putting on an event up there and hope that by all of us down here, we would raise the awareness about sexual assault throughout the State of Illinois. So Deb Conroy and I would like to thank everybody for participating in that. Thank you."

Speaker Lang: "Thank you, Representative. Mr. Sullivan, for what reason do you rise, Sir?"

Sullivan: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. For the purpose that I have an announcement."

Speaker Lang: "Proceed."

Sullivan: "Normally in March we have our Sullivan caucus celebration. And we had a bit of a layoff in March, the whole month of March, so we decided that we would push the Sullivan caucus party and turn it into a Sullivan birthday party, evidently. But... so tonight from 5-9 you're all invited for the Sullivan caucus party to Floyd's Thirst Parlor. We will have refreshments. We will have corned beef sandwiches, bagpipes and the not... and the what-not for a good, Irish celebration. You're all invited. We do not charge to go to this event, but we do pass the hat for a certain charity. This year we'll be raising money for a family that has a child with a brain tumor. And so please open your... your wallets, if you can, when we pass the hat. Thanks."

Speaker Lang: "You can get it, Sir, you can have it."

Reis: "Okay. I think everyone in here, nearly everyone, is a Friend of Agriculture Award winner over the years. And this year the Illinois Farm Bureau is celebrating their 100th birthday. And you think of all the changes that have happened in agriculture over the last one hundred years; it's... it's truly astounding. And when a group of farmers met at the University of Illinois back in 1916 to start discussing important issues facing Illinois farming communities... just as much as things have changed, things haven't changed... they wanted to discuss the importance of quality education, resourceful avenues for information collecting and distribution, and more effective and innovative farming practices, just as important today as they were back in 1916. Two out of every three farmers are Farm Bureau members. They've advocated for public policy for agriculture, insurance for farmers, both life insurance, health insurance, and property and casualty insurance. They formed a purchasing co-op to allow farmers to buy their inputs at better, cheaper prices, financial planning for farmers. Everyone here is well aware of the Ag in the Classroom program that reaches over 500 thousand... 500 thousand yeah, students each year on the importance of agriculture and the fact that their food comes from a farmer, not from Meijer grocery, or Dominick's, or whatever. And they also have a very, very successful ag... Adopt a Legislator program that we're all members of; either we host our Legislators down in our district and we come up and see yours and vice versa. It's a great, great program so that everybody can understand modern day agriculture. So with us today, joining us in the balcony is David Erickson, the Vice President of the Illinois Farm Bureau; David White, who is the Wayne County President; and Matt Rush, who was this past years statewide Farm Bureau Young Farmers Chairman. So help me welcome them, and help me celebrate Illinois Farm Bureau's 100th birthday."

Speaker Lang: "Welcome and congratulations. Mr. Meier, do you rise to this Resolution?"

Meier: "Yes, I do."

Speaker Lang: "Please proceed, Sir."

Meier: "I'm very happy to be a third generation, on both sides of my family, Illinois Farm Bureau member. And this organization does much to promote farm industry and to help the public realize what we do. And I even still proudly display my grandpa's 1934 Farm Bureau sign on my house. It's just an honor to be a part of this organization and to help feed America and the world. Thank you."

Speaker Lang: "Mr. Pritchard."

Pritchard: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. To the Resolution. Ladies and Gentlemen, it was more than 100 years ago that a group of farmers came together in DeKalb County to start an agricultural soil improvement association, which led into the Farm Bureau movement. What is significant about this and what I think is helpful for us here in Illinois to remember is that when individuals come together and work with various groups, not just farmers, but bankers, and newspapermen, and all sorts of retailers, we can find solutions to the problems that we have. And I think maybe that's the hope for us here as we try to get a budget that maybe we need to reach out and use our entrepreneurial skills and our self-reliance and come up with a business plan. Thank you, and congratulations to the Farm Bureau."

Speaker Lang: "Representative Hammond."

Hammond: "Thank you. Mr. Speaker, I, too, would like to join my colleagues in saluting Farm Bureau in celebration of their 100th year anniversary, particularly, my home county of McDonough County. Also, the other counties that I am proud to represent: Mason, Cass-Morgan Farm Bureau, Brown County Farm Bureau, Schuyler County Farm Bureau, Fulton County Farm Bureau, Knox County Farm Bureau, and Warren-Henderson Farm Bureau. I also would like to acknowledge them for the role that they play here in our General Assembly with their Adopt a Legislator program to bring agriculture into the... the lives and the knowledge of all of us here in this Body, also their FFA program, the 4-H program and the Illinois Farm Families. I'm sure they would all like for you to join them this evening at their reception at the Prairie Capital Convention Center from 6-7:30. Thank you very much, and thanks for your hospitality."

Speaker Lang: "Thank you, Representative. Ladies and Gentlemen, the Chair is not going to proceed 'til there's some order in the chamber. I can't even hear the speakers. That's good. Representative Cloonen is recognized."

Speaker Lang: "Then... then put your light back on; we'll get back to you."

Winger: "Okay."

Speaker Lang: "Mr. Davis, are you rising to this Resolution? Please proceed."

Davis, W.: "Thank you. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I, too, want to congratulate the Illinois Farm Bureau. Many of us from the northern part of the state have been lucky enough to be adopted by Farm Bureaus in other counties throughout the state. I happen to be the adopted Legislator for the Coles carny... Coles County Farm Bureau. I've had the pleasure of visiting and meeting with farmers, visiting their farms, both agricultural and animal, and it's been a tremendous experience for me. So, again, I want to join everyone in congratulating the Illinois Farm Bureau on their 100th anniversary."

Speaker Lang: "Thank you, Sir. Those in favor of the Resolution will say 'yes'; opposed 'no'. The 'ayes' have it. And the Resolution is adopted. Now the Chair recognizes Representative Winger."
